TEXAS A&M QUICK HITS

- Wendell Mitchell had another strong second half after getting out to a slow start against Tennessee, as he put up all 18 of his points in the second period to lead the Aggies.
- Josh Nebo made his first start as an Aggie against Tennessee and put up 10 points in the battle, reaching double figures in the category for the seventh time this season.
- Nebo's 50 blocks on the year are more than double any other Aggie's total and good for second in the SEC (2.5), tenth in the nation.
- The Aggies knocked down a season-best 12 threes against Tennessee, as Brandon Mahan went 4-4 from range and Mitchell also added four.
- TJ Starks followed up his 21-point performance against LSU matching a season high with eight assists against Tennessee, he also added 10 points to reach double figures for the 16th time this season.
- Savion Flagg has led the Aggies in rebounding in 9 of the last 11 games after grabbing six against Tennessee.
- Five Aggies scored in double figures against Tennessee, marking just the third time this season that has happened.

KENNEDY NOTABLES

- His teams have averaged over 20 wins over his last 13 seasons as a head coach, earning five league titles and making eight trips to the post-season (5 NCAA, 2 NIT, 1 CBI)
- Led team to 54 wins, two league titles and two trips to postseason in his final seasons at Murray State
- His 13th-seeded Racers knocked off No. 4-seed Vanderbilt in the 2010 NCAA Tournament, and came within two points of taking down eventual national finalist Butler
- Named NABC District 19 Coach of the Year and a finalist for the Skip Prosser and Hugh Durham awards following the 2009-10 season
- Was an assistant on the 1990-91 Texas A&M team under Kermit Davis, Jr.
- FCA's John Lotz "Barnabas" Award winner at the 2011 NCAA Final Four

SEC ACTION
- The Aggies are in their seventh season as a member of the SEC. A&M is 3-4 all-time in SEC openers and 67-59 in league play.
- Five of the nine Aggies that saw the court in the team's league opener against Arkansas made their SEC debuts.
- On Jan. 12, 2019, A&M earned its first win in Tuscaloosa as a member of the SEC. Florida and Arkansas remain as the only places the Aggies have yet to earn road wins as a member of the SEC.
- Sophomore TJ Starks returns the most experience in SEC play, after he started the last ten games of conference play last season and was eventually named to the All-Freshman team. He was also named to the SEC Preseason Second Team by the league's coaches.

HOT WEEK FOR MITCHELL
- Junior JUCO transfer Wendell Mitchell averaged 23.5 points and 4.0 steals, shooting 73.3-percent from beyond the arc through two games, after entering the week of Jan. 20 averaging 10.1 points, shooting 32-percent from three.
- Mitchell went off for 25 points at Florida, draining seven threes on nine attempts in the game. He scored 17 of his total in the first half.
- He followed up the impressive performance with a 22-point game against Kansas State, all coming in the second half, to finish one point shy of outscoring the Wildcats on his own (23) in the period.

MITCHELL RAINS FROM THREE
- Junior JUCO transfer Wendell Mitchell's seven threes at Florida matched the second-most by an Aggie in a single game in program history. He went 5-for-5 from beyond the arc in the first half, which matched his previous season high from range.
- Mitchell finished with a season-best 25 points, landing 17 of those points in the first half.
- Prior to the Florida game, Mitchell dominated from beyond the arc when he led the Aggies against Texas Southern, finishing with 21 points, 18 coming in the second half.
- Mitchell knocked down five threes in the game on eight attempts, shooting 62.5-percent from beyond the arc against the Tigers.

