A RAZORBACK WIN WOULD...

- Make Arkansas bowl eligible for the second consecutive season.
- Give Arkansas its fourth consecutive victory for the first time since the 2011 season.
- Double Arkansas' SEC win total from the previous two seasons combined.
- Mark the third SEC road win of the season, the most since 2010.
- Keep the Golden Boot at Arkansas for the second straight year for the first time since 2007 & 2008.
- Be the 700th win in Razorback Football history.

THE RAZORBACK RUNDOWN

AT A GLANCE

Arkansas will play its final road game of the 2015 season on Saturday when the Razorbacks head to Baton Rouge to take on No. 9 LSU. Arkansas has won three in a row and four of its past five and needs one more win to earn bowl eligibility for the second straight season.

ON ANOTHER LEVEL

Since the start of the second half against Auburn, Brandon Allen has been simply lights out. Allen has led Arkansas to points in 15 of his last 20 drives under center in regulation, including 14 touchdowns, while the Razorbacks scored on all five overtime possessions and are a perfect 3-for-3 in two-point conversions in the last two OT wins (Auburn-4OT, Ole Miss-OT). Over his last nine quarters of action in regulation - didn't play in the fourth quarter against UT Martin - and five overtime periods, Allen is 59-of-81 for 825 yards, 10 touchdowns and no interceptions. The Razorbacks haven't gone three-and-out with Allen at quarterback in the last 23 drives in regulation.

50 BURGER

For the first time since 1916, Arkansas has scored 50 points in three straight games while its back-to-back SEC games with over 50 points is a first since it joined the league in 1992. Arkansas' combined 107 points against Auburn and Ole Miss is a program record over two straight SEC games. Arkansas' 170 points over the last three weeks is more than 12 FBS teams have all season, including five power 5 conference programs.

RARE AIR (GROUND)

Collins etched his name among a pair of the all-time SEC elite running backs last Saturday at Ole Miss when he reached 1,000 yards for the third straight season. The true junior joined legends Darren McFadden of Arkansas and Georgia's Herschel Walker as the only three running backs in SEC history to run for 1,000 yards in each of their first three collegiate seasons.

Player	Team	Years
Alex Collins	Arkansas	2013-2015
Darren McFadden	Arkansas	2005-2007
Herschel Walker	Georgia	1980-1982

ONE AND ONLY

Not only did Collins become just the third running back in SEC history to run for 1,000 yards in each of his first three seasons, but he also became the only FBS player to accomplish that feat the last three years. Collins posted 1,026 yards as a freshman (2013), followed with 1,110 as a sophomore (2014) and currently 1,068 with at least three games left to play. Navy quarterback Keenan Reynolds is 209 yards away from joining Collins as the only FBS players with 1,000 yards rushing each of the last three seasons.

HISTORY OF THE GOLDEN BOOT

The "Golden Boot" trophy was first awarded in 1996 and created by former Arkansas linebacker David Bazzel. The Razorbacks have taken the "Golden Boot" one time in Baton Rouge, a 50-48 three-overtime win in 2007.

RB ALEX COLLINS

KEEPIN' IT 100

With his 108-yard performance at Ole Miss, Alex Collins moved into a tie for the SEC lead and second nationally with LSU's Leonard Fournette with seven 100-yard games on the year. Collins' seven 100-yard games equal his total from the last two seasons and are tied for the second-most in program single-season history. Entering the year with two 100-yard games in 16 SEC games - both against Texas A&M - Collins has gone over the century mark in four of five conference contests this season.

TO THE HOUSE

Collins' run of touchdowns continued in a big way two weeks ago against UT Martin, as he scored five times on the ground for the second-best total by an FBS player this season. Four of Collins' five touchdowns came in the first half, good for the most in the first half by an Arkansas player since it joined the SEC in 1992. Over his last 21 games, Collins has scored 24 touchdowns compared to four over his first 13 career contests.

- Scored a touchdown in seven of nine games this season.
- Five rushing touchdowns against UT Martin are tied for the second-most in program history and the most since Madre Hill's six against South Carolina in 1995.
- Collins' 12 touchdowns equal his total from all of 2014.
- Moved past Matt Jones, David Dickey, Madre Hill and Cedric Cobbs during his five-touchdown game last week and into fourth place in program history with 28 TDs.
- Scored a touchdown in five straight games earlier in the season to equal the longest of his career.
- Has a rushing touchdown in 12 of the last 16 games.

