Stand Up Parsons Style Desk

Facets

This forward-thinking stand-up version of the Parson's Desk, is both practical and functional while never compromising luxury and style. The workspace is generous, yet adapted for a home work environment so it's the perfect size to fit in a workspace in any room or even used as a sofa table, or console, or kitchen island. It has a single dovetailed drawer. The legs are strong and have a sophisticated modern take on a Parson Style leg. Also available in a standard, sitting height (68-221). This desk can be ordered in our painted lacquers or stain finishes. Hardware options are limited due to size of drawer. Please see Facets pricelist for hardware options.
