

AAT Privacy Policy

Effective Date: January 13 2023

At AAT, we are committed to protecting the privacy of our users. This Privacy Policy outlines our practices regarding the collection, use, and disclosure of information, with a focus on our commitment to safeguarding user data.

1. Information We Do Not Collect:

We want to emphasize that AAT does not collect, process, or store any personal data of our users. We do not require or request personal information such as names, addresses, email addresses, or phone numbers during the use of our services.

2. Information We Collect:

We only collect and store information necessary for the operation of our services, and this information is not personally identifiable. The data we collect may include:

Login Information: We require a username and password for user authentication. These are securely stored but are not linked to personally identifiable information.

Usage Data: We collect information related to your use of our GPS AVL SaaS, such as tracking data, vehicle information, and system logs. This data is used solely for the operation and improvement of our services.

3. How We Use Information:

The information we collect is used for the sole purpose of providing our GPS AVL services and ensuring the security and reliability of our systems. We do not use this data for any other purpose, such as marketing or advertising.

4. Disclosure of Information:

AAT does not disclose any information to third parties, including personal data. We maintain strict confidentiality regarding the data collected for the operation of our services. No end-user data is shared with any third party or affiliates. No mobile information will be shared with third parties/affiliates for marketing/promotional purposes.

5. Data Security:

We take data security seriously and have implemented stringent security measures to protect your information from unauthorized access, disclosure, alteration, and destruction.

6. Retention of Data:

We retain data only for as long as necessary to fulfill the purposes for which it was collected and to comply with legal requirements.

7. Updates to this Privacy Policy:

AAT may update this Privacy Policy from time to time to reflect changes in our services and practices. When we make changes, we will revise the "Effective Date" at the top of the policy.

8. Contact Information:
