A RAZORBACK WIN WOULD...

- Be the ninth win in the past 10 homecoming games.
- Mark the third victory in the past four games.
- Be the sixth win in the past seven games at Donald W. Reynolds Razorback Stadium.
- Give Arkansas a .500 record at the end of October for the second consecutive season.

THE RAZORBACK RUNDOWN

AT A GLANCE

Arkansas will close out its non-conference schedule on Saturday when it hosts UT Martin for Homecoming. This will be the first meeting between the two schools. UT Martin is 5-2 this season and their two losses came to No. 19 Ole Miss and FCS No. 1 Jacksonville State.

QUALITY OPPONENTS

Arkansas' four losses have come to #20 Toledo, Texas Tech, Texas A&M and #7 Alabama. Two of those four teams are ranked in the top 20 and the four teams have combined to post a 24-6 record. Those six losses have come against #2 Baylor, #5 TCU, #7 Alabama, #14 Oklahoma and #19 Ole Miss (twice).

BALANCED YET EXPLOSIVE

The Razorbacks scored 54 points in last week's win against Auburn, the most against an SEC opponent since the 7OT thriller against Kentucky on Nov. 1, 2003. Arkansas scored on its final five possessions of the game, including touchdowns in all four OT possessions.

- Third time in the last four games (all SEC) that Arkansas has thrown for over 200 yards and run for over 200 yards.
- Arkansas has run for 200+ yards three times in SEC play compared to once all of last year.
- Arkansas' three games with 200 yards passing and 200 yards receiving are more than last year's total of two.

HOT STARTS AT HOME

Since the start of the 2014 season, Arkansas has posted a 7-2 record at Donald W. Reynolds Razorback Stadium. One of the major factors in those seven wins has been Arkansas' ability to out-score its nine opponents by a combined 118-14 margin in the first quarter.

- Just one of Arkansas' last nine opponents at DWRRS have scored in the first quarter.
- The nine opponents have a total of two touchdowns in the first quarter while Arkansas has a defensive and special teams touchdown in that span.
- The four SEC opponents (Auburn, Ole Miss, LSU, Alabama) - all from the SEC West - haven't scored and have a total of six first downs.

Morgan set career-highs of eight receptions and 155 yards against Texas A&M and backed that performance up with another 100-yard game at Tennessee. The University of Arkansas captivated the college football world by naming Bret Bielema the 32nd head coach in Razorback history in December of 2012. Bielema, who enters his third season on The Hill, represented the qualities Arkansas was looking for: a leader of young men who holds student-athletes responsible both on and off the field and a coach who has a proven record of winning championships.

Throughout his head-coaching career, Bielema has won three conference championships and coached 11 first-team All-Americans, numerous award winners and NFL superstars. Among the NFL players coached by Bielema are three-time Defensive Player of the Year J.J. Watt, Super Bowl winning quarterback Russell Wilson, No. 1 overall draft pick and eight-time Pro Bowler Joe Thomas, All-Pro linebacker DeAndre Levy, Pro Bowl offensive lineman Travis Frederick, running back Montee Ball and many others.

Bielema has the Razorbacks trending in the right direction behind a balanced offense and stifling defense. Arkansas closed the 2014 season winning three of its final four games against traditional powers LSU, Ole Miss and Texas, the first time in school history the Hogs have defeated those three teams in the same season. The Razorbacks finished 7-6 with a 31-7 victory over Texas in the AdvoCare V100 Texas Bowl, marking Arkansas' first winning season since 2011.

Bielema has always prided himself on a balanced offensive attack and that is exactly what the Razorbacks accomplished in 2014. Running backs Jonathan Williams and Alex Collins were the only FBS teammates to rush for more than 1,000 yards each and both players finished in the top five of the Southeastern Conference in rushing totals. Quarterback Brandon Allen threw for 20 touchdowns, the sixth-most in a single season in school history, and had just five interceptions, the fewest by a Razorback quarterback since 1992

Arkansas was the SEC's most improved defense in 2014, allowing just 19.2 points per game. With an 11.9 points per game improvement from the previous season, the Razorbacks had the seventh-most improved defense in the nation. Arkansas became the first unranked team in college football history to post back-to-back shutouts over ranked opponents after blanking No. 20 LSU and No. 8 Ole Miss. Senior linebacker Martrell Spaight was the first Razorback to ever lead the SEC with 128 total tackles and was a consensus first-team All-SEC selection.

