España Bunching Chest

Dorothy Draper

The España Bunching Chest is iconic Dorothy Draper. She was asked to design it by invitation of the Spanish government seeking a collection to raise the profile of Spanish design in the international market. The bunching rectangular chest which is made of Cherry, features three drawers decorated with a repeated, routed pattern. Accent paint colors are standard on the routed pattern. Solid brass ring pulls adorn the centers of the nine shapes. Available in wood or painted finishes. Gilt leaf is available for an extra charge.
