STAR STUDDED STAFF

- Associate head coach Lindsey Walton brings an abundance of NCAA coaching experience to Aggieland, as she joined the program after a five-year stint as the head coach at Oklahoma, where she guided the Sooners to the NCAA Tournament in 2019, their first appearance since 2014. No stranger to the SEC, Walton spent eight seasons as an assistant coach and recruiting director for Craig Skinner's staff at Kentucky prior to taking the head coaching job at Oklahoma. During her tenure with the Wildcats, she worked closely with the back row passers and outside hitters, while helping lead the development of three-time SEC Libero of the Year Ashley Dusek.
- Jen Woods returned to her alma mater as an associate head coach on Morrison's staff, bringing a range of coaching experience to Aggieland. A former Texas A&M volleyball captain (2004-07), she most recently coached alongside Morrison at League One Volleyball, helping manage and mentor volleyball clubs across the United States. Prior to her time with League One Volleyball, Woods founded Houston Skyline Volleyball. She was instrumental during her 11-year tenure, developing the club into a perennial top-10 team in the nation.
- Jeff Fiorenza joined the staff as an assistant coach during the summer. Fiorenza was previously at ACU where he spent the last year as an assistant coach. Fiorenza too has experience in the conference as he was a volunteer coach under long-standing national champion head coach Skinner. Fiorenza was part of the staff when the Wildcats won back-to-back SEC Championships and made consecutive NCAA Sweet 16 appearances.
- Keeping a familiar face around the program, Coach Morrison retained the services of director of volleyball analytics Evan Antal for his second season with the Maroon & White. During his first season with the Aggies, he handled match analysis, video coordination and statistical analysis.

JAMIE MORRISON

1ST YEAR AT TEXAS A&M | 17 YEARS COACHING

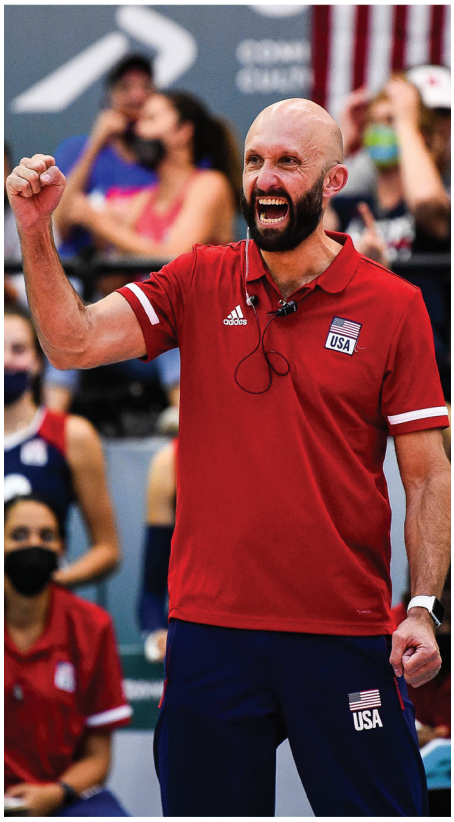

THE COLLEGIATE LEVEL

- The Texas A&M volleyball program has a new leader in the form of Jamie Morrison. He takes the reigns of the team to become the seventh head coach in program history, bringing a diverse range of experience to Aggieland.
- He and his newly assembled staff had a positive spring, as the team played eight matches across four dates, allowing the staff to implement their style of play versus quality competition.
- Morrison knows what it takes to reach the heights of college volleyball. During his stint with USC he helped take the Trojans to an NCAA final four appearance early in his coaching career. Four years later he helped guide Concordia Irvine a step further, as the program reached the NAIA championship game, coming up just short. Most recently in the collegiate realm, Morrison was part of an NCAA championship push with the Texas Longhorns, finishing as national runners up.

ON THE INTERNATIONAL STAGE

- Winning at the highest level is something Morrison is accustomed to, as he served as a coach on three-separate Olympic-medal winning staffs for the USA men's and women's volleyball teams. He claimed his first medal at the 2008 Games held in Beijing, China, with the men's national team, brining home the gold medal. He then switched over to the women's national team, securing silver in the London Games (2012), followed by bronze in Rio (2016).
- Morrison was selected to lead the women's junior national team for the third-consecutive year. He took over the reigns in 2021, where he led U18 women's team to a bronze-medal showing at the FIVB U18 World Championships in Durango, Mexico. He then went a step further in 2022 as he and the U19 women's team claimed gold at the U19 Pan American Cup. Most recently, Morrison led the U19's to the 2023 FIVB World Championships title, where they defeated Turkey in the final, 3-2.