MR. 150

Earlier in the season, Collins joined Darren McFadden (2007) as the only two running backs in Arkansas history to rush for 150 yards in three straight games. With a season-best 173 yards against UT Martin, Collins brought his season total of 150-yard games to four, just one off McFadden's record of five in 2007.

- Collins ranks tied for third in the nation behind Leonard Fournette of LSU in 150-yard games (4) this season.
- Collins' six career games of 150+ yards rushing are the second-most in program history behind McFadden's 12.

LEADER OF THE PACK

In a league that features six of the nation's top 15 rushing leaders according to total yards this season, Collins is the SEC active leader and ninth in the nation in career rushing yards.

Player	Program	Rushing Yards
Alex Collins	Arkansas	3,194
Derrick Henry	Alabama	2,626
Leonard Fournette	LSU	2,417
Dak Prescott	Mississippi State	2,351
Jonathan Williams	Arkansas	2,321

DON'T BLINK

Collins has a career total of 87 runs of 10 or more yards or 15 percent of his carries (577). Out of his 87 runs of 10 or more yards, 31 have gone for 20+ yards. He is one of nine FBS running backs averaging over 5.5 yards per rush with over 175 attempts.

- In the fourth quarter, 10 of his 42 carries have gone for 10-plus yards while he has 14 first downs. Both stats rank third and sixth, respectively, in the FBS.
- Stopped for a loss just twice in his last 33 carries that includes a streak of 22 in a row.
- His 12 rushes of 20-plus yards this season equal are a career-high.
- Has a run of 10-plus yards in 30 of 34 career games.
- Broke five runs of 50-plus yards in his career.

TE HUNTER HENRY

HENRY QUICK HITS

Among Tight Ends...

- Has a reception in 19 straight games, which is the longest active streak in the SEC and tied for fourth longest among FBS tight ends.
- Leads the SEC and is third nationally in receiving yards (469).
- Leads the SEC and is ninth nationally in receptions (34).
- Leads the SEC in receptions of 10+ yards (18), 20+ yards (7), and 30+ yards (3).
- His 51-yard catch at Tennessee is the longest in the SEC this season.

Among all receivers...

- 18th in the SEC in receiving yards (469).
- 14th in the SEC in receptions (34).

THE SEC'S BEST

Since 2013, Henry has led all SEC tight ends in receptions and receiving yards with 99 and 1,391 respectively.

Player	Team	Receptions	Yards
Hunter Henry	Arkansas	99	1,391
Evan Engram	Ole Miss	84	1,197
Steven Scheu	Vanderbilt	69	850

CONSISTENT AND EFFICIENT

Henry has been targeted 165 times in the last two-plus seasons, reeling in 99 passes for 1,391 yards, good for 60 percent and 8.43 yards per target. Through nine games this season, Henry is hauling in 67 percent of his targets, averaging 9.2 yards per target, which leads all SEC tight ends and ranks fourth among FBS tight ends (minimum 25 receptions).

SURE HANDED

Henry has not dropped a pass through nine games this season. In fact, he's showcased his strong hands throughout his career, dropping just six of his 165 (3.6 percent) looks.

APPROACHING 100

Henry is just one reception shy of 100 for his career. He would become just the 13th tight end in SEC history, and second in Arkansas history, to reach the triple-digit mark.

THIRD DOWN SUCCESS

Over the last two-plus seasons, third down is where Henry is at his best. Of his 1,391 career receiving yards, 504 (32 catches) have come on third down - more than any other down.

His receptions on third-down passing plays result in a first down or touchdown 93.5 percent of the time (29 first downs, 1 TD).

He has 38 receptions combined on 3rd and 4th down in his career and 35 have produced either first downs or touchdowns (33 first downs, 2 TD), good for 94.4 percent.

AMONGST THE GREATS...

Henry is one of just three Arkansas tight ends to eclipse the 1000-yard plateau for his career, joining former Mackey Award winner D.J. Williams (2007-10) and Chris Gragg (2008-12).

1. D.J. Williams: 1,855 (2007-10)

WR DOMINIQUE REED

NEXT MAN UP

A top-ranked junior college transfer, junior wide receiver Dominique Reed was forced to adjust to SEC football quickly after three starting wide receivers went down with injuries before halftime of the third game of the season.

In that time, Reed has emerged as an explosive, reliable target for quarterback Brandon Allen.

