A&M coach Laurie Corbelli, who is entering her 18th season at the helm of the Aggies and the 25th year of her head coaching career, returns seven players -- including two starters plus the libero -- from last year's team that went 20-11, advanced to the NCAA regional semifinals and ranked No. 21 in the 2009 final poll. In addition, Corbelli welcomes eight newcomers who will be competing with the returners for several key positions, as the Aggies lose six seniors, including four starters: All-American Sarah Ammerman and Mary Batis, both four-year starting outside hitters; All-American honorable mention right-side hitter Jennifer Banse; and three-year starting setter Kristen Schevikhoven. Key reserves Jola Kelner, the back-up setter, and defensive specialist Dylan Faulkner also completed their eligibility.

Highlighting the list of returners is preseason All-Big 12 selection Kelsey Black (Amarillo, Texas), who is contending

A&M PLAYER HONORS

Kelsey Black
Preseason All-Big 12 Team

for a starting outside hitter position after serving in a utility-type role each of her first two seasons, as well as middle blockers Lindsey Miller (Katy, Texas), a member of the 2009 Big 12 All-Freshman Team, and Alisia Kastmo (Tyler, Texas), who both led the starters in hitting percentage as freshmen last year.

Sophomore Tori Mellinger (Dallas, Texas), who became the team's designated libero in the fourth match of her rookie campaign, also returns. Mellinger, who also will train as an outside hitter, led the Aggies with 3.45 digs per set in Big 12 matches in 2009.

Chelsea Ringel (Arlington, Texas), a key reserve as an outside hitter and back row defensive player over the last two seasons, also returns and is projected to start on the outside.

Stephanie Minnerly (Arlington, Texas), a middle blocker who started the first three matches in 2009 before suffering a season-ending knee injury, also is back and will be a sophomore athletically after receiving a medical hardship waiver from the NCAA.

Allie Sawatzky (St. Andrews, Manitoba, Canada), who joined the team in January after graduating early from high school, and Allie Freiwald (Littleton, Colo.) will be contending for the starting setter position as freshmen. Rookies Heather Reynolds (Wharton, Texas) and Ashley Vrana (Houston, Texas) will be pushing for time as outside hitters, and senior transfer Sarah Grace (Houston) and freshmen Lauren Conrad (The Woodlands, Texas) and Kelsey Kinley (College Station, Texas) will help shore up the back-row defense.

Furthermore, Corbelli is hoping late-addition Elise Hendrickson, a 6-2 utility-type player from Long Beach, Calif., will be eligible to compete as a junior this season after transferring from the University of Arizona.

A LOOK AT THE OPPOSITION:

SIENA

• Siena, located in Loudonville, N.Y., returns five starters plus the libero and 14 letterwinners overall from last year's team that went 15-13 and placed third in the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference (MAAC) with a 13-5 record.

• The Saints have advanced to the NCAA tournament four of the last five years.

• Top returners include junior outside hitter Aubrey Bobo, a Preseason All-MAAC Team selection after averaging nearly four kills per set and earning first-team All-MAAC honors in 2009, and sophomore libero Lesli Akeo, who averaged 4.03 digs per set.

• The trip to Texas is a homecoming of sorts for three Saints players: sophomore setter Elizabeth Ives hails from Richmond; sophomore middle blocker Jasmine Brown is from Houston and attended Mayde Creek High School; and sophomore right-side hitter Sarah Sivertson attended Robert E. Lee High School in Tyler.

• Garvey Pierre is one win shy of reaching the 100-victory milestone as he enters his sixth season as head coach of the Saints with a 99-83 record.

PACIFIC

• Greg Gibbons (Iowa State '97) is in his first season as head coach at Pacific and takes over a team that went 17-11 and placed sixth in the Big West Conference with a 7-9 record in 2009.

• The Tigers return two starters and five letterwinners overall.

• Top returning players include senior outside hitter Svenja Engelhardt, a first-team All-BWC in 2009 after averaging 3.38 kills per set, and junior outside hitter/opposite Rebekah Torres, who averaged 2.6 kills and 2.12 digs per set.

• Freshman middle blocker Jennifer Sanders is from Katy, Texas, and helped lead Cinco Ranch High School to the state semifinals in 2009.

LSU

• LSU is ranked No. 23 in the preseason AVCA Coaches Top 25 poll and is picked to defend its Southeastern Conference West Division title for the sixth consecutive year.

• The Tigers return two starters plus the libero and eight letterwinners overall from last year's team that went 25-7 and ranked 19th in the final AVCA poll.

- The Tigers were eliminated in the second round of the 2009 NCAA tournament, as Texas A&M stunned 15th-seed LSU in five sets in Baton Rouge, La., to advance to the all-Big 12 Omaha Regional.
- Junior middle blocker Michele Williams, from Magnolia, Texas (Magnolia HS) is a member of the 2010 Preseason All-SEC Team. She averaged 2.26 kills and 1.15 blocks per set in 2009. She had 10 kills and seven blocks in the second-round loss to the Aggies.
- Fran Flory (Texas '84) is 223-139 entering her 13 season as head coach at LSU. The former Fran Teeter was a member of the Texas Longhorns' AIAW national championship team in 1981 and served as a part-time assistant volleyball coach at Texas A&M in 1987 under former Aggie head coach Al Givens.

