A RAZORBACK WIN WOULD...

- Be Arkansas' third consecutive bowl win, the longest bowl winning streak in program history.
- Mark the school's third straight win over K-State.
- Be Arkansas' eighth victory this season, the most since 2011.
- Give Arkansas its sixth win in the final seven games of the season.

THE RAZORBACK RUNDOWN

AT A GLANCE

Arkansas will meet Kansas State in the AutoZone Liberty Bowl - the second consecutive bowl game for the Razorbacks. Arkansas last played Kansas State on Jan. 7, 2012 in the Cotton Bowl, defeating the No. 11 ranked Wildcats, 29-16. The Razorback coaching staff has many ties to K-State as head coach Bret Bielema served as co-defensive coordinator under legendary head coach Bill Snyder in 2002 and 2003. Wide receivers coach Michael Smith played for Snyder at K-State and also spent 15 years on the K-State coaching staff.

UNPRECEDENTED OFFENSE

With a 50-point effort against Mississippi State, the Razorback offense broke the 50-point plateau for the fourth time in the final six games. The four 50-point games are the most in a single season in program history, breaking the previous record of three set in 2007, 1916 and 1910.

- Three of Arkansas' 50-point games have come in SEC action which is also a single-season record, breaking the 2003 mark of two.
- Arkansas has 279 points over the last six games, which is more than the Razorbacks scored in their first season (248) under Bielema.
- Arkansas is averaging 46.5 points over the last six games, which is 12.8 more than any other SEC team over its past six games.

HOT TICKET

In just the first week of sales once it accepted the bid to play in the AutoZone Liberty Bowl, Arkansas sold over double its allotment of 8,000 tickets. The Razorbacks were also a hot ticket when they defeated East Carolina, 20-17, in overtime on Jan. 2, 2010, in front of the second-largest crowd (62,742) in Liberty Bowl history.

BALANCE BREEDS SUCCESS

The Razorback offense has been wildly successful this season primarily due to the incredible balance between the passing and rushing attacks. Arkansas is the only school in the SEC and one of eight nationally to have both a 3,000-yard passer and 1,000-yard rusher this season. QB Brandon Allen has passed for 3,125 yards thus far, the fifth-best single-season mark in school history. RB Alex Collins has totaled 1,392 rushing yards this year, ranking No. 3 in the program's single-season charts.

PRO-STYLE U

Arkansas pro-style offense has produced some of the best statistics in program history and landed several players on All-American and national award lists. Arkansas is joined by Stanford as the only two programs to have a semifinalist for the Manning Award (QB), Doak Walker Award (RB) and John Mackey Award (TE).

TEAM CAPTAINS

The players voted and elected their own team captains prior to the season. Despite suffering a season-ending injury prior to the vote, senior running back Jonathan Williams was elected by his teammates along with senior quarterback Brandon Allen, junior linebacker Brooks Ellis and junior defensive lineman JaMichael Winston.

With Williams not on the field for every game, Arkansas has given the fourth captaincy to another player most weeks. Arkansas' rotating captains this season are listed below:

UTEP: Jonathan Williams
Toledo: Jonathan Williams
Texas Tech: Jonathan Williams
Texas A&M: Hunter Henry
Tennessee: Rohan Gaines
Alabama: Sebastian Tretola
Auburn: Jonathan Williams
UT Martin: Rohan Gaines
Ole Miss: Sebastian Tretola
LSU: DeMarcus Hodge
Miss. St.: Jonathan Williams
Mizzou: Jonathan Williams

ON ANOTHER LEVEL

In the month of November, Allen was simply lights out. The senior signal caller paced the SEC with 14 touchdown passes (third-most nationally) and a 179.21 passer rating (fifth-best nationally). Allen's 14 touchdown passes are the most by an SEC quarterback in the month of November since Tyler Bray's 14 in 2012 while his 179.21 passer rating was the best since Aaron Murray's 215.80 in 2012.

ESPN TOTAL QBR

Brandon Allen has an ESPN Total QBR of 87.3, which leads the SEC, ranks second nationally and 16th on the all-time best seasons list. Allen's Total QBR of 99.6 in the season opener vs. UTEP is the highest of any player this season. It is also the fourth highest QBR by an SEC player and the 15th highest by any player in the last 10 seasons.

Allen posted a top 5 Total QBR three times in 2015:

Week (Opponent)	Total QBR	Rank
vs. UTEP (9/5/15)	99.7	1st
at Ole Miss (11/7/15)	97.5	4th
vs. Mississippi St. (11/21/15)	97.0	3rd

EFFICIENCY IS KEY

Arkansas may not drop back to pass as frequently as some up-tempo, spread offenses, but Allen is the SEC's most effective quarterback when he does look to throw.

Allen leads the SEC and ranks eighth nationally in passer rating (165.2) and leads the SEC and ranks tied for fifth nationally in yards per attempt (9.1).

7,000 CLUB

With 406 passing yards against Mississippi State, Allen became just the fourth player in school history to surpass 7,000 career passing yards. With 7,148 career passing yards, he trails Clint Stoerner by 274 passing yards for third place in school history.

QB BRANDON ALLEN

ONE OF ARKANSAS' GREATEST

With seven touchdown passes against Mississippi State, Brandon Allen broke his own single-game touchdown record of six that he set earlier this season against Ole Miss. In doing so, Allen also totaled 63 career touchdown passes, breaking Arkansas' career passing touchdown record of 62 set by Ryan Mallett.

- Allen is just four touchdown passes away from also breaking the school single-season record of 32 set by Ryan Mallett in 2010.
- Became just the second player in SEC history with seven TDs in a league game and the first since Erik Ainge of Tennessee in 2007.
- Allen has two games with at least six TD passes in the last four games after no Razorback accomplished the feat in the program's first 1,217 contests.
- Became just the third player in program history to throw for 3,000 yards in a season.

RB ALEX COLLINS >>>>>>>>>>>

ONE OF THE GREATS

When Alex Collins topped the 1,000-yard plateau against Ole Miss, he became just the third player in SEC history to begin his career with three straight 1,000 yard seasons. The junior joined former Razorback Darren McFadden and Georgia great Herschel Walker on the esteemed list.

ONE AND ONLY

Not only did Collins become just the third running back in SEC history to run for 1,000 yards in each of his first three seasons, but he is also one of just two active FBS players to accomplish the feat. Collins posted 1,026 yards as a freshman (2013), followed with 1,110 as a sophomore (2014) and currently 1,392 with one game left to play. Navy quarterback Keenan Reynolds is the only other FBS player with 1,000 yards rushing each of the last three seasons.

KEEPIN' IT 100

Though his four-game streak of 100-yard games snapped against Mississippi State, Collins eclipsed the 100-yard mark a week later in Arkansas' regular season finale against Missouri. His nine 100-yard games this season are the second-most in program single-season history and two more than his total from the last two years. He is tied with LSU's Leonard Fournette and Alabama's 2015 Heisman Trophy winner Derrick Henry with the most 100-yard games in the SEC this season. Entering the year with two 100-yard performances in 16 SEC games – both against Texas A&M – Collins has gone over the century mark in six of eight conference contests this season.

- Nine 100-yard games is one off of Darren McFadden's single-season record of 10 set in 2007.
- Six 100-yard games in SEC play tied Darren McFadden's program record set in 2007.
- Six 100-yard games in SEC play are second only to Alabama's Henry (7) and tied with LSU's Fournette.
- Ranks second all-time in Arkansas history with 16 career 100-yard games.

Four of Collins' five touchdowns came in the first half, good for the most in the first half by an Arkansas player since it joined the SEC in 1992. Over his last 25 games, Collins has scored 29 touchdowns compared to four over his first 13 career contests.

- Scored a touchdown in nine of 12 games this season.
- Five rushing touchdowns against UT Martin are tied for the second-most in program history and the most since Madre Hill's six against South Carolina in 1995.

- Two touchdowns away from entering the top 20 all-time in SEC history.
- Has a rushing touchdown in 14 of the last 19 games.

MR. 150

Collins has totaled four 150-yard games this season, just one off Darren McFadden's record of five in 2007.

- Collins' six career games of 150+ yards rushing are the second-most in program history behind McFadden's 12.

HENRY NOTABLES

- Has not dropped a pass through 12 games this season.
- Since 2013, has led all SEC tight ends in receptions and receiving yards with 111 and 1,569 respectively..
- With 1,569 career receiving yards, he is one of just three Arkansas tight ends to eclipse the 1000-yard plateau, joining former Mackey Award winner D.J. Williams - 1,855 (2007-10) and Chris Gragg - 1,003 (2008-12).
- Has a reception in 22 straight games, which is the longest active streak in the SEC and fourth longest among FBS tight ends.
- Arkansas' second leading receiver this season.
- His 51-yard catch at Tennessee is the longest by a SEC tight end this season.

CONSISTENT AND EFFICIENT

Henry has been targeted 182 times in the last two-plus seasons, reeling in 111 passes for 1,569 yards, good for 61 percent and 8.6 yards per target. Through 12 games this season, Henry is hauling in 68 percent of his targets, averaging 9.5 yards per target, which leads all Power 5 tight ends (Fifth among FBS tight ends; minimum 25 receptions).

AMONGST THE SEC GREATS

Henry is one of just eight tight ends in league history to reach the triple-digit mark in receptions while playing in the SEC. Of the eight, he is one of four to rack up more than 1,500 receiving yards.

MR. DEPENDABLE

This season, Henry's receptions have resulted in a first down or a touchdown 76 percent of the time. For his career, 89 of his 111 receptions have resulted into a first down or touchdown, for a conversion rate of 80 percent.

Henry has been especially dominant on third down. Of his 1,541 career receiving yards, 579 (37 catches) have come on third down - more than any other down. His receptions on third-down passing plays result in a first down or touchdown 97.3 percent of the time (34 first downs, 2 touchdowns).

A look at Henry's 2015 third-down rankings (Among All SEC Receivers and SEC/FBS Tight Ends):

WR DOMINIQUE REED

NEXT MAN UP

A top-ranked junior college transfer, junior wide receiver Dominique Reed was forced to adjust to SEC football quickly after three starting wide receivers went down with injuries before halftime of the third game of the season.

In that time, Reed has emerged as an explosive, reliable target for quarterback Brandon Allen.

- Averaged 19.3 yards per catch, which ranks second in the SEC.
- Has found the end zone in six of the past eight games, six times through the air and once on the ground.
- Turned in his best performance of the season in Arkansas' overtime win at Ole Miss, setting career highs in receptions (7), receiving yards (105) and touchdown receptions (2).
- Tied for the SEC lead in 50+ yard catches (4) - three of which were touchdowns.
- 21 of his 27 receptions have resulted in a first down.
- Has 15 catches of 15+ yards.
- Has five catches of 25+ yards.
- Is tied for sixth in the SEC with six touchdown receptions and is tied for third in touchdown receptions in conference games (5).
- 202 of his 520 receiving yards have come after the catch.
- Reed is tied with teammate Drew Morgan for the SEC lead in touchdown receptions away from home (5). The tandem's 10 touchdown receptions away from home are the most of any SEC receiving duo.

WR DREW MORGAN

ONE OF THE SEC'S BEST

Though he began the year as Arkansas' No. 3 or No. 4 wide receiver, Drew Morgan has taken advantage of injuries and increased playing time to become one of the SEC's best wide receivers.

- Led SEC in TD receptions (10), which ranks T-14th in FBS.
- Led team in TD catches (10), receptions (55) and receiving yards (751).
- He and teammate Dominique Reed have combined for 13 touchdown receptions against conference opponents - more than any other SEC receiving duo.
- His three 100-yard receiving games have all come against SEC opponents.
- First Razorback to tally three 100+ yard receiving performances against SEC opponents in a season since Jarius Wright in 2011.
- Led SEC in TD catches in league games (8).
- Has a TD catch in four of the last six SEC games and five of eight conference contests on the year.
- His three TD catches at Ole Miss are tied for the most receiving TDs in an SEC game this season.
- Has 10 catches of 20+ yards.

ROAD WARRIOR

Morgan has taken his game with him to several opposing stadiums this year. In fact, he ranks second in the SEC in receiving yards (498) and is tied with teammate Reed for the SEC lead in TD receptions (5) in games away from home.

OVERTIME = MORGAN TIME

In Arkansas' two overtime wins this season, Morgan has been brilliant. In fact, no FBS receiver has been better. In overtime games, Morgan leads the nation in receptions (5), receiving yards (52) and TD receptions (3).

2015 FOOTBALL

PROTECTING THE PRECIOUS JEWEL

Under head coach Bret Bielema, the Razorback offensive line has become the SEC's best pass blocking unit. They currently lead the SEC with just 12 sacks allowed and have now led the conference in that stat three straight years.

- 12 sacks allowed in 2015
- 14 sacks allowed in 2014
- 8 sacks allowed in 2013

- One of just eight teams nationally that have allowed 12 sacks or fewer this season.
- Haven't allowed a sack in six of the team's past 14 games dating back to last season.
- No sacks allowed in 15 of 37 games under Bielema.