- Turned in his best performance of the season in Arkansas' overtime win at Ole Miss, setting career highs in receptions (7), receiving yards (105) and TD receptions (2).
- Has now found the end zone in five straight games, five times through the air and once on the ground.
- Six of his 21 touches have resulted in touchdowns.
- 15 of his 18 receptions have resulted in a first down.
- 11 of his 18 receptions have been for 15+ yards.
- Is tied for fifth in the SEC with five TD receptions and is tied for third in TD receptions in conference games with four.
- Just behind his teammate Drew Morgan, Reed has reeled in four TD passes away from home. The tandem has combined for nine TD receptions in games away from home, the most of any SEC receiving duo.

WR DREW MORGAN

HIS TIME IS NOW

Though he began the year as Arkansas' No. 3 or No. 4 wide receiver, Drew Morgan has taken advantage of injuries and increased playing time to become one of the SEC's best wide receivers.

- Caught nine TD passes this season, which leads the SEC and is tied for ninth nationally.
- Set career highs for receptions (9) and TD catches (3) while tallying his third 100+ yard receiving game of the year in the victory at Ole Miss.
- His three 100-yard receiving games have all come against SEC opponents.
- He is the first Razorback to tally three 100+ yard receiving performances against SEC opponents in a season since Jarius Wright in 2011.
- He has a TD catch in three straight SEC games and four of five conference contests on the year.
- His three TD catches at Ole Miss are tied for the most receiving TDs in an SEC game this season.
- He has multiple TD receptions in each of the last two SEC games (Auburn, Ole Miss).

ROAD WARRIOR

Morgan has taken his game with him to several opposing stadiums this year. In fact, he leads the SEC in receiving yards (479) and TD receptions (5) in games away from home.

OVERTIME = MORGAN TIME

In Arkansas' two overtime wins this season, Morgan has been brilliant. In fact, no FBS receiver has been better. In overtime games, Morgan leads the nation in receptions (5), receiving yards (52) and TD receptions (3).

PROTECTING THE PRECIOUS JEWEL

Under head coach Bret Bielema and offensive line coach Sam Pittman, the Razorback offensive line has become the SEC's best pass blocking unit. They currently lead the SEC with just nine sacks allowed and have led the conference in that statistic for the third consecutive year.

- 9 sacks allowed in 2015
- 14 sacks allowed in 2014
- 8 sacks allowed in 2013
- One of just 16 teams nationally that have allowed nine sacks or fewer this season.
- Haven't allowed a sack in five of the team's past 11 games dating back to last season.
- No sacks allowed in 14 of 34 games under Bielema.
- Second in the SEC and 27th nationally in passing plays of 15+ yards (54).

DEFENSE

RUN STOPPERS

Arkansas is allowing just 129.4 rushing yards per game, good for seventh in the SEC and 28th nationally, despite playing some of the better rushing offenses in the country. Five of Arkansas' eight FBS opponents rank inside the top 50 nationally in rushing offense and the Razorbacks have held eight of their nine opponents below their season rushing average.

TACKLING MACHINES

Led by Fayetteville natives Brooks Ellis and Dre Greenlaw, Arkansas is one of just two SEC teams with a pair of players with 70-plus tackles. Either Ellis or Greenlaw has led the Razorbacks in tackles in six of the last seven games, while both have posted career-highs in the past four outings.

- Duo has a combined 65 tackles over the last three SEC games against Alabama, Auburn and Ole Miss.
- Ellis leads the team with 74 tackles, tied for seventh in the SEC.
- Greenlaw leads all SEC rookies and is tied for third nationally among freshmen with 72 tackles.
- Greenlaw's 16 tackles in the win over Auburn are the most by a Razorback since Alan Turner had 16 against Mississippi State on Nov. 23, 2013.
- Ellis had 12 solo tackles at Alabama en route to a career-high 15 for the game.
- Out of Greenlaw's career-best 16 tackles against Auburn, 12 came in the second half or overtime.

THE 28-POINT MARK

Arkansas has held its opponent to 28 points or less in 16 of the 21 games played under defensive coordinator Robb Smith. The Razorbacks are 10-6 when allowing 28 points or less since Smith joined the program prior to the 2014 season.

NEWCOMERS STEPPING UP

Arkansas has relied heavily on two newcomers, defensive end Jeremiah Ledbetter and linebacker Dre Greenlaw.

A junior college transfer, Ledbetter quickly earned a starting spot and ranks fifth among all SEC newcomers and SEC defensive linemen with 5.0 tackles per game.

Greenlaw is a true freshman from Fayetteville, Ark. and leads all SEC freshmen and ranks tied for third nationally among freshmen with 72 total tackles. He ranks 11th among all players in the SEC with 8.0 tackles per game.