A&M SERIES RECORD AGAINST THE FIELD

- A&M is 1-0 against Siena, having defeated the Saints, 3-0, in the 2008 Texas A&M Invitational at G. Rollie White Coliseum.
- A&M is 0-5 all-time against Pacific, but none of the matches were contested on the Aggies' home court. The teams last met Dec. 2, 2002, in Stockton, Calif., in the second round of the NCAA tournament. The seventh-ranked Tigers eliminated A&M, 3-0.
- A&M improved to 22-12 against LSU and snapped a two-match losing skid against the Tigers with the NCAA second-round win in 2009. Four of the last five meetings between the teams have been decided in five sets.

AGGIE QUICK HITS:

- A&M is 24-10 in season openers since 1976. (Opening-day results are not available for the 1975 season.)
- The Aggies are 12-5 in season openers since head coach Laurie Corbelli was hired in 1993. Last year, A&M defeated Iona, 3-0, en route to the Texas A&M Invitational championship.

- Corbelli is 363-169 entering her 18th year at the helm of the Aggies and 463-275 entering the 25th season of her head coaching career.

- A&M received votes in the AVCA preseason Top 25 coaches poll and is listed 29th. The Aggies also received votes in the Volleyball Monthly Top 20 Poll and are listed 22nd.

- The Aggies are slated to play seven matches against teams ranked in the AVCA preseason Top 25: two matches each against No. 2 Nebraska, No. 3 Texas and No. 9 Iowa State, and one match against No. 23 LSU. In addition, A&M will play six matches against teams that received votes, including two matches each against Big 12 opponents Baylor and Oklahoma, as well as single non-conference matches against Ohio and Missouri State.

- The Aggies, who went 11-9 and finished in a three-way tie with Baylor and Oklahoma for fourth place in the Big 12 last year, have been picked to finish seventh in the league this season, according to a preseason poll of the conference coaches. Nebraska and defending Big 12 champion Texas are picked to finish first and second, respectively, with Iowa State, Oklahoma and Missouri rounding out the top five. Baylor is sixth, followed by A&M, Kansas, Kansas State, Texas Tech and Colorado

UPCOMING SCHEDULE

The Aggies host Sam Houston State on Wednesday, Sept. 1 at 6:30 p.m. at Reed Arena. A&M will then be on the road for tournaments at Missouri State and the University of Denver before returning home Thursday, Sept. 16 to open Big 12 play against Texas in the first edition of the 2010 State Farm Lone Star Showdown.

AGGIES ON THE INTERNET

Free video streaming of 12 of A&M's 14 home matches will be available at AggieAthletics.com. In addition, free audio broadcasts of all home matches and select away matches are slated with Ryne Hillenberg providing the play-by-play.

LAURIE CORBELLI (San Francisco, 1988) - A&M'S WINNINGEST COACH

Laurie Corbelli is entering her 18th season at Texas A&M and is the winningest coach in Aggie volleyball history in total victories and ranks second in winning percentage with a 363-169 (.682) record...The 1999-2000 Texas A&M Student-Athlete Advisory Committee's Coach of the Year according to a vote of the Aggie student-athletes, the 1995 District VI Coach of the Year and the two-time SWC Coach of the Year has directed A&M to a historic 14 trips to the NCAA tournament in the last 17 years, including the school's two NCAA Elite Eight appearances (1999, 2001) and an all-time high No. 9 ranking in the final '99 AVCA

Top 25 Poll...Corbelli, who posts a 463-275 (.627) career record, began her coaching career in 1986 at the University of San Francisco. Following a four-year stint at the helm of the Lady Dons, Corbelli was hired at Santa Clara University. In 1992, her final season at Santa Clara, Corbelli directed the Broncos to the West Coast Conference Championship, and she earned WCC and West Region Coach of the Year accolades as the Broncos made their first-ever NCAA tournament appearance...The former Laurie Flachmeier was a silver medalist as a member of the 1984 USA Olympic Volleyball Team and received the Flo Hyman All-Time Great Player Award by USA Volleyball in 1998...A 1988 graduate of the University of San Francisco with a degree in physical education, Corbelli is married to A&M associate head coach John Corbelli...Corbelli-coached players have earned nine AVCA first-, second- or third-team All-America citations in the last 13 years, as well as one honorable mention...A two-time All-American under Corbelli, former Aggie standout Stacy Sykora (1995-98) became A&M's first varsity athlete to compete in three Olympics. Sykora was the starting libero for Team USA at both the 2000 Olympic Games in Sydney, Australia, and the 2004 Olympic Games in Athens, Greece, and was silver medalist as a defensive specialist at the 2008 Beijing Games. Throughout her Olympic career, Sykora has honored Corbelli by wearing No. 5, the same number Corbelli wore at the 1984 Olympics.