TWO FOR 20
- Two Aggies reached the 20-point mark in a game for the third time this season as sophomore Savion Flagg and junior Wendell Mitchell each put up 22 points against No. 14 Auburn.
- Flagg knocked down a career-high four threes to reach 20-plus points for the fourth time this season, while Mitchell went off for 16 of his total in the first half, and finished 9-of-10 from the free throw line against the Tigers.
- A&M started conference play seeing two Aggies score 20-plus points in the same game for the second time this season, as Flagg and classmate TJ Starks led the team in the opener.
- Flagg recorded his second double-double of the season, finishing with 20 points and 15 boards, while Starks matched his career high with 23 points, 17 coming in the second half.
- The first time two Aggies put up 20 points in the same game was when Brandon Mahan and Christian Mekowulu set season highs with 20 points apiece in the win over Valpo.
- Mahan knocked down four of his seven attempts from beyond the arc in the game, while Mekowulu went 8-for-9 from the field.

STRONG FINISH AT ALABAMA
- The Aggies came back from an 11-point deficit at halftime to pick up their first SEC road win of the year as sophomore TJ Starks knocked down a three at the buzzer for the one-point victory.
- Junior Josh Nebo had one of his most dominant performances, going 10-for-12 from the field en-route to a 21-point game, adding seven rebounds and four blocks.
- Sophomore Savion Flagg made a pair of free throws with four seconds on the clock to make it a one-point game and keep the Aggies in the game. He finished with 16 points, 14 coming in the second half.

CLEAN PLAY
- The Aggies committed just three turnovers in the win at Alabama, limiting themselves to single digits in the category for the second time this season.
- Three turnovers is the fewest the Aggies have committed in a single game in the Billy Kennedy era. The previous low was four in 2017-18 and 2016-17.
- The last time A&M had five-or-fewer turnovers in a game was against Missouri in 2018 when the team committed just four.

MEKOWULU ROLLING INTO CONFERENCE PLAY
- Graduate student Christian Mekowulu had a strong finish to non-conference play, averaging 16.0 points and 5.0 rebounds over the last three games before league play.
- Mekowulu led the Aggies in scoring in back-to-back games, putting up a season-high 20 points against Valpo, shooting 88.9-percent from the field. He followed it up with a 17-point performance against Marshall.
- The upperclassman scored in double figures in five of the last seven games of non-conference play, after reaching double digits just once in the team's first five games.

BALANCED ATTACK
- Without its returning leading scorer and experienced senior Admon Gilder to start the season, Texas A&M has been in search of its leader on the offensive end of the floor.
- Through the 11-game non-conference portion of the schedule, A&M saw seven different players lead the team in scoring.
- Sophomore Savion Flagg led all other Aggies as he paced the team on three of those occasions.
- Redshirt freshman John Walker III is the only Aggie in the team's usual eight-man rotation that has yet to lead the team in scoring.

NEBO PROTECTING THE RIM
- Junior transfer Josh Nebo has been a force around the rim for the Aggies all season. He set an A&M career high with seven blocks against South Alabama after entering the game with nine on the year.

AGGIES ADD FOUR IN 2019 SIGNING CLASS

• Texas A&M has added four newcomers as Kobe Brown, Chris Harris, Jr., Tyreek Smith and Sahvir Wheeler signed National Letters of Intent and will join the Aggies next season.
• Brown is a Huntsville, Ala., native in his senior year at Lee High School. Coached by his father, Greg Brown, the 6-7, 200-pound forward is the No. 79 overall player on ESPN's Top 100 list and the No. 3 prospect in the state of Alabama.
• Harris is in his fourth year at top-25 South Garland High School. The Garland, Texas native is a four-star recruit and ranked No. 90 overall by Rivals. Harris, a 6-3, 189-pound guard, averaged 19.1 points per game as a junior.
• Smith, a 6-9, 205-pound forward, helped his Trinity Christian School team to a state title game appearance as a junior, averaging 20.8 points and 12.9 rebounds. The Baton Rouge, La., native is a four-star recruit according to Rivals and 247sports, slated as the No. 91 overall prospect.
• Wheeler has been tabbed as the No. 75 player on ESPN's Top 100 and the No. 8 prospect in the state of Texas. The 5-9, 175-pound guard helped his Houston Christian High School team win the SPC state championship as a junior and was named to the NBPA Top 100 Camp All-Star team.