#RAZORFACT

Head coach Bret Bielema has had more players (34) taken in the NFL Draft than any other head coach with 10 or less years of experience.

The University of Arkansas captivated the college football world by naming Bret Bielema the 32nd head coach in Razorback history in December of 2012. Bielema, who enters his third season on The Hill, represented the qualities Arkansas was looking for: a leader of young men who holds student-athletes responsible both on and off the field and a coach who has a proven record of winning championships.

Throughout his head-coaching career, Bielema has won three conference championships and coached 11 first-team All-Americans, numerous award winners and NFL superstars. Among the NFL players coached by Bielema are three-time Defensive Player of the Year J.J. Watt, Super Bowl winning quarterback Russell Wilson, No. 1 overall draft pick and eight-time Pro Bowler Joe Thomas, All-Pro linebacker DeAndre Levy, Pro Bowl offensive lineman Travis Frederick, running back Montee Ball and many others.

Bielema has the Razorbacks trending in the right direction behind a balanced offense and stifling defense. Arkansas closed the 2014 season winning three of its final four games against traditional powers LSU, Ole Miss and Texas, the first time in school history the Hogs have defeated those three teams in the same season. The Razorbacks finished 7-6 with a 31-7 victory over Texas in the AdvoCare V100 Texas Bowl, marking Arkansas' first winning season since 2011.

Bielema has always prided himself on a balanced offensive attack and that is exactly what the Razorbacks accomplished in 2014. Running backs Jonathan Williams and Alex Collins were the only FBS teammates to rush for more than 1,000 yards each and both players finished in the top five of the Southeastern Conference in rushing totals. Quarterback Brandon Allen threw for 20 touchdowns, the sixth-most in a single season in school history, and had just five interceptions, the fewest by a Razorback quarterback since 1992.

Arkansas was the SEC's most improved defense in 2014, allowing just 19.2 points per game. With an 11.9 points per game improvement from the previous season, the Razorbacks had the seventh-most improved defense in the nation. Arkansas became the first unranked team in college football history to post back-to-back shutouts over ranked opponents after blanking No. 20 LSU and No. 8 Ole Miss. Senior linebacker Martrell Spaight was the first Razorback to ever lead the SEC with 128 total tackles and was a consensus first-team All-SEC selection.

In his first season at Arkansas (2013), the Razorbacks had five student-athletes named Freshmen All-Americans; Collins, offensive linemen Denver Kirkland and Dan Skipper, tight end Hunter Henry and defensive tackle Darius Philon. Collins was named the SEC Freshman of the Year after he became the second Razorback freshman to rush for more than 1,000 yards in a season. Collins and Darren McFadden are the only two to do so in school history and the only two Razorbacks to be named SEC Freshman of the Year.

His impact off the field has also been felt as the team has posted its two highest GPAs ever for a fall semester in 2013 and 2014. The football program had 32 student-athletes named to the 2014 Fall SEC Academic Honor Roll, the most for a fall semester in program history and the second most in the conference.

Bielema is building Arkansas into a pro-style football program that prepares players for the NFL. He has had 34 draft picks in nine seasons, more than any other head coach with less than 10 years of experience. Arkansas had four defensive players chosen in the 2015 NFL Draft, the school's most in a single draft since 1989.

A fourth round pick of the New England Patriots in 2015, Trey Flowers thrived under Bielema's tutelage. Arkansas was the only SEC school to offer a scholarship to Flowers out of high school and the defensive end weighed just 243 pounds when Bielema and his staff arrived following the 2012 season. Two years later, Flowers was a sculpted 270 pounds and famous for a viral video in which he box jumped 55 inches. He finished his career ranked second all-time in school history in tackles for loss (47.5) and was the leader of one of the best Razorback defenses of all time.

Spaight was another player who reached new heights under Bielema. He was the first recruit that Bielema signed at Arkansas after Spaight spent two years at Coffeyville (Kan.) CC. An Arkansas native, Spaight returned to his home state but struggled in his first season, starting just two games with 22 tackles. With the help of Bielema and his staff, Spaight re-dedicated himself to the game and spent countless hours in the weight room and watching film to perfect his craft. It led to a breakout senior season in which Spaight became the first Razorback to ever lead the SEC in tackles (128) and a consensus All-SEC first team selection. The performance helped him become a fifth round selection of the Washington Redskins in the 2015 NFL Draft.

