TEXAS A&M/Missouri NOTABLES

Texas A&M holds a 40-28-1 advantage in the all-time series with the Tigers which has been a tightly contested one since the formation of the Big 12. The two schools are 22-22 against one another since becoming league foes in 1997.

The Aggies have won three of the last series against Missouri but the lone series loss came during their last visit to Columbia in 2009 when the Tigers took two of three games at Taylor Stadium.

UP NEXT

The Aggies make a quick road trip to San Antonio to take on UTSA on Tuesday before hosting Dallas Baptist in a three-game non-conference series at Olsen Field.

NOTES AND NOTABLES

• Sophomore outfielder Tyler Naquin brings a career-long 17 game hitting streak into the Missouri series. The run is the longest hitting streak by any player in the Big 12 this season and is Naquin's third separate run of eight or more consecutive games with a hit this season.

• Texas A&M has won six straight series to begin Big 12 Conference play for the first time in school history. Overall, the Aggies have not been on the losing side of any three-game weekend series this season.

• On April 18 it was announced that sophomore pitcher Michael Wacha was named to the USA Baseball Collegiate National Team for the upcoming summer. He becomes the first Aggie to represent the red, white and blue on the baseball diamond since Daylon Holt in 1999. Wacha's skipper this summer will be sitting in the opposite dugout this weekend as Missouri head coach Tim Jamieson has been tabbed to lead the Collegiate National Team.

• Senior closer Joaqin Hinojosa has been selected to the midseason watch list for the seventh annual Stopper of the Year Award on April 21. The Aggie right-hander joined a list of three other Big 12 pitchers (James Allan of Kansas State, Corey Knebel of Texas and John Neeley of Texas Tech) to be named to the list by the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association (NCBWA).

• Senior shortstop Kenny Jackson is the only Aggie to have played every inning at his position this season. Jackson had shared the distinction with first baseman Jacob House, who was lifted for a pinch hitter in the eighth inning of April 22's game against Oklahoma State.

• For the season, the Aggies lead the Big 12 and rank among the national leaders in team earned run average with a 2.22 ERA as a pitching staff.

• The Aggies are 28-6 this season when scoring two or more runs and 23-2 when scoring four or more runs. A&M has lost 11 games this season with six of the setbacks being of the one-run variety.

• Texas A&M has held its opponent to two runs or less in 24 of 41 games this season.

• The Aggies have been a model of consistency this season, having enjoyed six different multi-game winning streaks, including a season-long nine-game run in late March-early April. Only twice this season has Texas A&M lost consecutive games, the longest skid being just three games.

FRIDAY'S PROBABLE STARTER: #12 JOHN STILSON

Junior right-hander John Stilson will make his 11 career start on Friday against Missouri ... the reigning Big 12 co-Pitcher of the Week, Stilson threw a four-hit complete game with a career-high 12 strikeouts in his last outing vs No. 15 Oklahoma State (April 22) ... WACHA SELECTED TO USA BASEBALL COLLEGIATE NATIONAL TEAM

Enjoying an outstanding sophomore campaign that comes on the heels of a rookie season in which he was selected as a Freshman All-American, Texas A&M pitcher Michael Wacha has been invited to join the USA Baseball Collegiate National Team for the upcoming summer.

Wacha becomes the 13th Aggie to represent the United States on the Collegiate National Team and the first since Daylon Holt in 1999. This season rather than have team trials to develop a roster, the squad will be selected by spring performances, which is the selection method for the professional national team.

The right-hander has been one of the country's top pitchers this season and currently maintains a 5-2 record on the mound with a 1.64 ERA and 70 strikeouts in 71.1 innings of work. Opponents are hitting just .226 in 10 starts against Wacha, who leads the Big 12 in complete games with two and ranks among the league leaders in several other categories including innings pitched, strikeouts and opponent batting average.

A season ago, the Texarkana, Texas, native earned Freshman All-America honors as he went 9-2 with a 2.90 ERA and a save in helping lead the Aggies to the NCAA Coral Gables Regional final. Appearing in 25 games, Wacha made 10 starts and held opponents to a paltry .218 average. His nine victories were the second most all-time by an A&M freshman hurler. He allowed just 38 runs in 105.2 innings of work and fell just three shy of reaching the 100-strikeout plateau, while also earning an honorable mention all-Big 12 selection.

The 2011 Collegiate National Team will be led by Missouri head coach Tim Jamieson, who will serve as the squad's manager. The team will begin play in late June and is scheduled to face the Japan National Team in a series of games between July 3-9.

