THE MATCHUP

- Texas A&M has a long history versus LSU, as it prepares for the 55th meeting with the Tigers.
- The Aggies hold a 34-20 advantage in the all-time series, including a 12-8 record when playing at Reed Arena.
- Since the arrival of Coach Morrison, the Aggies have won three of the last four meetings, including a 3-1 victory last season in Baton Rouge.
- The programs are separated in SEC play by one game with A&M at 7-6 and LSU 6-7.

LAST TIME OUT

- The Aggies fell in a hard-fought three set contest at Missouri. A&M battled late into frames, but late runs from the Tigers were the difference in the result.
- Kyndal Stowers led the team offensively, recording 14 kills to mark her 16th time in double figures this year. Taryn Morris chipped in 12 of her own, hitting at .440 percent.
- Gabi Rodriguez dug up 11 swings to tally her 21st game this season with 10-or-more.

TRENDS & MILESTONES

- Gabi Rodriguez has separated herself among the SEC's freshmen, as she ranks first in good pass percentage at 61.9% and is third overall in the conference for liberos who have faced a minimum of 350 receptions.
- Kyndal Stowers remains A&M's go to weapon, as she leads the team in points and kills averaging 4.99 and 4.34 per frame, respectively.
- Natalie Ring has racked up 232 kills on the season and sits just 14 shy from reaching 1,000 in her career.
- The Maroon & White have performed well at home, winning 10 of their 12 matchups including five of six in league play.
- Texas A&M's defense continues to stand out in league play, as the group ranks second in blocks per set at 2.53 and is fifth in opponent hitting percentage at .219.
- The Aggie offense is spreading the wealth, as six players have over 100 kills on the year.
- Passing is standout skill for the Maroon & White, as they rank fourth in the SEC as a unit at 55% good pass this season.

TEAM NOTES

STOWERS THE STANDOUT

- Kyndal Stowers has broken a pair of program records this season, downing the three-set points record with 26.5 versus Mississippi State and the five-set points record earlier in the year versus Indiana with 34.5.
- Stowers has earned two SEC Offensive Player of the Week awards this season, with her most recent after securing two road wins at Georgia and Kentucky. She claimed a pair of double-doubles and racked up 30 kills and 26 digs.
- On the defensive side of the ball, the senior has racked up 184 digs which has helped her achieve 10 double-doubles on the year.
- In the serve-receive game, Stowers currently sits second among outside hitters in the SEC for good-pass percentage at 55.8% when facing a minimum of 475 attempts.

STAYING SHARP

- Eliza Sharp was named SEC Defensive Player of the Week following a pair of road wins at Georgia and Kentucky. Her standout performance was versus the Wildcats where she stuffed seven swings in three sets.
- Eliza Sharp hit the ground running in her opening season for the Maroon & White, racking up 88 kills and 59 blocks in 11 games before getting hurt versus Creighton.
- The junior was out six games, but has since returned and logged 54 kills and 52 blocks in her last eight.
- The middle blocker has eclipsed double-digit kills in five of her 13 games and stuffed five-or-more swings in seven, including a 10 block outing versus Arkansas State.

RECORD-SETTING RODRIGUEZ

- Gabi Rodriguez earned her first SEC Freshman of the Week honor following two sweeps versus Rice and South Carolina where she recorded 25 digs, nine assists and a 59.1 percent good pass.
- Rodriguez broke three program records as she became the fastest Aggie freshman to reach 100, 200 and 300 career digs, doing so in nine, 16 and 24 games, respectively.
- The freshman has eclipsed double-digit digs in 21 of the 25 games this season and set her career high of 21 in four sets versus Arkansas.
- The receiving game is where she separates herself, as she recorded a 61.9 good pass percentage in 25 games and has 10 games with over a 70% good pass.

QUEEN OF THE CASTLE

- The second half of Texas A&M's dynamic middle tandem is Kaia Castle, who has tallied 146 kills and 90 blocks in 23 games.
- Castle was named SEC Defensive Player of the Week (11/2) after recording 12 blocks against Tennessee and five versus Texas.
- Offensively, she has hit double-digit kills three times, including a career-high 19 versus Wisconsin.
- Defensively, she has recorded five-or-more blocks in seven total games and stuffed a season-high of 12 versus Tennessee.

