LEADING OFF

The Texas A&M Aggies head to the Palmetto State looking to build on the recent momentum that has seen them win eight of their last nine games, including five of six in SEC action. The Aggies play the South Carolina Gamecocks in a three-game series one weekend after winning two of three at Ole Miss. A&M will send true freshman Grayson Long to the mound on Thursday for his first-ever weekend start. Mikey Reynolds looks to extend his string of reaching base to 26 games and Troy Stein will try to extend a career-long seven-game hit streak.

A DIFFERENT STREAK

Although Mikey Reynolds career-long hit streak was snapped at 22 games in the Aggies' 2-1 win over Ole Miss last Sunday, he still has an impressive string going. Reynolds has reached base safely via hit, walk or hit-by-pitch in all 26 games this season. Reynolds, who has hit safely in 23 of 25 games, reached by way of a walk in the season opener vs UIC and reached by way both a hit-by-pitch and an intentional walk in the first game of the doubleheader sweep of Ole Miss. He is hitting .426 on the season with a .483 on-base percentage, 19 runs, six doubles, 13 RBI and 11 stolen bases.

COLE TRAIN

Cole Lankford has been playing his best collegiate baseball as of late. In his last 14 games (the Aggies' last 15 games), Lankford is batting .379 (22-for-58) with seven multiple hit games, five doubles, two triples, one home run and 13 RBI. In the weekend series at No. 8 Cal State Fullerton, he went 6-for-13 with five RBI. In the last five games, Lankford has three 3-hit games, going 3-for-5 each time. In the series finale against Georgia, Lankford came up just a single shy of hitting for the cycle going 3-for-5 with three runs, one double, one triple, one home run and one RBI. In the series finale against No. 6 Ole Miss, Lankford keyed the Aggies comeback, going 2-for-4 with one double and two runs scored.

CHILDRESS EARNS WIN NUMBER 300

With the Aggies' midweek win over Houston Baptist on March 12, head coach Rob Childress reached the 300-win plateau for his career. Childress owns a 307-161-2 record, all as the skipper of the Aggies. He trails only Mark Johnson (876 - 1985-2005) and Tom Chandler (660 - 1959-84) on A&M's career win list.

TEXAS A&M/SOUTH CAROLINA SERIES NOTABLES

Texas A&M and South Carolina have met on just one prior occasion with the Gamecocks posting a 5-4 win in the first round of the 2011 College World Series. Brandon Wood had three RBI in the loss for the Aggies.

MORE ON SOUTH CAROLINA

South Carolina is 19-6 overall and 2-4 in SEC play. The Gamecocks bounced back for a 3-1 win over the College of Charleston after suffering a three-game league sweep at the hands of Arkansas. South Carolina boasts 48 former players who have gone on to play in the Major Leagues. The group is headlined by two-time MLB All-Star outfielderBrian Roberts and 12-year veteran Mookie Wilson who snuck a ground ball past Bill Buckner in game six of the 1986 World Series, one of the most famous plays in MLB annals.

This season, eight pitchers have taken the mound as Aggies for the first time, including three true freshmen. The eight pitchers have combined to allow 15 earned runs on 60 hits and 33 walks over 81.1 innings. They own a 7-2 record with seven saves, a 1.65 ERA and 71 strikeouts. FEELING THINGS OUT

Still testing things out to find the solid lineup for the meat of the season, head coach Rob Childress has yet to duplicate a lineup in 2013, using 24 different batting orders in 26 games. Krey Bratsen and Mikey Reynolds are the only two players to start all 26 games.

The trio of Reynolds, Bratsen and Allemand are also the only three to bat in the same spot in the order more than 13 times with Reynolds leading off all 26 games, Bratsen batting in the No. 2 spot 24 times and Blake Allemand batting in the No. 3 spot 15 times. The Aggies have had nine different batters hit the No. 7 spot and eight different batters hit in the No. 6 spot. Allemand has hit in six different spots in the order.

NKOTB

Texas A&M is in the midst of its first season in the Southeastern Conference. After 16 seasons in the Big 12 Conference, the Aggies will meet a new set of league mates. This year, A&M will face 10 of 13 possible conference opponents in the regular season, with no series scheduled against Florida, Kentucky and Vanderbilt this season.

The Aggies are 127-85-3 (.598) against current members of the SEC, including 3-0 vs Alabama, 38-29-1 vs Arkansas, 6-1 vs Florida, 3-0 vs Georgia, 3-1 vs Kentucky, 15-12-1 vs LSU, 6-3 vs Ole Miss, 8-6 vs Mississippi State, 44-32-1 vs Missouri, 0-1 vs South Carolina, 1-0 vs Tennessee. With long-time Big 12 companion Missouri out of the equation, A&M entered 2013 campaign with a 78-52-2 (.595) mark against the old guard. Texas A&M had never faced Auburn, Georgia and Vanderbilt prior to the 2013 campaign.

AGGIES SELECTED FIFTH IN THE SEC WESTERN DIVISION

The Texas A&M baseball team will need to earn love in the SEC as the league's coaches relegated the Aggies to fifth in the SEC Western Division in the league's preseason coaches poll released on Tuesday.

Arkansas was selected as the favorite in the Western Division, earning 12 of the 14 first-place votes. LSU and Mississippi State were slotted in second and third place with one first-place vote apiece. Ole Miss was tabbed fourth followed by Texas A&M, Alabama and Auburn.