STILSON & BRATSEN RECOGNIZED IN BIG 12 WEEKLY AWARDS (APRIL 26)

For the second time this season, Texas A&M junior pitcher John Stilson and freshman outfielder Krey Bratsen were recognized for their outstanding play on the baseball diamond. On April 26, Stilson was selected as the Phillips 66 Big 12 Co-Pitcher of the Week while Bratsen was selected as the league's Newcomer of the Week.

Kansas State's closer James Allen shared Pitcher of the Week honors with Stilson, while Missouri's Conner Mach edged Texas A&M outfielder Tyler Naquin for Player of the Week accolades.

A complete-game, career-high 12-strikeout performance highlighted Stilson's outing during a win over No. 15 Oklahoma State last Friday. Only a muffed throw at first base with two outs in the top of the ninth prevented Stilson from earning a complete game shutout.

The Texarkana, Texas, native retired the first 14 batters he faced and took a perfect game into the fifth inning before an OSU single broke up the no-hit bid. Stilson was undeterred by the single and retired nine straight following the hit. Scattering just four hits on the night, Stilson collected the most strikeouts in a game by an Aggie this season while walking none.

Bratsen, meanwhile, continues to tear up the Big 12 during his rookie campaign, going 8-for-16 (.500) last week with four runs, three RBI and a pair of multi-hit games.

During the opener of the OSU series, Bratsen went 3-for-4 with a pair of RBI to help lead the Aggies to a victory. The Bryan, Texas, native again enjoyed a three-hit performance during the series finale, going 3-for-5 with a pair of runs and two stolen bases.

STRIPLING NAMED BIG 12 PITCHER OF THE WEEK - PART 2 (APRIL 18)

For the second time this season, Texas A&M junior pitcher Ross Stripling has been honored as Phillips 66 Big 12 Pitcher of the Week as April 18 he was selected by a panel of media covering the league.

Stripling's first career complete game, a four-hitter, proved to be the driving force behind the Aggie's 2-1 victory over Baylor on April 17. The win gave Texas A&M its fifth consecutive series victory to begin Big 12 play and was Stripling's team-leading seventh on the mound.

After the first two batters of the game hit safely off Stripling to give Baylor a 1-0 lead, the Aggie right-hander settled into a groove. Beginning with final batter of the third inning, the Southlake, Texas, native retired 15 consecutive batters and 19 of the game's final 20 hitters, putting up 1-2-3 frames in the fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh and ninth innings.

With the Aggie offense being held at bay, it was Stripling who kept Texas A&M in the game until a few key late hits put two A&M runs on the scoreboard. Stripling notched eight punch outs while walking only two in the 116-pitch effort.

Stripling becomes the eighth Aggie pitcher to earn the award more than once in a single season. He was also recognized as the league's Pitcher of the Week on March 21 after earning a pair of victories over nationally-ranked opponents Cal State Fullerton and Oklahoma.

BRATSEN HONORED AS BIG 12 NEWCOMER OF THE WEEK (MARCH 28)

Coming off an impressive week in which he helped lead the Texas A&M baseball team to a 4-0 record that included a sweep of Kansas, freshman outfielder Krey Bratsen was named Big 12 Newcomer of the Week on March 28

The Bryan, Texas, product been an offensive force for the Aggies all season long but took his game to another level during the weekend of March 20-27 when he hit .438 (7-for-16) with a double, five RBI, two runs and two stolen bases.

Bratsen's already solid week became outstanding on March 26 when he notched a career-high four hits during a 4-for-5 afternoon that featured two runs, two RBI and a steal in the 11-1 win over the Jayhawks.

He kept the momentum of the week going into March 27's contest when he notched his team-leading 11th multi-hit game as the Aggies completed the sweep of Kansas. In the series finale, Bratsen was 2-for-3 at the plate, swiped a base and knocked home two of the Aggie runs in a 3-1 victory.

In addition to his exploits at the plate, Bratsen also foiled a potential KU rally by gunning down a runner at third base from center field during the seventh inning of Sunday's contest. In the three games against KU, Bratsen was 7-for-12 (.582) as the Aggies ascended to the top of the Big 12 standings.

STRIPLING NAMED BIG 12 PITCHER OF THE WEEK (MARCH 21)

After earning victories over a pair of nationally-ranked opponents, Texas A&M junior pitcher Ross Stripling was selected on March 21 as Big 12 Pitcher of the Week.

Additionally, he was named College Baseball 360.com Primetime Pitcher of the Week and CollegeBaseballInsider.com Central Region Pitcher of the Week.