Another player who turned his career around under Bielema was cornerback Tevin Mitchel. Highly recruited out of high school, Mitchel played at Arkansas right away, starting seven games as a true freshman in 2011. Though he contributed immediately, Mitchel struggled to separate himself from his competition. Entering his senior season, Bielema and his staff convinced Mitchel to give the nickel corner position a try and that is where the Mansfield, Texas native excelled. He shut down opponents' slot receivers in 2014 and played his way into the sixth round of the 2015 NFL Draft, where he was chosen by the Washington Redskins.

AJ Derby had perhaps the most unconventional path to the NFL. A quarterback his entire life, Derby began his career at Iowa before transferring to Coffeyville (Kan.) CC and eventually settling in at Arkansas. Bielema tried repeatedly to convince Derby to change positions, but it wasn't until the spring before his senior season that Derby finally bought in. The decision paid dividends for the new tight end as Derby played in 11 games, catching 22 passes for 303 yards, before an injury ended his collegiate career. Despite playing less than one year at his new position, the New England Patriots picked Derby in the sixth round of the 2015 NFL Draft.

“WE WILL RECRUIT UNCOMMON MEN HERE. WE WILL RECRUIT MEN THAT ARE HELD TO HIGHER STANDARDS. I DON'T WANT PEOPLE TO BE NORMAL. I WANT THEM TO BE UNCOMMON.”

Fullback Kiero Small played just one game in 2012 before suffering a season-ending injury. He bounced back in Bielema's pro-style offense and was very effective. The Seattle Seahawks selected him in the seventh round of the 2014 NFL Draft.

Travis Swanson finished his career in 2013 as the first player in school history to start 50 consecutive games. The center was a first team All-American and a two-time All-SEC selection. When the Detroit Lions picked him in the third round, he became the eighth offensive lineman Bielema has coached that was selected in the first three rounds of the NFL Draft.

In Bielema's eight seasons as head coach at Wisconsin, he had 17 players earn All-America honors, including 11 first-team All-Americans. He also coached two Outland Trophy winners, one Doak Walker Award recipient, one winner of the Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award and one Lott IMPACT Trophy winner as well as finalists for numerous other individual awards, including the Heisman Trophy. In his final six years at Wisconsin, 21 Badgers were taken in the NFL Draft, including three in the first round.

Bielema, who served as Wisconsin's defensive coordinator for two seasons before becoming head coach, was on staff as UW compiled a 55-6 record at Camp Randall Stadium in his nine years. The Badgers won their first 16 home games under Bielema, the second-longest home winning streak in school history.

In 2012, Bielema guided Wisconsin to its third straight Big Ten championship and the Badgers became the first team to represent the Big Ten in three straight Rose Bowls since Michigan qualified following the 1976-78 seasons. In his final game at Wisconsin, Bielema led the Badgers to a 70-31 win over No. 14 Nebraska in the Big Ten Championship Game. Wisconsin became the second team to score 70 points in a conference championship game, matching the number scored by Texas in the 2005 Big 12 Championship Game. Wisconsin also had two 200-yard rushers in the same game for the first time in school history.

In 2011, the Badgers won the inaugural Big Ten Championship Game, defeating Michigan State 42-39 to advance to the Rose Bowl for the second straight season. Wisconsin, winners of the Leaders Division, finished the season with an 11-3 record and recorded 11 regular-season victories for just the third time in school history, all under Bielema's watch.

In 2010, the Badgers won a share of the 12th Big Ten championship in school history and first since 1999. UW tied a school record with seven conference victories and earned its first trip to the Rose Bowl since 1999. Wisconsin nearly became the first team in FBS history to have three running backs gain 1,000 yards in the same season as James White finished with 1,052 yards, John Clay had 1,012 and Ball ran for 996.

Bielema was Wisconsin's defensive coordinator in 2004 and 2005, a period in which the program produced a 19-6 record under Barry Alvarez. The 2004 Badgers were ranked sixth nationally in scoring defense and ninth in total defense. The 2005 club, which earned Wisconsin's first shutout since 1999, finished its 10-win season with a 24-10 victory over No. 7 Auburn in the 2006 Capital One Bowl, limiting the high-powered Tigers to just 236 yards of total offense.

Bielema was co-defensive coordinator at Kansas State under Bill Snyder in 2002 and 2003. The Wildcats were 22-6 during Bielema's time in Manhattan and finished in the top 10 nationally both seasons in scoring and total defense. The Wildcats won its first Big 12 title in 2003. Among Bielema's standout players at Kansas State were first-team All-American Josh Buhl, 2003 NFL second-round draft pick Terry Pierce and All-Big 12 second team selection Bryan Hickman.

