Game Notes

Key Game Notes

- A&M has won three straight games, including a 74-62 victory against Akron at home Friday.
- North Texas has won two straight and is coming off a 64-62 win at Rice Saturday.
- A&M has beaten two nationally-ranked teams in non-conference play for just the second time in its history. The 1978-79 team posted four non-conference wins against ranked opponents. A&M plays at No. 14 Washington Dec. 22 in the Big 12/Pac 10 Hardwood Series.
- The Aggies have won 47 straight non-conference home games since falling to St. Joseph's (58-51) in the 2005 NIT quarterfinals. A&M has won 60 straight regular-season non-conference games at home since losing to A&M-Corpus Christi (82-80) on Dec. 13, 2003. A&M is 79-9 all-time in non-conference games at Reed (.897).
- The Aggies are 54-6 (.900) at home the last four seasons and are 87-12 (.879) in the last six years, the third most home wins in the country (Memphis has won 98 and Kansas 88).
- A&M Coach Mark Turgeon is 35-3 in regular-season non-conference games at A&M, including wins against Arizona, Washington, Ohio State, Alabama and LSU. The losses were at Arizona in 2007-08, to Tulsa in the 2008 South Padre Invitational, and to West Virginia in the 2009 76 Classic. Turgeon is 27-0 in non-conference games played at Reed Arena, including wins against Arizona, Alabama and LSU.
- The Aggies are nationally ranked (No. 19 AP; No. 22 coaches) for the first time since Feb. 18, 2008.

About North Texas

- North Texas is 5-2 this season and has won two straight.
- The Mean Green is in its eighth season under Head Coach Johnny Jones.
- North Texas returns all five starters from last year's team that finished 20-12 and placed second in the West Division of the Sun Belt Conference.
- The Mean Green is the preseason favorite to win the West Division in the Sun Belt. Senior forward Eric Tramiel is a preseason first-team all-conference pick while junior guard Josh White was named to the second team. White leads the team with a 17.1 scoring average and is making .481 from three-point range. Tramiel is averaging 11.8 points and 4.8 rebounds.

Series Notes

- A&M leads the series, 11-7, including a 4-3 record in College Station and a 2-0 mark at Reed Arena.
- The teams last met in 2005-06, with the Aggies escaping with a 72-70 victory at Reed. A&M played the Mean Green in the first game at Reed Arena on Nov. 13, 1998. The Aggies won, 80-59.
- A&M is 21-13 against current members of the Sun Belt Conference. The last time the Aggies played a Sun Belt team was when they beat Arkansas-Little Rock (75-35) on Nov. 27, 2006 at Reed Arena.

Team Notes

Who's Back?

■ A&M's senior class needs 16 wins to become the winningest class in school history.

■ The Aggies return 13 of 16 lettermen from last season, including three starters and seven of the top nine scorers. The returning starters are all be fourth-year seniors from Dallas-- Bryan Davis, Donald Sloan and Derrick Roland. Other returning players who saw extensive action last season will be juniors Nathan Walkup and B.J. Holmes, and sophomores Dash Harris and David Loubeau.

■ A&M lost top scorer Josh Carter (graduation) and top rebounder Chinemelu Elonu (NBA Draft), along with team co-captain Bryson Graham (graduation).

Who's New?

■ The four-man freshman class was ranked among the top recruiting classes in the nation. Two (Naji Hibbert and Khris Middleton) were ranked among the top 100 recruits nationally by ESPN. Meanwhile, Ray Turner was rated among the top six players in Texas and Jeremy Adams was the No. 2-ranked prospect in Mississippi.

Drive for Five

■ A&M has made four straight appearances in the NCAA Tournament. Prior to this streak, A&M never played in consecutive NCAA Tournaments and had not made an appearance since 1987. Four of A&M's 10 NCAA appearances, and five of its eight NCAA wins, have come in the last four seasons.

■ A&M is one of just six schools to have won at least one NCAA Tournament game in each of the last four years. The others are Memphis, North Carolina, Pittsburgh, UCLA and Texas. A&M is one of just 16 schools to play in the last four NCAA Tournaments.

■ A&M is one of just three schools with a postseason win in each of the last five years (1 NIT, 4 NAAs). The others are North Carolina (5 NAAs), and Memphis (1 NIT, 4 NAAs).

■ A&M has posted five straight 20-win seasons. Before the 2004-05 season, A&M had only six 20-win seasons in its entire history. The Aggies' 24 wins last year tied for fourth most in school history.