Vanderbilt was ranked first in the Eastern Division with 12 first-place votes, followed by Florida in second place. Kentucky and South Carolina were tied for third and each garnered one first-place vote. Georgia was picked fifth, followed by Tennessee and fellow league newcomer Missouri.

GRUELING SCHEDULE

The Aggies schedule features eight teams in the Baseball America Preseason Top 25 for a total of 20 games. The slate also highlights seven games against three teams in the BA Preseason Top 5 and 13 games against five teams in the BA Preseason Top 10. The Aggies play preseason No. 1 North Carolina and No. 18 Rice at the Astros Foundation College Classic at Minute Maid Park. They have a non-conference road series at No. 22 Cal State Fullerton. They have SEC series at No. 13 Ole Miss, No. 7 South Carolina and No. 3 Arkansas and SEC home series against No. 5 Mississippi State and No. 10 LSU.

POSTSEASON STREAK CONTINUES INTO 2013

Prior to the arrival of head coach Rob Childress, Texas A&M had never appeared in the NCAA Tournament more than four consecutive years. Hosting an NCAA Regional in 2012 extended the Aggies current string to six consecutive years, something that had never happened before in the program's 112 year history.

Childress has led the Aggies to the postseason each of the last six seasons, topping the previous-high water mark of four-straight trips, a feat that had happened only twice before at Texas A&M. Former head coach Tom Chandler led his squad to the NCAA Regionals each season from 1975 to 1978 and 11 years later the Aggies enjoyed a similar four-year run from 1986-89 under the direction of head coach Mark Johnson.

SETTING THE TABLE

Batters leading off an inning are hitting .339 (64-for-189) with 11 doubles, three triples, three home runs and a .421 on-base percentage. Daniel Mengden has a .650 on-base percentage, going 8-for-15 (.533) with four walks and one hit-by-pitch to lead the way. Jace Statum owns a .625 on-base percentage going 4-for-10 (.400) at the plate with six walks in 16 plate appearances. Mikey Reynolds owns a .522 on-base percentage, going 19-for-41 (.463) with three walks and two HBP. Krey Bratsen also owns .400 average, going 6-for-15 in his 15 leadoff plate appearances.

OWNING THE MIDWEEK

The Aggies are 8-0 in midweek action this season, winning the games by a combined margin of 50-16. The pitching staff owns a 1.88 ERA, holding foes to a .194 batting average. Grayson Long (3-0), Corey Ray (2-0) and Rafael Pineda (1-0) have accounted for all the midweek starts on the mound. Troy Stein is hitting .500 (6-for-12) with two triples. Jonathan Moroney (.412), Mikey Reynolds (.371) and Daniel Mengden (.367) are all hitting .350 or better. Cole Lankford is hitting .320 with two doubles, two triples and eight RBI. Mengden and Mitchell Nau have seven RBI apiece. Stein (.571) and Blake Allemand (.529) both have on-base percentages above .500.

HEAD COACH ROB CHILDRESS

One of the top pitching coaches and recruiters in the country, Rob Childress enters his eighth season as the head coach of the Texas A&M baseball program.

The Gilmer, Texas, native's expertise as a pitching coach is evident and has made an immediate impact as A&M's pitching staff has ranked first or second in the rugged Big 12 in earned run average in each of his seven seasons, including a Big 12-best 2.92 team ERA in 2012.

During the 2012 campaign, Childress guided the Aggies to a school-record sixth consecutive trip to the NCAA tournament as A&M hosted an NCAA Regional in College Station for the second straight season.

In 2011, Childress captured co-Big 12 Coach of the Year honors as he led the Aggies to another milestone campaign as he guided the squad back to college baseball's promised land of Omaha, Neb., and the College World Series. The trip to Omaha was the fifth in program history and capped off another successful run in the NCAA Tournament as the Aggies reached the postseason for a school-record fifth consecutive time in six seasons during Childress' tenure.

The 2011 team also claimed the 23rd conference championship in program history as it brought home both the Big 12 regular season and tournament titles before emerging victorious in both the College Station Regional and Tallahassee Super Regional.

During the 2011 season, Childress and the Aggies also accomplished something never done before in the program's 109-year history by earning a fifth consecutive trip to the NCAA Tournament. The 2011 campaign also saw Texas A&M claim 47 victories to surpass the 40-win plateau for the fourth time in five seasons.

Under Childress' guidance in 2010, the Aggies once again ascended to the top of the Big 12 as they claimed yet another conference crown under Childress' direction when A&M won the league's postseason tournament. In 2009, Childress guided the Aggies to 37 wins and another trip to the postseason.

Named the Big 12's Coach of the Year by his peers in 2008, Childress guided the Aggies to 46 wins, their first regular-season championship in nine years and the first back-to-back NCAA regional championships in school history. Along the way A&M set a new school and Big 12 record by winning 16 straight conference games.

After just one season at the helm, Childress orchestrated the biggest turnaround in NCAA Division I baseball. His 2007 team finished 48-19, winning 23 more games than in 2006, in addition to claiming the NCAA College Station Regional championship, a berth in the Super Regionals and the school's first Big 12 title since 1999.

Childress was named the 19th head baseball coach in school history on June 21, 2005.
