HEAD COACH BUCKY MCMILLAN

Bucky McMillan was named the head men's basketball coach at Texas A&M on April 5, 2025. The three-time Southern Conference Coach of the Year arrived in Aggieland after five seasons at the helm at Samford.

In his first season at Texas A&M, McMillan guided the Aggies to a 22-12 overall record and an 11-7 mark in SEC play, good for a fourth-place finish in the league after being predicted to finish 13th prior to the season. They secured their fourth straight NCAA Tournament appearance and fifth consecutive 20-win season. The Aggies' 22 wins rank as the second-most by a coach in his first year at Texas A&M, while their 11 conference victories were the most since Shelby Metcalf went 13-1 in the Southwest Conference in his first season at the helm (1963-64). McMillan became just the fourth coach in Texas A&M history to make the NCAA Tournament in his first season in Aggieland and the second since the expansion to 64 teams in 1985 (Mark Turgeon 2007-08).

Renowned for his innovative and fast-paced offensive and defensive styles of play, known as "BuckyBall," McMillan transformed Samford into one of the top basketball programs in the Southern Conference. He guided the Bulldogs to three SoCon Championships – two regular season crowns and a tournament title – while compiling a 99-52 record, which included 20-plus victories in each of his last four seasons. He earned SoCon Coach of the Year honors in 2022, 2023 and 2024.

In 2024-25, the Bulldogs ranked No. 13 nationally in scoring offense (82.9 ppg) while ranking in the top-10 in three-pointers attempted and made. Defensively, Samford forced an average of 16.1 turnovers per game, which ranked No. 4 in the country.

Within the SoCon, Samford led the league in scoring, fast break points (14.2/g), steals (9.9/g), turnovers forced, turnover margin (3.2/g), offensive rebounds (13.1/g) and bench scoring (28.5 ppg) as the Bulldogs earned an invitation to the 2025 NIT.

McMillan orchestrated the best season in Samford program history in 2023-24 when the Bulldogs earned their first NCAA Tournament berth in more than 20 years. Samford compiled a school record 29 wins and swept the SoCon regular season and tournament titles for the first time. In the NCAA Tournament, the Bulldogs narrowly lost to Kansas, 93-89, in one of the most memorable games of the tournament. The 2023-24 season included a school record 17-game winning streak and the team was a perfect 18-0 on its home court.

McMillan's path to the collegiate level came after experiencing unprecedented success at the high school level in the state of Alabama. As the head coach of Mountain Brook High School, McMillan led the Spartans to five state championships in Alabama's highest classification and advanced to the championship game seven times in his 12 seasons at his alma mater. Named the National Coach of the Year in 2018 by the National High School Coaches Association, McMillan won 333 games at Mountain Brook, averaging nearly 28 wins per season.

McMillan played his college basketball at Birmingham-Southern from 2002 to 2006. He earned his bachelor's degree in education services from Birmingham-Southern in 2007.

As a student at Mountain Brook High School from 1999 to 2002, McMillan received All-State honors from the Birmingham News in 2002 and was nominated for the McDonald's High School All-America Team. The Birmingham News also named him to its All-State Athletic Academic Team.

FAMILIAR FACES IN AGGIELAND

- The Texas A&M coaching staff has seen a number of familiar faces return to Aggieland in associate head coach Mitch Cole, assistant coach Kyle Keller, assistant coach Frank Haith and strength & conditioning coach Darby Rich.
- Cole, who served in the same role on McMillan's staff at Samford from 2021-25, and Keller were assistants on Billy Kennedy's staff from 2011-16, helping the Aggies notch a school record 28 wins, claim a regular season SEC title and advance to the Sweet 16 in 2015-16.
- Haith first came to Aggieland as an assistant coach in 1992 and spent three seasons on head coach Tony Barone's staff before taking an assistant coaching job at Penn State ... Haith returned to Texas A&M for one more season in 1996-97 as the associate head coach.
- Rich, who has helped develop 23 NBA players during his career, including six Aggies, also worked with Coach Kennedy, serving as the strength & conditioning coach from 2011-19.

Oklahoma State	37	32	69
Texas A&M	50	38	88

In an early back-and-forth affair that saw four lead changes, Haggerty forged separation for Texas A&M (4-0) scoring three-straight buckets in 65 seconds off Cowboy turnovers to lead by seven, 22-15. Irving extended the gap, hitting his first career 3-pointer, followed by a putback dunk that forced Oklahoma State (2-1) to huddle up, 32-24. The spread held late into the opening half, and another surge had the Aggies up 13 at the break, 50-37.

The Cowboys chipped into the A&M lead through the first 10 minutes of the second period, 68-60. Putting their foot back on the gas, the Maroon & White ripped off a 13-4 spree, finished by a pair of 3-pointers off Oklahoma State turnovers to lead by 17, 81-64. The Aggies never let it get close and sailed to the final buzzer, 88-69.
