

AACHEN'S PALL

Scenario P

AACHEN GERMANY, October 15, 1944: The American hand had closed about Aachen. The city fell slowly. Street by street, then house by house the GIs squeezed out the Germans. Finally the Wehrmacht headquarters in the Hotel Quillenhof was in sight. The massive hotel structure proved impervious to direct 75mm fire from supporting Shermans. As the GIs launched their first assault, Colonel Corley called on a self-propelled 155 for direct fire support.

AFTERMATH: The GIs moved to the attack through a limited smoke screen. The Americans were almost in possession of the Hotel when the Germans launched a final counterattack. The Americans fell back in the face of this new threat. It would be three more days before the hotel would be firmly in the GIs' grasp. The keystone of Aachen's bitter defense fell as smoke collected in the heated air above.