• Nebo is currently second in the SEC and 10th in the nation, averaging 2.5 blocks per game, helping the Aggies rank 17th in the nation as they get up for 5.1 bpg.

BIGS SPARK AGGIES AGAINST MARSHALL
• Graduate student Christian Mekowulu and junior Josh Nebo had impressive performances to help lift the Aggies past Marshall.
• Mekowulu came alive in the second half to score 11 of his team-best 17 points. This was the second straight game he led the team in scoring.
• Nebo was a perfect 7-for-7 from the field and 2-for-2 from the line on the night, his third perfect shooting game of the season. He gave A&M a spark in the first half, with 10 points and six boards, finishing with 16 and eight.
• Redshirt freshman John Walker III added nine points and a season-best eight rebounds off the bench in the victory.

REED ARENA SUCCESS
• The Aggies are in their 21st season at Reed Arena. They boast a 255-92 (.737) all-time record in their current home venue. They were 41-41 in the first six years at Reed and are 213-50 (.813) since.
• In the last five seasons, Texas A&M is 77-22 (.786) on its home floor.
• The Aggies have won 170 of their last 198 home games against unranked opponents.
• Texas A&M went 7-0 in non-conference games at Reed Arena last season, and is 158-16 all-time (.907) since hosting its first basketball game in 1998.

AGGIES MATCH BLOCKS RECORD
• The Aggies got up for 12 blocks in the win over Northwestern State on Dec. 3, matching the program's single-game record which was set against Mississippi State on Nov. 11, 2013.
• Savion Flagg and Josh Nebo led the defensive attack with three swats each.

AGGIES WEAR PRESIDENT BUSH 41 TRIBUTE PATCH
•Texas A&M's varsity athletic teams will wear a uniform/helmet patch for the remainder of the 2018-19 academic year to honor the memory of President George H.W. Bush, a great friend to Texas A&M's Department of Athletics.
• President Bush was buried on Texas A&M's campus on Dec. 6, 2018.

MILESTONE WIN
• The Aggies notched a pair of milestones when they topped South Alabama 74-62 on Nov. 23, 2018.
• The victory was the 350th of Billy Kennedy's head coaching career, as well as the program's 250th win in Reed Arena.

LIMITED EXPERIENCE RETURNS
• Prior to the season, seniors Admon Gilder and Chris Collins, originally a walk-on, were the only two returning scholarship student-athletes on the roster that had played more than one season at A&M.
• With the loss of Gilder to start the season, no Aggie in the starting lineup entered the year with more than 15 career starts (TJ Starks), and sophomores Savion Flagg and Jay Jay Chandler were the only two members of the team to ever start the same game.
• Gilder was the most experienced returner for the Aggies entering the year, having already scored over 1,000 career points, he was second on the team in scoring and assists last season, leading the way in steals and rounding out the top five in rebounding.
• Texas A&M entered the year as one of just two Power 5 schools to return two-or-fewer scholarship

SERIES HISTORY: OLE MISS

A&M Leads: 6-2
A&M streak: Won 3

• Wednesday will be just the ninth meeting between the Aggies and Rebels on the hardwood ... A&M owns a 6-2 lead in the all-time series between the schools.

• The Aggies are 2-1 all-time against Ole Miss inside The Pavilion.

• Last year, Texas A&M made it three straight wins against the Rebels, earning a 71-69 victory in Reed Arena.

• During the Aggies' first season in the SEC in 2013, the two schools split a pair of meetings with each team winning on its home court ... On Feb. 13, the Aggies earned a 69-67 victory over the Rebels at Reed Arena ... A&M was led by a 37-point performance by Elston Turner ... Later in the year on Feb. 27, the Rebels evened the score with a 82-73 win in Oxford.

• The first meeting between the schools came on Dec. 30, 1972, in Oklahoma City during the All-College Classic ... The Aggies prevailed with a 100-83 win, it's largest margin of victory in the series.