In his first season at Arkansas (2013), the Razorbacks had five student-athletes named Freshmen All-Americans; Collins, offensive linemen Denver Kirkland and Dan Skipper, tight end Hunter Henry and defensive tackle Darius Philon. Collins was named the SEC Freshman of the Year after he became the second Razorback freshman to rush for more than 1,000 yards in a season. Collins and Darren McFadden are the only two to do so in school history and the only two Razorbacks to be named SEC Freshman of the Year.

His impact off the field has also been felt as the team has posted its two highest GPAs ever for a fall semester in 2013 and 2014. The football program had 32 student-athletes named to the 2014 Fall SEC Academic Honor Roll, the most for a fall semester in program history and the second most in the conference.

Bielema is building Arkansas into a pro-style football program that prepares players for the NFL. He has had 34 draft picks in nine seasons, more than any other head coach with less than 10 years of experience. Arkansas had four defensive players chosen in the 2015 NFL Draft, the school's most in a single draft since 1989.

A fourth round pick of the New England Patriots in 2015, Trey Flowers thrived under Bielema's tutelage. Arkansas was the only SEC school to offer a scholarship to Flowers out of high school and the defensive end weighed just 243 pounds when Bielema and his staff arrived following the 2012 season. Two years later, Flowers was a sculpted 270 pounds and famous for a viral video in which he box jumped 55 inches. He finished his career ranked second all-time in school history in tackles for loss (47.5) and was the leader of one of the best Razorback defenses of all time.

Spaight was another player who reached new heights under Bielema. He was the first recruit that Bielema signed at Arkansas after Spaight spent two years at Coffeyville (Kan.) CC. An Arkansas native, Spaight returned to his home state but struggled in his first season, starting just two games with 22 tackles. With the help of Bielema and his staff, Spaight re-dedicated himself to the game and spent countless hours in the weight room and watching film to perfect his craft. It led to a breakout senior season in which Spaight became the first Razorback to ever lead the SEC in tackles (128) and a consensus All-SEC first team selection. The performance helped him become a fifth round section of the Washington Redskins in the 2015 NFL Draft.

Another player who turned his career around under Bielema was cornerback Tevin Mitchel. Highly recruited out of high school, Mitchel played at Arkansas right away, starting seven games as a true freshman in 2011. Though he contributed immediately, Mitchel struggled to separate himself from his competition. Entering his senior season, Bielema and his staff convinced Mitchel to give the nickel corner position a try and that is where the Mansfield, Texas native excelled. He shut down opponents' slot receivers in 2014 and played his way into the sixth round of the 2015 NFL Draft, where he was chosen by the Washington Redskins.

AJ Derby had perhaps the most unconventional path to the NFL. A quarterback his entire life, Derby began his career at Iowa before transferring to Coffeyville (Kan.) CC and eventually settling in at Arkansas. Bielema tried repeatedly to convince Derby to change positions, but it wasn't until the spring before his senior season that Derby finally bought in. The decision paid dividends for the new tight end as Derby played in 11 games, catching 22 passes for 303 yards, before an injury ended his collegiate career. Despite playing

"WE WILL RECRUIT UNCOMMON MEN HERE. WE WILL RECRUIT MEN THAT ARE HELD TO HIGHER STANDARDS. I DON'T WANT PEOPLE TO BE NORMAL. I WANT THEM TO BE UNCOMMON."

less than one year at his new position, the New England Patriots picked Derby in the sixth round of the 2015 NFL Draft.