Prior to his years at Kansas State, Bielema spent nine seasons as an assistant coach at his alma mater, Iowa, where he worked for head coaches Hayden Fry and Kirk Ferentz. The 1997 Hawkeyes posted three shutouts and ranked No. 4 nationally in scoring defense.

Bielema lettered from 1989-92 at Iowa after joining the program as a walk-on. He earned a scholarship after his first year and was a member of Iowa's 1990 Big Ten championship team. A starter as a junior in 1991, he was a team co-captain as a senior. Bielema signed a free agent contract with the Seattle Seahawks and later completed his playing career with the Milwaukee Mustangs of the Arena Football League.

A 1992 graduate of Iowa with a degree in marketing, Bielema married his wife, Jen, on March 10, 2012.

ABOUT THE GOLDEN BOOT

WHY THE BATTLE FOR THE BOOT?

LSU and Arkansas don't have the longtime rivalry or trophy game that other SEC teams have, such as Alabama-Auburn, Ole Miss-Mississippi State, Florida-Florida State, Tennessee-Florida, Tennessee-Alabama, South Carolina-Clemson, Georgia-Georgia Tech and Georgia-Florida. The lack of an annual rival or trophy game for Arkansas-LSU, their location geographically, the intensity of each team's zealous fans and the expectation that both will hopefully be challenging for the SEC West annually, make this game a good spot for a trophy matchup regardless of records or standing.

THE TROPHY

Some trophy games have been around for many decades and their trophy value is founded in a long history and sometimes the oddness of the trophy itself. Since the Arkansas-LSU trophy game was going to be a new one, the best way to create value and significance is to make it more unique than any other trophy. The "Boot" is made of 24-karat gold and is one of the most expensive trophies in all of college football. It weighs 175 pounds and requires teamwork to carry it off the field.

THE LAST MEETING...

No. 20 LSU 0

ARKANSAS 17

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. - Arkansas knocked off No. 20 LSU, 17-0, at Donald W. Reynolds Razorback Stadium. The last time Arkansas defeated a ranked opponent was in 2012 when the Razorbacks beat No. 11 Kansas State in the Cotton Bowl.

The 17-0 win marked the first time the Razorbacks shutout a Southeastern Conference opponent since blanking South Carolina, 23-0 in 2002.

The Razorbacks outgained the Tigers in total offensive yards (264-123), passing yards (169-87) and rushing yards (95-36).

Junior quarterback Brandon Allen completed 16-of-27 passes for 169 yards on the day and found sophomore tight end Hunter Henry four times for 54 yards, including a game-long 29-yard reception. Junior running back Jonathan Williams tallied 54 rushing yards, pushing his career total to 2,063 which ranks 13th all time in school history.

Senior linebacker Martrell Spaight led the Razorbacks defense with a sack, 10 total tackles and one for a loss. Senior defensive end Trey Flowers recorded one sack. Sophomore defensive tackle Darius Philon recovered an LSU fumble on Arkansas' 19-yard line - his second of the season.

Sophomore kicker Adam McFain knocked through a 32-yard field goal on Arkansas' first possession after the Razorbacks marched 60 yards on 11 plays.

Through the first quarter, LSU was held to negative total offensive yards by the Razorback defense, the first time the Tigers produced a negative output in the first frame all season.

Williams punched in Arkansas' first score of the game from 1-yard out, capping a drive that lasted 15 plays and spanned 59 yards. The touchdown marked Williams' 11th rushing touchdown of the season and put the Razorbacks ahead, 10-0, heading into the locker room at halftime.

After a scoreless third quarter, the Razorbacks made their second trip to the end zone in the fourth quarter. Sophomore running back Alex Collins tallied his 11th rushing touchdown of the season off a 5-yard rush into the end zone.

The Razorbacks held off the Tigers for the remainder of the fourth quarter to close out the win. Following the victory, Arkansas reclaimed 'The Boot' from LSU.

UTEP 13

No. 18 ARKANSAS 48

FAYETTEVILLE, ARK. - With new offensive coordinator Dan Enos calling the plays for the first time since leaving his job as head coach at Central Michigan, Quarterback Brandon Allen was at his best – and most efficient – in leading No. 18 Arkansas to a 48-13 win over UTEP in the season opener on Saturday.