MEDIA POLICIES

MID-WEEK INTERVIEWS: Players generally are available for short interviews before practice. All player interviews must be arranged with 24 hours advance notice through the SID Office (979-862-5451). Coach Kennedy is available on a weekly basis. Contact SID office for schedule.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS: For home games, players will be brought to the interview room. Coach Kennedy will enter the room after the player interviews are completed. Additional players may be available outside the locker room. For road games, A&M will use whatever space is available. THE LOCKER ROOM IS CLOSED AT ALL TIMES.

CREDENTIALS: Please request credentials for A&M home games at least one week prior to the game via www.sportssystems.com/seccredentials. If time permits, credentials will be mailed. Otherwise, credentials will be delivered to local hotels or will be available at the SID Office or the loading dock entrance of Reed Arena.

PREGAME MEALS: Pregame meals as well as water and coffee are available in the media hospitality room near the loading dock and are available throughout all games.

student-athletes with more than one year of experience at that institution (Oregon, 1), though Gilder is out indefinitely due to health issues and Collins has appeared in just six games.
• Entering the year, three of the Aggies' five scholarship upperclassmen had never played a game for Texas A&M, while the team's seven upperclassmen combined to play in 167 career games. Gilder logged 98 of those appearances.

CHANDLER NOTCHES TOP PERFORMANCE AGAINST WASHINGTON
• Sophomore Jay Jay Chandler had a career night against Washington as he led the Aggies in scoring with 21 points and rebounding with eight.
• Chandler, who leads A&M in steals with 15 on the year, was aggressive on the defensive end the entire night, disrupting the Huskies' rhythm from start to finish.

FLAGG HAS CAREER NIGHT IN OPENER
• Sophomore Savion Flagg put on a show in the season-opening win over Savannah State, setting then-career highs in five different categories.
• Flagg led A&M with 24 points and 16 rebounds to record the second double-double of his career. Ten of his team-best points total came off of dunks.

NEWCOMERS SHINE IN DEBUTS
• Five newcomers saw the floor for the Aggies in the season opener, including Brandon Mahan, Christian Mekowulu, Josh Nebo, Zach Walker and John Walker III.
• Mekowulu earned the start in his first game in the Maroon & White, nearing a double-double with nine points and 14 rebounds.
• Walker III and Nebo gave the Aggies a lift off the bench as they each scored 10 points and combined for five blocks.

DOMINANT DEFENDERS
• The Aggies have added a pair of conference Defensive Player of the Year honorees in Division I transfers Christian Mekowulu and Josh Nebo.
• Mekowulu is a graduate transfer from Tennessee State, earning his degree in social sciences in the spring of 2018. He averaged 12.7 points and 7.9 rebounds, tallying 46 blocks in his senior season in the Ohio Valley Conference. He was a three-year starter for the Tigers.
• Nebo set a new all-time career blocks record at St. Francis (Pa.), swatting 144 shots in two seasons in the Northeast Conference. He set a single-season record with 89 blocks in his sophomore season, as he averaged 12.0 points and 8.2 rebounds. The Houston, Texas, native was forced to sit out last season due to NCAA transfer rules.

PRODUCTION LOST
• After a historic season in 2017-18 that concluded in the program's sixth Sweet 16 run, matching the deepest the Aggies have made it in the NCAA Tournament, the team as seen a lot of change in 2018-19.
• The Aggies lost at least 60-percent of the team's production in every stat category from 2017-18 to graduation and the NBA Draft, including three of the team's top four scorers and four of the team's top five rebounders.
• Texas A&M led the SEC in rebounding (41.4) and blocks (6.0) last season.

