Aggies Open NAAs on Saturday

Texas A&M has earned its 10th consecutive and 15th overall bid to the NCAA Women's Tennis Championships and will make a short 90-mile trip to Waco, Texas, for first- and second-round action Saturday and Sunday, May 9-10. The No. 39 Aggies (14-10), an at-large selection from the Big 12 Conference, meet former Southwest Conference foe and 23rd-ranked SMU (27-2), the automatic qualifier from Conference USA, at 11 a.m. Saturday in the first round at the Baylor Tennis Center.

In other first-round action in Waco, No. 4 seed Baylor (24-4), the automatic entry from the Big 12, faces Texas-Arlington (18-6), an automatic qualifier from the Southland Conference, Saturday at 2 p.m.

The first-round winners meet Sunday at 2 p.m. to determine who advances to the Round of 16 to be played at Texas A&M's George P. Mitchell Tennis Center in College Station beginning May 15.

A&M, which has advanced to at least the second round in each of the last six years, is a No. 33-48 seed in the 64-team tournament field and is the No. 3 seed at the Baylor site. SMU, a No. 17-32 seed overall, is the No. 2 seed in Waco, and host Baylor is the No. 1 seed at the four-team Waco site and the No. 4 seed overall. UTA is a 49-64 seed and the No. 4 seed at Baylor.

Single-day tickets at the Baylor site are $10 for a reserved seat, $5 for adult general admission and $3 for student general admission. Tickets can be purchased at the Baylor Ticket Office or online at BaylorBears.com.

A&M's Road to the NAAs — The Aggies went 14-10 during the regular season, notching nine wins against ranked opponents, including two wins against teams in the NCAA tournament field — Auburn and Denver. All 10 losses were against teams that are in the NAAs, including No. 3 seed Duke, No. 4 seed Baylor, No. 5 seed Notre Dame and No. 7 seed Southern California.

The Aggies, who were ranked as high as No. 24 in the nation on March 3, went 9-2 in the Big 12 Conference to finish third behind regular-season and conference tournament-champion Baylor and runner-up Texas.

A&M's History in the NAAs — Texas A&M is making its 10 consecutive NCAA tournament appearance and 15th overall since the first championship was held in 1982. The Aggies, who received automatic NCAA tournament berths in 1986 and 2004 and were seeded an all-time high No. 12 in 2004, are 12-15 all-time in postseason play.

This is the third time in the past four years and third time overall that the Aggies have been sent to Waco for first and second-round matches. A&M has fallen to the Lady Bears in the second round each time the Aggies have been sent to Waco.

Last year, A&M was sent to Stanford in Palo Alto, Calif., for the first two rounds. It marked the first time the Aggies were sent out of state since A&M traveled to Notre Dame in 2001. No. 31 A&M defeated 38th-ranked Washington, 4-1, in the opening round but then was eliminated by No. 4 seed Stanford, 4-1.

In 2007, A&M was sent to Baylor for the second consecutive year. A&M defeated in-state rival TCU, 4-1, in the first round and then fell to the Lady Bears, 4-1, in the second round.

In 2006, A&M was an at-large team and faced No. 22 Arizona State in the first round in Waco. After winning two of three doubles matches, A&M went on to win three of the first four completed singles matches to clinch the win and advance to the second round. No. 13 seed Baylor eliminated A&M, 4-1, in the second round.

In 2005, A&M received an at-large berth and defeated Nevada-Las Vegas, 4-0, in the first round played at the University of Texas' Penick-Allison Tennis Center in Austin. The Aggies were eliminated in the second round as the Longhorns topped A&M, 4-1, en route to their national runner-up finish.

In 2004, the Aggies received an automatic berth after coming from behind to top 10th-ranked and Big 12 regular-season champion Texas, 4-3, in the finals of the Big 12 Tournament. It was the Aggies' first automatic NCAA invitation in the eight-year history of the conference. A&M was awarded an all-time high No. 12 seed in the 64-team bracket and was selected to host first and second rounds for the second consecutive year and the third time overall.

