

THE CENTER FOR ONLINE LEARNING ASSESSMENT PLAN

Adele Merlino
Senior Instructional Designer-Technologist

INTRODUCTION

The mission of Hudson County Community College in Jersey City, NJ is to provide high quality e-learning courses & fully online AA/AS degrees.

Center for Online Learning (COL) developed over 70 fully online & hybrid courses.

Need to Assess for Quality Assurance & MSCHE accreditation.

Assessment of faculty, SLO and program evaluation.

COL goal is to offer fully online Liberal Arts degree by Fall 2018.

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

The Center for Online Learning (COL) at HCCC has offered online and hybrid courses since Fall 2011.

- Presently over 500 students are enrolled in COL courses each semester.
- Courses are offered in 15-week and 7-week formats in A and B sessions in Fall, Spring and Summer.
- Over 250 sections are offered every year with an increased demand for fully online degrees.

LITERATURE REVIEW

- EMPHASIS OF RESEARCH IS ON QUALITY MATTERS AND MSCHE GUIDELINES.
- COMPARISONS TO PEER INSTITUTIONS IN THE STATE OF NJ / NY.
- COMPARISONS OF STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES AND GOALS OF ONLINE COURSES VS. TRADITIONAL COURSES.

RATIONALE FOR ASSESSMENT

A goal of the COL is to provide students the opportunity of obtaining an AA Liberal Arts degree fully online.

The COL expects to:

- ensure all courses are consistent in design, and clearly align learning goals and objectives to each learning activity.
- achieve MSCHE accreditation.

ASSESSMENT IMPLEMENTATION

Via the LMS a variety of assessments will be delivered during the academic year.

- Faculty Satisfaction Surveys
- Student Satisfaction Surveys
- Each learning activity should properly align to the course's learning objectives and goals.
- Rubrics Scores and student work would serve as evidence of learning outcomes.
- All assessments will be collected each semester.

CONCLUSION

Center for Online Learning at HCCC is ready to embark offering fully online AA degrees.

There is a need to make various programmatic assessments & possible adjustments in order to meet MSCHE accreditation.

THANK YOU!

APPLY TODAY - LEARN ANYWHERE ANYTIME