HEAD COACH SAM PITTMAN

Sam Pittman enters his sixth season as the Head Coach of the Arkansas Razorbacks and is coming off his third straight bowl victory, making him the only Arkansas coach in program history to win each of his first three bowl games. Pittman's sixth season atop the program matches the tenure of Ken Hatfield as only five coaches have served longer as the Head Hog over the program's 130 seasons.

After inheriting a program that had won eight total games and just one Southeastern Conference game in the previous three seasons, Pittman's Razorbacks have won 30 games in his five seasons at the helm. Pittman has navigated the Hogs through the pandemic-shortened 2020 season that featured 10 SEC games, while leading the Razorbacks from a 4-20 record in the two seasons prior to his arrival to being ranked in the Top 20 after just 12 games as the head coach to eventually the Top 10 in consecutive seasons.

Pittman's fifth Arkansas team qualified for a bowl game for the fourth time under his leadership in 2024 and made him the first Arkansas coach in program history to win each of his first three bowl games with a 39-26 triumph over Texas Tech in the AutoZone Liberty Bowl to put the finishing touches on a 7-6 campaign.

The offense was the headliner for the Razorbacks in 2024 with a revamped system led by first-year offensive coordinator and former Hogs head coach Bobby Petrino. First-year quarterback Taylen Green was impressive after transferring from Boise State, leading the offense to 5,973 total yards – fourth-most in a single season in program history. Arkansas' 459.5 yards per game ranked 10th in the FBS and second in the SEC. The offense's assault on the record book included rushing touchdowns (T-2nd, 34), total offense per game (4th, 459.5), passing first downs (4th, 150), passing yards (5th, 3,571) and passing yards per game (5th, 274.7). Green was exceptional, finishing the season with 3,756 total yards and just 40 yards shy of breaking Ryan Mallett's school record. Green became the fifth Arkansas quarterback to eclipse 3,000 yards passing and the first since 2016. Wide receiver Andrew Armstrong also etched his name in the Arkansas record book with one of the best seasons ever by a Razorback pass catcher. Armstrong led the SEC in receptions (78), receiving yards (1,140) and receiving yards per game (103.6) as the only player in the league to average over 100 receiving yards per game. His 78 receptions, 1,140 receiving yards and five 100-yard games all rank second all-time at Arkansas in a single season.

Armstrong led a quartet of Hogs to earn All-SEC honors from the league's coaches with Fernando Carmona, Landon Jackson and Xavian Sorey Jr. all earning recognition. Running back Ja'Quinden Jackson picked up All-SEC honors from the Associated Press after rushing for 15 touchdowns.

A pair of Hogs were called in the third round of the NFL Draft when Isaac TeSlaa (70th overall) and Landon Jackson (72nd overall) were selected by Detroit and Buffalo, respectively. The selection of TeSlaa and Jackson ran the Hogs' streak to 30 consecutive Drafts with a Razorback being drafted, the 11th-longest streak in the nation. TeSlaa became the highest selected Arkansas wide receiver since Treylon Burks went in the first round in 2022. Jackson's selection in the third round made him the highest drafted Arkansas defensive lineman since Jamaal Anderson was the eighth overall selection in 2007.

The Arkansas defense made huge improvements in 2023, improving in nearly every defensive category. The impact of first-year defensive coordinator Travis Williams along with first-year co-defensive coordinator Marcus Woodson was evident as the defense posted its best total yards against in a decade, allowing 357.2 yards for an improvement of over 100 yards per game from the previous season. The team's pass defense clamped down on opponents allowing just 202.8 yards per game to finish fourth in the league and post the best season total at Arkansas since 2011. The defense was also good at finding the end zone, leading the nation in defensive touchdowns by taking five of the team's 17 turnovers to the house. Defensive end Landon Jackson earned First-Team All-SEC honors from the league's coaches after leading the Hogs in tackles for loss (13.5) and sacks (6.5). Defensive back Hudson Clark was named a First-Team Academic All-American with his stellar academic standing that saw him named a semifinalist for the Campbell Trophy to go with 51 tackles, 4.5 tackles for loss and an interception.

Quarterback KJ Jefferson rewrote the career record book for a quarterback at Arkansas, setting new career marks for passing yards (7,911), passing touchdowns (67), completions (626), total yards (9,787), touchdown responsibility (88) and total plays (1,485). He became just the second player in school history to be named a team captain for a third season and first since Herbert Fishback captained three of the program's first four teams from 1895-97. Transfer offensive lineman Josh Braun picked up Second-Team All-SEC accolades from the Associated Press. The Hogs also earned praise from the league's coaches for special teams with kicker Cam Little picking up a first-team recognition and punter Max Fletcher a second-team nod.

