LIGHTNING QUICK

In their 4-0 win against Abilene Christian, Jimena Lopez scored a goal 25 seconds into the match. It was the second quickest goal from the start of play in A&M history. Nicky Thrasher scored 11 seconds into a match against Oklahoma State in 2001.

SCOUTING BYU

BYU is off to a robust 4-0-0 start. The Cougars started the season with a pair of road wins against SEC teams, toppling Alabama (1-0) and Mississippi State (2-1). They returned home to vanquish a pair of in-state rivals, including Southern Utah (7-0) and Utah (2-0). BYU boasts a pair of Hermann Trophy candidates in Elise Flake and Mikayla Colohan. Flake has nine points on four goals and one assist. Colohan has added two goals. Sabrina Davis has yielded just one goal in 316:28 in goal for a 0.28 goals-against average.

SERIES VS. BYU

The Aggies won the only prior matchup against the Cougars, 2-0, last season at Ellis Field. Jimena Lopez scored in the 41st minute and Ally Watt added a goal in the waning moments for a Fish Camp Match triumph. Cosette Morche made five saves in the victory.

LONE STAR DOMINANCE

With their 4-0 win vs. Abilene Christian, the Aggies improved to 30-0-5 (.929) against in-state rivals since 2008, including an 11-0-4 record against their former Big 12 Conference colleagues. The Aggies went 2-0 against Lone Star foe last season with NCAA Tournament wins against North Texas and TCU.

WINNING

Texas A&M has finished with a winning record in all of its previous 26 seasons. The closest the Aggies have finished to the .500 mark is the 12-8-2 (.591) record they posted in 2016.

DRAWING FIRST BLOOD

Ally Watt scored the first goal of the match on nine occasions in 2018, including overtime golden goals in the regular-season finale at No. 17 South Carolina and the NCAA Tournament first round victory against North Texas. This season, Watt continued the trend, scoring the first goal in the Aggies' 3-2 victory at No. 13 Santa Clara.

WATT'S OFFENSIVE TURNAROUND

After struggling to find her footing the first eight matches in 2017, Ally Watt turned it on the last 14 matches of 2017. Over that stretch the Colorado Springs, Colo., native tallied 22 points on 10 goals and two assists while the Aggies went 13-0-1. In the first eight matches that season, Watt scored just one goal as A&M started the year 5-2-1.

For her career, Watt logged 16 points on eight goals in her first 34 matches. The switch flipped after eight matches in 2017, and she has logged 60 points on 27 goals and six assists in her 42 last matches.

	G	A	Pts	W-L-T
First 34 career matches	8	0	16	22-9-3
Last 42 career matches	27	6	60	34-4-4

WATT NAMED TO MAC HERMANN TROPHY WATCH LIST

Ally Watt was tabbed to the 61-player preseason watch list for the Missouri Athletic Club's Hermann Trophy, the most prestigious individual award in NCAA soccer, the United Soccer Coaches announced in early August. Watt was a Hermann Trophy semifinalist in 2018. She earned accolades that included United Soccer Coaches All-America First Team, Top-DrawerSoccer.com Best XI Second Team, All-South Region First Team and All-SEC First Team following her junior campaign.

The speedy forward led the SEC and ranked seventh in the nation with 15 goals in 2018. She added three assists on the year to rank third in the league with 33 points. A two-time SEC Offensive Player of the Week, she notched six game-winning goals and scored the first goal of the match on nine occasions, including golden goals in the regular-season finale at No. 17 South Carolina and the NCAA Tournament first round victory against North Texas. For her career, Watt has 72 Aggie caps, including 61 starts. She has logged 74 points on 34 goals, which ranks 10th on Texas A&M's career list.

FORMER BALLGIRL

As a College Station resident, Callyn Walton served as a ball girl at Texas A&M soccer games during her days as a youth club player. Walton, as a child, is visible in several historical photos in Texas A&M's clubhouse.

AGGIES SELECTED AS SEC FAVORITE

Texas A&M was picked as favorite to win the Southeastern Conference soccer title in the SEC Preseason Coaches Poll.

Beginning their eighth season in the SEC, it marks the second time the Aggies were tabbed as league favorites. The Maroon & White were picked for the top perch in 2013 and slotted in the No. 2 spot the other six seasons.

INTERNATIONAL EXPERIENCE

Texas A&M comes into 2018 with four players who have gained recent international experience. Ásdís Halldórsdóttir, Jimena Lopez and Ally Watt have all played among the world's best in the last three seasons.

Halldórsdóttir has participated in international competitions for the Icelandic women's national teams since 2016. Her international tournaments include the UEFA U19 Championships in 2017 and 2018 and the UEFA U17 Championship in 2016. The Reykjavik native has 13 caps for Icelandic squads, tallying three goals, all at the 2017 UEFA U19 Championship.

Lopez has several years of experience with Team Mexico. The junior from Mexico City has played in 25 international matches for Mexico National Teams since 2012. Most recently, Lopez took part in the 2018 FIFA U20 Women's World Cup in France and the 2019 Pan American Games in Lima, Peru with the senior Mexico National Team.

Watt played for the United States at the 2016 FIFA U20 Women's World Cup in Papua New Guinea. The stint required Watt to redshirt the 2016 season. She scored a pair of goals, saw action in five of the six matches and earned FIFA Player of the Match recognition for her performance in the United States' win over Mexico.

GUERRIERI RANKS AMONG THE NATION'S WINNINGEST COACHES

Texas A&M head coach G Guerrieri ranks among the leaders in winning percentage and victories among active Division I coaches.
