ORAL ROBERTS (12-6, 1-2)

THE STORYLINE:

The Golden Eagles opened up Summit League play last weekend and were swept in Saturday's doubleheader with the NDSU Bison by scores of 9-8 and 3-0. On Sunday ORU grabbed the series finale 9-6 behind a stellar reliever outing from Dalton Patten over 4.1 innings.

Bullpen Bullies:

ORU used a total of just eight arms over three games against NDSU thanks to big outings out of the pen from Easton Teel and Dalton Patten. Teel threw 5.2 innings allowing just one earned run in a near comeback in game one Saturday. On Sunday, Patten threw 4.1 scoreless innings with 5 Ks and 43 of 60 pitches going for strikes.

Comeback Kings: ORU now has four games where they have erased multi-run deficits to come back and win in 2025. It started in Arizona when ORU trailed ASU 7-5 in the top of the ninth and would go on to win 8-7. The Golden Eagles have come back from two five run deficits against Missouri State (5-0, 7-2) and came back to win 8-7 (F/10) and 9-7 in both meetings. They also erased a 7-0 deficit in their series opener with Southern Indiana to win 8-7.

#3 ARKANSAS (18-2, 2-1)

Folmar Closing in on History:

Head Coach Ryan Folmer is just 18 wins away from tying Larry Cochell for first on the all-time wins list by a head coach in program history. The Golden Eagles' 30th win of the season would propel Folmar past Cochell who holds the record at 428 wins and led ORU to their first CWS appearance in 1978. Folmar surpassed 400 career wins on opening day with a 3-2 win against Arkansas Pine-Bluff.

New Year, New Faces:

The Golden Eagles welcomed 22 new players over the off-season creating a brand new look in the lineup. On opening day, eight of nine ORU starters were new faces. Coach Ryan Folmer's squad also showcased three new starting pitchers who have made their first two appearances over the last two weekends.

Inside the Series: Oral Roberts trails the all-time series 23-8 vs the Razorbacks with their last matchup coming on March 12th, 2024 as Arkansas won 4-2. The Golden Eagles haven't won in the series since April 15, 2008 and have lost 11-straight to the SEC power. The last five matchups have all come at Baum-Walker Stadium.

Scouting the Opponent: Arkansas is the highest ranked team that ORU currently has on the schedule as they sit at No. 3 in the country and have won 18 of their first 20 games. Dave Van Horn, one of the most decorated college baseball coaches in history, leads the way in his 23rd season in Fayetteville. Over that span he has led the Razorbacks to nine College World Series, nine super regionals, and 20 NCAA Tournaments.

Arkansas is led in average by Kuhio Aloy hitting .424 with eight homers, second on the team, and 33 RBIs which leads the team. Right behind him is his brother Wehiwa Aloy batting .380 leading the squad in homers with nine to go along with 24 RBIs. They're natives of Wailuku, Hawai'i, Wehiwa transferring from Fresno State and Kuhio from BYU.

Colin Fisher got the ball to start Arkansas' last mid-week contest going 3.0 innings giving up just one hit, no runs, and struck out three in a bullpen heavy day against Central Arkansas. The staff is headlined by LHP Landon Beidelschides boasting a 3-0 record and 3.80 ERA in 21.1 innings. Zach Root is another big arm in the weekend rotation leading the team in strikeouts with 37 in just 24.1 innings of work.

Arkansas is a flawless 14-0 at Baum-Walker stadium this season and have wins over Washington State, No. 22 TCU, Michigan, and No. 13 Ole Miss. They have the 10th best team ERA in the country, rank seventh in homers with 36, and rank 17th in total runs with 156 (13 per game).

Journey Back to the Summit: Oral Roberts has won the last three Summit League Tournaments putting them into the NCAA Tournament field and the 2023 College World Series during that span. The Golden Eagles look for a four-peat under Head Coach Ryan Folmer, which would be tied for the second-longest conference tournament title streak in program history. ORU's longest streak comes in 15 straight tournament titles spanning from 1998 to 2012 between the Mid-Continent Conference and the Summit League.

Home Sweet Home: ORU settles into their newly renovated digs with 14 of the first 18 games of the 2025 season being played at the newly re-named Chapman Ballpark. The only two road trips include a three-game set in Tempe, Ariz. against the Arizona State Sun Devils (Feb. 21-23) and a one-game trip to Springfield, Mo. to take on the Missouri State Bears (Mar. 11).

Premier Opponents in 2025: Oral Roberts' schedule features some of the best baseball programs in America to rev up the Golden Eagles for another run at the College World Series. It starts with a three-game road trip to Arizona State to take on the Sun Devils, a program well-known for their long-term success that features 22 CWS appearances which ranks fourth in the country. Oklahoma, Oklahoma St., Cincinnati, and Arkansas are other big names on the docket for ORU in 2025.

Old Faces in New Roles:

Five-year player and 2023 CWS team first baseman Jake McMurray is back with ORU this time as the director of baseball operations. McMurray played a two-year professional baseball career with Rocky Mountain in the Pioneer League and the Winnipeg Goldeyes of the American Association. Over his pro career, McMurray slashed .333/.404/.407 with three HRs and 99 RBIs. As a Golden Eagle, he posted a .309 batting average hitting 14 homers and driving in 129 runs over his five-year career.