Two Razorbacks heard their name came called in the NFL Draft when the Jacksonville Jaguars made Cam Little the youngest kicker ever selected in the Draft when they tabbed him in the sixth round. Five picks later, Beaux Limmer was picked by the Los Angeles Rams to make it 13 of the last 14 NFL Drafts to have at least one Hog called.

The 2022 season ended in Memphis, Tenn. with a thrilling triple overtime 55-53 victory over Kansas in the AutoZone Liberty Bowl to clinch Pittman's second bowl game and give the Razorbacks seven wins. The Liberty Bowl victory was emblematic of the entire season that saw numerous key players miss time with injuries, six starters missed the bowl game for various reasons.

Arkansas opened the season ranked 19th nationally, claiming a spot in the Associated Press Top 25 preseason poll for the first time since 2015. A victory over No. 23 Cincinnati in the season opener vaulted the Hogs back into the Top 10, marking back-to-back seasons in the Top 10 for the first time since reaching it three straight seasons 2010-12.

Linebacker Bumper Pool became the school's all-time leading tackler late in the season. His 92 tackles in his final season pushed him past long time record holder Tony Bua with 441 tackles. Pool earned All-SEC honors for the third consecutive season, earning a second-team nod from the league's coaches. Overall, 13 Hogs earned various postseason accolades led by unanimous All-American Drew Sanders. Sanders was phenomenal in his lone season on The Hill leading the team 103 tackles, 13.5 tackles for loss and 9.5 sacks to earn All-America honors from the AP (first team), American Football Coaches Association (second), Football Writers Association of America (second), The Sporting News (second) and Walter Camp Football Foundation (second). He also became the first Razorback in history to be named a finalist for the Butkus Award. Ricky Stromberg became the fourth Hog to win the Jacobs Blocking Trophy, given annually to the SEC's top offensive lineman. Stromberg was an honorable mention All-American according to Pro Football Focus and also a unanimous First-Team All-SEC pick. Beaux Limmer was tabbed a Third-Team All-American by PFF and freshman linebacker Chris Paul Jr. was named a Freshman All-American by College Football News and The Athletic.

Sanders was joined by Stromberg as third round draft picks in the NFL Draft in April. Sanders was selected by Denver with Stromberg going to Washington to extend Arkansas' streak of at least one player being selected to 28 straight drafts.

Pittman's staff once again delivered on the recruiting trail, landing a Top 20 class according to Rivals for the first time since 2019 and the best since 2009. The transfer portal also proved to be productive for the staff with 247Sports ranking the transfer class as the No. 11 class in the nation.

Pittman pushed the program back onto the national scene in 2021. The Razorbacks won nine games, including an Outback Bowl victory over Penn State, for the program's most wins in a decade. Arkansas finished the season ranked No. 21 in the Associated Press Poll and No. 20 in the USA Today Coaches' Poll, ending the season ranked for the first time since 2011.

The Hogs started the 2021 season 4-0 and rose to No. 8 in the Associated Press poll early in the season – the team's highest ranking since 2011 – and later set a program first by being ranked in consecutive College Football Playoff rankings after the Razorbacks beat No. 17 Mississippi State. For the first time in history, the Hogs also captured all three of the program's trophy games, beating No. 7 Texas A&M in the Southwest Classic, winning at LSU to recapture the Golden Boot and topping Missouri in the season finale to earn the Battle Line Rivalry trophy. Pittman and the Razorbacks entered the postseason with eight wins – the most regular season victories at Arkansas since 2011 – before adding a fourth trophy to the case with a 24-10 win over the Nittany Lions in Tampa, Fla. at the Outback Bowl.

Grant Morgan became the first Razorback in history to win the Burlsworth Trophy – given annually to the nation's best player who started his career as a walk-on – and just the 16th Hog ever to earn Walter Camp Football Foundation All-America honors. Earlier that spring, Treylon Burks became the first Arkansas player to be selected in the first round of the NFL Draft since 2018 when Pittman protégé Frank Ragnow was taken 20th overall. Burks went 16th overall to Tennessee after being named a First-Team All-SEC wide receiver. Montaric Brown earned All-SEC first team honors this past season before being selected by the Jacksonville Jaguars. Burks and Brown were joined by John Ridgeway (Dallas Cowboys) to give Arkansas their most players selected in the NFL Draft since 2019.

Under the first-year head coach in 2020, Arkansas compiled a 3-7 record against an ultra-challenging SEC-only schedule in a season marred by the COVID-19 pandemic. In week two, the Razorbacks defeated No. 16 Mississippi State on the road, 21-14, snapping a 20-game SEC losing streak and claiming their first win against a ranked team since November 2016. Pittman oversaw immediate change on both sides of the ball with the offense averaging 51 more total yards per game and the defense forcing seven more interceptions than the 2019 team. Linebacker Grant Morgan earned Walter Camp second-team All-America honors, becoming the 16th Razorback in program history to earn the nod from the nation's oldest All-America team. Pittman guided the Razorbacks to their 43rd all-time bowl berth, becoming the fifth coach in school history to lead the team to a bowl in his first season and first since Houston Nutt in 1998 (Florida Citrus Bowl). The 2020 Texas Bowl, however, was canceled due to COVID-19 issues within TCU's program.

Before his return to Fayetteville, Pittman spent four seasons on staff at Georgia, including the 2019 season when he served as associate head coach and offensive line coach for the Bulldogs. He arrived in Athens in 2016 as the offensive line coach as part of Kirby Smart's first staff. In his four seasons with the Bulldogs, Pittman helped Georgia to unprecedented success including three-straight Southeastern Conference Eastern Division titles. Pittman's linemen paved the way for the Bulldogs' rushing attack in 2019 led by D'Andre Swift, who finished fourth in the league with 1,216 yards just ahead of Arkansas' Rakeem Boyd (1,133). Andrew Thomas, Isaiah Wilson and Solomon Kindley led the way up front on Pittman's o-line and later heard their names called in the NFL Draft with Thomas and Wilson going in the first round.

The 2017 Bulldogs were a special team, winning 13 games, the SEC championship and making the school's first-ever College Football Playoff appearance – a win over Oklahoma in the Rose Bowl. Georgia's offense that year was the best in the SEC and ninth nationally in rushing, led by Nick Chubb and Sony Michel. During his four seasons in Athens, he was part of a staff that produced four Top 10 recruiting classes, including the nation's No. 1 class in 2018.

An original member of Bret Bielema's staff at Arkansas in 2013, Pittman helped build the Razorbacks' offensive line into one of the league's best. He quickly made an impact, helping Travis Swanson earn first-team All-America honors and Rimington Trophy finalist honors in 2013. His first two offensive lines at Arkansas led the SEC in sacks allowed per game and his offensive line in 2014 paved the way for two

1,000-yard rushers in Jonathan Williams and Alex Collins. The unit averaged 328.4 pounds per player, making it the largest offensive line in the FBS and NFL that season.

In Pittman's final year in Fayetteville his offensive line contributed to an offense that finished second in the SEC in total offense (456.8 ypg), second in scoring (40.2 ppg) and third in passing offense (264.2 ypg). During his tenure with the Razorbacks, Pittman mentored some of the best offensive linemen at Arkansas in recent memory, including Swanson, Sebastian Tretola, Dan Skipper and Frank Ragnow.

The Oklahoma native has coached at seven different Power 5 schools during his 33 years of collegiate coaching, including Oklahoma, Missouri, Kansas, North Carolina and Tennessee. With a wealth of experience, Pittman is widely regarded as one of the nation's best offensive line coaches. He has coached 36 players that have been selected in the NFL Draft during his career, including first round picks Treylon Burks (18th in 2022), Andrew Thomas (4th in 2020), Isaiah Wilson (29th in 2020), Ragnow (20th in 2018), Isaiah Wynn (23rd overall in 2018), Ja'Wuan James (19th overall in 2014) and Jonathan Cooper (7th overall in 2013).

Overall, Pittman has coached seven offensive linemen that were selected in the first round of the NFL Draft, including Stockar McDougle (20th overall in 2000). Swanson also became the highest drafted Razorback center in school history at the time when he was picked 76th overall in 2014.
Pittman's coaching career began in 1987 as the head coach at Princeton (Mo.) HS. He coached at Hutchinson (Kan.) CC for three seasons, including the final two as the head coach, before getting his first FBS opportunity as Northern Illinois' offensive line coach in 1994. He later returned to NIU to help the Huskies to a pair of division championships and two bowl games and was the first assistant head coach in program history. While in DeKalb, Pittman's offensive line paved the way for Garrett Wolfe and Michael Turner, two standout running backs. Wolfe led the nation rushing for 1,928 yards in 2006, while Turner finished second in the nation as a senior at Northern Illinois in 2003 with 1,648 yards.

Pittman got his first experience in the SEC in 2012 when he joined the staff at Tennessee.

Pittman played defensive end at Pittsburg State, where he was a first-team NAIA All-American and twice earned all-conference recognition. He graduated with a bachelor's degree in education in 1986 and was inducted into the PSU Athletics Hall of Fame in 1998. As a senior at Grove High School, Pittman won the state Class 3A shot put title.

He and his wife, Jamie, reside in Fayetteville.

SCOTT FOUNTAIN

Assistant Head Coach/ Special Teams Coordinator

Scott Fountain is in his sixth season as the Razorbacks' assistant head coach and special teams coordinator having worked under Head Coach Sam Pittman since his arrival in 2020.

Fountain's special teams units featured several new faces in 2024 with the Razorbacks replacing the team's kicker, punter and long snapper. The Hogs held steady with kickers Matthew Shipley and Kyle Ramsey combining to make 17-of-24 (70.8%) field goals on the season, including 3-for-3 from 50+ yards, to match the tenth-most field goals made in a single season in school history. Shipley was good on 10 of his 12 field goal attempts (83.3%) to equal the fifth-best season by an Arkansas kicker with his 55-yard boot vs. Ole Miss cracking the program's all-time top 10 longest field goals. Shipley put his name in the record books the week prior with 16 points – third-most in a single game in program history – in the win at Mississippi State. Devin Bale took over the team's punting duties and proved to be one of the better punters in the Southeastern Conference, averaging 45.2 yards per punt. Bale would have ranked fifth in the league and in the top 15 nationally if he had punted enough to qualify. That average would have also been good enough for sixth on the Arkansas all-time list. He averaged over 50 yards per punt for three consecutive games during the season, including 57.3 yards per punt in the win over No. 4 Tennessee to rank fifth for a single game in Arkansas history. Ashton Ngo won the snapping job during camp and was flawless in his first season handling all long snapping duties, adding a pair of tackles during the season.

The Hogs' special teams placed three specialists on All-SEC teams in 2023 led by Cam Little, who was named first-team as a kickoff specialist thanks to leading the league with an 85.5% touchback rate. Punter Max Fletcher earned second-team honors and return specialist Isaiah Sategna was voted to the Freshman All-SEC squad. Fletcher was impressive in his second year, averaging 46.9 yards per punt with 23 boots of 50+ yards and 19 downed inside the 20-yard line. Fletcher's 46.9 per punt average is the second-best in a single season in Arkansas history with his 2,770 total yards checking in at eighth-most for a single season. He also recorded two of the best games by a punter in Razorback history, averaging 54.7 yards per punt vs. Texas A&M for the seventh-best average in a game by a Hog and 53.9 yards per punt at Alabama to place 10th on the single-game records. Sategna made it three straight seasons for an Arkansas punt returner to take a punt back for a score when he raced 88 yards to the end zone vs. BYU. His 88-yard is the fourth-longest punt return for a touchdown in school history. He also put his name in the record book that night with 169 total return yards – third-most in a single game by a Razorback. His 680 total return yards rank sixth in a single season in school history.

Fountain's work with Little transformed him into a sixth-round NFL Draft pick (Jacksonville) and the youngest kicker to ever be selected following a legendary career as a Hog. The Moore, Okla. native joined the program's lengthy list of elite kickers, leaving Arkansas with his name all over the record book. He is the most accurate field goal kicker in school history having made 82.8% of his kicks in his career, including two of the best five single seasons ever by a Razorback. Little sits inside the top 10 of every career kicking category in school history, including field goal attempts (64 – 6th), field goals made (53 – T3rd), field goal percentage (.828 – 1st), PAT attempts (129 – 5th), PATs made (129 – 3rd) and points in kick scoring (288 – 2nd). He also added his name to the list of longest field goals in program history with a 56-yard kick (7th longest) at Ole Miss followed by a 54-yarder (8th longest) at Alabama the following week. Little left Arkansas ranked second all-time with seven field goals of 50+ yards after connecting on four in 2023, including the 56-yarder against the Rebels that was the longest by a Razorback since 1988.

Arkansas' special teams were steady once again under the watchful eye of Fountain in 2022. Three specialists picked up postseason honors with kickoff specialist Jake Bates earning First-Team All-SEC accolades from the league's coaches, kicker Cam Little being named to the SEC Community Service Team and freshman long snapper Eli Stein earning Freshman All-SEC status. Bates was a weapon for the Razorbacks in his lone season, recording 64 touchbacks on his 75 kickoffs for a nation-best 85.3%. Little produced a solid sophomore season, leading the team with 89 points thanks to 13-of-16 on field goals and a perfect 50-for-50 on PATs. Little continued to add his name to the Arkansas record book by moving into the all-time top 10 in field goals made (33 – 9th), PAT attempts (96 – 8th), PATs made (96 – 8th) and kick scoring (195 – T-10th). In just two seasons, Little has two of the top 10 kick scoring seasons in program history with his 106 points in 2021 ranking third and his 89 points from 2022 placing him 10th.

In the return game, Bryce Stephens made it two years in a row for the Hogs with a punt return for a touchdown when he took a punt 82 yards to the house to ignite a comeback win over Missouri State in the third game of the season. Stephens' 105 return yards against the Bears put him eighth all-time in a single game in school history. Punter Reid Bauer moved into the career top 10 in punts with 179 in his career to rank sixth on the all-time school list with his 7,519 yards ranking him sixth all time at Arkansas. Bauer's 78-yard boot at Auburn matched the 10th-longst punt in school history.

Fountain's work on Arkansas' special teams started to take shape during the 2021 season. Freshman kicker Cam Little was an immediate difference maker for the Razorbacks, earning Freshman All-America and SEC All-Freshman honors. Little made 20 of his 24 field goals (.833) and all 46 of his PATs to lead Arkansas in scoring with 106 points. His 20 made field goals matched Todd Wright's total from 1989 for the third-most in a single season by a Razorback. Little also matched the third-most field goals in a game by a Razorback with four in a win over Texas and booted a walk-off winner at LSU in overtime.

Long snapper Jordan Silver was an unsung hero for the Hogs, earning Third-Team All-SEC honors from Phil Steele and being invited to the Reese's Senior Bowl, East-West Shrine Bowl and NFLPA Collegiate Bowl. Punter Reid Bauer saw improvement from 2020, averaging 43.3 yards per punt, including 23 fair catches and 14 punts of 50+ yards. Bauer made a name for himself on the national level as the team's holder, winning the Peter Mortell Holder of the Year Award. He twice pulled off fake field goals, hitting Blake Kern for a touchdown at Alabama and running 23 yards for a first down in the win at LSU. Punt returner Nathan Parodi became the first Razorback to return a punt for a touchdown since 2011 when he took a punt back for a score against UAPB at War Memorial Stadium. Parodi's 114 punt return yards in the win are the seventh-most in program history.

In his first year in Fayetteville, the Razorbacks received steady play from long snapper Jordan Silver, who graded out as one of the top long snappers in the SEC. Arkansas' kickers combined to go 8-for-12 on field goals while the team's punters averaged 42.1 yards per punt. De'Vion Warren averaged 20 yards per kickoff return before suffering a season-ending injury at Florida.

Fountain came to Arkansas after spending 2019 at Georgia in the same role. The Bulldogs saw immediate success with Fountain at the controls, led by kicker and Lou Groza Award winner Rodrigo Blankenship. The first-team All-SEC kicker capped an impressive career at UGA going 27-for-33 (81.8%) on field goals and making all 46 extra points as the Bulldogs won the 2020 Allstate Sugar Bowl. Blankenship was also a weapon on kickoffs allowing just 14 returns all season. Punter Jake Camarda improved in 2019 as well, upping his average to 46.8 yards per punt to rank sixth nationally.

In 2018, Georgia had two of the SEC's top special teams players in return man Mecole Hardman and Blankenship. Hardman led the SEC in punt return average (20.1), was fifth in kick return average (25.2) and was named to the ESPN.com All-America first team.

A Lou Groza semifinalist, Blankenship earned second team All-SEC honors after finishing fifth in the SEC in scoring by kickers (8.7 points per game) and booted his school record 154th consecutive PAT. He also posted 82 kickoff touchbacks (season record) extending his school career record to 170.

As a team, the Bulldogs were first in the SEC in punt return yards (366) and punt return average (16.6; seventh nationally) and tied for first in punt return touchdowns (2).

Fountain also contributed to the Bulldogs' emergence on special teams in 2017. Hardman averaged 25.3 yards per kick return, ranking second in the SEC and 21st nationally. Georgia's special teams unit also held opponents to 5.9 yards per punt return and 19.5 yards per kick return. Those numbers were all reduced from a year prior, as opponents averaged 6.1 yards per punt return, 23.8 yards per kick return and notched two 95-yard kickoff returns versus the Bulldogs in 2016.

Additionally, Blankenship hit on 20 of his 23 field goal attempts, including a 55-yarder in the 2018 Rose Bowl vs. Oklahoma and a 51-yarder in overtime of the national championship game. He made all 63 of his PAT attempts, kicked 67 touchbacks (a Georgia season record at the time and third nationally) and was named a semifinalist for the 2017 Lou Groza Award. Punter Cameron Nizialek averaged 45.0 yards per punt to rank ninth nationally and was named a semi-finalist for the 2017 Ray Guy Award.

Fountain joined Georgia's full time, on-field staff, in 2018, after filling the same position at Mississippi State during the offseason. Fountain was the special teams analyst at Georgia during the 2017 season.

Before joining Georgia's staff, Fountain had spent the previous eight years as a member of the football program at Auburn, the first four as the Tigers' player personnel director and the latter four coaching tight ends and special teams. From 2014-16, Fountain coached kicker Daniel Carlson, a three-time Lou Groza Award finalist.

Fountain, a part of three SEC championship teams, led Auburn's administrative and recruiting efforts from 2009-12. He followed Gene Chizik to Auburn after spending two seasons (2007-08) on Chizik's staff at Iowa State as tight ends coach and recruiting coordinator.

Fountain has coached in four national championship games (1997, 2010, 2013, 2017) since beginning his collegiate coaching career at Florida State (1994-96) as an offensive graduate assistant. He then spent seven seasons as an offensive line coach and recruiting coordinator at Central Florida. Before his eight-year stint at Auburn, Fountain also included coaching stops at Middle Tennessee (2004-05), Georgia Southern (2006) and Iowa State (2007-08).

