Text of submission	I have been employed as a 'Norta Norta' in-class tutor for the past seven years. I and many more in the same position as myself, signed contracts for five years and then signed a contract for the sixth year and one day later we were told that due to changes we were now employed as casual employees. This causes no end a problem to gaining loans and applying for any type of credit is nigh on impossible. No other teacher's aids in schools get treated this way and I object to the insecurity that comes attached with casual work. I feel that after this length of time and commitment to the position I feel that I now deserve to be permanent.