Chapman Park Gets Major Upgrade:

Formerly known as J.L. Johnson Stadium since 1978, ORU's home field will now be called Chapman Park thanks to a generous $1.5 million donation from the Chapman Foundation to complete the renovations in Tulsa. Additional details regarding the project are as follows:

- New fan amenities
- Over 2,000 new seats with cupholders
- Completely renovated concession areas
- New concourse and branding
- All new exterior surfaces, branding, and reimagined entry experiences
- Redesigned videoboard experience for fan engagement
- New visiting team bullpen
- Updated home bullpen
- New team meeting spaces
- New coaches' locker room and lounge
- New office spaces
- New restrooms
- New athletic training facilities
- Phase II in the Fall of 2025
- Full new field turf in both the infield and outfield
- On-field suites with grills, on-field seating/inside seating, and premium amenities

HEAD COACH RYAN FOLMAR

THE FOLMAR FILE

Head Coach
13th Season
Oklahoma State, '97
Career Record: 410-260-1

Ryan Folmar begins year 12 as the head baseball coach at Oral Roberts University in 2024 with a career record of 371-224 (.624) and a six-time Summit League Coach of the Year (2015, 16, 17, 18, 21, 23). Prior to being tabbed the head coach in 2013, Folmar served on the ORU coaching staff as an assistant for nine seasons.

In his tenure, Folmar has guided the Golden Eagles to six Summit League Regular Season/Tournament championships, six NCAA Regional appearances, one NCAA Super Regional appearance and one NCAA College World Series appearance. As the head coach, Folmar has overseen the development of five Summit League Players of the Year, six Newcomers of the Year, seven Pitchers of the Year, eight All-Americans, 29 MLB Draft picks and 92 all-conference selections.

In his 11th season at the helm in 2023, Folmar led the Golden Eagles to a 52-14 record and their first College World Series appearance since 1978. The 52 victories were a new program record (DI-era) and marked the first 50-win season since 2004. In its final 48 games, ORU went 42-6 and set a program record (DI-era) with 21 consecutive wins from April 23-June 4. The Golden Eagles also went a perfect 6-0 against midweek foes Oklahoma State and Wichita State, marking the first time they have accomplished the feat since 2006.

Folmar, who was tabbed the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association (NCBWA) Mike Martin National Coach of the Year, guided ORU to its 20th Summit League Regular Season title, 21st Summit League Tournament Championship, 30th NCAA Regional appearance and a No. 5 national ranking (Collegiate Baseball), which matches the highest in program history. The ORU skipper coached a Summit League best 13 All-League members, including the Player/Newcomer of the Year Jonah Cox, Pitcher of the Year Cade Denton and Defensive Player of the Year Mac McCroskey.

Under Folmar's tutelage, ORU had a trio of players named All-Americans (Cox, Denton and Matt Hogan) for the first time since 1999. Denton, who was named the NCBWA Stopper of the Year, became only the third player in program history to earn All-America honors in back-to-back seasons. Cox and Denton also became the first Golden Eagles since Mark Serrano in 2009 to earn multiple All-America honors in a single season.

In the 2023 MLB Draft, ORU had four players hear their name called in Cox, Denton, Jacob Widener and Mac McCroskey. Three of the four Golden Eagles went inside the Top 10 rounds, marking the most since 1981.

ORU led the League in 23 different statistical categories, while ranking in the top 10 nationally in fielding percentage (1st), win/loss percentage (2nd), hits (2nd), batting average (7th), ERA (7th), WHIP (7th) and runs (9th). The Golden Eagles finished the season as the only team in the country ranked inside the top 10 in batting average, ERA and fielding percentage. Under the development of Folmar, Cox, who was a semifinalist for the Dick Howser Trophy, led the nation in hits and set the program and Summit League single-season record with 114.

Against ranked foes in 2023, Folmar guided ORU to a 7-3 record. The Golden Eagles entered the Top 25 (Collegiate Baseball) for the first time since 2011 on May 1 and finished the season ranked in the Top 10 for the first time since 1983.

On June 4, 2023, Folmar moved into second all-time in program history for wins as ORU defeated No. 14 Dallas Baptist, 6-5, to claim the Stillwater Regional.

In 2022, the Golden Eagles returned to an NCAA Regional for the first time since 2018 after capturing their 20th Summit League Championship. Folmar guided ORU to a 38-20 overall record and coached nine All-Summit League players, including the 2022 Pitcher of the Year Llegend Smith. The Golden Eagles finished the season as the only program with road wins over multiple top 3 opponents and one of only two teams to have recorded victories over the two College World Series finalists (Ole Miss and OU).

ORU got hot in the final month of the season going 12-4 in May en route to the 26th conference tournament championship in program history. On May 2, 2022, Folmar led the Golden Eagles to a 7-3 road win at Air Force, marking the 2,000th victory in program history.

On April 15, 2022, Folmar picked up his 300th career victory with a 6-4 win at Western Illinois, becoming the fourth head coach in program history to reach the milestone.

In 2021, the Golden Eagles returned to the top of the Summit League standings to claim the league's regular season championship. After posting a 31-23 record overall and 19-7 Summit League record, Folmar had claimed another Coach of the Year accolade given by league peers. The Golden Eagles got hot in the month of March after taking two of three at No. 8 LSU and at Dallas Baptist in back-to-back weekends. To close out the regular season, ORU won eight of its last 10 games to claim the regular season title.

Folmar led the Golden Eagles to their 18th-consecutive regular season title and the program's 19th-straight tournament title as members of The Summit League in 2018 posting a 38-20 overall record on his way to being named Summit League Coach of the Year. ORU advanced to the NCAA Regionals for the 28th time in school history.