GAME 1

Texas A&M 98, Savannah State 83

KEYS TO THE GAME:

- Sophomore forward Savion Flagg scored 24 points and six Texas A&M players scored at least nine points as the Aggies defeated Savannah State 98-83.
- A&M overwhelmed SSU in points in the paint (58-18), rebounds (68-43), second-chance points (31-7) and blocks (8-1).
- The Aggies played without starting guards Admon Gilder (hamstring, knee) and Wendell Mitchell (tendinitis), but the injuries are not expected to be serious. Sophomore guard TJ Starks added 16 points for the Aggies, and freshman guard Collins Joseph led the way for the Tigers with 20 points.
- Texas A&M coach Billy Kennedy has pledged the Aggies will get up and down the floor this season more than they have in years past, with big men Robert Williams and Tyler Davis having turned pro, and the young squad did exactly that in blasting to a 53-37 halftime lead.

Texas A&M vs UC Irvine

FRI., NOV. 9, 2018 | COLLEGE STATION, TEXAS

KEYS TO THE GAME:

- Play went back-and-forth to start the game, as neither team led by more than four points until there was under seven minutes remaining in the first half.
- A quick 8-2 run that included back-to-back dunks for the Aggies forced UC Irvine to call at timeout before the final media of the half.
- Texas A&M continued to push in the closing minutes of the opening period, and a heave from Jay Jay Chandler just over the mid-court line made it a 10-point lead for the Aggies at the break.
- A pair free throws from Christian Mekowulu and a layup from Savion Flagg gave the Aggies their largest lead of the night, up 14 points to start the second half.
- A 10-3 run by the Anteaters got the difference back within two possessions, and they eventually cut it one with 2:50 left to play.
- UC Irvine's Eyassu Worku quieted the crowd as he scored on a falling 12-footer with 6.4 seconds remaining to give the Anteaters their only lead of the second half, and the first since nine minutes into the opening half.
- A&M inbounded without calling a timeout and pushed the ball up the floor, but TJ Starks missed a long 3-point attempt as time expired.

Gonzaga 94, Texas A&M 71

THU., NOV. 15, 2018 | SPOKANE, WASH.

KEYS TO THE GAME:

- Gonzaga was flying up and down the court in the first half against Texas A&M, taking hurried shots, and coach Mark Few was not pleased. At halftime he told his team to slow down, and the No. 3 Bulldogs responded by blowing out the Aggies 94-71 on Thursday night.
- The Aggies were plagued by shooting in the 30 percent range most of the game, although a late flurry of scoring allowed them to finish at 41.5 percent. Gonzaga shot 49 percent.
- Neither team shot well in the early going, and Gonzaga led 16-14 with 11 minutes left in the first.
- The Aggies tied the score at 28, but Gonzaga went on a 15-5 run in the closing five minutes, including a pair of 3-pointers by Norvell, to take a 43-33 halftime lead. Hachimura and Norvell each scored 13 points in the first, while Texas A&M was held to 36 percent shooting.
- Gonzaga opened the second half with a 14-4 run to build a 57-37 lead. The Bulldogs held off the Aggies after that.

Minnesota 69, Texas A&M 64

SUN., NOV. 18, 2018 | VANCOUVER, B.C.

KEYS TO THE GAME:

- The experience of Minnesota outlasted the inexperience of Texas A&M in the closing minutes even if baskets were not coming easy. Or at all.
- The Golden Gophers watched a 14-point first-half lead disappear, but made enough free-throw attempts late to get the victory despite going the final four minutes without a basket.
- The Aggies scored six straight capped by Mahan's dunk to pull even at 57-all with 5:50 left. Mahan followed with his second 3-pointer and Texas A&M had its first lead since the opening minute of the game.
- Texas A&M led 64-63, but had four straight empty possessions, missing a pair of long 3-pointers late in the shot clock and committing a pair of turnovers.
- Five ties and five lead changes closed out the the final five minutes of the game, with Minnesota keeping the edge.

GAME 5

Washington 71, Texas A&M 67

TUES., NOV. 20, 2018 | VANCOUVER, B.C.