He began his coaching career in high school, making four stops in Alabama, including Flomaton HS (1988) and W.S. Neal HS (1989), his alma mater. He became a head coach for the first time at Frisco City HS (1990-92) and made his final high school stop at Monroe County (1993).

Fountain earned a bachelor's degree in physical education from Samford in 1988 and a master's degree in educational leadership from Florida State in 1998.

He is married to the former Rosie Hidalgo, and the couple has four sons: Brookes, Hunter, Tanner and Skyler.

BOBBY PETRINO

Offensive Coordinator/
Quarterbacks

Arkansas Head Coach Sam Pittman hired Bobby Petrino to be the Razorbacks' next offensive coordinator in November 2023.

Petrino, Arkansas' head coach from 2008-11, is widely regarded as one of the nation's elite offensive minds over the last 40 years of his coaching career. He has served as offensive coordinator for seven different collegiate programs.

Under Petrino's guidance, Arkansas put up some of the greatest single-season offensive numbers in program history in 2024. The Hogs' 5,973 yards of total offense is the fourth-best single-season mark in program history. Arkansas also ranked in the top five in the program single-season record books in rushing touchdowns (T-2nd, 34), total offense per game (4th, 459.5), passing first downs (4th, 150), passing yards (5th, 3,571) and passing yards per game (5th, 274.7). Petrino coordinated the Razorbacks to top 20 performances nationally in multiple categories including total offense (10th, 459.5), passing offense (18th, 274.7), passing yards per completion (10th, 14.00) and first downs (17th, 314). Arkansas also registered two top 10 all-time single-game total offense performances with 687 yards of total offense against UAPB for the third-most yards in a single game in program history and 673 total yards of offense in a win at Mississippi State, which ranks seventh on the list. In the win over UAPB, the Hogs' offense went a perfect 10-for-10 scoring touchdowns on all 10 possessions in the season opener. Quarterback Taylen Green concluded the 2024 campaign with 3,756 (602 rushing, 3,154 passing, 23 TD) yards of total offense, good for second-most in a single season in program history behind only QB Ryan Mallett's school-record mark of 3,795 (-74 rushing, 3,869 passing, 36 TD) in 2010 while becoming one of only five quarterbacks in program history to throw for 3,000-plus yards in a season.

Arkansas also had a 1,000-yard receiver in wide receiver Andrew Armstrong who registered a team-high 78 receptions for 1,140 yards and a touchdown during the 2024 campaign, becoming the first Razorback pass catcher to earn First-Team All-SEC honors from the Associated Press since Treylon Burks in 2021 and became just the sixth Arkansas wide receiver to do so since entering the league in 1992. Armstrong and Isaac TeSlaa both found their way to NFL rosters with Armstrong signing with Miami and TeSlaa becoming the first drafted Arkansas wide receiver since 2022 when he was selected in the third round by Detroit.

Prior to Arkansas, Petrino was the Offensive Coordinator at Texas A&M in 2024. With the Aggies, Petrino's offense averaged 34.2 points per game (25th in FBS, 5th in SEC) while averaging 403.8 yards per game despite losing starting quarterbacks Conner Weigman and Max Johnson to injury during the season. In his lone season with the Aggies, Petrino's offense helped lead the program back to bowl eligibility marking the 18th time in his career to help a team to the postseason.

In his 14 seasons as a head coach at five different stops, including Louisville (2003-06, 2014-18), the NFL's Atlanta Falcons (2007), Arkansas (2008-11), Western Kentucky (2013) and most recently at FCS level Missouri State (2020-22), Petrino has compiled a record of 119-56.

As the head coach of the Razorbacks, he led the program to a 34-17 mark in four seasons with bowl berths in the 2010 Liberty Bowl, 2011 Sugar Bowl and 2012 Cotton Bowl. The Hogs went 10-3 in 2010 with the program's only BCS Bowl appearance at the Sugar Bowl before finishing ranked 12th in the AP Poll. Arkansas' 2011 team was even better, finishing 11-2 with a Cotton Bowl victory over Kansas State to end the year ranked 5th in the AP poll. The team's 11 victories are the most by an Arkansas team and the team's final ranking in the Top 5 are the best since Lou Holtz's 1977 squad finished 11-1 and ranked 3rd in the final AP Poll.

In his first stint at Louisville, Petrino was 41-9 during those four seasons. His 2004 team led the nation in total offense (539.0 ypg) and scoring offense (49.8 ppg) while posting 50+ points in seven games and setting a NCAA record by scoring 55+ points in five straight games en route to an 11-1 record and an appearance in the Gator bowl.