Fullback Kiero Small played just one game in 2012 before suffering a season-ending injury. He bounced back in Bielema's pro-style offense and was very effective. The Seattle Seahawks selected him in the seventh round of the 2014 NFL Draft.

Travis Swanson finished his career in 2013 as the first player in school history to start 50 consecutive games. The center was a first team All-American and a two-time All-SEC selection. When the Detroit Lions picked him in the third round, he became the eighth offensive linemen Bielema has coached that was selected in the first three rounds of the NFL Draft.

In Bielema's eight seasons as head coach at Wisconsin, he had 17 players earn All-America honors, including 11 first-team All-Americans. He also coached two Outland Trophy winners, one Doak Walker Award recipient, one winner of the Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award and one Lott IMPACT Trophy winner as well as finalists for numerous other individual awards, including the Heisman Trophy. In his final six years at Wisconsin, 21 Badgers were taken in the NFL Draft, including three in the first round.

Bielema, who served as Wisconsin's defensive coordinator for two seasons before becoming head coach, was on staff as UW compiled a 55-6 record at Camp Randall Stadium in his nine years. The Badgers won their first 16 home games under Bielema, the second-longest home winning streak in school history.

In 2012, Bielema guided Wisconsin to its third straight Big Ten championship and the Badgers became the first team to represent the Big Ten in three straight Rose Bowls since Michigan qualified following the 1976-78 seasons. In his final game at Wisconsin, Bielema led the Badgers to a 70-31 win over No. 14 Nebraska in the Big Ten Championship Game. Wisconsin became the second team to score 70 points in a conference championship game, matching the number scored by Texas in the 2005 Big 12 Championship Game. Wisconsin also had two 200-yard rushers in the same game for the first time in school history.

In 2011, the Badgers won the inaugural Big Ten Championship Game, defeating Michigan State 42-39 to advance to the Rose Bowl for the second straight season. Wisconsin, winners of the Leaders Division, finished the season with an 11-3 record and recorded 11 regular-season victories for just the third time in school history, all under Bielema's watch.

In 2010, the Badgers won a share of the 12th Big Ten championship in school history and first since 1999. UW tied a school record with seven conference victories and earned its first trip to the Rose Bowl since 1999. Wisconsin nearly became the first team in FBS history to have three running backs gain 1,000 yards in the same season as James White finished with 1,052 yards, John Clay had 1,012 and Ball ran for 996.

Bielema was Wisconsin's defensive coordinator in 2004 and 2005, a period in which the program produced a 19-6 record under Barry Alvarez. The 2004 Badgers were ranked sixth nationally in scoring defense and ninth in total defense. The 2005 club, which earned Wisconsin's first shutout since 1999, finished its 10-win season with a 24-10 victory over No. 7 Auburn in the 2006 Capital One Bowl, limiting the high-powered Tigers to just 236 yards of total offense.

Bielema was co-defensive coordinator at Kansas State under Bill Snyder in 2002 and 2003. The Wildcats were 22-6 during Bielema's time in Manhattan and finished in the top 10 nationally both seasons in scoring and total defense. The Wildcats won its first Big 12 title in 2003. Among Bielema's standout players at Kansas State were first-team All-American Josh Buhl, 2003 NFL second-round draft pick Terry Pierce and All-Big 12 second team selection Bryan Hickman.

Prior to his years at Kansas State, Bielema spent nine seasons as an assistant coach at his alma mater, Iowa, where he worked for head coaches Hayden Fry and Kirk Ferentz. The 1997 Hawkeyes posted three shutouts and ranked No. 4 nationally in scoring defense.

Bielema lettered from 1989-92 at Iowa after joining the program as a walk-on. He earned a scholarship after his first year and was a member of Iowa's 1990 Big Ten championship team. A starter as a junior in 1991, he was a team co-captain as a senior. Bielema signed a free agent contract with the Seattle Seahawks and later completed his playing career with the Milwaukee Mustangs of the Arena Football League.

A 1992 graduate of Iowa with a degree in marketing, Bielema married his wife, Jen, on March 10, 2012.