KEYS TO THE GAME:

- Trailing by as many as 13 in the first half, Washington found its shooting touch in the second half and its zone defense started to cause problems for the Aggies.
- The Aggies held a 38-33 lead at the break, forcing the Huskies to shoot just 23-percent from the field in the opening period.
- A&M led by as many as 13 in the first half, but a late steady push by the Huskies and a three at the halftime buzzer cut the difference to two possessions.
- Jay Jay Chandler ignited the Aggies from opening tip, disrupting Washington throughout the night on defense, while putting up 13 of his career-high and team-best 21 points in the first half.
- Washington took its first lead of the night with just over nine minutes remaining and never trailed again.

GAME 6

Texas A&M 74, South Alabama 62

KEYS TO THE GAME:

- The Aggies trailed by four a little more than midway through the first half before closing on a tear against the outsized Jaguars (3-3).
- A&M outscored South Alabama 26-6 over the final nine minutes to grab a 43-27 halftime lead, one the Aggies wouldn't come close to relinquishing.
- Savion Flagg did much of the work himself in the first half, scoring 19 points over the first 20 minutes by making 9-of-11 from the field.
- The victory marked the 250th program in Texas A&M program history in Reed Arena and Billy Kennedy's 350th career win as a head coach.

GAME 7

Texas A&M 80, Northwestern State 59

MON., DEC. 3, 2018 | COLLEGE STATION, TEXAS

KEYS TO THE GAME:

- The Aggies forced Northwestern State into a three-minute scoring drought with just inside 13 minutes to play in the first half.
- Sophomore Brandon Mahan nailed a three to put the difference in double figures, 19-7, for the first time in the game.
- Texas A&M never trailed and led by as many as 21 points in the game, and did not allow the Demons to get back within single digits.
- The Aggies' 12 blocked shots in the game matches a program single-game record, set against Mississippi State on Nov. 11, 2013.
- Despite a narrow difference on the boards, A&M dominated in the paint production-wise, outscoring Northwestern State 32-18.

GAME 8

Texas A&M 67, Oregon State 64

SAT., DEC. 15, 2018 | PORTLAND, ORE.

KEYS TO THE GAME:

- The Aggies led for 26 minutes in the game, which saw 12 ties and 15 lead changes.
- Both teams started slow, combining for seven turnovers in the first four minutes, but the Aggies found their rhythm following the first media timeout of the game.
- They used an 11-5 run between medias to take the lead.
- Texas A&M maintained the advantage for nearly the remainder of the first half, trailing by one for 1:11 late in the opening period and taking a 33-30 lead into the break.
- Play remained close in the second half, but the
- Aggies used a 9-0 run with just over five minutes remaining to position themselves for victory.

GAME 9

Texas A&M 71, Valpo 49

KEYS TO THE GAME:

- The Aggies used a big spark from senior Christian Mekowulu and an early 20-2 run to distance themselves from the beginning.
- They took a 34-18 lead into the halftime break.
- A&M allowed the Crusaders to get within 11 in the second half, but quickly responded and kept the lead at 20-plus for nearly the rest of the game.
- The Aggies held Valpo to single-digit scoring for the first 15:29 of the game.
- For the third straight game, A&M forced its opponent to shoot under 35-percent from the field as the Crusaders shot 34-percent on the night and just 13.6-percent from beyond the arc (3-22).
- The 71-49 win was the Aggies' second 20-plus point win of the season after defeating Northwestern State by 21 points earlier in December at Reed Arena.
- For the first time this season, two Aggies scored 20 points in the same game.

GAME 10

Texas A&M 92, Marshall 68

SAT., DEC. 22, 2018 | COLLEGE STATION, TEXAS

KEYS TO THE GAME:

- This was the second straight game the Aggies have won by at least 20 points.
- Play remained close for nearly the entire first half as neither team led by more than two possessions until the closing minutes.
- After seven first-half ties, A&M used a 6-2 run in the final three minutes to take an eight-point lead into the break, 41-33.
- The Aggies started the second half on a 10-2 run to go up double figures and continued to distance themselves throughout the period.
- Five Aggies finished scoring in double figures in the lopsided win, marking just the second time this has happened this season.
- The Aggies out-scored Marshall in the paint, 58-24.
- A&M has forced its opponent to shoot 35-percent or worse in each of its last four games after Marshall was just 35.2-percent from the field.