■ A&M is 119-47 (.717) in the last five years and 76-28 (.731) in the last three seasons.

■ A&M, Kansas and Texas are the only three Big 12 schools that have won at least 20 games in each of the last five years.

NBA Aggies

■ Chinemelu Elonu earned honorable mention All-Big 12 honors last year as a junior and was named the Big 12's most improved player by the Fort Worth Star-Telegram. After graduating in May, Elonu elected to forego his senior year and enter the NBA Draft. He was selected by the Los Angeles Lakers in the second round with the 59th overall pick.

■ A&M is the only Big 12 school to have a player drafted in each of the last three years. An Aggie has been chosen in four of the last five NBA Drafts. The others were Antoine Wright in 2005 (first round to the New Jersey Nets), Acie Law IV in 2007 (first round to the Atlanta Hawks) and DeAndre Jordan in 2008 (second round to the Los Angeles Clippers). Prior to Wright's selection in 2005, A&M had not had a player drafted since Winston Crite in 1987.

■ Prior to 2007, A&M never had more than one active NBA player.

■ Law, Wright and Jordan each started and had 20-point efforts in NBA games last season. Wright had started in 53 of 65 games for the Dallas Mavericks and had a career-high 24 points against Indiana. Wright was traded to the Toronto Raptors in June. Law appeared in 55 games for the Hawks and scored a career-high 22 points against Cleveland. He was traded to the Golden State Warriors in June and to the Charlotte Bobcats Monday. Jordan played in 53 games for the Clippers, starting 13 times, and scored a career-high 23 points against the Los Angeles Lakers. He also had a 20-rebound game against Golden State and had 6 blocked shots against Minnesota.

Making the Grade

■ Eleven of 12 seniors have graduated in the last three years, including Acie Law and Chinemelu Elonu.

Schedule Notes

■ A&M will play defending Pac 10 Conference champion Washington on Dec. 22 in Seattle as part of the 2009 Big 12/Pac-10 Hardwood Series. Both teams advanced to the second round of the 2009 NCAA Tournament. The Aggies finished 24-10 and tied for fourth in the Big 12 with a 9-7 mark, while the Huskies won the Pac 10 title with a 14-4 record and went 26-9 overall. The Aggies have won four straight against the Huskies and lead the series, 4-1. The teams last met in the semifinals of the 2007 NIT Season Tipoff in New York City, with the Aggies posting a 77-63 victory.

■ The leagues split the series, 6-6, last season, but the Big 12 had a 10-7 edge in all games between conference teams. The Pac-10 has a 13-11 overall advantage in the first two years of the competition.

■ A&M played Arizona in the first two years of the series with each team winning at home.

Team Notes

Reed Arena

- A&M has won 61 of its last 68 home games, including 22 of its last 29 in Big 12 play.
- The Aggies finished 16-2 at home last season and are the only Big 12 team to win at least 15 home games for the last five consecutive seasons.
- The Aggies have won 47 straight non-conference home games, including wins against Arizona, Alabama and LSU. The last loss was to St. Joseph's (58-51) in the 2005 NIT quarterfinals. A&M has won 60 straight regular-season non-conference home games since 2003. A&M is 79-9 all-time in non-conference games at Reed (.898).
- The Aggies are 54-6 (.900) at home the last four seasons and are 87-12 (.879) in the last six years, the third most home wins in the country (Memphis has won 98 and Kansas 88).
- A&M is 127-53 (.706) in its 12th season at Reed Arena. The Aggies were 41-41 (.500) the first six years at Reed.
- The $23 million, 68,000-square-foot Cox-McFerrin Center for Aggie Basketball was officially dedicated in January 2009. The addition includes practice gyms, locker rooms, film rooms, a weight room, training facilities and offices.
- Reed Arena is in its 12th season as the home of Texas A&M basketball. The 12,500-seat facility opened in 1998 and was named for Houston veterinarian Chester J. Reed '47 and his wife, Billie Jean, who contributed the nucleus of the assets used to fund the facility.
- The top 14 single-game attendance marks in A&M history (and 18 of the top 20) have been set in the last four years. The top 14 non-conference attendance marks also have been set in the last four seasons.
- A&M averaged 11,013 fans per game in Big 12 play last season.