A&M took advantage of playing at home, racing past SWAC automatic qualifier Southern, 4-0, in the first round. The Aggies faced former Southwest Conference-foe SMU in the second round, and after dropping the doubles point, A&M won the first four singles matches to send the Aggies to the Round of 16 for the first time since the tournament expanded to 64 teams.

The Aggies were eliminated by fifth-seeded and No. 7-ranked Clemson, 4-1, in Athens, Ga.

A&M was selected to host and was the No. 2 seed at the regional site in the 2003 tournament. The Aggies disposed of LSU, 4-0, to advance to the second round. A&M then fell to the nation's No. 4 seed, California, 4-0.

The Aggies first appeared in the 16-team tournament in 1986 and were eliminated by eventual runner-up Southern California, 8-1, in the first round in Austin. A&M returned to the Championships in 1989 and fell to Arizona, 5-1, in the first round in Gainesville, Fla.

A&M was selected to host for the first time in 1996 and took advantage of the home site, then the Omar Smith Tennis Center. The No. 2 seed in the eight-team Southwest Regional, the Aggies defeated Baylor, 5-1, and then downed No. 3 seed Arkansas, 5-3, to advance to the regional finals. A&M faced No. 1-seed Vanderbilt for the right to advance to the Round of 16 and fell, 5-3.

A&M made a second consecutive appearance in the 1997 NCAAAs and defeated host Rice, 5-3, in the first round of the Southwest Regional played at Jake Hess Tennis Stadium in Houston. The Aggies were eliminated by LSU, 5-0, in the regional semifinals.

The Aggies returned to the NCAAAs for a third straight year in 1998 and fell to Houston, 5-3, in the opening round of the Southwest Regional in Baton Rouge, La.

After missing the 1999 tournament, A&M received a bid to the 2000 tournament and was sent to Berkeley, Calif. The Aggies topped Kentucky, 5-4, in the first round and then fell to the host Golden Bears, 5-0, in the regional semifinals.

A&M fell in the first round of the 2001 and 2002 NCAA regionals, falling to Tulane, 4-3, at Notre Dame and then dropping a 4-1 decision to TCU in Austin in 2002.

Series Records vs. Regional Opponents — SMU holds a 14-11 lead in the all-time series against A&M, but the Aggies have won the last five meetings and eight of the last nine. A&M also is 1-0 in NCAA matches against SMU, as the former Southwest Conference foes last met in the second round of the 2004 NCAA Championships, with A&M eliminating the Mustangs, 4-1, in College Station to advance to Athens, Ga., and the Round of 16.

A&M is 20-15 against Baylor since 1980. The Lady Bears, however, have won eight consecutive matches against the Aggies, including a 6-1 victory in College Station on April 15. In addition, Baylor is 2-1 against A&M in NCAA contests, having eliminated A&M in the second round in both 2006 and 2007. Both of those matches were in Waco. A&M's one tournament victory was in the first round of the 1996 Championships at A&M's Omar Smith Tennis Center.

A&M and UTA have met only once with A&M winning, 9-0.

Regional Team Notes — SMU (27-2, 4-0 C-USA) is ranked No. 23 and is riding a program-best 17 match winning streak into the NCAA Championships. The Mustangs won their first C-USA regular season title and then won their first tournament title in program history after defeating Tulsa, 4-1, in the C-USA finals.

The Mustangs are led by Marta Lesniak, the C-USA Freshman of the Year and an automatic qualifier in the NCAA Singles Championships with a No. 59 national ranking. Lesniak is 13-1 at the No. 1 singles line, with her only loss coming to Macall Harkins of TCU in three sets on March 18.

Lesniak also is an automatic entry in the NCAA Doubles Championships with freshman partner Aleksandra Malyarchikova. The pair is No. 32 with a 13-0 record at No. 1 doubles.

Lauren Longbotham-Meisner is in her fourth season as head coach of the Mustangs.

