

THE AGGIE GOLF ASSOCIATION

A charitable fund providing financial support to the Texas A&M Men's Golf program

The Aggie Golf Association serves as an invaluable link between the community and the Texas A&M Men's Golf team. It provides an opportunity for our student-athletes to build lifelong relationships within the Aggie community.

The generous contributions made annually through the Aggie Golf Association enhance the budget of the Men's Golf program and are used for team travel, facility upgrades, equipment and scholarships.

The support also helps our young men complete their education through fifth-year scholarships for student-athletes who have exhausted their eligibility.

Being a member of the Aggie Golf Association is a true honor and quite honestly just fun!

You get to help one of the top men's collegiate golf programs, get to know the coaches and players and of course help them have the best experiences and play in top tournaments.

The best part is getting to meet young men on the team who have such high character and represent our university. I really feel like I am part of the team.

Money raised by the Aggie Golf Association will be added to the Men's Golf fund at the 12th Man Foundation.

It is our hope to grow this fund to provide financial security to the Men's Golf program well into the future and to provide support for capital improvement projects and overseas competition as needed.
