

Accessibility Statement

The Arctic Research Commission is committed to providing access to all individuals - with or without disabilities - seeking information on this website. We have built this website to conform to Section 508 of the Rehabilitation Act (as amended), which requires that all individuals with disabilities (whether federal employees or members of the general public) have access to, and use of, information and data comparable to that provided to individuals without disabilities, unless an undue burden would be imposed on us.

If You Have Trouble Viewing Content

If you have difficulty accessing information on this site, particularly if using assistive technology such as screen readers, eye tracking devices, or voice recognition software, please contact us at www.arctic.gov and provide the following information:

- URL (web address) of the material you tried to access
- The problem you experienced
- Your contact information

Accessibility Feedback

If you have feedback regarding the accessibility of this site, please send an email to www.arctic.gov. To help us address the issue, please include:

- The nature of the accessibility problem
- Your preferred format (electronic format, standard print, large print, etc.)
- The web address, or URL, of the requested material
- Your contact information