MORE FROM MORRIS

- Taryn Morris has taken advantage of her first year starting on the right side, logging 185 kills on the season.
- The sophomore ranks first among Aggie pins in hitting percentage at .262, which includes a season-high outing for any player after hitting .692 versus South Carolina with 15 kills, zero errors on 22 swings.
- Morris has also been a force at the net, again leading all pins with 66 blocks and has hit a career-high of five stuffs in five contests.

SPREADING THE WEALTH

- The Aggie setters has helped orchestrate a potent offense as a unit.
- Kirra Musgrove leads the group with 20 starts and has 634 assists on the year, with six outings over 40 and a career-high 51 versus Wisconsin.
- Margot Manning has got the start in the last four games and in those contests has amassed 190 assists, 36 digs, eight blocks and six aces in 17 sets of work.

RINGING TRUE

- Natalie Ring has been a reliable weapon on the outside for Texas A&M, leading the team in kills in seven games this season.
- The fifth year has racked up 232 kills this season which ranks second on the team, while eclipsing 10-or-more on 15 occasions with a season-high of 18 versus Tennessee.

SOPHOMORE SUPPORT

- Megan Fitch is the do-it-all player for the Aggies. The outside hitter has spelled on the front and back row, accounting for 107 kills, 166 digs, 15 blocks and 11 aces.
- Addi Applegate is a retuning contributor from the 2025 National Championship team, and this year has 100 digs, 14 assists and has a 56.3 good pass percentage on 334 receptions.

TEAM NOTES

BATTLE TESTED

- The Aggies wrapped up a challenging non-conference schedule with a 7-5 record.
- The Maroon & White faced seven ranked opponents throughout the preseason, securing wins versus then-No. 4 Stanford in the ACC/SEC Challenge and at then-No. 20 Creighton.
- Home-court advantage played a key role for the Aggies, as they finished the non-conference slate 5-1 with their only loss coming in a five-set battle to then-No. 6 Wisconsin.

HOME SWEEP HOME

- The Maroon & White kicked off their home slate with the Texas A&M Invitational, sweeping the third-consecutive year.
- A&M opened the weekend versus GCU, capturing a four-set win over the Antelopes. Eliza Sharp was the standout in the game, with 12 kills hitting at a career-best clip of .647 percent.
- Doubling down that evening, the Aggies celebrated their national championship banner drop in a 3-0 sweep over Arkansas State in front of the fourth-largest attendance in program history, as Reed Arena was packed with 6,278 fans.
- Closing out the weekend, the Maroon & White welcomed a 2025 Sweet 16 opponent into Cal Poly to their gym, once again positing a sweep where Natalie Ring led the way with a season-high 15 kills.

AVCA FIRST SERVE

- The Aggies dropped a pair of hard-fought contests at the AVCA First Serve in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, versus a pair of top- 12 ranked opponents in No. 7 Louisville (3-1) and No. 11 SMU (3-0).
- Gabi Rodriguez was A&M's standout defensively, as she logged 18 digs in her collegiate debut, the most by an Aggie freshman since Ava Underwood in 2022.
- Natalie Ring paced the Maroon & White offensively in both games, logging 11 versus the Cardinals and 13 against the Mustangs.

ATTENDANCE RECORDS

- Since the arrival of Jamie Morrison, the Aggies' attendances have skyrocketed.
- The average attendance has increased every season, from 2,361 in 2023, 3,216 in 2024, 4,529 in 2025 to 5,204 this season.
- The 12th Man showed up and showed out for the Aggies last season, as the program broke three separate attendance records throughout the season.
- This season the Maroon & White have set four top-1o attendances, including the third highest in program history when 9,211 fans packed Reed Arena for the game versus Wisconsin.