All-Sports Power

- Texas A&M captured three NCAA team championships in 2008-09 (men's golf, men's outdoor track and field, women's outdoor track and field), the most of any school in the country.
- The Aggies finished 13th in the 2008-09 NACDA Director's Cup, which includes every Division I institution. A&M placed 12th in 2007-08, its highest finish.
- A&M captured the 2008-09 State Farm Lone Star Showdown against Texas for the second straight year. Points are awarded in each sport to the head-to-head winner between the schools.
- The Laboratory for the Study of Intercollegiate Athletics (LSIA) named Texas A&M as the most efficient athletic department in the Big 12. The study analyzed the number of national and conference championships won compared to athletic budgets.

Roster Notes

- The 17 players on the 2009-10 roster are from seven different states.
- The roster includes 10 upperclassmen with four seniors and six juniors.
- The three returning starters (Sloan, Davis, Roland) are all seniors from Dallas.

Turgeon TV Show

The Mark Turgeon TV Show is in its third season of direction by 12th Man Productions. The program will be shown weekly on Fox Sports Net Southwest and Cox Sports TV, and also will be available in the Bryan/College Station market on KBTX-TV on Saturdays (check listings for times). Cox Sports TV, the home channel of the New Orleans Hornets, is a 24-hour, local sports network that delivers exclusive professional, amateur and collegiate sports events to homes in Louisiana, Mississippi, Alabama, Florida, East Texas, and Arkansas. Check local listings for availability. The show will be weekly through the postseason in March. Texas A&M Head Coach Mark Turgeon provides viewers an all-access pass to Aggie Basketball. Turgeon will review highlights and discuss all aspects of the program. Will Johnson will be the host. Fans will be taken from courtside to the locker room with special features and exclusive behind-the-scenes access. 12th Man Productions also produces the Aggie Sports Connection.

Turgeon Radio Show

The Mark Turgeon Radio Show is a live broadcast originating on Thursdays from Wings-N-More restaurant in College Station. The hour-long program is carried locally on WTAW-AM (1620) and is co-hosted by Coach Mark Turgeon and "The Voice of the Aggies," Dave South. The first four shows will be on Nov. 18, Dec. 3, 10 and Dec 17. The show becomes weekly starting on Jan. 7, continuing every Thursday through Feb. 25. Coach Turgeon fields questions from the audience on a wide variety of subjects. The popular show includes in-depth analysis of not only the Aggies, but of the Big 12 and college basketball in general. Turgeon's candid comments give fans an inside look into the program and also features game recaps and previews of upcoming opponents. Fans can email questions to coach@athletics.tamu.edu.

Offense Notes

Breaking Away

- A&M had 21 fast break points against Prairie View A&M, its most since it has 33 vs. Texas State in 2007-08.
- Under Turgeon, the Aggies are 22-1 when they have at least 8 fast-break points.
- A&M is 19-2 under Turgeon when scoring at least 80 points and is 73-10 when it scores at least 60.
- A&M is 45-6 under Turgeon when leading at halftime.

Make Shots, Win Games

- The Aggies have shot better than 50 percent from the field in three games. A&M is 24-0 under Mark Turgeon when it makes at least 50 percent and is 49-12 when it makes better than 40 percent.

Limiting Turnovers

- A&M is 23-6 under Mark Turgeon when it has fewer than 14 turnovers.

Still Strong in the Post

- Although the Aggies are not as deep inside as in recent years, they remain productive. Bryan Davis (6.8) and David Loubeau (4.4) lead the team in rebounding. Davis is fourth in scoring (8.5) while Loubeau is fifth (8.1).
- A&M scored a whopping 48 points in the paint against ASU, its most in a regulation game since it had 62 against Texas State two years ago. Under Turgeon, the Aggies are 55-16 when they score at least 20 points in the paint.
- A&M is averaging 28.5 points in the paint this season. The Aggies averaged 30.0 last season.

Balanced Scoring

- A&M is 7-0 this season when at least three players score in double figures. Nine Players average at least 3.3 points and 12.6 minutes pr game.
- Nine different players have had double-figure scoring efforts and five different players have led the team in scoring.
- Turgeon's teams have always been among the most balanced in college basketball. His first two teams at A&M each averaged more than 70 points per game, but no player averaged more than 14. Each team had at least six players average a minimum of 6.0 points. Turgeon's seven Wichita State teams were similarly balanced.

Off the Bench

- A&M has scored at least 10 bench points in every game, averaging 26.3 per contest.