Baylor (24-4) is making its 12th appearance in the NCAA Championships in program history and is the No. 4 seed. The Lady Bears went a perfect 11-0 in the Big 12 regular season and won the conference tournament for the fourth consecutive year after defeating Texas, 4-1, in the finals.

All-American Lenka Broosova is ranked No. 33 in the nation in singles and is an automatic qualifier in the NCAA Singles Championships. She will be joined in the NCAA Individual Championships by teammates Taylor Ormond and Jelena Stanivuk in singles and Csilla Borsanyi in doubles.

The Lady Bears are led by Big 12 Conference Coach of the Year Joey Scrivano. He is in his seventh season as head coach at Baylor.

Texas-Arlington (18-6, 11-0 SLC) is making its fifth appearance in the NCAAAs after routing Texas-San Antonio in the Southland Conference Championship to earn the league's automatic berth. The Mavericks are 0-4 in NCAA matches.

Potgieter, Frank Named All-Big 12 — Texas A&M's Elzé Potgieter and Morgan Frank were named to the All-Big 12 Women's Tennis Team in singles, the conference office announced earlier this month.

Potgieter, a two-time member of the Academic All-Big 12 First Team as well as a two-time Big 12 Player of the Week this season, is making her second consecutive appearance on the All-Big 12 singles team. The junior from Bloemfontein, South Africa, plays No. 1 singles for the Aggies and is 20-14 overall, including 13-9 in dual matches as well as 9-2 in Big 12 matches only.

Potgieter has posted four victories against ranked opponents this spring, including No. 25 Alex Poorta of Saint Mary's, No. 46 Taylor Ormond of Baylor, No. 89 Macall Harkins of TCU and No. 104 Vanja Corovic of Texas. She is currently listed No. 108 in the Campbell's/ITA Collegiate Tennis rankings and has been ranked as high as No. 102 this spring.

Frank is this year's Big 12 No. 2 singles champion after posting a 10-1 record in league play. A sophomore from Oldsmar, Fla., Frank is 17-7 in dual matches, all at No. 2, and 23-11 overall in 2008-09.

Earlier this season, Frank garnered Big 12 Player of the Week honors during a season-high eight-match winning streak. She has been ranked as high as No. 98 in the nation this spring and is currently No. 120.

Aggies Capture Big 12 Individual Titles — Morgan Frank clinched the Big 12 No. 2 singles title with a 10-1 record, and the doubles team of Sheri Olivier and Elzé Potgieter is the Big 12 No. 3 doubles champion after going 9-2.

Individual Big 12 champions are crowned for each of the six singles positions and all three doubles flights based on the number of conference wins during the regular season. A player must have competed in at least six matches at a set position to qualify for a conference title. In addition, wins at higher positions count toward the record in which an athlete has played a minimum of six matches.

This marks the second singles title for Frank, a sophomore who is 20-2 all-time in Big 12 regular season matches during her two-year career. Frank, who is 17-7 overall at the No. 2 line this season, was the No. 5 singles champion as a freshman after posting a 10-1 record in conference matches.

The doubles title is the first for both Potgieter, a junior, and Olivier, a freshman. The duo enters the NCAAAs with a 17-3 overall record and is riding a six-match winning streak.

A&M Coach Bobby Kleinecke — Two-time Big 12 Coach of the Year Bobby Kleinecke enters the NCAA's with a 388-252 (.606) record in his 24th season at the helm of the Aggies, including a 114-29 (.797) record in Big 12 regular-season matches. In 1986, Kleinecke's inaugural season of his college coaching career and at A&M, he led the Aggies to the Southwest Conference title and was named the SWC Coach of the Year. In 1996, he was voted the SWC Coach of the Year and in 2002, Kleinecke was honored as the Wilson/ITA Coach of the Year in the Southwest Region after leading A&M to a record-23 wins. In 2003, A&M tied for its first regular-season title as the Aggies and Baylor went 9-2. In 2004, Kleinecke's team captured its first Big 12 tournament championship, advanced to the NCAA Round of 16 and finished the season with a record 24 victories. Under Kleinecke's leadership, the Aggies have made 14 NCAA appearances, including the last nine consecutive years.

