TEXAS A&M/BOWLING GREEN SERIES NOTABLES

The Aggies won the only prior meeting in the all-time series. Texas A&M toppled the Falcons, 4-0, in Coral Gables, Florida as part of the Hurricane Invitational Tournament.

MORE ON BOWLING GREEN

The Falcons are coming off a 17-37 campaign in 2016 that saw them finish sixth in the Mid-American Conference Eastern Division. Bowling Green struggled down the stretch last season, dropping 13 of the last 14, including eight of nine in league action. The Falcons managed just 25 runs during the 14-game stretch.

Senior infielder Greg Basalyga is the most productive returner at the pate. He hit .267 last season with 13 runs, seven doubles, two home runs and 21 RBI. Sophomore infielder Riley Minorik batted .245 with 23 runs, five doubles, four home runs and 15 RBI in 2016.

The Falcons will send three veterans to the mound, including junior Tyler Anderson (1-1, 3.63 ERA, 34.2 IP), sophomore Brad Croy (2-4, 4.95 ERA, 36.1 IP) and Zac Carey (3-10, 6.69 ERA, 72.2 IP). They also return their 2016 closer, Tony Landi who went 1-1 with eight saves and a 3.48 ERA last season.

Bowling Green has played in the NCAA Championship on four occasions, including 1972, 1998, 1999 and 2013. The Falcons have five Mid-American Conference regular-season titles (1972, 1995, 2002, 2008, 2009) and three MAC Tournament titles (1998, 1999, 2013).

The Falcons boast 14 Major League products. The star of the group is 18-year veteran Orel Hershiser who made three All-Star Game appearances and won the 1988 Cy Young Award and 1988 World Series MVP. Hershiser also named the MVP of the 1988 NLCS with the Dodgers and the 1995 ALCS with the Cleveland Indians. He finished his career with a 204-150 record, 3.48 ERA and 2,014 strikeouts. Hershiser still owns the MLB record for consecutive scoreless innings, a 59-inning streak from 1988.

Former Falcon Roger McDowell also enjoyed a lengthy career going 70-70 with a 3.30 ERA and 159 saves. He went 14-9 with 22 saves and a 3.02 ERA during the New York Mets 1986 World Series championship campaign.

MAC-TION

This marks the first time the Aggies have played a Mid-American Conference team since the 2000 campaign. Texas A&M dropped a pair of games to Central Michigan that season as a part of the Continental Express Aggie Baseball Classic.

The Aggies are 8-2 all-time against the MAC, including 1-0 vs. Bowling Green, 4-2 vs. Central Michigan, 1-0 vs. Eastern Michigan and 2-0 vs. Miami (Ohio).

In 2016, Kent State won the MAC overall title and Western Michigan claimed the MAC Tournament title in Avon, Ohio, with a 12-7 victory over Kent State in the championship game.

Kent State is the last MAC team to advance to the College World Series, going 1-2 at TD Ameritrade Park in 2012 after winning the Gary Regional and Eugene Super Regional.

PRESEASON ALL-AMERICANS

The Aggies boast two preseason All-Americans, including BRIGHAM HILL and CORBIN MARTIN. Both players were named to two separate teams. Hill was named a first-teamer by the NCBWA and a third-teamer by Collegiate Baseball. Martin was named a second-teamer by both Baseball America and D1Baseball.com.

COLLEGIATE BASEBALL - Brigham Hill (Third Team - SP)

D1BASEBALL.COM - Corbin Martin (Second Team - RP)

BASEBALL AMERICA - Corbin Martin (Second Team - RP)

NCBWA - Brigham Hill (First Team - SP)

LOCAL BOYS

BLAKE KOPETSKY, LANDON MINER and KYLE RICHARDSON continue a long line of local products to play for the Aggies.

Kopetsky was a standout at Rudder High School in Bryan, earning three letters. He was tabbed an All-Texas 4A Third Team outfielder by the Texas SportsWriters Association as a senior in 2012. He played his first two years at Temple Junior College and returned home in the summers to star for the Brazos Valley Bombers.

Miner was a four-year letterwinner at Bryan High School. He logged 21 career prep wins with 305 strikeouts in 258.0 innings. The 305 career strikeouts set the school record. He was a four-time all-district honoree. As a senior he went 8-5 with a 1.72 ERA and 93 strikeouts in 77.0 innings to earn All-Brazos Valley First Team, All-Greater Houston and All-District 18-5A First Team.