On the Line

- After making just .500 (16-32) from the line vs. Minnesota, A&M has made .738 (45-61) in the last two games.
- The Aggies have made more free throws (152) than their opponents have attempted (145).
- Last year, A&M was the only Big 12 team to make more free throws (594) than its opponents attempted (577).

Defense Notes

Forcing Turnovers

- A&M has had at least 10 points off turnovers in every game, averaging 18.0 points off turnovers this season.
- A&M has averaged 21.3 points off turnovers in the last three games while allowing just 9.3.
- Under Turgeon, the Aggies are 36-4 when they have more points off turnovers than their opponent.

Stout Defense

- A&M has held six opponents to under 43 percent shooting from the field. Under Turgeon, the Aggies are 30-2 when their opponent shoots under 40 percent and are 50-12 when they make under 50 percent.
- A&M is 47-9 under Turgeon when its opponent scores fewer than 70 points and has won 11 straight.

Rebounding

- Despite a relatively small lineup, the Aggies have out-rebounded or matched all but one opponent (Akron) this season, including a +6 advantage against No. 8 West Virginia.
- The Aggies are 49-9 under Turgeon when out-rebounding their opponent and had won 10 straight before falling to West Virginia. A&M is only 6-13 under Turgeon when being beaten on the boards.
- Turgeon said before the season that the smaller but quicker Aggies would have to "rebound by committee." A&M has done that with nine players averaging between 2.4 and 6.8 rebounds per game.

Stay in the Game

- A&M has had just 10 players foul out in the last 47 games, while opponents have lost 34 players in that span.

- Has played in 109 career games.
- Scored 17 points with 6 rebounds and 3 steals in opening win against Angelo State.
- Made 7-of-10 free throws against ASU; Four of his 5 field goals against ASU were dunks.

Personal Notes

■ Bryan's uncle, Barry Davis, is a former A&M player and assistant coach, and is a member of the A&M Athletics Hall of Fame. Barry is now A&M's Director of Student-Athlete Development ■ Going into high school, Bryan was thought to have better potential as a defensive end or tight end than as a basketball player. He once attended the R.C. Slocum A&M football camp ■ Bryan dunked on an 8-foot goal when he was just eight years old.

Coach Mark Turgeon

Career Highlights

■ A former player and assistant coach at Kansas, 44-year-old Mark Turgeon is entering his third season at Texas A&M. He cut his coaching teeth at Kansas under legends Larry Brown and Roy Williams.

■ Turgeon's 49 wins at A&M in his first two seasons in the Big 12 are a record by a league coach. The previous mark was 47 wins by Kansas' Bill Self (2003-05) and Iowa State's Larry Eustachy (1998-00). Others near the top of the list are Texas Tech's Bob Knight (45), Texas' Rick Barnes (43) and A&M's Billy Gillispie (43).

■ Turgeon's two-year win total ties for the second-best debut in the entire history of any Big 12 school. Eddie Sutton won 52 games his first two years at Oklahoma State (1990-92), while Tom Penders won 49 in his first two seasons at Texas (1988-90).

■ Turgeon is 35-3 in regular-season non-conference games at A&M, including a 27-0 record at home. The losses have been on the road at Arizona in 2007, to Tulsa last year at the South Padre Island Invitational and to West Virginia this season at the 76 Classic.

■ He is only the second coach to lead A&M to consecutive NCAA Tournaments. Turgeon led the Aggies to a 25-11 record in his first season and a 24-10 mark last year. Turgeon's 25 wins in 2007-08 were the most by a Big 12 coach in his debut and tied for the most by a first-year coach in the history of any Big 12 school. Tom Penders went 25-9 in his first year at Texas in 1988-89 prior to the Big 12.

■ Turgeon was inducted into the Topeka Shawnee County Sports Hall of Fame in June. Turgeon helped lead Hayden High School to back-to-back state titles in 1982 and 1983, including a perfect season his senior year. He was an all-city pick and also received all-state recognition.

■ Turgeon went on to play at Kansas, becoming the first Jayhawk to play in four consecutive NCAA Tournaments (1984-87), including a Final Four appearance in 1986. He played in 12 NCAA Tournament games, helping the Jayhawks to an 8-4 record. Turgeon served as head coach at Wichita State for seven seasons before moving on to A&M in 2007.