DEFENSE

RUN STOPPERS

Arkansas is allowing just 119.6 rushing yards per game, good for second in the SEC and 16th nationally, despite playing some of the better rushing offenses in the country. Five of Arkansas' 11 FBS opponents rank inside the top 30 nationally in rushing offense and the Razorbacks have held 11 of their 12 opponents below their season rushing average.

UNDER 100

Arkansas' defense has not allowed a running back to rush for over 100 yards in regulation this season.

Most notably, the Razorbacks held both Derrick Henry (95) and Leonard Fournette (91) below 100 yards rushing this year. The nation's two leading rushers, they are averaging 152.8 and 158.3 yards per game respectively.

A WISE MAN STEPPING UP

A skilled pass rusher who has great size and burst off the line of scrimmage, junior defensive lineman Deatrich Wise Jr. has tallied 17 tackles, including 8.0 sacks, two pass breakups, two quarterback hurries and two forced fumbles in the last four games - all against SEC opponents.

- Leads the SEC with 8.0 sacks in conference games.
- Set a career-high in tackles (7) for the second straight game against Mississippi State and has 15 tackles over the past three games.
- Registered a sack in four straight contests.
- Posted a career-high 2.5 sacks at LSU, which is the third-most by any player in an SEC game this season.
- His 2.5 sacks are the most by a Razorback in an SEC game since 2012.

FAYETTEVILLE'S FINEST

Dre Greenlaw is a true freshman linebacker from Fayetteville, Ark. and is tops among SEC rookies and fifth nationally among FBS freshmen with 93 stops on the year.

- Is second on the team and 12th in the SEC in tackles.
- Has 74 tackles over his last eight games.
- His team-high 12 tackles in Arkansas' win at No. 9 LSU was his fourth double-digit performance in the last eight games.
- Has led Arkansas in tackles five times since entering the starting lineup in week three.
- Forced a fumble on his first career sack at LSU which led to a touchdown and a 21-0 Arkansas lead.
- He and junior linebacker Brooks Ellis, also a Fayetteville native, have combined 147 tackles over the last eight games.
- The duo of Greenlaw and Ellis are one of just two pairs of teammates to rank in the SEC's top 12 in total tackles.

THE 28-POINT MARK

Arkansas has held its opponent to 28 points or less in 18 of the 25 games played under defensive coordinator Robb Smith. The Razorbacks are 12-6 when allowing 28 points or less since Smith joined the program prior to the 2014 season.

HONORS & AWARDS

Junior tight end HUNTER HENRY became the second Razorback to ever win the John Mackey Award, given annually to the nation's top tight end. Henry finished the regular season leading all FBS tight ends with 647 receiving yards and posted 46 receptions.

KANSAS STATE 16 | ARKANSAS 29

ARLINGTON, Texas - After a slow start offensively for both teams, Arkansas was able to get on the board late in the first quarter with a Zach Hocker 26-yard field goal. Hocker had three field goals in the game from 26, 22 and 30 yards away.

Joe Adams used an explosive 51 yard punt return for a touchdown early in the second quarter to extend the early Arkansas lead to 10-0.

Arkansas was able to add another field goal and a 45 yard touchdown strike from Tyler Wilson to Jarius Wright to jump out to a 19-0 lead. The PAT attempt was blocked and returned back for two points by Kansas State's Nigel Malone to make it a 19-2 game.

The Wildcats were able to get into the end zone right before halftime to cut Arkansas' lead to 19-9.

To start the second half, Kansas State received the ball and went straight down the field on a 7-play, 60-yard drive to cut the Arkansas lead to 19-16.

The Wildcats were able to score 16 straight points to make it a three point game until Tyler Wilson found Cobi Hamilton for a nine yard touchdown to extend the lead back out to 10. Zach Hocker hit is third field goal late in the fourth quarter to bring the score to 29-16 where it ended.

Tyler Wilson went 20-31 for 216 yards and two touchdowns.

Arkansas' defense was in the backfield all night harassing Collin Klein, sacking him seven times and holding the quarterback who averaged 91.6 rushing yards per game, to only 42.

Arkansas linebacker Jerico Nelson was able to intercept Klein and return it 61 yards to the Kansas State 16 yard line where Arkansas finished the game in the victory formation.

ARKANSAS 20 | EAST CAROLINA 17

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) - Alex Tejada kicked a 37-yard field goal in overtime to give Arkansas a 20-17 win in the AutoZone Liberty Bowl after East Carolina's Ben Hartman missed two field goal attempts late in regulation and another in the extra session.

Hartman missed from 39 yards with 1:03 remaining and from the same distance on the final play of the fourth quarter, then missed from 35 in overtime. Tejada made his attempt to end the game.

It was the second straight overtime game for the Razorbacks (8-5), who fell 33-30 to LSU in the regular-season finale. Tejada missed a kick to end that game and also missed from 43 yards in the fourth quarter Saturday.

That was nothing compared to what Hartman went through. He missed four attempts in all, each at the same end of the field. He was short from 45 yards in the first quarter, then hit the left upright with just over a minute left. He was wide right on the second potential game-winner, then wide left in overtime.

East Carolina (9-5) lost in the AutoZone Liberty Bowl for the second straight season. Last time it was a late fumble return by Kentucky that did in the Pirates.

Dominique Lindsay rushed for 151 yards on 33 carries for East Carolina. His three-yard touchdown run opened the scoring in the second quarter, ending a 99-yard drive by the Pirates. It was 10-0 at halftime, the first time the Razorbacks had been shut out in the first half since September against Alabama.

Arkansas had been averaging 37 points per game.

The Razorbacks tied it in the third quarter with a defensive touchdown when Tramain Thomas intercepted a pass and ran 37 yards to the end zone.

East Carolina took the lead again on Patrick Pinkney's 13-yard touchdown pass to Dwayne Harris with 5:52 left in the third. Arkansas answered 36 seconds later when Mallett threw a 41-yard scoring pass to Jarius Wright to make it 17-all.

Pinkney, a sixth-year senior, went 17 of 33 for 209 yards with a touchdown and two interceptions.

#RAZORFACT

Head coach Bret Bielema has had more players (34) taken in the NFL Draft than any other head coach with 10 or less years of experience.

The University of Arkansas captivated the college football world by naming Bret Bielema the 32nd head coach in Razorback history in December of 2012. Bielema, who enters his third season on The Hill, represented the qualities Arkansas was looking for: a leader of young men who holds student-athletes responsible both on and off the field and a coach who has a proven record of winning championships.

Throughout his head-coaching career, Bielema has won three conference championships and coached 11 first-team All-Americans, numerous award winners and NFL superstars. Among the NFL players coached by Bielema are three-time Defensive Player of the Year J.J. Watt, Super Bowl winning quarterback Russell Wilson, No. 1 overall draft pick and eight-time Pro Bowler Joe Thomas, All-Pro linebacker DeAndre Levy, Pro Bowl offensive lineman Travis Frederick, running back Montee Ball and many others.

Bielema has the Razorbacks trending in the right direction behind a balanced offense and stifling defense. Arkansas closed the 2014 season winning three of its final four games against traditional powers LSU, Ole Miss and Texas, the first time in school history the Hogs have defeated those three teams in the same season. The Razorbacks finished 7-6 with a 31-7 victory over Texas in the AdvoCare V100 Texas Bowl, marking Arkansas' first winning season since 2011.

Bielema has always prided himself on a balanced offensive attack and that is exactly what the Razorbacks accomplished in 2014. Running backs Jonathan Williams and Alex Collins were the only FBS teammates to rush for more than 1,000 yards each and both players finished in the top five of the Southeastern Conference in rushing totals. Quarterback Brandon Allen threw for 20 touchdowns, the sixth-most in a single season in school history, and had just five interceptions, the fewest by a Razorback quarterback since 1992

Arkansas was the SEC's most improved defense in 2014, allowing just 19.2 points per game. With an 11.9 points per game improvement from the previous season, the Razorbacks had the seventh-most improved defense in the nation. Arkansas became the first unranked team in college football history to post back-to-back shutouts over ranked opponents after blanking No. 20 LSU and No. 8 Ole Miss. Senior linebacker Martrell Spaight was the first Razorback to ever lead the SEC with 128 total tackles and was a consensus first-team All-SEC selection.

In his first season at Arkansas (2013), the Razorbacks had five student-athletes named Freshmen All-Americans; Collins, offensive linemen Denver Kirkland and Dan Skipper, tight end Hunter Henry and defensive tackle Darius Philon. Collins was named the SEC Freshman of the Year after he became the second Razorback freshman to rush for more than 1,000 yards in a season. Collins and Darren McFadden are the only two to do so in school history and the only two Razorbacks to be named SEC Freshman of the Year.

His impact off the field has also been felt as the team has posted its two highest GPAs ever for a fall semester in 2013 and 2014. The football program had 32 student-athletes named to the 2014 Fall SEC Academic Honor Roll, the most for a fall semester in program history and the second most in the conference.

Bielema is building Arkansas into a pro-style football program that prepares players for the NFL. He has had 34 draft picks in nine seasons, more than any other head coach with less than 10 years of experience. Arkansas had four defensive players chosen in the 2015 NFL Draft, the school's most in a single draft since 1989.

A fourth round pick of the New England Patriots in 2015, Trey Flowers thrived under Bielema's tutelage. Arkansas was the only SEC school to offer a scholarship to Flowers out of high school and the defensive end weighed just 243 pounds when Bielema and his staff arrived following the 2012 season. Two years later, Flowers was a sculpted 270 pounds and famous for a viral video in which he box jumped 55 inches. He finished his career ranked second all-time in school history in tackles for loss (47.5) and was the leader of one of the best Razorback defenses of all time.

Spaight was another player who reached new heights under Bielema. He was the first recruit that Bielema signed at Arkansas after Spaight spent two years at Coffeyville (Kan.) CC. An Arkansas native, Spaight returned to his home state but struggled in his first season, starting just two games with 22 tackles. With the help of Bielema and his staff, Spaight re-dedicated himself to the game and spent countless hours in the weight room and watching film to perfect his craft. It led to a breakout senior season in which Spaight became the first Razorback to ever lead the SEC in tackles (128) and a consensus All-SEC first team selection. The performance helped him become a fifth round section of the Washington Redskins in the 2015 NFL Draft.

Another player who turned his career around under Bielema was cornerback Tevin Mitchel. Highly recruited out of high school, Mitchel played at Arkansas right away, starting seven games as a true freshman in 2011. Though he contributed immediately, Mitchel struggled to separate himself from his competition. Entering his senior season, Bielema and his staff convinced Mitchel to give the nickel corner position a try and that is where the Mansfield, Texas native excelled. He shut down opponents' slot receivers in 2014 and played his way into the sixth round of the 2015 NFL Draft, where he was chosen by the Washington Redskins.

AJ Derby had perhaps the most unconventional path to the NFL. A quarterback his entire life, Derby began his career at Iowa before transferring to Coffeyville (Kan.) CC and eventually settling in at Arkansas. Bielema tried repeatedly to convince Derby to change positions, but it wasn't until the spring before his senior season that Derby finally bought in. The decision paid dividends for the new tight end as Derby played in 11 games, catching 22 passes for 303 yards, before an injury ended his collegiate career. Despite playing less than one year at his new position, the New England Patriots picked Derby in the sixth round of the 2015 NFL Draft.

> "WE WILL RECRUIT UNCOMMON MEN HERE. WE WILL RECRUIT MEN THAT ARE HELD TO HIGHER STANDARDS. I DON'T WANT PEOPLE TO BE NORMAL. I WANT THEM TO BE UNCOMMON."

Fullback Kiero Small played just one game in 2012 before suffering a season-ending injury. He bounced back in Bielema's pro-style offense and was very effective. The Seattle Seahawks selected him in the seventh round of the 2014 NFL Draft.

Travis Swanson finished his career in 2013 as the first player in school history to start 50 consecutive games. The center was a first team All-American and a two-time All-SEC selection. When the Detroit Lions picked him in the third round, he became the eighth offensive linemen Bielema has coached that was selected in the first three rounds of the NFL Draft.

In Bielema's eight seasons as head coach at Wisconsin, he had 17 players earn All-America honors, including 11 first-team All-Americans. He also coached two Outland Trophy winners, one Doak Walker Award recipient, one winner of the Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award and one Lott IMPACT Trophy winner as well as finalists for numerous other individual awards, including the Heisman Trophy. In his final six years at Wisconsin, 21 Badgers were taken in the NFL Draft, including three in the first round.

Bielema, who served as Wisconsin's defensive coordinator for two seasons before becoming head coach, was on staff as UW compiled a 55-6 record at Camp Randall Stadium in his nine years. The Badgers won their first 16 home games under Bielema, the second-longest home winning streak in school history.

In 2012, Bielema guided Wisconsin to its third straight Big Ten championship and the Badgers became the first team to represent the Big Ten in three straight Rose Bowls since Michigan qualified following the 1976-78 seasons. In his final game at Wisconsin, Bielema led the Badgers to a 70-31 win over No. 14 Nebraska in the Big Ten Championship Game. Wisconsin became the second team to score 70 points in a conference championship game, matching the number scored by Texas in the 2005 Big 12 Championship Game. Wisconsin also had two 200-yard rushers in the same game for the first time in school history.