GAME 11

Texas Southern 88, Texas A&M 73

SAT., DEC. 29, 2018 | COLLEGE STATION, TEXAS

KEYS TO THE GAME:

- Texas Southern used a 14-0 run late in first half to position itself for a 46-33 lead at the break.
- The Tigers came out hot, shooting 61-percent from the field despite entering the game with 40-percent average on the year.
- The Aggies had a strong start to the second half, putting together a 10-0 run in the opening minutes to get back within five.
- A&M was able to cut the difference to four with 9:30 left to play, but the Tigers responded with another lengthy run to seal the game.
- A&M has seen at least four players reach double figures in three of its last four games, and five times total so far this season.
- The loss snapped the team's five-game win streak, and a strong defensive four-game swing where there the Aggies held their opponents to 35-percent or worse from the field.

GAME 13

#18 Kentucky 85, Texas A&M 74

TUES., JAN. 8, 2019 | LEXINGTON, KY.

KEYS TO THE GAME:

- The Aggies got out to a strong start on both ends of the floor, scoring the first 10 points of the game and drawing three offensive fouls in the first 4:35 of play.
- Kentucky scored seven straight out of the first media timeout to get back in it and later used a 15-2 run to take control.
- The Aggies used a steady push in the second half to make it a six-point game with just under 10 to play.
- An 8-2 run by A&M made it a 66-64 with 7:55 on the clock, but eight straight points by the Wildcats sealed the game.
- Texas A&M shot a season-best 47.1-percent from three and 92.3-percent from the free throw line.
- Four Aggies scored in double figures for the fourth time this season.
- A&M outscored Kentucky, 40-39, in the second half, but the 12-point first half deficit was too much to overcome.

GAME 14

Texas A&M 81, Alabama 80

SAT., JAN. 12, 2019 | TUSCALOOSA, ALA.

KEYS TO THE GAME:

- Sophomore TJ Starks knocked down the game-winning three to snap a three-game skid for A&M
- Alabama used a 12-2 run midway through the first half to take a double digit lead and the Aggies were unable to cut it to less than two possessions, trailing 43-32 at the break.
- Used an 8-2 push to make it 62-61 Alabama with 7:57 left to play, forcing the Crimson Tide to call a timeout.
- Redshirt freshman John Walker III knocked down a pair of FTs with 7:30 left to play to give the Aggies their first lead of the day.
- There were seven ties and five lead changes from that point on.
- It came down to free throws in the final minute and Alabama's Kira Lewis, Jr. went one-of-two from the line to make it a two-point game with three seconds to play.
- Starks quickly brought the ball down the court and knocked down the three at the buzzer.
- The victory is A&M's eighth in the series and first in Tuscaloosa since 2008.

GAME 15

#14 Auburn 85, Texas A&M 66

KEYS TO THE GAME:

- The Aggies struggled to settle in, plagued by turnovers in the opening minutes.
- A&M kept it close for much of the first half, until the Tigers used a 14-3 run to take the difference from two possessions to double figures.
- Bryce Brown scored 18 consecutive points for the Tigers -- and outscored the Aggies 18-10 by himself during that span.
- The Aggies scored the first seven points of the second half to cut it to nine points, but another big Auburn run created a lead too big to overcome.
- A&M saw two players score 20 points in the same game for the third time this season and the second time in league play (Arkansas).

GAME 16

Missouri 66, Texas A&M 43

SAT., JAN. 19, 2019 | COLLEGE STATION

KEYS TO THE GAME:

- The Tigers scored the first five points of the game, but A&M responded with a 9-0 run of its own, seven of those points coming from sophomore Jay Jay Chandler, to take its first lead of the day.
- Missouri regained the advantage with a 12-3 run with under 11 minutes remaining in the first half and continued to distance itself, taking a 36-21 lead into the break.
- The Aggies were unable to get anything going in the second half and trailed by double figures the rest of the way.
- The Aggies saw two players score in double figures for the fifth time this season.
- A&M's 43 points were the team's lowest total since losing to Vanderbilt, 66-41, in the first round of the 2017 SEC Tournament.

