

Philips C3

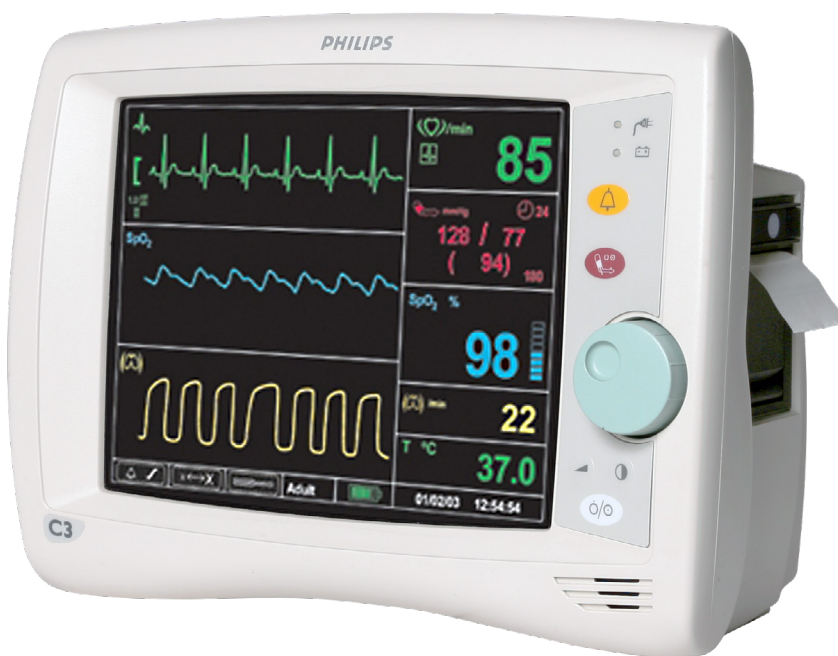

Patient Monitor

A non-invasive patient monitor with all the essentials for use in multiple applications

The Philips C3 is a non-invasive patient monitor with all the essentials for use in multiple applications. The all-inclusive C3 offers a complete set of non-invasive parameters, a large 10.4" color display, and universal Philips connectors.

FEATURES

- › 3-lead ECG with pacemaker detection
- › FAST SpO₂ – motion-tolerant Fourier Artifact Suppression Technology
- › Non-invasive blood pressure with STAT mode
- › Integrated strip chart recorder (optional)
- › Navigation wheel operates like a computer mouse
- › RS232 serial port for connection to the nurse-call system or export of trend data
- › Large 10.4" color display
- › Flexible display formats adapt to various clinical requirements
- › Integrated 12-hour trending
- › Universal Philips connectors are easily interchanged between monitors
- › Portable, with three-hour battery power

2694-2022-09-01