Allen threw for a career-high 308 yards and matched his best with four touchdown passes, doing so while completing 14 of 18 passes.

Keon Hatcher caught two of Allen's touchdown passes, finishing with six catches for 106 yards, but it was Allen who shined the brightest while extending his streak of pass attempts without an interception to 108.

That's the second-best streak of his career, following a stretch of 116 passes without an interception last season.

Aaron Jones led the Miners with 15 carries for 70 yards rushing, but UTEP was unable to overcome a series of second-half miscues in the blowout loss.

The Miners were outgained 490-204 in total yardage, with quarterback Mack Leftwich finishing 9-of-14 passing for 120 yards. The sophomore, however, opened the second half by throwing an interception, and UTEP's next two drives ended with poor snaps on punt attempts, leading to quality field position for Arkansas.

Following the interception and first of the bad snaps, Arkansas needed only two plays to score a pair of touchdowns to open the second half.

Alex Collins, who finished with 127 yards rushing on 12 carries, had the first from 7 yards out, while Kody Walker ran in from 3 yards out to put the Razorbacks up 42-10.

Allen threw for touchdowns on each of Arkansas' first four drives of the game, including a perfectly placed 38-yard touchdown pass to Hatcher late in the second quarter. He also connected with Drew Morgan and Jared Cornelius for scores during the half, in which he finished 10-of-13 passing for 256 yards.

TOLEDO 16

No. 18 ARKANSAS 12

LITTLE ROCK, ARK. - Arkansas fell to Toledo 16-12 at War Memorial Stadium in Little Rock, Arkansas.

Senior quarterback Brandon Allen had another impressive day. He finished the game 32-of-53 with 412 yards through the air. The 412 passing yards was the third highest single-game total in Razorback history.

However, Allen and the offense struggled to put points on the board. His one interception came in the third quarter when Toledo picked him off in the back of the endzone after his intended receiver fell down.

Running back Alex Collins netted 54 of Arkansas' 103 yards on the ground, totaling 20 carries and one touchdown.

Junior tight end Hunter Henry caught eight passes for 117 yards, the third 100-yard receiving game of his career.

Defensively, Henre' Toliver led the team with eight total tackles and had one tackle for loss.

Toledo scored first on a 5-yard pass Phillip Ely, a transfer from Alabama, to Corey Jones that gave the Rockets a 6-0 lead after a failed two point conversion attempt.

Arkansas responded in the second quarter with a 21-yard run by Alex Collins to cap an eight-play, 89-yard drive that gave the Razorbacks their only lead of the afternoon.

Toledo kicked a field goal with 1:06 left in the half to take a 9-7 lead into halftime.

After Arkansas stalled on their first drive of the second half, the Razorback defense forced a three-and-out. Jared Cornelius had a long punt return for a touchdown but a penalty called the return back and an interception left the Razorbacks with an empty drive.

The Rockets extended their lead to 16-7 later in the third quarter after a Jones-Moore 11 yard run.

Arkansas kicked a field goal and Toledo took an intentional safety, giving the Razorbacks one more chance with 52 seconds left in the game. Brandon Allen led the offense down to the Rockets' 16-yardline where Toledo's defense stood strong, keeping Arkansas out of the endzone as time expired.

No. 8 ALABAMA 27

TUSCALOOSA, Ala. - No. 8 Alabama defeated Arkansas 27-14 on Saturday night at Bryant-Denny Stadium.

For the fifth time this season, Arkansas limited its opponent to their lowest scoring output of the year.

But Arkansas struggled to find its rhythm on offense, manufacturing just 220 yards of total offense to Alabama's 396.

Defensively, junior linebacker Brooks Ellis led the way for the Razorbacks, posting a career-high 15 tackles (13 solo), including 2.5 for loss.

Alabama out-gained Arkansas 204-77 in the first half, but the Razorbacks led 7-3 due to quality defense and a timely turnover.

In Alabama's first two drives, the Crimson Tide marched inside the Arkansas 10 both times. But the Razorback defense held strong, allowing only a field goal on the opening drive.

On Alabama's third possession, Arkansas defensive back Josh Liddell intercepted Jake Coker at the Arkansas 31. However, the Razorbacks were unable to capitalize on the turnover.

With 2:26 remaining in the half, redshirt freshman Santos Ramirez picked off Coker, and the Razorbacks took over at the Alabama 12-yard line. This time, Arkansas made the Crimson Tide pay.

Senior quarterback Brandon Allen found junior wide receiver Drew Morgan wide open in the middle of the end zone for an easy 4-yard touchdown pass.

