The Resurrection of Light- Quantum Resonance Awakening Awareness

What?

Quantum Resonance has a discreet and defined frequency. It is not like other energies although it is similar to HEMF Radiance and Microbiome Electromagnetic Field (MBEMF) Radiance and the Harmonizing frequencies in its essential focus and singular usage. It is exclusive to the Elimination System and then shared out and throughout the structure as a kind of attachment releasing lubricant. It spreads the hope of transformation within the Sacred Anatomy.

Where QR goes it awakens awareness and dispels the need for clinging to the old and stressful ways of attachment and entanglement. It actually reveals attachment and entanglement and shows us how to cope with both. When ready to Resurrect Light it means the Light Body and the HES together will release attachment and agitate entanglement to switch on the radiant beams that potentially can shine forth. So, instead of a tired dim way of being the hope arises for a shift into a higher brighter frequency with joyous abandon.

Why?

To restore faith, hope, love and charity of spirit. We humans need to have faith in tomorrow to survive the night. The hope of good gives us the ability to bring forth the potential of presented by Divine Creation that lives within us. Then as love arises it shows us how to spread our arms wide to our brothers and sisters. To finally evoke from within the spaciousness for the charity needed to share our inspired work and private world.

How?

A we release the attachment we embrace the open space that remains and feel the power of the light within as it burns through the tentative and unexpected and shapes who we actually are. Ascending Light Bodies, awakened and harmonized beings without the baggage of attachment to result, perfection, winning, being right or in control. Do we dare step into this big version of ourselves? Can we ultimately and with no reservation take the risk to let go of the ties from the past, the stories we thought defined us and the unresolved wisdom of what we might become if only? If maybe? If, if, if? Can we actually live in the moment and not be determined by the fears and desires? This piece, The Resurrection of Light- Quantum Resonance Awakening Awareness pushes the envelope, throws down the gauntlet and issues the challenge...

The Resurrection of Light- Quantum Resonance Awakening Awareness

QR cannot just be brought in because it is created within the structure itself. The HES has to be brought to the frequency that will allow QR to increase and it can only increase if the HES shifts to a different level of frequency. One that is available to awakened awareness. This is not to say people are not awake or aware- it is to say that Quantum Resonance Awakening Awareness is a specific state, one that is all about transmutation of the human spirit.

This rising up, increasing in speed does some fundamental things. It gives you unlimited space within to receive clearer transmissions from your own 4 aspects and the Sacred Anatomy Angels. It allows you to make a greater contribution, to go further than you ever thought possible, to exceed expectations. It is simpler than you think and harder than you know. It is your true potential wrapped in a brilliant illuminated glowing lamp that will light your path. If you are afraid you will stop yourself. If you think you are already there, well, you may be, but this exercise won't hurt your self-esteem or your energy structure if you give it a try.

1. Applying the Edge, with Permission dowse to determine availability to this process.
2. Check the percentage of effectiveness of the Elimination System- this should be between 40% and 60% to proceed.
3. Establish the percentage of QR that the structure is producing. It will be between 30% and 45% if led to this piece.
4. To achieve the ability to be available to a new awakened awareness and to attain the specific state of Quantum Resonance Awakening Awareness the speed of the quantum light in your cells must increase, it must lift up in the HES, in the body, mind, spirit and heart.
5. Bring in a weave of ULL, Source Light, Restoration of Hope, Holy Witness, the White Light of Purity and AtOnement (pure white with lightning strikes flashing) .This weave is called the Resurrection of Light (white with some golden flecks & cerulean blue patches)
6. Bring in Resurrection of Light until there is a shift lifting you up-
7. Check your percentage of QR- keep going until it is at 100%
8. Check the percentage of effectiveness of the Elimination System- it should be 100%
9. Bring in Harmonizing the Elimination System
10. IBWSIB

NOTE: I am told there is more but that this is all that will be revealed right now.