Richardson was a two-time all-district pitcher and 2014 All-State Second Team pitcher at College Station High School. He racked up a career record of 25-4 in his first three seasons for the Cougars, not pitching in his senior year. He batted over .300 in three of his four years, including a .459 average in 2015. He tossed three no-hitters and one perfect game as a prep.

Other recent players to hail from Bryan or College Station include Krey Bratsen (2011-14), Luke Anders (2006-09), Nick Anders (2009), Kyle Nicholson (2004-07) and Keith Stein (2005-06).

POSTSEASON STREAK CONTINUES INTO 2017

Prior to the arrival of head coach ROB CHILDRESS, Texas A&M had never appeared in the NCAA Tournament more than four consecutive years. Advancing to the NCAA Fort Worth Super Regional in 2016 extended the Aggies current string to 10 consecutive years, something that had never happened before in the program's 115 year history.

Childress has led the Aggies to the postseason each of the last 10 seasons, topping the previous-high water mark of four-straight trips, a feat that had happened only twice before at Texas A&M. Former head coach Tom Chandler led his squad to the NCAA Regionals each season from 1975 to 1978 and 11 years later the Aggies enjoyed a similar four-year run from 1986-89 under the direction of head coach Mark Johnson.

WHAT'S BACK IN 2017: OFFENSE

The Aggies bring back three position players who started at least 50 percent of the games (33 of 65) for last season's NCAA Super Regional team — Nick Choruby (45), Austin Homan (41) and Joel Davis (37). Two other returnees started at least 10 games in 2016, including George Janca (24) and Walker Pennington (13).

A&M HOME OPENERS

Fans always look forward to opening day, and the trend in recent years is for strong crowds to show up for the first pitch of the season.

The all-time record opening day crowd at Olsen Field at Blue Bell Park was on February 25, 2005, when the Aggies defeated 19th-ranked Washington, 10-4, before an overflow crowd of 7,669. The crowd was not only the largest on an opening day at Texas A&M but the largest non-conference crowd in the stadium's history.

Some home opener notes...

- A&M's all-time record (since '79).....37-4
- A&M's current streak: ..... won three
- A&M has won 29 of its last 31 home openers

HEAD COACH ROB CHILDRESS

One of the top pitching coaches and recruiters in the country, Rob Childress enters his 12th season as the head coach of the Texas A&M baseball program.

With a steady stream of success, Childress has led A&M to a school-record 10 consecutive NCAA Championship appearances, five NCAA Regional titles, two conference regular-season crowns, four league tournament titles and the 2011 College World Series. He owns a career record of 458-238-2, trailing only Mark Johnson (876) and Tom Chandler (660) in coaching victories at Texas A&M.

The 2016 Aggies earned their first-ever SEC Tournament with a 12-5 victory over No. 1 Florida in the championship game. Texas A&M finished the season with a 49-16 record,including a four-week streetch in which the Maroon and-White won 10 of 14 against squads ranked in the Top 10. The magical campaign included Kyle Simonds' complete-game no-hitter against Vanderbilt, a top 10 squad.

The 2015 squad started the season with an SEC-record 24-game win streak en route to a 50-14 campaign, the highest victory tally for the Aggies since 1999. A&M finished third in the SEC with an 18-10 league ledger and won their seventh NCAA Regional title. The Aggies came up one run shy of the College World Series, dropping game three of a Super Regional against TCU, 5-4, in 16 innings.

In 2014, Childress guided the Aggies through their second season in the SEC, securing a spot in the SEC Tournament for the second consecutive year and earning a bid to a school-record eighth consecutive NCAA Championship.

In Texas A&M's first run through the SEC in 2013, Childress led A&M to the final six of the SEC Tournament and a seventh straight NCAA Championship. The Gilmer, Texas, native's expertise as a pitching coach is evident and has made an immediate impact. A&M's pitching staff ranked first or second in the rugged Big 12 in earned run average in each of his seven seasons in the league, including a Big 12-best 2.92 team ERA in 2012.

In 2011, Childress captured co-Big 12 Coach of the Year honors as he led the Aggies to another milestone campaign as he guided the squad back to college baseball's promised land of Omaha, Nebraska, and the College World Series. The trip to Omaha was the fifth in program history and capped off another successful run in the NCAA Tournament.

The 2011 team also claimed the 23rd conference championship in program history as it brought home both the Big 12 regular season and tournament titles before emerging victorious in both the College Station Regional and Tallahassee Super Regional.

A trio of Aggies (Tyler Naquin, Ross Stripling and Michael Wacha) garnered All-America honors in 2011 as Naquin was also named Big 12 Player of the Year while both Stripling and Wacha excelled on the mound under Childress' tutelage. Stripling blossomed during his third year in the A&M program as he led the nation in wins by turning in a 14-2 campaign with a 2.29 ERA.

