

KARGES

570 Rothschild Entry Table

Louis XVI

This entry table shows how Karges furniture truly is functional art. This series, sold as a console or an entry table, features a hand painted faux marble top of your choosing. The apron is a blank canvas for our hand painter to create a unique hand painted design for you and the legs can be either stained, painted or leafed for an added design element. See 579 for the console version.