Petrino's resume also has NFL coaching experience, having served as the Falcons head coach in 2007 and as an offensive coordinator with the Jacksonville Jaguars (2001), while also working with the Jaguars' quarterbacks (1999-2001).

At the collegiate level, Petrino has worked with quarterbacks, wide receivers and tight ends, while also coordinating offenses for Idaho (1990-91), Arizona State (1992-93), Nevada (1994), Utah State (1995-97), Louisville (1998) and Auburn (2002). He helped the Auburn Tigers to a 9-4 record and a 5-3 mark in the SEC, finishing No. 14 in the Associated Press Poll in 2002. Petrino worked with quarterback Jake Plummer at ASU before Plummer went on to a successful NFL career. At Nevada, Petrino had the nation's No. 2 passing and total offensive unit. As the offensive coordinator with the Utah State Aggies in 1996, Petrino set school records for total offense (468.5) and passing yards (317.5). His 1998 Louisville offense led the FBS in scoring and total offense.

The longtime coach has also produced elite, next level talent during his career, coaching 2016 Heisman Trophy winner and current Baltimore Ravens quarterback Lamar Jackson while at Louisville. With the Hogs, he tutored two of the best quarterbacks in school history in the late Ryan Mallett and Tyler Wilson. He also coached a trio of national award winners in Joe Adams (2011 Johnny "The Jet" Rodgers Award), DJ Williams (2010 Mackey Award and Disney Spirit Award) and Jonathan Luigs (2007 Rimington Trophy). Arkansas' top three wide receivers – Cobi Hamilton, Jarius Wright and Joe Adams – on the all-time receptions list all played under Petrino with Wright still holding the receiving yards school record with 2,934 yards.

Petrino is the son of legendary Carroll College coach Bob Petrino Sr. The younger Petrino began his coaching career as a graduate assistant in 1983 for his father in Helena, Montana. After one season with Weber State as a graduate assistant, Petrino returned to coordinate the offense for Carroll College from 1985-86 – his first offensive coordinator job.

The younger Petrino played for his father at Carroll, twice earning NAIA All-America honors and helping lead the squad to three straight conference championships. He was named the league's MVP in 1981 and 1982. He also played four years of basketball at Carroll while earning his degree in physical education with a minor in mathematics in 1983.

Petrino and his wife, Becky, have four children: Kelsey, Nick, Bobby and Katie, along with eight grandchildren.

TRAVIS WILLIAMS

Defensive Coordinator

Williams brings defensive coordinator experience and a wealth of Southeastern Conference knowledge to The Hill, having played at Auburn and later as the Tigers' co-defensive coordinator. On the field, he starred as a two-time All-SEC linebacker – including first-team honors in 2004 – leading the Tigers in tackles during their undefeated season in 2004.

During his second season in Fayetteville, Williams engineered an Arkansas defense that recorded the Razorbacks' first shutout since Oct. 20, 2018, during a season-opening win over UAPB in addition to limiting Tennessee to a season-low 14 points during a 19-14 victory over the fourth-ranked Volunteers on Oct. 5. Other highlights included forcing five turnovers during a 24-14 win at Williams' alma mater Auburn (Sept. 21) and a 58-25 triumph at Mississippi State (Oct. 26). Williams' defensive unit also shutout opposing offenses during the first half of five games. The Razorbacks ranked in the top half of the SEC and 34th nationally in rushing defense (129.2 yards per game). Arkansas also ranked in the top 40 nationally in third-down conversion percentage defense with a mark of .359. Defensive lineman Landon Jackson led the Hogs with 6.5 sacks while tying for the team lead in tackles for loss (9.5) and totaling a career-high 49 tackles to go along with nine quarterback hurries, three pass breakups, a fumble recovery, and a forced fumble on his way to earning Second-Team All-SEC honors before being selected in the third round by Buffalo in the NFL Draft.

Williams' first defense at Arkansas was statistically one of the program's best in a decade. The Hogs allowed only 357.2 yards per game, the lowest average per game since 2014 when the Arkansas defense surrendered only 323.4 yards per game. The difference was nearly a full yard per play improvement in 2023 compared to the 2022 season – 5.67 ypp in 2023 compared to 6.46 ypp in 2022. The 2023 squad improved in nearly every defensive category from 2022 but made huge strides in pass defense. The Razorbacks ranked fourth in the SEC in passing yards allowed per game with 202.8 yards, the program's best effort since 2011 when they allowed 195.2 yards per game. Arkansas' 12 interceptions ranked third in the league and the team's four pick-sixes matched five other teams to lead all of FBS. The Hogs' defense scored five total touchdowns on the season, including Jaylon Braxton's fumble return for a score in the win at Florida. The defense gave up just 18.8 first downs per game, the fewest by an Arkansas defense since 2014.

