- A&M enters the Carolina Volleyball Center looking to reach double-digit wins in league play for the first time since 2019, however South Carolina excel on their home court with a 10-4 record. JAMIE MORRISON

2ND YEAR AT TEXAS A&M | 18 YEARS COACHING

DEBUT SEASON

- During his first season in Aggieland, Morrison led the squad to a 16-13 record, including an 8-10 finish in conference play. The 16 wins were the highest total in the past four seasons, while the eight conference victories are the most since the 2020 season. Morrison also guided the program to its first NCAA Tournament berth since 2019, and 26th appearance in its history.
- The Maroon & White picked up a plethora of notable wins during the season, with six victories coming against 2023 NCAA Tournament teams including, Omaha, Pepperdine, Wright State, Utah State, UNI and Florida. In the match versus the Gators, Morrison led his team into Gainesville and downed then No. 4 Florida for the first time on the road in program history.
- Morrison brought his innovative blocking style to the collegiate game, proving successful as the team finished the year ranked 10th in the nation in blocks per set (2.76) and in the middle of October the Aggies were ranked number one in the statistic.

ON THE INTERNATIONAL STAGE

- Winning at the highest level is something Morrison is accustomed to, as he served as a coach on three separate Olympic-medal winning staffs for the USA men's and women's volleyball teams. He claimed his first medal at the 2008 Games in Beijing, China, with the men's national team, brining home the gold medal. He then switched over to the women's national team, securing silver in London (2012), followed by bronze in Rio (2016).
- Morrison was selected to lead the women's junior national team for the fourth-consecutive year. He took over the reigns in 2021, where he led the U18 women's team to a bronze-medal showing at the FIVB U18 World Championships in Durango, Mexico. He went a step further as he and the U19 women's team claimed gold at the U19 Pan American Cup in 2022 and U19 2023 FIVB World Championships.
- Most recently, he added a third-consecutive title at the U19 NORCECA Championships in Honduras, as his team dropped only one set at the tournament and downed Canada in the final to ensure a perfect 5-0 finish.
