Chippendale Love Seat

The Classics

The authentic design for this love seat derives directly from Thomas Chippendale's, The Gentleman and Cabinet Maker's Directory, 1754 edition. The notable features include the graceful scalloped back, flared arms and bench cushion. The neat and thin upholstered arms are one of the most important distinguishing features and typical of the upholstery of this period. Standard with two 20" (50 cm) throw pillows. Standard kick pleat flounce, 9" (22.8 cm). Also available in a sofa version, 95" (241 cm).