For the week, Stripling was 2-0 with just two runs allowed in 13 innings of work with 12 strikeouts and a 1.38 ERA. He was joined by Texas Tech's Stephen Hagen and Andre Wheeler, who were honored by the league office as Player and Newcomer of the Week, respectively.

The Southlake, Texas, native's outstanding week began when he was given the starting nod against No. 13 Cal State Fullerton on March 15. Stripling baffled the Titan hitters all night long en route to tossing seven shutout innings while yielding only three hits and a pair of walks. He also struck out five batters in the winning effort.

Stripling was back in action on March 20 as he drew the start on the road against the Big 12's top-hitting team, No. 2 Oklahoma. The junior righty was also outstanding against the Sooners, tossing six innings of work while allowing one just run and scattering seven hits with no walks and seven punch outs.

NON-CONFERENCE SERIES WINNING STREAK AT OLSEN ROLLS ON

There were some tense moments in March 13th's contest against FIU but a late inning rally gave the Aggies' an 8-5 victory and prolonged an impressive streak against non-conference competition at Olsen Field. Texas A&M baseball has not lost a three-game series at its home park to a non-Big 12 opponent since dropping two of three games to Cal State Northridge in March 1995.

This spring the Aggies have earned series wins over Le Moyne, Gonzaga and FIU to keep the streak alive and have one final non-conference, three-game series at Olsen this season when Dallas Baptist comes to town in early May.

AGGIES LIGHT UP THE SCOREBOARD AGAINST THE GENTS

The A&M bats broke out in a big way against Centenary on March 8, racking up a season-high 21 runs and 23 hits while achieving something that had not been done in 20 years - scoring in every inning.

After notching the initial run of the game in the bottom of the first, the Aggies plated runs in each of the next seven innings before closing out the win in the top of the ninth. The last time a Texas A&M team scored in each inning of a game was Feb 18, 1991, against Westmont.

NAQUIN COMPLETES THE CYCLE AGAINST THE COOGS

The Aggies entered their finale at the Houston College Classic against Houston on March 6 in need of something to spark their offense which has scored only one run in the first two games of the tournament. Sophomore right fielder Tyler Naquin provided that spark and completed one of the rarest feats in baseball by completing the cycle against the Cougars.

During the first inning, the Spring, Texas, native wasted no time getting his historic night going as he doubled to plate the Aggies' first run. A two-run, second inning triple put the thought of the cycle in the back of peoples minds and extended the A&M lead to 4-0.

However, it was Naquin's sixth-inning home run that reached the seats in right with a runner on base that got the Aggie fans buzzing about seeing one of the rarest accomplishments in a baseball game.

The A&M right fielder stepped to the plate for his next at bat in the top of the seventh needing only a single to etch his name in Aggie baseball history. On a 2-2 delivery from UH reliever Travis Jenkins Naquin singled sharply to left to give him the first cycle by an A&M player since Blake Stouffer accomplished the feat again Ohio State on June 3, 2007, against Ohio State.

HEAD COACH ROB CHILDRESS

One vs the top pitching coaches and recruiters in the country, Rob Childress is in his sixth season as the coach vs the Texas A&M baseball program.

The Gilmer, Texas, native's expertise as a pitching coach is evident and has made an immediate impact, as A&M's pitching staff has ranked second in the rugged Big 12 in earned run average in each vs his five seasons. His 2006 squad finished 25th in the country with a 3.56 team ERA, the Aggies' lowest since 1993 (3.40), while the 2010 staff ranked 13th nationally at 3.70--the highest finish by an A&M staff in 16 years.

A year ago, Childress and the Aggies accomplished something done only twice before in the program's 108-year history by earning a fourth consecutive trip to the NCAA tournament. The 2010 campaign also saw Texas A&M claim 43 victories to surpass the 40-win plateau for the third time in four seasons. Additionally, the Aggies once again ascended to the top vs the Big 12 as they claimed their third league crown under Childress' direction when A&M won the league's postseason tournament. Along the way the Aggie pitching staff, led by All-Americans Barret Loux and John Stilson, ranked as one vs the country's best, finishing atop the Big 12 and second nationally in strikeouts per nine innings (9.3). The Aggies' 612 strikeouts set a school record, topping the previous year's total vs 568.

In 2009, Childress guided the Aggies to 37 wins and the school's third consecutive NCAA tournament berth, just the sixth time in the program's 107-year history that an A&M squad has advanced to the postseason three straight years. The pitching staff set a school record with 568 strikeouts, leading the Big 12 and finishing seventh nationally with an average vs 9.5 per nine innings.