GAME 17

Florida81, Texas A&M 72

TUES., JAN. 22, 2019 | GAINESVILLE, FLA.

KEYS TO THE GAME:

- The Aggies had a strong first half, but Florida controlled the second half, outscoring A&M 48-26 to position itself for victory.
- Wendell Mitchell gave the Aggies a huge spark on the offensive end, recording his third 20-plus point game of the season before the first media timeout of the second half.
- Jay Jay Chandler didn't miss a shot in the first half, joining Mitchell in double figures in the opening period.
- The Aggies used an 11-3 run nearing the 12-minute mark, forcing Florida to call a timeout.
- The Gators got back within one but A&M responded with nine straight points to go up double figures, eventually taking a 46-33 lead into the break.
- Florida used a 13-2 run to start the second half and regain the lead before the midway point in the half.
- The Aggies hung around, getting back within two, but were unable to get over the hump.
- A&M shot 64-percent from three and 55-percent from the field in the first half to take a 46-33 lead into the break, its first halftime lead since the Marshall game on Dec. 22.
- A&M's 46 first half points surpassed the team's point total in the loss to Missouri (43).

GAME 18

Texas A&M 65, Kansas State 53

SAT., JAN. 26, 2019 | COLLEGE STATION, TEXAS

KEYS TO THE GAME:

- Kansas State used a 12-2 run late in the first half to go up eight and force the Aggies to use a timeout before the final media of the opening period.
- A&M was able to cut the difference to four at the break, 30-26.
- After a three by the Wildcats to open the second half, A&M went on an 18-3 run to regain the lead. Mitchell, who didn't score in the first half, put up 12 in the run.
- Kansas State made it a three-point game with under seven minutes to play, but seven straight points by the Aggies put the lead into double figures, where it would stay for nearly the rest of the game.

A&M is now 2-3 all-time in the SEC/Big 12 Challenege.

- Wendell Mitchell was one point shy of outscoring Kansas State on his own in the second half, as the Aggies held the Wildcats to just 23 points in the final period, while putting up 39 points of their own.

GAME 19

#19 LSU 72, Texas A&M 57

WED., JAN. 30, 2019 | COLLEGE STATION

KEYS TO THE GAME:

- A&M used an 8-2 run to close out the first half and make it a one-point game at the break as LSU led 37-36.
- The Tigers used a 13-4 run to open the second and quickly extend their lead to double figures.
- The Aggies scored eight straight points to get back within five with under 10 to play, but LSU quickly responded to keep its lead in double figures for the final five minutes of play.
- TJ Starks led the Aggies in his second 20-plus point game of the year, fourth of his career, as he finished with 21 points. He kept A&M alive in the first half, putting up 15 in the opening period.
- Josh Nebo gave the Aggies a spark late in the first half, scoring 12 of his 16 points. He recorded his second double-double of the season, adding 11 rebounds as well as four blocks.

#1 Tennessee 93, Texas A&M 76

SAT., FEB 2, 2019 | COLLEGE STATION, TEXAS

- A&M got back within two midway through the second half after trailing by as many as 19.
- Tennessee was able to get out to a double-figure lead before the first media timeout of the game, forcing the Aggies to burn a timeout early.
- A&M responded with a 10-0 run to get the difference back within single digits, eventually cutting it to four with 4:44 remaining until halftime.
- The Vols took a 46-39 lead into the break, before Wendell Mitchel sparked the Aggies, scoring the team's first seven points of the new half.
- A&M continued to fight, cutting the difference to two, but was unable to get over the hump.
- The Aggies knocked down a season-best 12 threes in the game.
- A&M saw five players score in double figures in a game for the third time this season.