REPRESENTED IN THE RANKINGS

- Texas A&M landed in the AVCA preseason ranks for the second-straight year, reaching a new program high for the start of the year of No. 8.
- Last season the Aggies broke their all-time best preseason placement, ranking ninth.
- The Maroon & White are slated to face 11 teams ranked in the preseason top-25 throughout the campaign.

AVCA WATCH LIST

- The Aggies landed two players on the AVCA Player of the Year Watch List for the second-straight year.
- Kyndal Stowers and Natalie Ring each made the list for the first time in their career.
- The pair are two of 30 athletes receiving recognition and A&M is one of 10 schools to have two or more players selected.

SEC PRESEASON POLL

- The Maroon & White were tabbed for a third-place finish in the SEC for the second-straight season receiving one first-place vote.
- Kyndal Stowers was recognized as one of 15 athletes named to the Preseason All-SEC Team.
- Stowers' selection marks the fourth-consecutive season the Aggies have had a player named to the SEC preseason list.

ALL EYES ON THE AGGIES

- The Maroon & White were selected for a program record 13 national broadcasts throughout the 2026 regular season.
- A&M has 10 games scheduled across the ESPN family of networks, including a pair of contests that were originally slated for ESPN but were promoted to ABC. The first is at Kentucky Oct. 25, followed by at Texas Nov. 1.

MORRISON MAGIC

- Jamie Morrison led the Aggies to the program's first national title in only his third year at the helm.
- He guided the program to its highest single-season win total since 1984 after accumulating a 29-4 record last season.

- He joined an exclusive club after taking the national crown last season, becoming the 18th head coach in NCAA history to win a title.
- Morrison's team's performance was recognized by coaches around the nation, as he was named the AVCA Division I Women's Coach of the Year.
- A&M's leader was rewarded with a contract extension which keeps him in Aggieland until 2031.

KYNDAL VOLLEYBALL

- Kyndal Stowers captivated the nation with her comeback story from medical retirement to leading the Aggies to their first national title and earning the NCAA Tournament Most Outstanding Player award.
- In her first season donning the Maroon & White she recorded 385 kills, averaging 3.5 per set, while adding 248 digs, 64 blocks and 21 aces.
- Throughout her junior season, Stowers earned a plethora of honors to go with her NCAA Tournament MOP, including AVCA All-America and All-Region honors, All-SEC designation, while also landing on both the NCAA All-Tournament and NCAA Regional All-Tournament teams.
- Capping off an incredible year, Stowers was a nominee for the Best Comeback Athlete at the 2026 ESPYS and took a trip to New York to be at the show.

CHAMPIONSHIP RUN

- Texas A&M won its first national title in program history last season after sweeping Kentucky in the championship game, 3-0.
- The team boasted an 18-5 set advantage and didn't drop a frame in the semifinals or final.
- The Aggies' NCAA Tournament run included six-straight victories over Campbell (3-0), TCU (3-1), Louisville (3-2), Nebraska (3-2), Pitt (3-0) and finally Kentucky (3-0).
- The final three victories in their historic run included downing three-consecutive No. 1 seeds.
- The streak started versus the top overall tournament seed Nebraska in its home gym, which marked as the Cornhuskers first home loss since 2022.
- A&M then proceeded to secure back-to-back sweeps in the national semifinal and final to become the first team since 2019 to secure shutouts in the final two matches of the tournament.
- The Maroon & White's star players showed up when it mattered most, as AVCA First Team All-American Ifenna Cos-Okpalla recorded 43 kills, 40 blocks and nine aces in the championships run, while Second Team All-American pins Logan Lednicky and Kyndal Stowers logged 108 kills and 92 kills, respectively, across the six matches.

A YEAR TO REMEMBER

- The Aggies' 2025 campaign rewrote the programs record books.
- The team concluded the year with a 29-4 record, their most wins in a season since 1984. The group also finished conference play with a 14-1 ledger to take second. The win total ranks as their most in a year since 2016 and highest finish since 2015.
- Texas A&M became the 13th program in NCAA history to life the national championships trophy.
- The team set single-season rally-scoring era records in kills (1,716), hitting percentage (.297), assists (1,612) and points (2,180.5).
- Logan Lednicky broke the program's rally-scoring era career kill record, concluding her career with 1,686.
- Ifenna Cos-Okpalla broke Texas A&M's single-season blocks record her senior year with 199 and the career block record with 565.
- The 2025 team broke program season record for hitting percentage at a .297 clip all year, while downing the rally-scoring era season records in kills (1,716), assists (1,612) and points (2,180.5).