■ Turgeon has led his teams to at least 20 wins in five of the last six seasons (His WSU team won 17 games in 2006-07). His teams have advanced to postseason play six times in the last seven years.

■ Turgeon's record in the last seven years is 142-66 (.683).

■ Turgeon has led his teams to three NCAA Tournaments in the last four years, winning at least one NCAA game each year.

■ In 2006, he led Wichita State to the Sweet Sixteen, where it was eliminated by eventual Final Four participant George Mason (63-55). The Shockers beat Seton Hall (86-66) and Tennessee (80-73) in the first two rounds. In 2008, Turgeon's first A&M team went 1-1, beating BYU (67-62) in the opener and falling to eventual Final Four participant UCLA (51-49). Last year, the Aggies again downed BYU (79-66) before falling to Final Four-bound Connecticut (92-66).

■ As an assistant coach at Kansas under Larry Brown, Turgeon helped the Jayhawks to the 1988 NCAA Championship. As an assistant at KU under Roy Williams (1988-92), he participated in three NCAA Tournaments in four years, including the 1991 national championship game.

■ As a player, assistant coach and head coach, Turgeon has compiled a 25-11 NCAA Tournament record (8-4 as a player, 13-4 as an assistant, 4-3 as a head coach). Turgeon is the only active Big 12 head coach to play and coach in an NCAA Final Four.

■ Turgeon also participated in the 1995 NCAA Tournament as an assistant coach at Oregon under Jerry Green. It was the Ducks' first NCAA appearance in 34 years.

■ In 12 NCAA Tournament appearances as a player, assistant coach and head coach, Turgeon has lost a first-round NCAA game just once (Oregon in 1995 under Coach Jerry Green).

2010 RECRUITING CLASS

The four players who signed with Texas A&M Nov. 11 hand the Aggies and Head Coach Mark Turgeon one the of the nation's best recruiting classes, according to ESPN analyst Bob Gibbons. Toby Oyedeji (pronounced OH-yuh-DEdG-ee) of Houston; Daniel Alexander of Drippings Springs, Texas; Keith Davis of DeSoto, Texas; and Kourtney Roberson of Arcadia, La., will enter A&M as freshman next fall. All four players are big men measuring at least 6-foot-8. "The four players that the Aggies signed have positioned them to have a surefire top-20 recruiting class," Gibbons said. "When all the dust settles, it could be ranked even higher. No school in America has assembled a class with this much size, length, versatility, and athleticism. Mark Turgeon and his staff are known for doing things the right way and continue to bring top talent to Texas A&M."

Name	Pos.	Ht.	Wt.	Class	Hometown (HS/Prep)
Daniel Alexander	F	6-8	210	FR	Dripping Springs, Texas (High)
Keith Davis	C	6-9	220	FR	DeSoto, Texas (High)
Tobi Oyedeji	F	6-8	215	FR	Houston (Bellaire HS)
Kourtney Roberson	F	6-9	230	FR	Arcadia, La. (High/Christian Life)

Tobi Oyedeji

A 6-foot-8 forward from Bellaire High School in Houston, Oyedeji is the No. 68-ranked prospect in the country by Scout.com. He is the top-ranked senior in Houston after averaging 15 points and 12 rebounds as a junior. Oyedeji also was recruited by Oklahoma, Baylor, LSU, Georgia Tech, and Arizona State.

Tobi Oyedeji: "I feel comfortable at A&M. Coach Turgeon knows how to develop big men. He did a great job of developing Chinemelu Elonu last season. The basketball program has become one of the best in the country and has become a program that wins every year. A&M's facilities are big time. It has everything that you need to be successful. I'm really close with Coach Turgeon and I know the future is bright at A&M. Some of the guys talk about being the first A&M squad to get to the Final Four. That's exciting and I want to be a part of it."

Mark Turgeon: "We have been recruiting Tobi since we first arrived at Texas A&M. He's a great student, great person and great player. His family did a great job of instilling a solid value system in him and it shows in how he carries himself. On the court, Tobi is a hard-working power forward. He controls the game on the defensive end of the floor by blocking shots and rebounding inside and outside of his area. He excels at transitioning from defense to offense and uses his athleticism and length to finish on the break. Offensively, Tobi can score in the paint or from the elbow. His teammates enjoy playing with him because he's not afraid to pass the ball out of the post. Tobi is a product of a great high school program and has been taught how to play the right way."

