Chippendale Sofa

The authentic design for this sofa derives directly from Thomas Chippendale's, The Gentleman and Cabinet Maker's Directory, 1754 edition. The notable features include the graceful scalloped back and flared arms. The thin upholstered and curvaceous, arms are one of the most important distinguishing features and typical of the upholstery of this period. Standard with two 20" (50 cm) throw pillows. Standard kick pleat flounce, 9" (22.8 cm). Also available in a love seat version, 72", 7970.