In 2011, the Badgers won the inaugural Big Ten Championship Game, defeating Michigan State 42-39 to advance to the Rose Bowl for the second straight season. Wisconsin, winners of the Leaders Division, finished the season with an 11-3 record and recorded 11 regular-season victories for just the third time in school history, all under Bielema's watch.

In 2010, the Badgers won a share of the 12th Big Ten championship in school history and first since 1999. UW tied a school record with seven conference victories and earned its first trip to the Rose Bowl since 1999. Wisconsin nearly became the first team in FBS history to have three running backs gain 1,000 yards in the same season as James White finished with 1,052 yards, John Clay had 1,012 and Ball ran for 996.

Bielema was Wisconsin's defensive coordinator in 2004 and 2005, a period in which the program produced a 19-6 record under Barry Alvarez. The 2004 Badgers were ranked sixth nationally in scoring defense and ninth in total defense. The 2005 club, which earned Wisconsin's first shutout since 1999, finished its 10-win season with a 24-10 victory over No. 7 Auburn in the 2006 Capital One Bowl, limiting the high-powered Tigers to just 236 yards of total offense.

Bielema was co-defensive coordinator at Kansas State under Bill Snyder in 2002 and 2003. The Wildcats were 22-6 during Bielema's time in Manhattan and finished in the top 10 nationally both seasons in scoring and total defense. The Wildcats won its first Big 12 title in 2003. Among Bielema's standout players at Kansas State were first-team All-American Josh Buhl, 2003 NFL second-round draft pick Terry Pierce and All-Big 12 second team selection Bryan Hickman.

Prior to his years at Kansas State, Bielema spent nine seasons as an assistant coach at his alma mater, Iowa, where he worked for head coaches Hayden Fry and Kirk Ferentz. The 1997 Hawkeyes posted three shutouts and ranked No. 4 nationally in scoring defense.

Bielema lettered from 1989-92 at Iowa after joining the program as a walk-on. He earned a scholarship after his first year and was a member of Iowa's 1990 Big Ten championship team. A starter as a junior in 1991, he was a team co-captain as a senior. Bielema signed a free agent contract with the Seattle Seahawks and later completed his playing career with the Milwaukee Mustangs of the Arena Football League.

A 1992 graduate of Iowa with a degree in marketing, Bielema married his wife, Jen, on March 10, 2012.

UTEP 13 | No. 18 ARKANSAS 48

FAYETTEVILLE, ARK. - With new offensive coordinator Dan Enos calling the plays for the first time since leaving his job as head coach at Central Michigan, Quarterback Brandon Allen was at his best – and most efficient – in leading No. 18 Arkansas to a 48-13 win over UTEP in the season opener on Saturday.

Allen threw for a career-high 308 yards and matched his best with four touchdown passes, doing so while completing 14 of 18 passes.

Keon Hatcher caught two of Allen's touchdown passes, finishing with six catches for 106 yards, but it was Allen who shined the brightest while extending his streak of pass attempts without an interception to 108.

That's the second-best streak of his career, following a stretch of 116 passes without an interception last season.

Aaron Jones led the Miners with 15 carries for 70 yards rushing, but UTEP was unable to overcome a series of second-half miscues in the blowout loss.

The Miners were outgained 490-204 in total yardage, with quarterback Mack Leftwich finishing 9-of-14 passing for 120 yards. The sophomore, however, opened the second half by throwing an interception, and UTEP's next two drives ended with poor snaps on punt attempts, leading to quality field position for Arkansas.

Following the interception and first of the bad snaps, Arkansas needed only two plays to score a pair of touchdowns to open the second half.

Alex Collins, who finished with 127 yards rushing on 12 carries, had the first from 7 yards out, while Kody Walker ran in from 3 yards out to put the Razorbacks up 42-10.

Allen threw for touchdowns on each of Arkansas' first four drives of the game, including a perfectly placed 38-yard touchdown pass to Hatcher late in the second quarter. He also connected with Drew Morgan and Jared Cornelius for scores during the half, in which he finished 10-of-13 passing for 256 yards.

TOLEDO 16 | No. 18 ARKANSAS 12

LITTLE ROCK, ARK. - Arkansas fell to Toledo 16-12 at War Memorial Stadium in Little Rock, Arkansas.

Senior quarterback Brandon Allen had another impressive day. He finished the game 32-of-53 with 412 yards through the air. The 412 passing yards was the third highest single-game total in Razorback history.

However, Allen and the offense struggled to put points on the board. His one interception came in the third quarter when Toledo picked him off in the back of the end zone after his intended receiver fell down.

Running back Alex Collins netted 54 of Arkansas' 103 yards on the ground, totaling 20 carries and one touchdown.

Junior tight end Hunter Henry caught eight passes for 117 yards, the third 100-yard receiving game of his career.

Defensively, Henre' Toliver led the team with eight total tackles and had one tackle for loss.

Toledo scored first on a 5-yard pass Phillip Ely, a transfer from Alabama, to Corey Jones that gave the Rockets a 6-0 lead after a failed two point conversion attempt.

Arkansas responded in the second quarter with a 21-yard run by Alex Collins to cap an eight-play, 89-yard drive that gave the Razorbacks their only lead of the afternoon.

Toledo kicked a field goal with 1:06 left in the half to take a 9-7 lead into halftime.

After Arkansas stalled on their first drive of the second half, the Razorback defense forced a three-and-out. Jared Cornelius had a long punt return for a touchdown but a penalty called the return back and an interception left the Razorbacks with an empty drive.

The Rockets extended their lead to 16-7 later in the third quarter after a Jones-Moore 11 yard run.

Arkansas kicked a field goal and Toledo took an intentional safety, giving the Razorbacks one more chance with 52 seconds left in the game. Brandon Allen led the offense down to the Rockets' 16-yardline where Toledo's defense stood strong, keeping Arkansas out of the end zone as time expired.

ARKANSAS 14 | No. 8 ALABAMA 27

TUSCALOOSA, Ala. – No. 8 Alabama defeated Arkansas 27-14 on Saturday night at Bryant-Denny Stadium.

For the fifth time this season, Arkansas limited its opponent to their lowest scoring output of the year.

But Arkansas struggled to find its rhythm on offense, manufacturing just 220 yards of total offense to Alabama's 396.

Defensively, junior linebacker Brooks Ellis led the way for the Razorbacks, posting a career-high 15 tackles (13 solo), including 2.5 for loss.

Alabama out-gained Arkansas 204-77 in the first half, but the Razorbacks led 7-3 due to quality defense and a timely turnover.

In Alabama's first two drives, the Crimson Tide marched inside the Arkansas 10 both times. But the Razorback defense held strong, allowing only a field goal on the opening drive.

On Alabama's third possession, Arkansas defensive back Josh Liddell intercepted Jake Coker at the Arkansas 31. However, the Razorbacks were unable to capitalize on the turnover.

With 2:26 remaining in the half, redshirt freshman Santos Ramirez picked off Coker, and the Razorbacks took over at the Alabama 12-yard line. This time, Arkansas made the Crimson Tide pay.

Senior quarterback Brandon Allen found junior wide receiver Drew Morgan wide open in the middle of the end zone for an easy 4-yard touchdown pass.

The defensive battle continued for the first 13 and a half minutes of the third quarter, but momentum quickly shifted Alabama's way when Coker threw an 81-yard touchdown pass to freshman wide receiver Calvin Ridley to give the Crimson Tide a 10-7 lead with 1:39 remaining in the quarter.

Alabama followed up with scoring drives on three of its next four possessions to extend its lead 27-7.

With 2:44 left in the contest, Arkansas put together a five-play, 74-yard drive that resulted in a 54-yard touchdown pass to junior wide receiver Dominique Reed.

But that would be all for the Razorbacks as the Crimson Tide went on to win 27-14.

AUBURN 46 | ARKANSAS 54 (4OT)

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. – Behind an electric crowd of 72,008 and a clutch performance by senior quarterback Brandon Allen, Arkansas downed Auburn 54-46 in four overtimes at Donald W. Reynolds Razorback Stadium.

On two occasions, Arkansas' fate came down to one play. Allen answered the call on both. The second was the game winner – a 25-yard strike to junior wide receiver Drew Morgan followed by a successful two-point conversion in the fourth overtime.

Allen finished the day 19-of-31 with 233 yards, three touchdowns and one interception while running back Alex Collins grounded out 105 yards and one touchdown on 25 carries.

Arkansas wasted little time finding the end zone on the game's opening drive. Two rushes by Collins and three first-down grabs by Hunter Henry for 52 yards helped set up an end around to Dominique Reed for an 11-yard score.

Arkansas went up 14-0 when Allen guided the Razorbacks on a 10 play, 60-yard drive that ended in a 23-yard scoring toss to junior tight end Jeremy Sprinkle. A 7-yard rushing touchdown by Collins at the 2:14 mark in the third quarter broke a 14-14 tie and also moved Collins into sole possession of 10th place on the school's career rushing touchdowns list.

With a tied game down the stretch Arkansas took a 24-21 lead with a 25-yard Cole Hedlund field goal with 1:07 remaining in the game. However, Auburn moved the ball into Arkansas territory and kicker Daniel Carson booted through a 41-yard field goal to tie things up again and ultimately send it to overtime.

In the first overtime, Auburn got the ball first, went 25 yards on three plays and capped its drive with a 2-yard touchdown run by Peyton Barber. For Arkansas, on fourth and three and the game on the line, Allen zipped a 6-yard touchdown pass to Morgan while Hedlund followed with the PAT to even the score.

Both teams exchanged touchdowns in the second and third overtimes and were also successful on the two-point conversion in the third.

On the first play of the fourth overtime, Allen connected with Morgan for a 25-yard go-ahead touchdown pass that would be the game winner.

UT-MARTIN 28 | ARKANSAS 63

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. - Behind a career-high five-touchdown performance and a 173-yard outing by junior running back Alex Collins, Arkansas took down UT Martin 63-28 in Saturday's homecoming affair at Donald W. Reynolds Razorback Stadium.

The win improved Arkansas' record to 4-4.

With his impressive performance, Collins surpassed Cedric Cobbs (26) for fifth in program history with 28 rushing touchdowns for his career. The Fort Lauderdale, Florida native also moved into fourth place on the school's all-time rushing list with 3,086 yards, surpassing Felix Jones' total of 2,956 set from 2005-07. Additionally, Collins broke the 100-yard rushing barrier for the 13th time in his career, which tied Jones for fourth in the school record books.

Arkansas outgained UT Martin in the first half by 10 yards. Interceptions by Rohan Gaines and Brooks Ellis proved to be difference makers.

Brandon Allen, who was 11-of-15 for 186 yards and one touchdown in the first half, marched the Razorbacks down the field on their first scoring chance, capping the 10-play, 75-yard drive with a 2-yard touchdown run by Collins. It was the second week in a row that Arkansas scored on its opening drive.

Allen finished the day 14-of-19 with 265 yards and two touchdowns.

The senior signal caller moved past both Casey Dick (5,856) and Matt Jones (5,857) for career passing yards and is now fourth all-time with 6,057.

At the half, the Razorbacks led 35-14.

Arkansas would eventually add four more touchdowns to its ledger, ending its scoring with a 35-yard touchdown pass from sophomore quarterback Austin Allen to Jeremy Sprinkle at the 14:08 mark in the fourth quarter.

Defensively, Dre Greenlaw paced the Razorbacks in tackles for the fourth time in six starts with 10, and the Razorbacks had two interceptions in a game for the third time this season.

ARKANSAS 53 | No. 19 OLE MISS 52

OXFORD, Miss. - Behind the arm of senior quarterback Brandon Allen and his career-high 442 passing yards and six touchdowns, Arkansas took down No. 19 Ole Miss 53-52 at Vaught-Hemingway Stadium.

Tied 38-38 with 10:30 left in the contest, Ole Miss forced the Razorbacks to punt for the first time in their previous five drives and the Rebels took advantage of the stop. Ole Miss quarterback Chad Kelly led the Rebel offense 81 yards down the field in six plays, capping the drive with an 18-yard go-ahead scoring toss to junior wide receiver Quincy Adeboyejo.

But Allen and the Razorbacks responded. The senior signal caller connected with Dominique Reed for a 17-yard game-tying touchdown with 53 seconds left in the game.

After the Rebels turned it over on downs on the ensuing possession, the Razorbacks attempted a 47-yard game-winning field goal, but it was blocked by Ole Miss defensive back Tony Bridges, sending the contest to overtime.

It took the Rebels just three plays to find the end zone in the first overtime period to take a 52-45 lead.

Facing a fourth-and-25, tight end Hunter Henry reeled in a 14-yard pass from Allen, then flipped the ball backwards as he was being tackled. Running back Alex Collins picked it up and ran it 26 yards to the Ole Miss 11 for a first down, extending the game.

Two plays later, Allen connected with junior wide receiver Drew Morgan in the end zone for Morgan's third touchdown reception of the contest.

Head coach Bret Bielema decided to go for two. Allen was sacked on the initial attempt, but a facemask penalty against Ole Miss would give the Razorbacks another chance.

