

Cookie Statement

Which cookies Recruitsome uses and how you manage your preferences.

Version 2026.1 · In effect since 1 July 2026

01 What are cookies

Cookies are small files placed on your device when you visit our website or application. We also use similar techniques, such as local storage.

02 Which cookies we use

TYPE	PURPOSE	CONSENT
Necessary	Login, session and security (incl. CSRF)	Not required
Functional	Preferences such as language and display	Not required
Analytical	Measuring anonymised usage to improve the service	Required

We do not place advertising cookies.

03 Consent and control

For non-essential cookies we ask consent in advance via the cookie banner. You can change or withdraw your choice at any time via the cookie settings and delete cookies via your browser.

04 Retention

Necessary and functional cookies typically last up to 12 months; analytical cookies shorter. Session cookies expire when you close the browser.

05 Changes

We may amend this cookie statement. The applicable version is recorded with an effective date and archived.