The defensive battle continued for the first 13 and a half minutes of the third quarter, but momentum quickly shifted Alabama's way when Coker threw an 81-yard touchdown pass to freshman wide receiver Calvin Ridley to give the Crimson Tide a 10-7 lead with 1:39 remaining in the quarter.

Alabama followed up with scoring drives on three of its next four possessions to extend its lead 27-7.

With 2:44 left in the contest, Arkansas put together a five-play, 74-yard drive that resulted in a 54-yard touchdown pass to junior wide receiver Dominique Reed.

But that would be all for the Razorbacks as the Crimson Tide went on to win 27-14.

AUBURN 46

ARKANSAS 54 (40T)

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. - Behind an electric crowd of 72,008 and a clutch performance by senior quarterback Brandon Allen, Arkansas downed Auburn 54-46 in four overtimes at Donald W. Reynolds Razorback Stadium Saturday afternoon.

On two occasions, Arkansas' fate came down to one play. Allen answered the call on both. The second was the game winner - a 25-yard strike to junior wide receiver Drew Morgan followed by a successful two-point conversion in the fourth overtime.

Allen finished the day 19-of-31 with 233 yards, three touchdowns and one interception while running back Alex Collins grounded out 105 yards and one touchdown on 25 carries.

Arkansas wasted little time finding the end zone on the game's opening drive. Two rushes by Collins and three first-down grabs by Hunter Henry for 52 yards helped set up an end around to Dominique Reed for an 11-yard score.

Arkansas went up 14-0 when Allen guided the Razorbacks on a 10 play, 60-yard drive that ended in a 23-yard scoring toss to junior tight end Jeremy Sprinkle.

A 7-yard rushing touchdown by Collins at the 2:14 mark in the third quarter broke a 14-14 tie and also moved Collins into sole possession of 10th place on the school's career rushing touchdowns list.

With a tied game down the stretch Arkansas took a 24-21 lead with a 25-yard Cole Hedlund field goal with 1:07 remaining in the game. However, Auburn moved the ball into Arkansas territory and kicker Daniel Carson booted through a 41-yard field goal to tie things up again and ultimately send it to overtime.

In the first overtime, Auburn got the ball first, went 25 yards on three plays and capped its drive with a 2-yard touchdown run by Peyton Barber. For Arkansas, on fourth and three and the game on the line, Allen zipped a 6-yard touchdown pass to Morgan while Hedlund followed with the PAT to even the score.

Both teams exchanged touchdowns in the second and third overtimes and were also successful on the two-point conversion in the third.

On the first play of the fourth overtime, Allen connected with Morgan for a 25-yard go-ahead touchdown pass that would be the game winner.

ARKANSAS 53

No. 19 OLE MISS 52

OXFORD, Miss. - Behind the arm of senior quarterback Brandon Allen and his career-high 442 passing yards and six touchdowns, Arkansas took down No. 19 Ole Miss 53-52 at Vaught-Hemingway Stadium.

Tied 38-38 with 10:30 left in the contest, Ole Miss forced the Razorbacks to punt for the first time in their previous five drives and the Rebels took advantage of the stop. Ole Miss quarterback Chad Kelly led the Rebel offense 81 yards down the field in six plays, capping the drive with an 18-yard go-ahead scoring toss to junior wide receiver Quincy Adebeyejo.

But Allen and the Razorbacks responded. The senior signal caller connected with Dominique Reed for a 17-yard game-tying touchdown with 53 seconds left in the game.

After the Rebels turned it over on downs on the ensuing possession, the Razorbacks attempted a 47-yard game-winning field goal, but it was blocked by Ole Miss defensive back Tony Bridges, sending the contest to overtime.

It took the Rebels just three plays to find the end zone in the first overtime period to take a 52-45 lead.

Facing a fourth-and-25, tight end Hunter Henry reeled in a 14-yard pass from Allen, then flipped the ball backwards as he was being tackled. Running back Alex Collins picked it up and ran it 26 yards to the Ole Miss 11 for a first down, extending the game.

Two plays later, Allen connected with junior wide receiver Drew Morgan in the end zone for Morgan's third touchdown reception of the contest.

Head coach Bret Bielema decided to go for two. Allen was sacked on the initial attempt, but a facemask penalty against Ole Miss would give the Razorbacks another chance.

On the second two-point conversion attempt, Allen dove into the end zone on a 1-yard keeper to lift the Razorbacks to a 53-52 victory.