Named the Big 12's Coach of the Year by his peers in 2008, he guided the Aggies to 46 wins, their first regular-season title in nine years and the first back-to-back NCAA regional championships in school history. Along the way A&M set a new school and Big 12 record by winning 16 straight conference games.

After just one season at the helm, Childress orchestrated the biggest turnaround in NCAA Division I baseball. His 2007 team finished 48-19, winning 23 more games than in 2006, in addition to claiming the NCAA College Station Regional championship, a berth in the Super Regionals and the school's first Big 12 title since 1999.

Childress was named the 19th head baseball coach in school history on June 21, 2005, after spending the previous eight seasons at Nebraska--the first five as an assistant under current Arkansas Head Coach Dave Van Horn and the last three as an assistant to Mike Anderson. In those eight seasons, the Huskers made the NCAA Tournament five times, advanced to the Super Regionals four times and made three appearances in the College World Series (2001, 2002 and 2005).

Childress was a collegiate assistant coach for 14 seasons, including 10 years at the Division I level. He spent seven seasons at Nebraska overseeing the pitching staff and the Husker recruiting efforts after serving with Van Horn at Northwestern State from 1995 to 1997.

SUMMER LOVIN'

Baseball America tabbed two Aggies as top prospects in their respective summer leagues.

MITCHELL KILKENNY - Northwoods League

Kilkenny worked out of the bullpen for Texas A&M this spring but impressed when he did get opportunities, posting a 1.67 ERA and 29 strikeouts in 27 innings. He started five games for Madison and showed the best combination of stuff and projectability of any pitcher in the league. Listed at 6-foot-4, 202 pounds, Kilkenny has a lean, athletic frame and his motion is loose and easy. He stays upright throughout, throws from a high three-quarters arm slot and works quickly. Kilkenny works with a four-pitch arsenal and throws them all for strikes—he had just three walks in 32 innings this summer. He works 90-94 mph with his fastball, throws a changeup and curveball in the 77-80 mph range and a cutter from 87-91 mph. The latter pitch might be his best—it has excellent depth and deception, especially when it's thrown down in the zone, and hitters were often helpless against it during the summer." - Baseball America

STEPHEN KOLEK - Northwoods League

"A year after Corbin Martin was named the circuit's best prospect, another Aggie landed atop the list as the physical righthander Kolek flashed the type of movement and velocity on his fastball that made some think he could be a first-round pick in due time. The younger brother of 2014 No. 2 overall pick Tyler Kolek, Stephen pitched in just 12 games for the Aggies as a freshman but impressed anyway, striking out 21 in 30 innings and posting a 3.30 ERA. He was even better for the Miners this summer, striking out 32 in just 37 innings and finishing with a 2.45 ERA. Already 6-foot-3 and 210 pounds, Kolek used a cutter, two-seam fastball and sinker, all of which sat 89-92 mph this summer, to overpower opposing hitters. Other pitchers on the circuit might have thrown harder, but few boasted more movement on their pitches than Kolek. The hard sinker is his best pitch currently and if he is able to add strength and velocity down the road as Miners' coach Ben Taylor expects he will, the pitch will be downright lethal. He pitches off his variety of fastballs but his secondary stuff isn't below-average either. The changeup has good sink in its own right and has a chance to be an average pitch down the road while the curveball needs refinement but did show good depth at times. Despite his size and how hard he throws Kolek doesn't put a lot of effort into his delivery and his motion is very clean. This allowed him to throw all of his pitches for strikes in any count and keep hitters guessing. Kolek's command came and went this summer but that was at least partially attributed to the movement on his pitches." - Baseball America

CLOSING NOTES

The Aggies lost 16 of their 19 saves from last season, including eight from Mark Ecker and five from Ryan Hendrix. BRIGHAM HILL, TURNER LARKINS and CASON SHERROD each logged one save last year. Sherrod is the returnee with the most relief apperances from a year ago. The sophomore pitched in 16 games out of the bullpen, going 1-0 with a 4.50 ERA and one save. CORBIN MARTIN, who was 2-1 with a 5.47 ERA last season in 16 games, including three starts, was tabbed a Preseason All-America as a relief pitcher by Baseball America and D1Baseball.com.

UP NEXT

Texas A&M will host Stephen F. Austin on Tuesday at Olsen Field at Blue Bell Park. Last season, the Aggies bludgeoned SFA, 21-1, in a February matchup in College Station.