On the second two-point conversion attempt, Allen dove into the end zone on a 1-yard keeper to lift the Razorbacks to a 53-52 victory.

ARKANSAS 31 | No. 9 LSU 14

BATON ROUGE, La. – In front of an electric crowd of 101,699, Arkansas knocked off No. 9 LSU 31-14 at Tiger Stadium, keeping the Golden Boot for the second straight year for the first time since 2007-08.

The win improved the Razorbacks to 6-4 overall and 4-2 in league play, making them bowl eligible for the second consecutive season.

Arkansas manufactured 440 yards of total offense and limited LSU to 330. Credit the defense, which sacked LSU quarterback Brandon Harris five times and harassed him into throwing one interception.

Senior quarterback Brandon Allen finished the day completing nine of his 16 passes for 141 yards and a touchdown, while Arkansas also grounded out 299 rushing yards. Junior running back Alex Collins was responsible for a bulk of the damage with 141 yards on 16 carries, followed by Kody Walker with 88.

With his production, Collins surpassed Dickey Morton (3,317) for third in program history with 3,335 rushing yards for his career. The Fort Lauderdale native has now eclipsed the 100-plus yard mark on the ground in 8-of-10 games this season, which is the second-most in a single season in program history just behind Darren McFadden's 10 in 2007.

The Razorbacks jumped out to an early 7-0 lead with 8:06 left in the first quarter after Allen threw a 52-yard touchdown pass to junior wide receiver Dominique Reed.

After holding LSU scoreless on the ensuing possession, Collins exploded for a season-long 80-yard touchdown run, putting him over 100 yards on the ground for an SEC-leading eighth time this year.

The Razorbacks got the ball back after Greenlaw forced a fumble that was recovered and returned to the LSU 11 by Brooks Ellis. It took Collins just two plays to break through into the end zone and extend Arkansas' lead to 21-0 at the 3:55 mark in the second quarter.

With just over 10 minutes remaining and Arkansas holding a 24-14 lead, sophomore wide receiver Jared Cornelius broke off a career-long 69-yard touchdown run to make it 31-14.

Looking to trim the deficit, LSU marched down to the Arkansas 11, but junior defensive back DJ Dean picked off LSU's Harris in the end zone to essentially close the door.

MISSISSIPPI STATE 51 | ARKANSAS 50

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. – In a scoring frenzy that featured several ties and lead changes, Arkansas fell 51-50 to Mississippi State Saturday night at Donald W. Reynolds Razorback Stadium.

Despite the setback, Brandon Allen turned in another incredible performance. The senior signal caller had scoring throws of 20, 5, 9, 3, 39, 10 and 18 yards, and finished 30-of-43 passing for 406 yards, becoming just the second player in SEC history to throw seven touchdowns in a league game.

Allen broke his own single-game passing touchdown record of six that he set earlier this season at Ole Miss. His seven touchdown passes also gave him 63 for his career, snapping the school record of 62 set by Ryan Mallett.

Jeremy Sprinkle and Hunter Henry, the SEC's leading tight end corps, hauled in five of Allen's seven touchdown passes. Sprinkle paced the Razorbacks with three touchdown receptions while Henry reeled in two touchdowns on a team-high 129 yards receiving.

Defensively, five Razorbacks tallied eight or more tackles. Junior linebacker Brooks Ellis had a career-high 15 stops while sophomore defensive back Kevin Richardson recorded 10 tackles and made his first career interception.

MISSOURI 3 | ARKANSAS 28

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. - Highlighted by junior running back Alex Collins' 130 rushing yards and three touchdowns, Arkansas rolled past Missouri 28-3 on Senior Day at Donald W. Reynolds Razorback Stadium.

The Razorbacks manufactured 310 yards of total offense while holding the Tigers to just 171 yards.

Collins' 130 yards rushing marked his sixth 100-yard game in SEC action, equaling Darren McFadden's program record set in 2007. He leads the SEC with nine 100-yard rushing games this season and his 17 touchdowns are tied for second-most in Arkansas single-season history and fourth-most currently in the FBS.

The Fort Lauderdale native also moved past Ben Cowins for sole possession of fourth in Arkansas history with 33 career rushing touchdowns.

The Razorbacks took a 21-3 advantage over the Tigers into halftime. Collins found the end zone three times in the first half on runs of four, seven and 25 yards while the defense held Missouri to just 93 yards of total offense, surrendering only a 35-yard field goal.

Arkansas extended its lead 28-3 when junior running back Kody Walker capped a five-play 34-yard drive with a 9-yard touchdown run at the 2:33 mark in the third quarter.

Defensively, the Razorbacks held strong throughout the second half, forcing four punts, one turnover on downs and one interception while allowing just 78 yards en route to a 28-3 victory.

Dallas, Texas – Jan. 1, 1934

Arkansas and Centenary each scored in the second quarter and the Razorbacks' first bowl appearance ended in a 7–7 tie. An estimated 12,000 fans witnessed the final Dixie Classic contest, the forerunner of the modern Cotton Bowl.

The first period of play was scoreless as neither team could gain a foothold. In the second quarter, Hog quarterback Tom Murphy mounted a long drive climaxed by a 24-yard touchdown pass to Elvin Geiser. Geiser tacked on the PAT and the Razorbacks led 7–0.

in the second quarter, Centenary got rolling behind the running of Harold Olsin and the throwing of Manning Smith.

First, Olsin broke for a 37-yard sprint to the Hog 25. Then, Smith found Olsin alone at the goal line for a 20-yard touchdown pass. Centenary missed the extra point attempt but Arkansas was off sides. On the next try, Chester Weidman kicked the extra point for a 7–7 tie.

Arkansas made one last drive that fell short. The Hogs drove to the Centenary seven-yard line and a 14-yard winning field goal attempt by Geiser was wide.
Razorback punter Tom Murphy had 13 kicks for a 44.0 average.

Centenary was undefeated in regular season play and the Razorbacks had claimed seven wins against three losses and their first Southwest Conference championship. The Hogs later forfeited the title for playing an ineligible athlete.

COTTON BOWL
Arkansas 0, LSU 0
Dallas, Texas – Jan. 1, 1947

1947

Thirty-eight thousand fans shivered through snow and mid-20 degree weather to see SWC champion Arkansas duel the LSU Tigers to a 0–0 tie. It was the first scoreless Cotton Bowl game.

All 45,507 Cotton Bowl tickets had been sold, but about 7,000 people decided a warm fire would be better than a cold game.

The underdog Razorbacks continually had their backs to the wall as the Y.A. Tittle led Tigers pushed inside their 10-yard line five times in the first half.

A fanatical Hog defense stopped LSU drives at the Arkansas one, six, seven and eight-yard lines. Each time the Tigers were forced to turn the football over to the Razorbacks on downs.

The Razorback offense managed its only offensive sweep of the day during the first period and penetrated to the LSU 29-yard line.

The Hogs made their only first down the second time they had the football.

In the third quarter, Tittle drove the Tigers deep into Hog territory but Razorback halfback Clyde Scott made the play of the game when he tackled receiver Jeff Odom at the Arkansas one-yard line. The frustrated Bengals tried a field goal from the 15-yard line, but a bad snap terminated the try with time running out on the clock.

The game ended with the Tigers threatening from the one-yard line. But the scrappy Razorback defense, bending but not breaking, saved the tie.

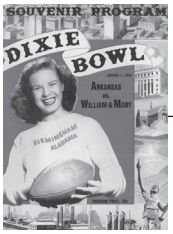

End Alton Baldwin, who earned All-America honors, was selected the outstanding lineman in the game.

DIXIE BOWL

Arkansas 21, William & Mary 19
Birmingham, Ala. – Jan. 1, 1948

1948

A crowd of 21,000 watched Arkansas make a come–from–behind touchdown drive to win the inaugural Dixie Bowl, 21–19, over William & Mary.

William & Mary took an early lead after the Indians recovered a fumbled quick–kick attempt on the Arkansas six–yard line. Jack Cloud plunged over from the one for the initial score and teammate Stan Magdziak added the extra point to put William & Mary in front 7–0.

The Indians scored again moments later as Cloud plowed into the end zone for his second tally of the day, climaxing a 78–yard scoring march. Magdziak's PAT was wide and the score was 13–0.

Arkansas quarterback Kenny Holland passed to Ross Pritchard for a 59–yard scoring strike and Aubrey Fowler added the extra point to make it 13–7.

Then, defensive halfback Melvin McGaha picked off an Indian aerial and returned it 70 yards to tie the game at 13–all. Fowler tacked on the PAT and the Hogs led 14–13.

The Indians retaliated when Magdziak threw to Henry Bland for their final score.

Not to be denied, the Razorbacks marched 97 yards in the final period. Leon Campbell scored from the seven–yard line with five minutes left to play. Fowler added his third PAT of the day.

COTTON BOWL

Georgia Tech 14, Arkansas 6
Dallas, Texas – Jan.1, 1955

1955

Arkansas' fourth bowl trip proved disastrous with Georgia Tech dealing the Razorbacks their first post–season loss, 14–6.

The Hogs kept up with the bruising Tech attack in the first half rolling up 131 yards rushing, and driving 80 yards in 11 plays to score their only touchdown.

Arkansas quarterback George Walker mixed running with passing in the Hogs' scoring drive. He sent fullback Henry Moore up the middle for gains of 18 and 13 yards. Then with the ball on the Tech 23–yard line, Walker passed to end Joe Thomason at the one. On the next play, Walker called his own number and went in for the score. The PAT failed and the Hogs led 6–0 at the half.

Georgia Tech, led by the game's most valuable back, George Humphrey, cranked up a powerful ground assault in the final two periods with 285 yards rushing and two touchdowns.

Tech's first score was a three–yard run by Paul Rotenberry. He took a pitch–out from Humphrey and followed a convoy of blockers three yards into the end zone. A successful PAT gave Tech a 7–6 lead.

Tech capitalized on a pass interception by Wade Mitchell to go 43 yards in 10 plays for its final score. Mitchell used the belly series to move his team to the goal line and then sneaked the ball over from the one. Guard Bud Brooks, who earned All–America honors, was selected the outstanding lineman in the game.

Frank Broyles, who later became Arkansas' head coach in 1958, was an assistant to Tech coach Bobby Dodd in this game.

GATOR BOWL 1960

Arkansas 14, Georgia Tech 7
Jacksonville, Fla. – Jan. 2, 1960

A sellout crowd of 45,104 packed the Gator Bowl to see Arkansas' Frank Broyles make his bowl debut as head coach. And to add to the drama, Broyles was sending his team against his alma mater and his college coach, Bobby Dodd of Georgia Tech.

A solid Razorback running game, led by All–American halfback Jim Mooty, snapped Dodd's perfect bowl record with a 14–7 Arkansas victory.

Tech ate up most of the first quarter with ball control as the Ramblin' Wreck kept possession for the first 11:04 of the game. The drive ended with a missed field goal attempt at the Arkansas eight–yard line.

On the second play from scrimmage following an Arkansas punt, Georgia Tech quarterback Marvin Tibbetts went to his left, found plenty of running room, and went 51 yards for the game's first score.

The Razorbacks took control in the second quarter. Mooty, Jim Monroe, Lance Alworth and Joe Paul Alberty pounded out 62 yards in 18 plays. Alberty climaxed the drive from the one for the score. Freddy Akers kicked the PAT and the game was 7–7 at the half.

Midway in the third period, Mooty got the Hogs on the move again with a 24–yard scamper. Alworth added 23 yards in two plays and Mooty went the last 19 yards for the touchdown. Akers again converted and the Razorbacks had their first Broyles bowl victory, 14–7.

Mooty was the game's leading rusher with 99 yards in 18 carries. He also was selected the outstanding performer in the contest.

COTTON BOWL 1961

Duke 7, Arkansas 6
Dallas, Texas – Jan. 1, 1961

A fourth–quarter aerial attack by Duke's Don Altman and Tee Moorman dashed Arkansas' hopes of a victory in the Cotton Bowl's Silver Anniversary game.

A Razorback triumph over Atlantic Coast Conference champion Duke was in sight throughout the contest, but in the end, the Blue Devils turned back Arkansas' efforts to win the Dallas festival for the first time.

The first half was a defensive standoff. Both teams were forced to punt after stalled drives. The Razorbacks threatened once in the closing minutes of the first half when Arkansas All–American Lance Alworth took a George McKinney pass to the Blue Devil 13–yard line. The threat was stalled by a penalty, and on the next play, McKinney's pass was intercepted in the end zone.

Midway through the third period, Alworth leaped high to catch a bad punt center snap. In full flight he kicked the ball down the sideline and out of bounds at the Duke two. Three plays later, Duke was forced to punt from its own end zone. Alworth took the kick on Duke's 49–yard line and the fleet back zig–zagged to the goal for the score. Mickey Cissel's PAT was blocked and the score was 6–0 Arkansas.

In the fourth quarter, Duke's air attack went to work and produced a 73–yard touchdown drive. Duke quarterback Altman hit his lonesome end, Moorman, for five short passes, the final being a nine–yard touchdown. Art Browning tacked on the go–ahead PAT and Duke won 7–6.