Named the Big 12's Coach vs the Year by his peers in 2008, Childress guided the Aggies to 46 wins, their first regular-season championship in nine years and the first back-to-back NCAA regional championships in school history. Along the way A&M set a new school and Big 12 record by winning 16 straight conference games.

After just one season at the helm, Childress orchestrated the biggest turnaround in NCAA Division I baseball. His 2007 team finished 48-19, winning 23 more games than in 2006, in addition to claiming the NCAA College Station Regional championship, a berth in the Super Regionals and the school's first Big 12 title since 1999.

Childress was named the 19th head baseball coach in school history on June 21, 2005.

GONZO NAMED TO JOHNNY BENCH AWARD WATCH LIST

Texas A&M senior catcher Kevin Gonzalez was honored on March 10 when he was selected to the Watch List for the 2011 Coleman Company-Johnny Bench Award delivered by Papa John's Pizza.

The Greater Wichita Area Sports Commission selected 42 catchers to the watch list after being nominated by their coaches for the award, which is given annually to the top NCAA Division I catcher.

Semifinalists for the award will be announced on May 19 before the finalists are unveiled on June 6. The Coleman Company-Johnny Bench Award is set to be presented in a ceremony in Wichita, Kan., on June 30.

STILSON EARNS PLAYER OF WEEK HONORS (FEB. 28)

Texas A&M junior John Stilson was selected Big 12 Pitcher of the Week on Feb. 28 after turning in a career performance during the Aggies' 1-0 extra-inning win over Gonzaga on Feb. 25. Along with Stilson, the league office also honored a pair of Sooners as Oklahoma infielder Garrett Buechele was named Big 12 Player of the Week and redshirt freshman pitcher Jordan John was selected Big 12 Newcomer of the Week.

In a pitching match-up that Baseball America billed as a showdown between a pair of potential first-round picks, Stilson tossed a career-high nine shutout innings and tied his personal best with nine strikeouts. The Texarkana, Texas, native matched Gonzaga ace Ryan Carpenter pitch-for-pitch and continued to put zeros on the scoreboard before leaving a scoreless game that was bound for extra innings after throwing 107 pitches. His dominant performance, which featured just four hits allowed and no walks, paved the way for the Aggies to win the game, 1-0, on a walk-off single in the 11th inning.

He becomes the first Aggie to win a weekly award from the league office this season and the first pitcher to garner the honor since Barret Loux earned the recognition twice a year ago.

CHILDRESS ECLIPSES THE 200-WIN MILESTONE

A win in the 2011 season opener was not only a great way to begin his sixth season at the helm of the Aggie baseball program but it proved to be a milestone victory for head coach Rob Childress. The 3-1 win over Le Moyne was the 200th career victory for the A&M skipper.

He joined only two other coaches in program history to claim 200 wins during their tenure. Tom Chandler led the program for 26 seasons from 1959-84 and along the way notched 660 wins. Chandler was proceeded by Mark Johnson who led the Aggie baseball program 21 years from 1985-2005 and piled up a school-record 876 victories.

Entering the Missouri series, Childress has compiled a 228-125-2 (.645) record at Texas A&M.

Amazingly, Texas A&M has enjoyed remarkable stability in its baseball program and has had just three head coaches since 1959.

The Childress era has also seen the Aggies' trophy case expand with the addition of a trio of Big 12 titles. In 2007, during just his second season in Aggieland, Childress oversaw an Aggie squad that increased its win total by 23 victories and claimed a Big 12 title with an impressive run at the league's postseason tournament. The Aggies reached the NCAA Super Regionals that season, a feat they would repeat the next season when they claimed the Big 12 regular season crown. The success has continued as Texas A&M again claimed the Big 12 Championship last season, defeating Baylor in the finale of the Big 12 Tournament.

THE DRIVE FOR FIVE

Texas A&M has the chance to do something during the 2011 season that has never happened before in the program's 109 year history - make a fifth consecutive NCAA Tournament appearance.

Head coach Rob Childress has led the Aggies to the postseason each of the last four seasons, a feat that has happened only twice before at Texas A&M. Former head coach Tom Chandler led his squad to the NCAA Regionals each season from 1975 to 1978 and 11 years later the Aggies enjoyed a similar four-year run from 1986-89 under the direction of head coach Mark Johnson

AGGIES ON THE TUBE

No stranger to the national spotlight, the Aggies have had 41 of their games televised either regionally or nationally over the last four years.

Texas A&M is scheduled to make 11 regular-season TV appearances during the 2011 regular season.