GAME 1

SEPT. 5, 2015 | FAYETTEVILLE, ARK.
DONALD W. REYNOLDS RAZORBACK STADIUM
ATTENDANCE: 67, 708 | TV: ESPNU

UTEP 13	No. 18 ARKANSAS 48

FAYETTEVILLE, ARK. - With new offensive coordinator Dan Enos calling the plays for the first time since leaving his job as head coach at Central Michigan, Quarterback Brandon Allen was at his best – and most efficient – in leading No. 18 Arkansas to a 48-13 win over UTEP in the season opener on Saturday.

Allen threw for a career-high 308 yards and matched his best with four touchdown passes, doing so while completing 14 of 18 passes.

Keon Hatcher caught two of Allen's touchdown passes, finishing with six catches for 106 yards, but it was Allen who shined the brightest while extending his streak of pass attempts without an interception to 108.

That's the second-best streak of his career, following a stretch of 116 passes without an interception last season.

Aaron Jones led the Miners with 15 carries for 70 yards rushing, but UTEP was unable to overcome a series of second-half miscues in the blowout loss.

The Miners were outgained 490-204 in total yardage, with quarterback Mack Leftwich finishing 9-of-14 passing for 120 yards. The sophomore, however, opened the second half by throwing an interception, and UTEP's next two drives ended with poor snaps on punt attempts, leading to quality field position for Arkansas.

Following the interception and first of the bad snaps, Arkansas needed only two plays to score a pair of touchdowns to open the second half.

Alex Collins, who finished with 127 yards rushing on 12 carries, had the first from 7 yards out, while Kody Walker ran in from 3 yards out to put the Razorbacks up 42-10.

Allen threw for touchdowns on each of Arkansas' first four drives of the game, including a perfectly placed 38-yard touchdown pass to Hatcher late in the second quarter. He also connected with Drew Morgan and Jared Cornelius for scores during the half, in which he finished 10-of-13 passing for 256 yards.

GAME 2

SEPT. 12, 2015 | LITTLE ROCK, ARK.
WAR MEMORIAL STADIUM
ATTENDANCE: 49,591 | TV: SECN ALT.

TOLEDO 16 | No. 18 ARKANSAS 12

LITTLE ROCK, ARK. - Arkansas fell to Toledo 16-12 at War Memorial Stadium in Little Rock, Arkansas.

Senior quarterback Brandon Allen had another impressive day. He finished the game 32-of-53 with 412 yards through the air. The 412 passing yards was the third highest single-game total in Razorback history.

However, Allen and the offense struggled to put points on the board. His one interception came in the third quarter when Toledo picked him off in the back of the endzone after his intended receiver fell down.

Running back Alex Collins netted 54 of Arkansas' 103 yards on the ground, totaling 20 carries and one touchdown.

Junior tight end Hunter Henry caught eight passes for 117 yards, the third 100-yard receiving game of his career.

Defensively, Henre' Toliver led the team with eight total tackles and had one tackle for loss.

Toledo scored first on a 5-yard pass Phillip Ely, a transfer from Alabama, to Corey Jones that gave the Rockets a 6-0 lead after a failed two point conversion attempt.

Arkansas responded in the second quarter with a 21-yard run by Alex Collins to cap an eight-play, 89-yard drive that gave the Razorbacks their only lead of the afternoon.

Toledo kicked a field goal with 1:06 left in the half to take a 9-7 lead into halftime.

After Arkansas stalled on their first drive of the second half, the Razorback defense forced a three-and-out. Jared Cornelius had a long punt return for a touchdown but a penalty called the return back and an interception left the Razorbacks with an empty drive.

The Rockets extended their lead to 16-7 later in the third quarter after a Jones-Moore 11 yard run.

Arkansas kicked a field goal and Toledo took an intentional safety, giving the Razorbacks one more chance with 52 seconds left in the game. Brandon Allen led the offense down to the Rockets' 16-yardline where Toledo's defense stood strong, keeping Arkansas out of the endzone as time expired.