Alworth, who had 74 yards tandem offense, returned two kickoffs for 50 yards and accounted for the lone Razorback score with his 49–yard punt return, was selected the outstanding back in the game.

SUGAR BOWL 1962

Alabama 10, Arkansas 3
New Orleans, La. – Jan. 1, 1962

After winning its third consecutive Southwest Conference title, Arkansas traveled to New Orleans where the Razorbacks fell to top-ranked Alabama, 10-3.

The Crimson Tide had established the toughest defense in the nation, having allowed only 22 points all season. Coach Bear Bryant's team was led by quarterback Pat Trammell, fullback Mike Fracchia and defensive guard Billy Neighbors, each named All-America.

The Tide's defenders kept Arkansas backed-up on its own end of the field the first half.

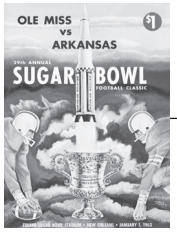

Fracchia exploded on a 43-yard run to the Razorback 12-yard line, and Trammell scored on the next play. Tim Davis kicked the extra point and Alabama led 7-0 in the first quarter.

The Tide finished its scoring in the second period. Trammell guided his team to the Arkansas 22-yard line and Davis kicked a 32-yard field goal. The three pointer made the score 10-0 at the half.

The Razorbacks were forced to play catch-up football the second half, so Arkansas quarterback George McKinney went to the air.

A 24-yard pass to Lance Alworth put the Hogs on 'Bama's 22-yard line. Then McKinney drove the Hogs to the eight-yard line. The drive stalled, and Mickey Cissell kicked a 23-yard field goal.

A 32-yard pass, again to Alworth, started the Hogs on a fourth quarter drive. The threat was stopped, however, when 'Bama's Butch Wilson stole his second McKinney pass of the day and Alabama ran out the clock.

SUGAR BOWL 1963

Ole Miss 17, Arkansas 13
New Orleans, La. – Jan. 1, 1963

Making its second consecutive visit to the Sugar Bowl, out-manned Arkansas forced Mississippi quarterback Glynn Griffing to display all of his passing skills to lead the favored Rebels to a 17-13 victory.

The Razorbacks, after twice seeing Ole Miss get a lead, rallied gamely to tie the score at 3-3 in the second quarter, and 10-10 shortly after the final half began.

However, Griffing brought the Rebels back to a 17-10 lead on a 10-play, 80-yard drive and Arkansas could not get any closer to the Mississippi goal line than field goal range.

Arkansas established two Sugar Bowl records. Tom McKnelly, a sophomore from Little Rock, kicked two field goals, the most by any player in the New Orleans classic, from 30 and 22 yards.

And a pass covering 68 yards from quarterback Billy Gray to end Jerry Lamb was the longest play in Sugar Bowl history.

A five-yard pass from Billy Moore to Jesse Branch in the third quarter gave the Razorbacks their only touchdown.

Ole Miss retaliated with a touchdown and a 17-10 lead but the Razorbacks could only get close enough for McKnelly's second three-pointer.

Lamb caught three passes for 107 yards.

COTTON BOWL 1965

Arkansas 10, Nebraska 7
Dallas, Texas - Jan. 1, 1965

Undefeated Arkansas staked its claim on the 1964 national championship with a thrilling 10-7 victory over Big Eight Champion Nebraska in the 29th Cotton Bowl festival before a standing-room-only crowd of 75,504.

The Razorbacks, following a short Nebraska punt, jumped to a quick lead on a 31-yard field goal by Tom McKnelly.

Nebraska, however, took the lead in the second period following an Arkansas punt. Halfback Harry Wilson ended a 69-yard, 10-play march with a one-yard run with 7:45 remaining. The extra point provided the Huskers with a 7-3 halftime margin.

The two teams played scoreless football in the third period. The Razorbacks, on the passing of quarterback Fred Marshall, rallied late in the fourth period to produce the winning touchdown. Passes to Jim Lindsey, Jerry Lamb and Bobby Burnett pushed the Hogs 80 yards in nine plays. Burnett got the touchdown with 4:41 remaining on a three-yard run.

Successive plays by the Arkansas defense secured the victory. After Nebraska earned a first down at midfield, linebacker Ronnie MacSmith and tackle Jim Williams dropped Frank Churchich for a nine-yard loss. Following a seven-yard completion, tackle Loyd Phillips stopped an end-around for no gain. On fourth down, Williams spilled Churchich for a 15-yard loss.

Center Ronnie Caveness, who earned All-America honors, was selected the outstanding lineman in the game and is a member of the 1960-69 Cotton Bowl Classic All-Star team.

Marshall, who completed 11 of 19 passes for 131 yards, was named the outstanding back.

COTTON BOWL 1966

LSU 14, Arkansas 7
Dallas, Texas - Jan. 1, 1966

Arkansas returned to the Cotton Bowl with a 22-game winning streak, only to have old nemesis LSU snap it with a 14-7 upset.

The Razorbacks began the contest impressively enough, taking the ball from their own 13-yard line and marching 87 yards for a first period score. The touchdown came on a 19-yard pass from Jon Brittenum to All-America end Bobby Crockett. Ronny South's PAT made it 7-0.

LSU launched a pair of scoring drives in the second period. The first was capped by a three-yard thrust by Joe LaBruzzo, who was voted the game's outstanding back. LaBruzzo's score climaxed an 80-yard drive by the Bengals after a missed field goal by South. LSU kicked the extra point to tie the game 7-7.

On the first play from scrimmage following the Tiger score, tragedy struck the Razorbacks. Brittenum suffered a shoulder injury and was forced to leave the game. Two plays later, the Hogs fumbled on their own 35-yard line and the Tigers took over. LSU quarterback Nelson Stokley took advantage of the opportunity and passed the Tigers to the Arkansas 19-yard line. LaBruzzo then carried five times, the last a one-yard scoring plunge. The PAT gave LSU a 14-7 halftime lead.

Brittenum returned to the game in the second half and put the ball in the air to Crockett, who set a bowl record with 10 catches for 129 yards, in an attempt to go over a tough Tiger defense.

Arkansas had driven to the LSU 24-yard line when the clock ran out.

SUGAR BOWL 1969

Arkansas 16, Georgia 2
New Orleans, La. – Jan. 1, 1969

A sell-out throng gathered at Tulane Stadium for the 35th Sugar Bowl Classic, featuring the Arkansas Razorbacks, co-champions of the Southwest Conference and undefeated Georgia.

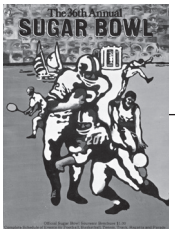

Even though Georgia stood among the national leaders in defense, it was swarming, ball-hawking Arkansas which gained defensive honors by recovering five fumbles and intercepting four passes.

Miller-Digby Award (Outstanding Player) winner Chuck Dicus, with 12 receptions for 169 yards and the game's only touchdown, and kicker Bob White, with a Sugar Bowl record three field goals, supplied the points as the Porkers recorded a 16-2 victory.

With 2:55 remaining in the first period, Arkansas started its first and only touchdown drive. Riding the passing arm of Bill Montgomery, the Hogs scored when Montgomery hit Dicus for 23 yards and the touchdown.

Georgia soon countered with a safety when David McKnight tackled Bill Burnett in the end zone. Arkansas, after holding on downs at its own 29, struck back as passes to Dicus and Max Peacock set up a 34-yard field goal by White for a 10-2 lead.

White booted a 24-yard field goal midway through the final period. A pass interception by All-American linebacker Cliff Powell led to the final Arkansas score, a 31-yard field goal by White.

SUGAR BOWL 1970

Ole Miss 27, Arkansas 22
New Orleans, La. – Jan. 1, 1970

Despite a record-breaking offensive performance Arkansas fell just short in a frantic, fourth period comeback as Ole Miss prevailed, 27-22. Archie Manning hit 21 of 35 passes for 273 yards and one touchdown. Bill Montgomery completed 17 of 34 aerials for 338 yards and two touchdowns for the Hogs.

Following a missed field goal by the Porkers, the Rebs stunned the Hogs when Bo Bowen rambled 69 yards for an early touchdown. Arkansas followed with another missed three-pointer, and Manning drove the Rebs another 80 yards, keeping the ball himself for the final 18.

Arkansas finally broke the ice on a 12-yard sweep by Bill Burnett, but the Rebels responded with 10 more points. Cloyce Hinton booted a record-breaking 52-yard field goal, and Manning fired a 30-yard scoring pass to Vernon Studdard.

A pass from Montgomery to Chuck Dicus covered 47 yards giving the Hogs their second touchdown.

Porker fullback Bruce Maxwell, who gained 103 yards on the ground, took a six-yard touchdown pass from Montgomery for the final Razorback score.

LIBERTY BOWL 1971

Tennessee 14, Arkansas 13
Memphis, Tenn. - Dec. 20, 1971

A Liberty Bowl record crowd of 51,410 plus a national Monday night television audience saw Arkansas lose to Tennessee, 14–13.

Tennessee scored first on a two-yard run by Bill Rudder with 6:39 left in the first period. George Hunt kicked the extra point. But the Razorbacks soon tied the score as Joe Ferguson connected with Jim Hodge on a 36-yard touchdown pass. Bill McClard's extra point made the score 7–7 with 4:11 left in the half.

The Razorbacks finally gained the lead with 13:14 left in the final period on a 19-yard field goal by McClard.

Louis Campbell's second pass interception put McClard in position for another field goal with 8:51 left. The 30-yard kick, which tied a Liberty Bowl record, put Arkansas in command, 13–7.

A record third pass theft by Campbell presented Arkansas with an apparent chance to seal up the contest. However, McClard's field goal, which would have given the Porkers a 16–7 margin, was nullified by penalty.

Further misfortune struck the Razorbacks on a fumble at their own 36-yard line. The Vols scored three plays after recovering, on a 17-yard run by Curt Watson. Hunt's extra point provided Tennessee with a 14–13 lead with 1:56 left.

Ferguson, voted the game's outstanding player, completed 18 of 28 passes for 200 yards, and Campbell was selected the outstanding defensive player in the game.

COTTON BOWL 1976

Arkansas 31, Georgia 10
Dallas, Texas - Jan. 1, 1976

Riding a five-game winning streak at the end of the 1975 campaign that notched a share of the Southwest Conference championship and a trip to the Cotton Bowl, the Razorbacks continued their winning ways with a resounding 31–10 triumph over Georgia.

Arkansas thus returned the Cotton Bowl crown to the SWC for the first time in three years.

With the Razorbacks trailing 10–0 less than two minutes before halftime, linebacker Hal McAfee pounced on a Georgia fumble on the Bulldog 15 and Steve Little booted a 39-yard field goal. Georgia tried a trick play, the "shoe-string," but Tommy Harris forced a fumble. McAfee again recovered, and Ike Forte scored two plays later to tie it 10–10 at halftime.

After a scoreless third quarter, Scott Bull hit Freddie Douglas with a 36-yard pass to set up the go-ahead touchdown and Rolland Fuchs scored on a five-yard run. Michael Forrest and Forte added touchdowns as the Razorbacks rolled.

McAfee, with 12 tackles and an interception to go with his two fumble recoveries, was selected the game's outstanding defensive player. Forte, with an Arkansas bowl record of 119 yards, was chosen the outstanding offensive player.

ORANGE BOWL 1978

Arkansas 31, Oklahoma 6
Miami, Fla. – Jan. 2, 1978

Arkansas turned a couple of first quarter turnovers into touchdowns and the Razorbacks cruised to a 31–6 upset victory over Oklahoma's second-ranked Big Eight champions before an Orange Bowl crowd of 74,422 and a national television audience of more than 65 million.

Oklahoma lost 11 yards on three plays before Billy Sims fumbled and Jimmy Walker recovered at the Sooner nine. Two plays later, Roland Sales scored from a yard out and Arkansas led, 7–0 with only 1:59 elapsed.

After both teams failed to score on drives, OU fullback Kenny King fumbled and Dan Hampton recovered at the Razorback 42. Sales set up Ron Calcagni's one-yard run with a 38-yard scamper to the Sooner three. Steve Little's second of four PAT's made the score 14–0.

After Little's field goal made it 17–0, the Razorbacks went 82 yards for a touchdown with 4:40 to play in the third quarter. Sales, who finished the night with an Orange Bowl record of 205 yards rushing, had carries of 12 and 38 yards before scoring on a four-yard run.

A reserve all season, Sales was only in the lineup after the Hog's top two tailbacks were suspended for breaking team rules.

Each team scored a touchdown in the fourth quarter. Sales earned outstanding back honors, while nose guard Reggie Freeman picked up the outstanding lineman award.

FIESTA BOWL 1978

Arkansas 10, UCLA 10
Tempe, Ariz. – Dec. 25, 1978

Arkansas jumped on UCLA for a 10–0 halftime lead, but the Bruins picked up a pair of second half scores to secure a 10–10 tie in the eighth Fiesta Bowl before 55,202 fans at Sun Devil Stadium.

The Razorbacks enjoyed excellent field position early but couldn't put points on the board. However, the Bruins wasted a 96-yard first period march which resulted in a missed field goal.

