Dear ASGAR NAZIR,

Thank you for submitting the Manuscript!

Thank you for submitting your manuscript entitled "Management of Steroid Induced Diabetes with Unani medicine: A case report" to the platform with Manuscript ID: 1422.

We have successfully received your submission and it is now under the initial screening process. This step involves checking the manuscript's adherence to our submission guidelines and assessing its alignment with the scope of the Journals.

Please allow us 24-48 hours to complete this initial assessment. Once completed, you will receive a detailed screening report along with a recommendation for the most suitable journal for your work, should any further adjustments or considerations be needed.