AGGIES IN THE PROS

- Four Aggies are set to compete in the third season of League One Volleyball and recently received team assignments.
- Logan Lednicky and Maddie Waak are heading to Salt Lake City, Ifenna Cos-Okpalla returns home and will play for Houston and Morgan Perkins joins Minnesota for the inaugural season in that organization's history.
- Following the conclusion of the 2025 season, the Maroon & White launched five pro careers across a variety of leagues.
- Most recently, Taylor Humphrey signed to start her professional career with LP-Vampula in the Mestaruusliiga in Finland.
- Caroline Meuth '24, helped the Dallas Pulse win the MLV in the 2026 season and has recently been reallocated to play for the DC Flight who begin their inaugural campaign this upcoming season.

JAMIE MORRISON

4TH YEAR AT TEXAS A&M | 20TH YEAR COACHING

RIGHT MAN FOR THE JOB

- Jamie Morrison delivered the ultimate prize to Aggieland during the 2025 campaign, claiming the first national championship in program history during his third season at the helm. He guided the Maroon & White through Campbell, TCU, Louisville, Nebraska, Pitt and Kentucky with a combined set total of 18-5 throughout the run. Morrison's impressive season earned him the highest honor for NCAA volleyball coaching, as he was named the American Volleyball Coaches Association's (AVCA) Division I Women's Coach of the Year.
- During the season, Morrison guided the Maroon & White to a 29-4 record which marked the most wins in a single season since 1984. A&M's success in conference play stood out, boasting a 14-1 ledger which was good for second. The win total ranks as their most in a year since 2016 and highest finish since 2015. The Aggies' national championship win made them the 13th program in NCAA history to claim a title, while coach Morrison became the 18th head coach to lead his team to a title.

THE MORRISON FILE

- Morrison enters his fourth season as head coach of Texas A&M volleyball program already leading the team to a national championships, a Sweet 16 appearance and three-straight NCAA Tournament berths.
- He boasts a 66-25 record at A&M, including an 32-17 ledger in league play. His three-consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances marks the first time doing so since the 2016 season. During his time with the Aggies, he has produced six AVCA All-Americans, as well as nine AVCA All-District, eight All-SEC and four NCAA Tournament Team selections.
- On the senior international stage, Morrison was a member of three Olympic-medal winning teams including gold with the men's team in 2008 and the silver and bronze winning women's teams in 2012 and 2016, respectively. He also directed the Netherlands national team to a silver medal at the European Championships in 2017.
- Morrison also was a key figure within USA Volleyball's U19 teams as head coach, winning four-consecutive international team titles from 2022 to 2025 and not dropping a single match within the four-year stint.

BUILDING THE FOUNDATION

- During his debut season in Aggieland, he led his squad to a 16-13 overall record, including an 8-10 finish in conference play. Morrison also guided the program to its first NCAA Tournament berth since 2019.
- Building from his success in year one, he led the Aggies to a 21-8 ledger in 2024, marking the program's highest win total since 2019. He also recorded a 10-6 finish in SEC play to rank fifth in the league, which was also the best team result since the 2019 season.
- His team got off to a historic start in 2024, winning their first eight matches which tied for the third-best start to a season in program history. The group also won three ranked contests that year, highlighted by a conference road victory over the No. 7 Longhorns in a five-set thriller, 3-2.
- Morrison's group reached the second week of the NCAA Tournament that year, as they downed Colorado St., 3-1, before upsetting first round hosts, No. 2 seed Arizona St., in four sets 3-1, earning their first Sweet 16 trip since 2019.
- A&M's season came to a close in the third round in 2024 after a back-and-forth battle with No. 2 seed Wisconsin that ended 3-2 and 15-13 in the final frame.
