21 Slipper Chair

Metropolitan

Welcome to the other mid-century modern. Mid-century Modern was not without opulence, at least not for Van Day Truex. He lived his life with splendor and encouraged all of America to do the same. Our version of a rare and much sought-after Slipper Chair, originally made for Grosfeld House, is here brought back to thrilling life for the current generation of tastemakers. Inspired by an original design for Grosfeld House, circa 1952. Exposed Walnut legs. Fully upholstered seat and back with decorative welt trim.