After a Razorback punt, the defense came to life again as Jim Howard slammed UCLA quarterback Steve Bukich to the ground, causing a fumble which Dale White recovered at the Bruin 37. Some 11 plays later, Roland Sales swept right end for four yards and a touchdown.

Later in the second period, Kevin Scanlon hit Gary Stiggers for 14 yards, Darryl Mason for 15 yards and Ben Cowins ran for 16 more to set up a 37-yard Ish Ordonez field goal.

UCLA marched 16 plays with the third quarter kickoff, keeping the drive alive on a fake punt which set up Peter Boermaester's 41-yard field goal. That cut the Hog lead to 10–3 with 7:19 left in the third quarter.

An interference penalty on a punt set the Bruins up at midfield and Bukich, who hit on only four of 11 passes with two interceptions, connected with Severne Reece for 34 yards to the Arkansas 14. A play later, Bukich kept around left end for the tying touchdown with 8:32 left.

Neither team could cross midfield the remainder of the game, although Thomas Brown hauled back a UCLA punt to the Bruin 32 as time expired.

Jimmy Walker, who had 10 tackles and wrought havoc in the UCLA backfield all day, was selected the game's outstanding defensive player.

SUGAR BOWL 1980

Alabama 24, Arkansas 9
New Orleans, La. – Jan. 1, 1980

While Alabama handed Arkansas one of its worst bowl defeats ever in the 1980 Sugar Bowl, the Razorbacks might have been playing their strongest opponent in bowl history.

The Crimson Tide wrapped up its second consecutive national championship by pinning the Hogs with a 24–9 setback. However, it wasn't accomplished without difficulty.

Arkansas, ranked sixth nationally and co–champion of the Southwest Conference, recovered a fumble on the opening kickoff and struck first as Ish Ordonez drilled a 34–yard field goal.

Alabama snapped back to take a 17–3 halftime lead but Arkansas marched 80 yards on its first possession of the second half for a touchdown that sliced the gap to 17–9. Kevin Scanlon hit Robert Farrell with a three–yard scoring pass but the Hogs failed to convert a two–point conversion attempt.

The Razorbacks had their chance to get even midway through the second half. They drove from their own five to the Alabama 33 before Scanlon was sacked on third down. Bruce Lahay punted to the Crimson Tide two yard line and with 13:21 left, the Hogs were very much alive.

However, Alabama used a 35–yard gallop by Billy Jackson and a 22–yard dash by Steadman Shealy to key a 98–yard touchdown drive that iced the Tide victory.

Scanlon was brilliant in defeat for the Hogs, the SWC's outstanding offensive player during the regular season, Scanlon hit 22 of his 39 passes for 245 yards despite fierce pressure by the Bama pass rush.

HALL OF FAME BOWL 1980

Arkansas 34, Tulane 15
Birmingham, Ala. – Dec. 27, 1980

Sophomore Gary Anderson exploded for 156 yards on just 11 carries and scored two touchdowns as Arkansas blitzed to a 28–0 halftime lead and breezed to a 34–15 victory over Tulane.

Anderson's efforts as well as those of a smothering first half defense allowed the Hogs to score more points than they ever had produced in a bowl game. Arkansas finished with only a 466–398 edge in total offense but by intermission the Porkers already had amassed 269 yards in offense and Anderson had returned a punt for a touchdown.

Arkansas grabbed a 7–0 advantage when Anderson's 44–yard dash set up a one–yard plunge by James Tolbert. Before the opening quarter ended, Anderson fielded a punt at his own 20, eluded an oncoming tackler and raced 80 yards for a touchdown.

After Tom Jones capped a 70–yard march with a three–yard scoring toss to tight end Steve Clyde, Anderson struck again. Named the game's outstanding player, Anderson took a pitch from Jones, reversed his field and roared 46 yards for a touchdown to make it 28–0.

Arkansas' defense, spearheaded by end Billy Ray Smith (who gained defensive player of the game honors), was stingy when it had to be. The Razorbacks allowed Tulane ace quarterback Nickie Hall to complete just 16 of his 37 passes and had the Green Wave blanked until the final quarter. Ish Ordonez booted a pair of second half field goals for Arkansas' other points.

GATOR BOWL 1981

North Carolina 31, Arkansas 27
Jacksonville, Fla. – Dec. 28, 1981

Freshman quarterback Brad Taylor ignited a fourth quarter flurry that produced two touchdowns in the final five minutes and five seconds but Arkansas' final period comeback fell just short in a 31–27 loss to North Carolina.

It was a bizarre setting as the Gator Bowl was smothered by fog during the last three quarters of a wild football game. The fog didn't slow Taylor, who passed for 307 yards and a pair of touchdowns.

Unfortunately for the Razorbacks, the fog didn't slow North Carolina's rushing attack either as the Tar Heels gained 283 yards on the ground.

Trailing 3–0 in the early stages, Arkansas struck quickly on its third possession. On the first play following a North Carolina punt, Taylor found Derek Holloway open for a 66–yard touchdown pass that put the Hogs in front.

After the Tar Heels got a gift touchdown on a fumbled punt at the Hog six, Arkansas drove from its own 11 to the North Carolina 12 to set up a Bruce Lahay field goal that deadlocked the contest at 10–apiece just four seconds before half time.

North Carolina's awesome rushing assault proved deadly in the second half as the Tar Heels grounded out three touchdown drives to gain a 31–10 advantage with just 7:29 remaining.

Taylor started hitting everything in sight and his 44–yard strike to Holloway set up a three–yard plunge for a touchdown by Jessie Clark. Taylor passed to Clark for a two–point conversion with 5:05 left.

Ed Jackson then recovered an onside kick and the Hogs struck again. This time it was a 43–yard pass from Taylor to Holloway that set up the score on fourth and goal from the seven. Taylor found Darryl Mason for the touchdown.

North Carolina took an intentional safety late to close the scoring.

BLUEBONNET BOWL 1982

Arkansas 28, Florida 24
Houston, Texas – Dec. 31, 1982

Gary Anderson exploded for a career high 161 yards rushing on 26 attempts and scored two touchdowns as Arkansas twice overcame 10–point deficits to trim Florida, 28–24, in the Razorback's initial appearance in the Bluebonnet Bowl.

Anderson, who also caught three passes for 37 yards, circled left end for 16 yards for a touchdown on the Hogs' first possession but Florida's passing attack produced enough fireworks to give the Gators a 17–7 halftime advantage.

Anderson hurdled a stacked defense for a one–yard touchdown on fourth–down midway through the third period but Florida struck quickly again and carried a 24–14 lead into the final quarter.

Senior Tom Jones made sure the Razorbacks would reward one of their best graduation classes ever with a victory when he passed five yards to Jessie Clark for a touchdown, then bulled a yard for a score to put the Hogs in front, 28–24.

Perhaps the most impressive march by the Razorbacks came on the final possession. Starting on its own six with 6:29 remaining, Arkansas killed the remaining time by driving all the way to the Gator 16. Daryl Bowles keyed the march by earning 13 yards on a third–and–nine.

Anderson was named the game's most valuable player, earning Arkansas bowl MVP honors for the third consecutive year.

LIBERTY BOWL 1984

Auburn 21 Arkansas 15
Memphis, Tenn. - Dec. 27, 1984

Typical of the 1984 season, Arkansas staged a furious fourth quarter rally but this one fell short as the Razorbacks lost a narrow, 21–15 decision to pre-season national champion pick Auburn in the Liberty Bowl.

The Tigers took a 14–3 lead into the final quarter as a result of Bo Jackson's two-yard run and a 35-yard interception return by Kevin Porter for first quarter touchdowns. Arkansas had scored first on Greg Horne's 31-yard field goal.

Nathan Jones made the play that turned things around when his vicious tackle at the Auburn 37 jolted the ball loose and rolling toward the Tiger goal line. Jones finally recovered at the Auburn six. Three thrusts by fullback Marshall Foreman netted a Razorback touchdown.

The Hogs failed on a two-point conversion attempt, then found themselves in a hole again as Jackson roared 39 yards for a touchdown with 5:29 remaining.

Arkansas never surrendered, though. On fourth-and-18 at the Auburn 25, Brad Taylor found James Shibest open for a touchdown to make it 21–15. However, Auburn's ground control attack spent all but eight seconds of the remaining 2:28 to end Arkansas' hopes.

Auburn was held to a season low 168 yards rushing and just 252 yards in total offense by a swarming Razorback defense. Taylor led the Razorback offense with 18 completions in 34 attempts for 201 yards.

HOLIDAY BOWL 1985

Arkansas 18, Arizona State 17
San Diego, Calif. - Dec. 22, 1985

Freshman Kendall Trainor kicked a 37-yard field goal with just 21 seconds left to cap an exhilarating Arkansas comeback and give the Razorbacks an 18–17 victory over Arizona State in the Holiday Bowl.

Arkansas trailed 14–7 entering the fourth quarter but pulled ahead when Holiday Bowl Most Valuable Player Bobby Joe Edmonds scooted 17 yards for a touchdown and quarterback Mark Calcagni dove into the end zone for the two-point conversion with 9:37 remaining.

An Arizona State field goal gave the Sun Devils a two-point advantage 5:23 from the conclusion but Edmonds dove for a first down on fourth-and-one and caught a 24-yard pass to keep alive the Hog's final march. Trainor ended the suspense with his three-pointer.

Calcagni was outstanding as he completed 10 of his 17 passes for 117 yards and gained 45 yards rushing on 16 carries. He engineered all of Arkansas' scoring drives, including a first-quarter march that ended with Derrick Thomas' nine-yard touchdown run. It gave the Hogs 7–3 lead at the time.

Arizona State had sliced the gap to 7–6 with a field goal before a Razorback gamble late in the first half backfired. On fourth and one at the Sun Devil 48, quarterback Greg Thomas just missed a deep pass to Edmonds on the sidelines, giving Arizona State possession in great field position.

The Sun Devils cashed in with a touchdown pass just 36 seconds from intermission. A successful two-point try gave Arizona State a 14–7 halftime lead and it stayed that way until Edmonds scored for the Hogs.

The victory was Arkansas' fourth come-from-behind in the fourth quarter triumph of the year. Arizona State became the ninth consecutive Razorback opponent to fail to score a rushing touchdown.

ORANGE BOWL
Oklahoma 42, Arkansas 8
Miami, Fla. – Jan. 1, 1987

1987

Nine years after Arkansas pulled one of the most stunning upsets in Orange Bowl history by thumping Oklahoma, 31–6, the Sooners got their chance to redeem themselves. A pair of touchdown gallops in the first half by Spencer Tillman proved to be all Oklahoma would need as the Sooners downed the Razorbacks, 42–8.

Oklahoma had been held without a first down in the opening quarter but Tillman dashed 77 yards for a touchdown on the third play of the second period. Tillman scored again on a 21–yard run after an interception at the Sooner 46 and Arkansas never posed a threat the rest of the way.

The Razorbacks' deepest thrust in the first half reached the Oklahoma 25 at a time when it was only 7–0. However, Greg Thomas, who suffered only one interception during the regular season, had a pass picked off at the Sooner 13.

Oklahoma put the contest away with four second–half touchdowns. Arkansas scored late on a two–yard blast by fullback Derrick Thomas and a two–point pass from John Bland to James Shibest.

Arkansas had a lopsided statistical advantage at halftime with 11 first downs to four for Oklahoma but the two interceptions proved costly. The Hogs suffered five interceptions during the contest. Thomas did complete 13 of his 26 passes for 129 yards and Bland was three–for–seven for 63 yards.

LIBERTY BOWL
Georgia 20, Arkansas 17
Memphis, Tenn. – Dec. 29, 1987

1987

John Kasay, a backup placekicker thrust into duty when the regular kicker was suspended, kicked a 39–yard field goal on the last play of the game to allow Georgia to come from behind and post its first–ever bowl victory over Arkansas.

Kasay's kick gave the Bulldogs a 20–17 triumph in a contest that was dominated by the Razorbacks for three quarters. It came after Georgia intercepted a Greg Thomas pass at the Hog 43 with 56 seconds left.

A 43–yard field goal by Kendall Trainor and a 10–yard Thomas touchdown run gave the Razorbacks a 10–7 halftime lead. Thomas scored again early in the third quarter to give the Hogs a 17–7 advantage. The second Thomas touchdown came after he had passed 26 yards to Billy Winston on fourth and one at the Georgia 27.

A short field goal by Kasay cut the Hog lead to seven and the Bulldogs took advantage of an interception at the Arkansas 39 to drive for the tying touchdown 10 minutes into the fourth quarter.

Arkansas responded with a magnificent drive from its 12 to the Georgia 18 that killed nearly nine minutes in clock time. The Hogs tried a short field goal but missed with 1:42 left. The Razorbacks then held the Bulldogs but threw the interception that turned into the winning field goal for Georgia.

Thomas led all rushers with 79 yards and passed for 86. He was named the Razorback offensive MVP. James Rouse added 72 yards rushing. Arkansas' defense held the leading rushing attack in the Southeastern Conference nearly 100 yards below its average and intercepted two passes but could not overcome the Razorback passes that were picked off.