Daniel Alexander

A 6-foot-8 forward, Alexander is the No. 89-ranked prospect in country by Rivals.com. He earned district MVP honors after averaging 19.6 points and 12 rebounds as a junior at Dripping Springs High School. Last summer, Alexander was invited to the prestigious LeBron James Skills Academy and the Vince Carter Skills Academy. He is featured on the cover ESPN Rise, a national magazine devoted to high school sports. Alexander also was recruited by Arizona, Baylor, Marquette, and Southern California.

Daniel Alexander: "The coaching staff recruited me really hard and it's obvious they worked the hardest in the recruiting game. The distance from home is close enough to where my family can come and see me and far enough where my mother can't come and check my room. I love their playing style. It's more of a motion and more of a fluent game. All the players are genuine guys and they're not worried about themselves. It's like a family and it's an 'all for one, one for all' attitude with them. Coach Turgeon is a straight shooter who tells it like it is and focuses on making you a better basketball player."

Mark Turgeon: "We are thrilled to add Daniel to our basketball program. He's a high-character kid who has a great personality. Daniel's successes on the court mirror his successes in the classroom and he comes from a close-knit family. Daniel is best known for his ability to shoot the basketball. He has great range on his shot and will really be able to help us stretch defenses. He has uncommon ball skills and playmaking ability for a guy his size. Daniel is a well-rounded player who has the talent and ability to impact every aspect of the game by scoring, defending and rebounding. He will help us continue to play our fast-paced offensive attack."

Keith Davis

A 6-foot-9 center, Davis is rated as a 4-star prospect by Scout.com. Last spring, he led DeSoto High School to the Class 5A state championship. He joins a long line of recent athletes from DeSoto who have come to A&M, including Cyrus Gray (football), Tony-Jerod Eddie (football), Garrick Williams (football) and Sydney Carter (women's basketball). Davis also was recruited by Texas, Florida, Oklahoma State and Arkansas.

Keith Davis: "I'm very excited to be an Aggie. When I go there I can be taught the game of basketball from good coaches and be in a good environment. A&M is the perfect spot because I can do my own thing. Coach Turgeon and I would talk and the trust was there and I felt it. When you watch their home games you see the crowd and how everybody is wild. I like how the team gets after the other team on defense and the way they run. It's great to see a team that actually wants to play defense and wants to run up and down the floor. It came down to which staff I was more comfortable with, the depth chart and being close to home and my mother. We all agreed that on these points, A&M was the best fit. Coach Turgeon won't settle for us to be just basketball players. He wants to help us develop as people and get our degrees. They run a lot and give their posts a lot of freedom to run the floor, block shots, and rebound."

Mark Turgeon: "Keith is a very important player for us because he gives us a legitimate Big 12-caliber center. He's a great kid with a lot of ambition. Keith is an elite athlete and uses his athleticism to be a great presence on the defensive end of the floor. He can run the floor and will put a lot of pressure on opposing teams' transition defense. His offensive game is still evolving and we are looking forward to helping him develop into a dominant and complete player. Keith will continue the trend of student-athletes from DeSoto High School being successful at Texas A&M."

Kourtney Roberson

Roberson, a 6-foot-9 forward from Christian Life Academy in Houston, is the half-brother of Bernard King, A&M's all-time leading scorer who played from 1999-03. He was rated No. 87 nationally by ESPN.com as a senior at Arcadia High School, where he was a two-time all-state pick. He averaged 21 points and 15.8 rebounds as a senior, leading the team to a runner-up finish at the state tournament. He was regarded by some publications as the top prospect in Louisiana in 2009. Roberson also was recruited by LSU, Southern California, West Virginia, Texas and Louisiana Tech.

Kourtney Roberson: "A&M is a great school academically and I really like the closeness of the coaches and players. I felt comfortable there and my brother said it was a great place to go to school. I like how A&M treated me and it's a good school. It's a good fit for me. The players and coaches are what made A&M stand out. They are good guys and I feel like they will treat me right. You can talk to the coaches about anything. I have good ball handling skills and I'm a good rebounder. They told me what I need to work on and that I should be able to come in and help them right away."

Mark Turgeon: "We are very excited about the opportunity to coach Kourtney. For his size, he is a player who has a lot of skill and instincts for the game. His best basketball is in front of him. Kourtney is a great example of the type of player we are bringing in to our program. At 6-9, he has the ability to do a lot of different things for us on the court. He has a chance to be a great defender and great all around offensive player for us."
