WHAT TO WATCH FOR

Texas A&M and Arizona State will meet for just the second time on Saturday, the first time playing on the campus of either school. The two programs first met on Sept. 5, 2015, at NRG Stadium in Houston. The Aggies earned the victory, upsetting the 15th-ranked Sun Devils, 38-17.

In honor of America's 250th Celebration and the 25th anniversary of September 11, Texas A&M and Kyle Field will trade their primary Maroon and White for the colors of America as the 'Red, White and Blue' game makes its return for the first time since 2021. In a unique twist to 'striping a stadium', each level of Kyle Field is asked to wear either Red (3rd Deck), White (2nd Deck) or Blue (1st Deck) to help honor those who have served our country, remember those we lost on September 11 and celebrate the spirit of service and leadership that defines America.

Arizona State will be the first Big 12 opponent to play at Kyle Field since the Aggies' final season in the Big 12 in 2011. At that time, the Sun Devils were still part of the Pac-12 ... Since joining the SEC, The Aggies are 3-2 against Big 12 opponents with all five contests coming in a bowl game.

Texas A&M is 46-4 in non-conference games at home since 2010.

QUICK HITS

Kyle Field hosted 107,782 fans last Saturday against Missouri State. It was the largest season-opening crowd in Kyle Field history and the 9th-largest crowd all time. It was also the 12th consecutive game that Kyle Field has hosted 100,000+ fans.

Not only did the Texas A&M defense hold Missouri State scoreless, but the Aggies also held the Bears to just 67 yards of total offense in the 2026 season-opener. The Bears were limited to just 37 yards rushing and 30 yards passing. It was the second time under the direction of head coach Mike Elko that Texas A&M had held an opponent scoreless and under 100 yards of total offense.

The 67 yards of total offense that the Texas A&M defense surrendered last Saturday, were the lowest total allowed during coach Elko's tenure as head coach and the lowest the program has allowed since 1978 ... Rush Defense: It was the third time since 2024 that the Aggies held a team to less than 50 yards rushing, and the 11th time holding a team to less than 100 yards on the ground ... Pass Defense: The 30 yards passing that the Aggies allowed were the lowest total since 2024 and the fifth time under coach Elko that the defense has allowed less than 100 yards through the air. It was the fifth lowest total since at least 1995.

Isaiah Horton had more receiving yards (76) in his first game as an Aggie than he did in his previous 21 games between Alabama and Miami.