In the Rankings — A&M is ranked No. 39 in the Campbell's/ITA College Tennis Rankings released April 27. The Aggies have been ranked as high as No. 24 (March 3) and as low as No. 47 (March 10) during the regular season.

Elzé Potgieter is listed No. 108 in the national singles rankings. Her highest ranking of the spring was No. 102 on Feb. 19.

Morgan Frank has been listed in five of the last six singles rankings. She enters also reappeared in the singles rankings this week, coming in at No. 114. Frank, who has been listed in all but the April 14 regular-season ranking, was ranked a career-high No. 98 on March 3.

Potgieter plays No. 1 singles for the Aggies and is 12-9 in dual matches -- including 9-2 in Big 12 matches -- and is 19-14 overall. She is 4-6 against ranked opponents with her biggest win coming against No. 25 Alex Poorta of Saint Mary's, 7-6 (3), 7-6 (3), on Jan. 31 at the ITA Kickoff Weekend in Los Angeles.

Frank plays No. 2 singles, where she is 15-7, including 10-1 in Big 12 matches. Her overall record stands at 21-11. She is 1-6 against ranked opponents, with her only win coming against No. 86 Alex Haney of Auburn, 6-3, 6-3, on Feb. 6 in College Station. Haney is No. 26 in this week's rankings.

Potgieter Garners Academic Honor — Elzé Potgieter was recently named to the 2009 Academic All-Big 12 Tennis First Team. It marks the second time in her two years to be eligible for the award that the junior accounting major from Bloemfontein, South Africa, was named to the first team.

To qualify for the Academic All-Big 12 Tennis Team, student-athletes must maintain a 3.00 GPA or higher either cumulative or the two previous semesters and must have participated in 60 percent of her team's scheduled contests. Freshmen and transfers are not eligible in their first year of academic residence. Senior student-athletes who have participated for a minimum of two years and meet all the criteria except percent of participation are also eligible.

First team members consist of those who have maintained a 3.20 or better GPA, and the second team consists of those who have a 3.00 to 3.19 GPA.

Nominated by each institution's director of student-athlete support services and the media relations offices, the women's tennis academic all-league squad consisted of 30 first team recipients and six student-athletes on the second team.

Young Guns — The Aggies have no seniors on this year's roster, and junior Elzé Potgieter is the only starting junior in the lineup. She holds down the No. 1 singles line, while sophomores Morgan Frank and Christi Liles play the No. 2 and No. 3 singles, respectively. The remainder of the singles lineup is made up of freshmen. Most recently, Janelle Cuthbertson has been assigned to the No. 4 line, with Lauren Santacroce and Sheri Olivier playing No. 5 and 6 singles, respectively.

A&M Leads Nation in Home Attendance — Texas A&M led the nation in home attendance at women's tennis matches in each of the first two months of the ITA National Attendance Race this season.

Through March, the Aggies drew 3,389 fans in eight home matches. Seven of the matches were played at the George P. Mitchell Tennis Center, and rain forced the Aggies to play one match at the City of Bryan Tennis Center.

In addition, A&M had recorded four of the top five single match totals for a season average of 424 per month through March. The Aggies led second-place Michigan in average attendance by nearly 250.

A&M led the nation with a 576 average attendance in 2008, the first year the ITA conducted the ITA Attendance Race.

A&M to Host 2009 Men's and Women's Tennis Championships — Texas A&M will serve as the host of the 2009 Men's and Women's Tennis Championships. The men's tournament gets underway Thursday, May 14 and the women start one day later at the George P. Mitchell Tennis Center. The finals for both men and women are slated for May 19.

The 64-player singles tournament begins May 20, and doubles begins on May 21. The finals for both men's and women's singles and doubles will be played May 25.

Although this is the third time A&M has served as host of the men's national championship, having also hosted in 2002 and 2005, it will mark the first time the women's national champion will be determined in College Station.