COTTON BOWL 1989

UCLA 17, Arkansas 3
Dallas, Texas – Jan. 2, 1989

UCLA smothered Arkansas with a devastating defensive effort and a brilliant performance by the Razorback defense was not enough as the Bruins spoiled the first Hog trip to the Cotton Bowl in 13 years with a 17–3 triumph at Dallas.

It was the initial season for the Cotton Bowl to be sponsored by Mobil Oil and nearly 60,000 Razorback fans helped fill the 74,000-plus seat stadium. Hog fans were chilled, even on a bright, sunny day, by the Bruin defense that limited Arkansas to an all-time low 42 yards in total offense.

After a quarter it looked like neither team would move the ball much. However, early in the second period the Bruins took advantage of a 15-yard late hit penalty that kept them from having to punt to keep alive a 93-yard drive for their first touchdown. UCLA converted five consecutive third down situations after the penalty.

The Bruins followed with a 74-yard march against the clock, scoring on a Troy Aikman pass with just 21 seconds left in the half.

Kendall Trainor gave the Razorbacks hope midway through the third quarter when he drilled a 49-yard field goal but the Bruins ate up the next eight minutes of clock time before Kerry Crawford pounced on a UCLA fumble at the Hog 10 early in the fourth period.

Arkansas never could muster another offensive drive and a late UCLA field goal finished the scoring. UCLA dominated possession time, 42:43 to 17:17, something Arkansas had dominated all year in its 10–1 regular season.

Linebacker LaSalle Harper was Arkansas' most valuable player with a stunning 20 tackles, a fumble recovery and an interception. Safety Steve Atwater had nine tackles for the Hogs.

COTTON BOWL 1990

Tennessee 31, Arkansas 27
Dallas, Texas – Jan. 1, 1990

Not even a record-setting offensive performance by Arkansas could overcome the devastating running of Tennessee's Chuck Webb as the Volunteers edged the Razorbacks, 31–27, in one of the most wide open Cotton Bowl games in years.

The Hogs earned a Cotton Bowl record 568 yards in total offense and 31 first downs but suffered a pair of turnovers inside the Tennessee 10-yard line that proved fatal.

Webb was sensational for the Vols, rushing for 205 yards and two touchdowns on 26 carries. His 78-yard scoring run put Tennessee ahead 31–13 before the Hogs came roaring back.

Barry Foster, who rushed for 103 yards and two touchdowns, scored from the one early in the fourth quarter and Quinn Grovey later hit Billy Winston with a pass that finished as a 67-yard touchdown play but the Hogs ran out of time.

James Rouse had a brilliant day for the Razorbacks with 134 yards and a touchdown on 22 carries and Grovey, who suffered from a pregame stomach virus, completed 12 of his 22 passes for 207 yards and a touchdown. However, he flipped a pass from the Volunteer two yard line that was intercepted at a time Arkansas led 6–3 and was dominating the game.

A sellout crowd of 74,358, including more than 50,000 Razorback fans, watched the offensive extravaganza. Linebackers Mick Thomas and Ty Mason spearheaded Arkansas' defensive effort with seven tackles each and Aaron Jackson and Patrick Williams each made an interception for the Hogs.

INDEPENDENCE BOWL 1991

Georgia 24, Arkansas 15
Shreveport, La. – Dec. 29, 1991

Andre Hastings' blazing speed accounted for a pair of Georgia touchdowns and Arkansas couldn't overcome five interceptions as the Razorbacks were defeated, 24–15, in the Independence Bowl.

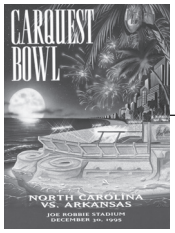

Hastings scored on a brilliant catch of a 27–yard pass by Eric Zeier and ran 53 yards on a reverse for another touchdown. Zeier had another touchdown pass to open the scoring and Kanon Parkman kicked a 39–yard field goal for the Bulldogs.

The Hogs trailed 17–0 late in the second quarter when a short Georgia punt gave Arkansas the ball at the Bulldog 37. E.D. Jackson roared into the end zone for the Razorbacks from seven yards out with 35 seconds left in the half to cut the margin to 17–7.

Hastings' touchdown run early in the third quarter made it 24–7. Arkansas had several scoring chances in the second half but didn't reach the end zone again until Jackson's one–yard plunge with just 1:19 left. Jackson also ran for a two–point conversion.

Jackson finished with 112 rushing yards, just 13 yards fewer than Georgia netted as a team on the ground. Wade Hill quarterbacked the Hogs and threw for 122 yards but suffered the five interceptions.

Zeier was brilliant for Georgia, completing 18 of his 28 passes for 228 yards. Hastings made four catches for 94 yards. Georgia's big plays were the difference as Arkansas finished with seven more first downs than the Bulldogs.

CARQUEST BOWL 1995

North Carolina 20, Arkansas 10
Miami, Fla. – Dec. 30, 1995

An 87–yard pass play from a scrambling Mike Thomas to L. C. Stevens late in the third quarter proved to be the decisive play as North Carolina earned a 20–10 CarQuest Bowl victory over Arkansas.

The Tar Heels led 14–10 at the time in a game dominated by both defenses. Thomas was flushed out of the pocket by Razorback defensive end Steven Conley and narrowly avoided a sack before floating the game winner to Stevens.

Arkansas had scored on its first possession when Barry Lunney fired a 25–yard touchdown pass to Anthony Lucas to cap a 78–yard march. The Tar Heels answered with a 53–yard drive that Thomas finished with an 18–yard scoring pass to Darrin Ashford.

It was still 7–7 in the third quarter when Todd Latourette kicked a 26–yard field goal to give the Hogs their lead back. However, a 28–yard touchdown run by Leon Johnson gave North Carolina the lead and the long pass three minutes later iced the victory.

The Hogs had the advantage in first downs (26–20) but suffered three turnovers while North Carolina had none. Senior Marius Johnson rushed for 136 yards on 29 carries. It was the third straight bowl appearance for Arkansas in which a back ran for at least 100 yards.

Lunney passed for 227 yards but was intercepted twice and sacked five times. Arkansas managed to sack Thomas just once.

FLORIDA CITRUS BOWL 1999

Michigan 45, Arkansas 31
Orlando, Fla. – Jan. 1, 1999

Arkansas overcame a two-touchdown halftime deficit with three unanswered scores and led defending national champion Michigan 31-24 early in the fourth quarter before the Wolverines took advantage of a punt return and an interception to pin the Razorbacks with a 45-31 defeat in front of 63,584 fans at the Florida Citrus Bowl.

In the first meeting ever between the schools, Michigan roared to a 24-10 lead and was driving inside UA territory when Melvin Bradley forced a fumble by Anthony Thomas and David Barrett recovered for the Razorbacks at his own 29. Hog quarterback Clint Stoerner marched his team to the Michigan two and Chrys Chukwuma bulled into the end zone from there.

On UM's next possession, Jeromy Flowers intercepted a pass and returned it to the Wolverine seven. Chukwuma carried three times, blasting into the end zone from the one on his final try to tie the game. Arkansas' Zac Painter ran 24 yards with an interception to the Michigan 11. Stoerner then hit Joe Dean Davenport with a nine-yard touchdown pass to make it 31-24.

Michigan answered with an 80-yard scoring drive that Thomas completed with a one-yard scoring plunge. UA failed to respond with a first down, and a short punt and 14-yard return set up the Wolverines on the Hog 35. On third-and-seven Michigan quarterback Tom Brady found DiAllo Johnson with a 21-yard scoring strike to put his team in front for good.

On Arkansas' next possession, a Stoerner pass was hanging on the shoulder pad of a receiver when Michigan's James Whitley grabbed it and raced 26 yards for a touchdown. With just 1:47 remaining, the issue had been decided.

UA earned 348 yards against a stingy UM defense but suffered two interceptions and both were returned for touchdowns. Chukwuma rushed for 56 yards on 17 carries. Stoerner completed just 17 of his 42 passes for 232 yards and two touchdowns. Michael Williams caught seven passes for 90 yards.

COTTON BOWL 2000

Arkansas 27, Texas 6
Dallas, Texas – Jan. 1, 2000

A rivalry born in 1894 and discontinued when Arkansas left the Southwest Conference following the 1991 season was reborn on the first day of the year 2000 when the Razorbacks shocked old nemesis Texas, 27-6, in the Cotton Bowl at Dallas.

In more than 100 years of football the Longhorns never had been held to negative rushing yardage but it happened in the Cotton Bowl as the Razorbacks used a season-high eight quarterback sacks to hold Texas to minus 27 yards on the ground. It was the first time the Hogs held a bowl opponent to minus rushing yardage.

Freshman Cedric Cobbs also established a bowl first for Arkansas. He snapped a 3-3 tie in the third quarter when he took Clint Stoerner's lob pass and turned it into a 30-yard touchdown. In the fourth quarter he sparked a 17-point Razorback avalanche with a 37-yard sprint down the sidelines. He became the first Hog ever to score rushing and pass receiving touchdowns in the same bowl game.

Cobbs was the game's outstanding offensive player after rushing for 98 yards on just 15 carries. Senior lineman D.J. Cooper was the game's outstanding defensive player after making five tackles, including two of the quarterback sacks.

The first half was a defensive struggle with field goals by Arkansas' Tony Dodson and Texas' Kris Stockton producing the only points. Cobbs' first touchdown was set up by a 47-yard bomb from Stoerner to Anthony Lucas from the Hog one yard line. Trailing 10-3, Texas marched back to the Arkansas one but was stopped on three consecutive plays before calling on Stockton for a second field goal.

Arkansas quickly retaliated with an 86-yard drive that finished when Michael Jenkins bolted 42 yards for a score. After Cobbs scored again, Dodson kicked another field goal and the victory was secured.

It was only the third time Arkansas held a bowl opponent without a touchdown. It happened in a 0-0 tie with LSU in the 1947 Cotton Bowl and in a 16-2 Sugar Bowl triumph over Georgia in 1969. The victory ended a seven-bowl game losing streak for the Razorbacks and was the first bowl win for coach Houston Nutt.

LAS VEGAS BOWL 2000

UNLV 31, Arkansas 14
Las Vegas, Nev. – Dec. 21, 200$_0$

Playing on its home field, UNLV rallied from a 14–7 second-quarter deficit to score 24 unanswered points as the Rebels (8–5) defeated Arkansas (6–6), 31–14, in Las Vegas Bowl IX before a crowd of 29,113 at Sam Boyd Stadium.

UNLV quarterback Jason Thomas completed 12 of 17 passes for 217 yards and three touchdowns, including two to Nate Turner and a 54-yard strike to Troy Mason that broke a 14–14 tie in the third quarter. Thomas earned most valuable player honors for the Rebels while Turner recorded a game-high eight receptions for 126 yards.

Arkansas took a 7–0 lead in the first quarter when Robby Hampton threw a seven-yard touchdown pass to Rod Stinson on the game's opening drive.

The Rebels tied the game at 7–7 early in the second quarter on Thomas' 19-yard touchdown pass to Turner. Arkansas answered on the ensuing drive when Hampton connected with Boo Williams on a 25-yard touchdown pass for a 14–7 UA lead. Williams, who was named Arkansas' most valuable player in the game, caught seven passes for 97 yards in his final game as a Razorback.

UNLV took the lead for good on Mason's 54-yard touchdown reception in the third quarter while the Rebel defense held the Razorbacks scoreless in the second half. UNLV put the game out of reach in the fourth quarter on Thomas' six-yard touchdown run and an 18-yard rush by Kevin Brown.

The victory was the fourth in a row for a UNLV team that rallied from a 4–5 record earlier in the season. Arkansas' loss denied the Razorbacks their third consecutive winning season and snapped UA's seven-game winning streak against non-conference foes.

Arkansas, which was also 4–5 earlier in the season, ended the regular season with upsets of nationally ranked Mississippi State and LSU to earn its third bowl appearance in as many seasons under Nutt. It is the first time UA has made three consecutive bowl trips since the 1987, 1988 and 1989 seasons.

COTTON BOWL 2002

Oklahoma 10, Arkansas 3
Dallas, Texas – Jan. 1, 2002

In a battle of two stingy defenses, the No. 10 and defending national champion Oklahoma Sooners outlasted the Arkansas Razorbacks, 10–3, in the 66th annual SBC Cotton Bowl on New Year's Day.

Oklahoma (11–2) went to halftime with a 7–0 lead and held on for a 10–3 victory over Arkansas (7–5) in front of more than 70,000 fans at historic Cotton Bowl Stadium. The Sooners kept the UA offense off balance all day including earning a bowl record nine sacks.

Oklahoma's Quentin Griffin earned offensive player of the game honors after rushing for 56 yards on 19 carries while Sooners' strong safety Roy Williams earned outstanding defensive player of the game honors after totaling six stops including three tackles for loss.

Arkansas managed only 50 yards of total offense on the afternoon and completed its only scoring drive of the day with a fourth-quarter field goal from Brennan O'Donohoe. The Hogs struggled to get the running game going against the OU defense posting 37 yards on 42 carries. Arkansas completed two of 13 passes for 13 yards and an interception.