ARKANSAS 14	No. 8 ALABAMA 27

TUSCALOOSA, Ala. – No. 8 Alabama defeated Arkansas 27-14 on Saturday night at Bryant-Denny Stadium.

For the fifth time this season, Arkansas limited its opponent to their lowest scoring output of the year.

But Arkansas struggled to find its rhythm on offense, manufacturing just 220 yards of total offense to Alabama's 396.

Defensively, junior linebacker Brooks Ellis led the way for the Razorbacks, posting a career-high 15 tackles (13 solo), including 2.5 for loss.

Alabama out-gained Arkansas 204-77 in the first half, but the Razorbacks led 7-3 due to quality defense and a timely turnover.

In Alabama's first two drives, the Crimson Tide marched inside the Arkansas 10 both times. But the Razorback defense held strong, allowing only a field goal on the opening drive.

On Alabama's third possession, Arkansas defensive back Josh Liddell intercepted Jake Coker at the Arkansas 31. However, the Razorbacks were unable to capitalize on the turnover.

With 2:26 remaining in the half, redshirt freshman Santos Ramirez picked off Coker, and the Razorbacks took over at the Alabama 12-yard line. This time, Arkansas made the Crimson Tide pay.

Senior quarterback Brandon Allen found junior wide receiver Drew Morgan wide open in the middle of the end zone for an easy 4-yard touchdown pass.

The defensive battle continued for the first 13 and a half minutes of the third quarter, but momentum quickly shifted Alabama's way when Coker threw an 81-yard touchdown pass to freshman wide receiver Calvin Ridley to give the Crimson Tide a 10-7 lead with 1:39 remaining in the quarter.

Alabama followed up with scoring drives on three of its next four possessions to extend its lead 27-7.

With 2:44 left in the contest, Arkansas put together a five-play, 74-yard drive that resulted in a 54-yard touchdown pass to junior wide receiver Dominique Reed.

But that would be all for the Razorbacks as the Crimson Tide went on to win 27-14.

AUBURN 46 | ARKANSAS 54 (4OT)

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. – Behind an electric crowd of 72,008 and a clutch performance by senior quarterback Brandon Allen, Arkansas downed Auburn 54-46 in four overtimes at Donald W. Reynolds Razorback Stadium Saturday afternoon.

On two occasions, Arkansas' fate came down to one play. Allen answered the call on both. The second was the game winner – a 25-yard strike to junior wide receiver Drew Morgan followed by a successful two-point conversion in the fourth overtime.

Allen finished the day 19-of-31 with 233 yards, three touchdowns and one interception while running back Alex Collins grounded out 105 yards and one touchdown on 25 carries.

Arkansas wasted little time finding the end zone on the game's opening drive. Two rushes by Collins and three first-down grabs by Hunter Henry for 52 yards helped set up an end around to Dominique Reed for an 11-yard score.

Arkansas went up 14-0 when Allen guided the Razorbacks on a 10 play, 60-yard drive that ended in a 23-yard scoring toss to junior tight end Jeremy Sprinkle.

A 7-yard rushing touchdown by Collins at the 2:14 mark in the third quarter broke a 14-14 tie and also moved Collins into sole possession of 10th place on the school's career rushing touchdowns list.

With a tied game down the stretch Arkansas took a 24-21 lead with a 25-yard Cole Hedlund field goal with 1:07 remaining in the game. However, Auburn moved the ball into Arkansas territory and kicker Daniel Carson booted through a 41-yard field goal to tie things up again and ultimately send it to overtime.

In the first overtime, Auburn got the ball first, went 25 yards on three plays and capped its drive with a 2-yard touchdown run by Peyton Barber. For Arkansas, on fourth and three and the game on the line, Allen zipped a 6-yard touchdown pass to Morgan while Hedlund followed with the PAT to even the score.

Both teams exchanged touchdowns in the second and third overtimes and were also successful on the two-point conversion in the third.

On the first play of the fourth overtime, Allen connected with Morgan for a 25-yard go-ahead touchdown pass that would be the game winner.
