Text of submission	I work in Karratha on the pluto project as a contractor. I have seen a lot of 457 contrators working on the LNG project. They are from Cambodia, Ireland, Philippines, Scotland, New Zealand, and England. This is a perfect example of the federal government allowing this to happen. My job is not secure and my wages are not at its best rate. I blame the federal government for allowing the employers to hire 457 contractors instead of looking after the Australians desperately wanting to work in the gas oil industry.