Arkansas' defense kept the Hogs in the game until late in the fourth quarter. OU rushed 34 times for only 56 yards. The UA defense earned 10 tackles for loss of their own including four sacks. Senior All-American Jermaine Petty led the Razorbacks with 10 tackles.
Oklahoma opened the scoring in the first quarter with a 13-play, 63-yard scoring drive that ended when quarterback Nate Hybl rushed to paydirt from one yard out. Tim Duncan added the extra point and the Sooners led 7–0.

The next scoreboard tally didn't come until the opening drive of the second half when the Sooners capped a 65-yard drive with a 32-yard field goal by Duncan to extend the lead to 10–0.

Arkansas culminated its only sustained offensive drive of the day midway through the final period as O'Donohoe nailed a 32-yard field goal to close the OU lead to 10–3. The Razorback defense responded and gave the UA offense a pair of opportunities to drive for the winning score, but OU All-American Rocky Calmus forced a fumble from UA signal caller Matt Jones in the final two minutes to halt the Hogs' last hope.

MUSIC CITY BOWL 2002

Minnesota 29, Arkansas 14
Nashville, Tenn. – Dec. 30, 2002

Arkansas got off to a good start, scoring on its first possession, but the Razorbacks, who made a living off opponent turnovers during the year, turned the ball over four times as Minnesota posted a 29–14 victory in the Music City Bowl at Nashville.

The Southeastern Conference Western Division champion Razorbacks led the league and ranked 11th in the nation with a +17 turnover margin, but failed to get a single miscue from the Golden Gophers.

George Wilson capped a 74–yard drive on the game's first possession with a two–yard scoring pass from Matt Jones, but Minnesota (8–5) got four straight field goals from Dan Nystrom to take a 12–7 lead at the half.

Neither offense did much through most of the third period, but UM's Asad Abdul–Khaliq found Ben Utecht for a 19–yard score with 2:44 left in the quarter to give Minnesota a 19–7 advantage. Nystrom added another field goal early in the fourth quarter and Thomas Tapeh put the game out of reach with a 33–yard scoring run with 7:49 to play. Tapeh finished with 99 yards on 19 carries.

Ryan Sorahan came in for Jones, who was 12 of 24 for 119 yards and two interceptions, and led the Razorbacks on a 71–yard scoring drive, hitting Richard Smith for a 10–yard TD.

Arkansas, which averaged 218.9 rushing yards per game for the year, was held to 80 yards on 31 attempts. George Wilson had a career–high matching eight receptions and went over the 100–yard mark for the third time in his career with 111 yards.

Arkansas was held to 288 yards of total offense. FS Ken Hamlin had a team–high nine tackles in his last game for UA.

INDEPENDENCE BOWL 2003

Arkansas 27, Missouri 14
Shreveport, La. – Dec. 31, 2003

For just the second time in 18 years, Arkansas capped its season with a bowl victory as the Razorbacks recorded a 27–14 win over Missouri in the Independence Bowl, but for the second time in consecutive seasons, the Hogs finished with nine wins.

Arkansas rushed for 300 yards and the defense forced three turnovers as UA won a bowl game for the second time in five years.

Offensive Most Valuable Player Cedric Cobbs rushed for 141 yards on 27 carries, and his 41–yard TD capped a big second quarter which gave Arkansas a 21–7 halftime lead. Missouri (8–5) got within 24–14 at the end of the third quarter, but the Hogs shut out the Tigers in the fourth period while Chris Balseiro booted his fourth field goal of the game for the final margin. Balseiro's four field goals set an Arkansas bowl record.

DeCori Birmingham added 85 yards on 10 carries for UA while quarterback Matt Jones ran for 74 on seven rushes. Jones was six of 14 passing for 49 yards. Ryan Sorahan was perfect on three attempts for 36 yards.

Missouri's Zack Abron, who scored on a one–yard run to give the Tigers a 7–3 lead, ran for 137 yards on 19 carries. Quarterback Brad Smith ran for 96 yards and a score on 20 carries, and was 17 of 30 passing for 155 yards with an interception.

Caleb Miller, voted the game's Most Valuable Defensive Player, made 16 tackles. Jimmy Beasley and Keith Jackson recorded seven stops each. Tom Crowder blocked a punt and intercepted a pass in the win.

CAPITAL ONE BOWL
Wisconsin 17, Arkansas 14
Orlando, Fla. – Jan. 1, 2007

2007

Arkansas' Darren McFadden broke free on his first carry and raced into the Wisconsin secondary, but defensive back Jack Ikegwuonu did what few players have — he ran down McFadden at the 9-yard line.

That summed up the Capital One Bowl for sixth-ranked Wisconsin. With its running game stifled and its quarterback under constant pressure, the Badgers did just enough to hold off No. 12 Arkansas 17-14.

John Stocco threw two first-half touchdown passes and Wisconsin survived despite being held to minus-5 yards rushing. The Badgers (12-1) held McFadden, the Heisman Trophy runner-up, to 89 yards on the ground, and the Razorbacks (10-4) couldn't overcome an undisciplined, mistake-filled performance.

Wisconsin won 12 games in a season for the first time and finished with a nine-game winning streak, although this was the Badgers' first win over a ranked team.

McFadden's 45-yard run gave the Razorbacks the ball inside the Wisconsin 10 on the game's first series, but Arkansas came away with no points when Jeremy Davis missed a 30-yard field goal.

Taylor Mehlhaff opened the scoring for the Badgers with a 52-yard field goal, a career long and a Capital One Bowl record. Felix Jones answered quickly for Arkansas with a 76-yard touchdown run.

Stocco threw touchdown passes of 22 yards to Paul Hubbard and 13 yards to Travis Beckum, giving the Badgers a 17-7 halftime lead. Jones, who quietly surpassed 1,000 yards this season alongside McFadden, made it 17-14 on a 12-yard run in the fourth.

Jones finished with a career-high 150 yards on 14 carries, outplaying McFadden and Wisconsin's P.J. Hill, two 1,500-yard rushers. Hill ran for 36 yards on 19 carries.

Stocco, the game's most valuable player, went 14-of-34 for 206 yards with two interceptions. The Razorbacks stuck with their plan to start Casey Dick at quarterback and bring in freshman Mitch Mustain for the third series. Dick went 9-of-21 for 98 yards with an interception. Mustain was 5-of-10 for 41 yards with an interception.

LIBERTY BOWL 2010

Arkansas 20, ECU 17, OT
Memphis, Tenn. – Jan. 2, 2010

A capacity crowd of 62,742, including 55,000 Razorback fans, braved frigid temperatures to watch Alex Tejada nail a 37-yard field goal in overtime to give Arkansas a 20-17 win over East Carolina in the 2010 AutoZone Liberty Bowl.

Tejada's field goal capped a comeback that saw the Razorbacks rally from a 10-0 halftime deficit to win its initial bowl game under Coach Bobby Petrino and record Arkansas' first bowl victory since 2003.

With the Razorbacks trailing 10-3 midway through the third quarter, Tramain Thomas intercepted an ECU pass and returned it 37 yards for a touchdown. After the Pirates regained the lead, Arkansas quarterback Ryan Mallett connected with wide receiver Jarius Wright for 41 yards and a touchdown to tie the game at 17-17.

The game remained deadlocked with ECU missing on three potential game-winning field goal attempts in the final minutes of regulation and in overtime. Tejada ended the suspense by splitting the uprights on the Razorbacks' first drive of the extra period to give the Hogs their first overtime bowl win in school history.

Mallett was named the Liberty Bowl's most valuable player while Wright and Thomas earned recognition as the most outstanding offensive and defensive players in the game, respectively.

SUGAR BOWL 2011

Ohio State 31, Arkansas 26
New Orleans, La. – Jan. 4, 2011

The University of Arkansas football team was outlasted by Ohio State in the 77th Annual Allstate Sugar Bowl in the Louisiana Superdome 31-26. The Razorbacks fell short of a comeback victory while scoring 16 second-half points to OSU's three.

UA was led by standout performances by quarterback Ryan Mallett and running back Knile Davis. UA finished the 2010 season with a 10-3 (6-2, SEC) record, marking the first time since 2006 an Arkansas team won 10 games.

Mallett broke the school record for passing yards in a season with his 277-yard performance to finish the 2010 season with 3,869, passing his 2009 mark of 3,624. His outing against the Buckeyes was his 11th 200-yard passing game of the season. Mallett tossed two touchdown passes against the Buckeyes to finish his junior campaign with a school-record 32 touchdown passes.

Davis finished with 139 yards rushing for his sixth 100-yard rushing game of the season. Linebacker Jerry Franklin also scored a highlight finish for the Razorbacks, concluding the season with the team lead in tackles for the third straight season. Franklin was just the second Arkansas football player to accomplish the feat since 1960.

Trailing 31-13 in the third quarter, Arkansas started its comeback with a 22-yard touchdown pass from Mallett to Jarius Wright in the final minute of the third quarter. A safety by the Razorback defense and a Zach Hocker 47-yard field goal cut the Buckeye lead to five midway through the fourth quarter. However, Arkansas was unable to get any closer as Ohio State held on for the win.

In the summer of 2011, Ohio State vacated its Sugar Bowl victory due to an NCAA investigation.

COTTON BOWL 2012

Arkansas 29, Kansas State 16
Arlington, Texas - Jan. 6, 2012

Arkansas football team wrapped up one of the most memorable seasons in school history in Arlington, Texas, with a 29-16 victory over No. 11 Kansas State in the 76th AT&T Cotton Bowl Classic on Jan. 6. The victory was Arkansas' 11th during the 2011 season, which tied the single-season UA wins record set in 1964 and matched in 1977. The win also propelled the Razorbacks to a No. 5 finish in the final AP and USA Today polls, the program's fourth top-five AP finish and first since 1977.

Arkansas, which never trailed in the game, got a stellar performance from its defense that held the Wildcats to only 87 yards on the ground, 2.2 yards per rush and also recorded seven sacks. Offensively, Tyler Wilson led the way, going 20-for-31 for 216 yards and two touchdowns. On special teams, Joe Adams electrified the crowd of 80,956 with a 51-yard punt return for a touchdown that was his fourth of the season, tying the SEC single-season record.

After two field goals from Hocker and Adams' punt return touchdown, the Razorback offense got its first touchdown of the game on the back of a 45-yard touchdown pass from Wilson to Jarius Wright. With six added points, the Razorbacks had a 19-0 lead with 4:10 to play before halftime.

Wright's catch gave him 2,934 career receiving yards and broke the Arkansas career receiving yards record. It also made Wright the first player in school history to catch a touchdown pass in three consecutive bowl games after he also had a scoring grab in the 2010 Liberty Bowl and 2011 Sugar Bowl.

Kansas State added seven more points on its first possession of the second half to make it 19-16, but the Razorbacks answered with a touchdown of their own in the form of a 9-yard pass from Wilson to Cobi Hamilton.

Three more points off the foot of Hocker from 30 yards out extended the Razorbacks lead to 29-16 with 3:30 to play in the fourth quarter. The score would stay that way to the final horn.

TEXAS BOWL 2014

Arkansas 31, Texas 7
Houston, Texas - Dec. 29, 2014

After holding the Texas Longhorns to just 59 total yards, the Arkansas Razorbacks routed the Longhorns, 31-7, to claim the Advocare V100 Texas Bowl Championship, Monday night in NRG Stadium.

The Razorbacks (7-6) set a school bowl record by allowing just 59 yards, breaking the mark of 168 yards allowed to Nebraska in the 1965 Cotton Bowl. The 59 yards on 43 offensive plays also marks the fewest yards by any FBS team this season.

The Razorbacks stymied the Longhorn (6-7) offense in front of 71,115 fans in attendance - the largest in AdvoCare V100 Texas Bowl history and the most fans for a bowl game ever held in Houston. The defensive efforts were highlighted by a fumble recovered by sophomore defensive tackle Taiwan Johnson in the Longhorn end zone, marking the sophomore's first recovery and touchdown of his career. Senior linebacker Martrell Spaight moved into the program single season program charts tied for 13th, tacking-on five tackles against Texas for 128 total stops this season. Freshman cornerback Henre' Toliver picked-off his second pass of the season and returned it 46 yards, dosing the Longhorns comeback chances in the fourth quarter.

With a tackle for a loss of a yard in the second quarter, senior defensive end Trey Flowers secured the No. 2 spot on the program's career tackles for loss chart.

The Advocare V100 Texas Bowl MVP, junior quarterback Brandon Allen, tossed for 160 yards, going 12-for-23 on the day. Allen also tallied two scores in the air, finding junior wide receiver Keon Hatcher and senior wide out Demetrius Wilson in the end zone. Hatcher hauled in four receptions for 41 yards and Wilson pulled in two catches for 52 yards, including a 36-yard highlight-reel touchdown reception.

On the ground, junior running back Jonathan Williams rumbled for 105 yards, his ninth career 100-plus rushing game and touchdown. With 1,190 rushing yards this season, Williams moves to No. 8 in the program record book, while his 2,321 career rushing yards pegs him No. 10 in Arkansas' career chart.
