Astral Deity Removal

What?

The Astral Deity is the most strongly defined of all Astrals and the most evolved. In some cases if the Deity is positively disposed to humans, they like to be worshiped or fawned over and may act as benefactors or friends to a culture. They can be very sophisticated and can take on the appearance of human beings who they possess.

Why?

Astral Deities are the only kinds of shadow folk who are able to cross the physical, spiritual, emotional, mental boundaries and be in relationship with humans, albeit somewhat one-sided and narcissistic. They may not always be immediately damaging to the host. Sometimes the Astral Deity will lend their host or hostess extraordinary magical-seeming abilities which they might use to do good works such as acting as an oracle, teaching, or healing. But they will not do this without some form of pomp and fanfare.

The Astral Deity will insist on being beloved and worshiped to some degree and will not be able to speak through the host rationally, with detachment, about how they do what they do. The host will feel like they are channeling.

Watch out! The possessed being may insist only an initiated few hand-picked acolytes will truly understand how the “magic” works and any attempts to demystify the process will be too threatening to be allowed.

Watch with care for beings possessed by Astral Deities often they are extremely charismatic and may even attract followers. Fortunately, there is a way to determine the presence of an Astral Deity and techniques to dismiss it completely.

How?

This removal requires assistance from helpers. You will need to call upon unseen allies and stationed them in the four corners of the room. Astral Deities encircle the person, and can also encircle a house, a family, or business. Astral Deities need recognition and must be named and even located on the map. I suggest you buy a book of ancient gods and goddesses to help fatten up your knowledge on the subject. You never know when Thor or Set will make an appearance. Understanding your client's vacation travel schedule will help as they may have picked up an Astral Deity in Bali, Jamaica, or even Northern Ireland. Always ask if they have any empowered object in their home that might be the source of the problem.