Williams work with the team's linebackers was noticeable as the team's top two tacklers were linebackers – Jaheim Thomas (90) and Chris Paul Jr. (74). True freshman Brad Spence quickly earned playing time in his first season, starting the team's second game of the season vs. Kent State. Spence returned an interception 85 yards in his first collegiate game vs. Western Carolina before finishing the season with 16 tackles, 1.5 tackles for loss and a fumble recovery in 11 games. Defensive end Landon Jackson was an anchor on the team's front, leading the team with career-highs in sacks (6.5) and tackles for loss (13.5) on his way to earning first-team All-SEC honors the league's coaches. Braxton earned Freshman All-SEC accolades for his first campaign thanks to a team-high eight pass breakups to go with one interception and 20 tackles.

Prior to leading the Hogs' defense, he spent two seasons calling the defense at UCF as the Knights' defensive coordinator and linebackers coach. The Knights showed progress in each of his two seasons, improving this season to a Top 40 scoring defense in the FBS by allowing 23.2 points per game. The defense helped UCF reach the American Athletic Conference championship game, a 9-4 record and a berth in the Military Bowl by allowing 382.6 yards per game and producing the fifth-best red zone defense in the country.

Senior linebacker Jason Johnson led the way with 119 tackles – second-most in the league and 19th nationally – to earn first-team All-American Athletic Conference honors. Williams molded Johnson in his lone season in Orlando from an FCS All-American at Eastern Illinois to one of the nation's leading tacklers at the FBS level. The Knights' defense featured three All-AAC first teamers with Johnson joined by defensive linemen Ricky Barber and Tre'Mon Morris-Brash, who ranked fourth in the league with 13.0 tackles for loss.

Williams' first defense in Orlando finished the season strong in 2021, helping the Knights win six of their final seven games with defense giving up just 11.8 points per game in the six victories. The defense ended the season ranked seventh nationally in pass efficiency defense (110.7) and 26th in tackles for loss (6.8/game).

Linebacker Tatum Bethune averaged 9.0 tackles per game to rank second in the conference and 24th in the FBS. His work on the field made him a first-team All-American Athletic Conference selection by Pro Football Network, second team by Pro Football Focus and honorable mention by the league's coaches. Williams' defense also featured All-AAC performers defensive lineman Big Kat Bryant (first team) and safety Divaad Wilson (second team). PFF also tabbed safety Quadric Bullard (second team), cornerbacks Davonte Brown and Corey Thornton and Wilson (all third team).

Williams' initial UCF defense moved up 97 spots in the NCAA team pass efficiency defense rankings compared to 2020, 86 spots in passing yards allowed (89.1 fewer per game in 2021) and 70 in total defense (122.5 fewer yards allowed per game in 2021).

At Auburn, Williams served as co-defensive coordinator alongside Kevin Steele while also working as the Tigers' linebackers coach and recruiting coordinator. He helped his alma mater finish in the Top 20 in the nation in scoring defense in four of his last five seasons (2016-20) on The Plains. As the linebackers coach, Auburn allowed just 54 rushing touchdowns combined to rank fifth nationally during those five seasons – including just eight in 2016 and nine in 2018.

Williams also mentored All-Southeastern Conference linebackers in three consecutive seasons – K.J. Britt in 2019, Deshaun Davis in 2018 and Tre Williams in 2017. Linebacker Zakoby McClain led the SEC in tackles with 113 during the pandemic-shortened season of 2020.

Auburn's 2019 defense ranked eighth nationally in both red zone and third down defense, allowing just 19.5 points per game against a schedule that featured six opponents that went on to win 11 games that season.

The Tigers ranked 14th nationally in scoring defense (19.2/game) in 2018 allowing only nine rushing touchdowns while returning three interceptions for scores. The squad's 38 sacks ranked 16th nationally and the 96 tackles for loss were the ninth-most in the nation.

Auburn won the SEC West in 2017 led by a defense that ranked 14th nationally in total defense (319.4/game) and 11th in scoring defense (18.5/game). The Tigers yielded just 4.67 yards per play, eighth-best nationally.

In 2016 the Tigers' red zone defense ranked 11th in the FBS and the team's total defense (361.9/game) ranking 28th to move up 43 spots over the previous season. The defense held eight consecutive opponents without a rushing TD, the longest season streak at Auburn since 1957.

On the field at Auburn, he led the Tigers in tackles (80) as a junior during the team's 2004 undefeated season. As a senior, his 68 tackles were second on the team. He won the Pat Dye Leadership Award on defense in each of his last two seasons (2004, 2005). He played two seasons in the NFL for the Atlanta Falcons (2006-07) before beginning his coaching career.

Williams began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Auburn before landing his first full-time coaching job as the linebackers coach at Northern Iowa in 2012. He spent one year as the defensive coordinator at Creekside (Ga.) High School before returning to Auburn in 2014 as a defensive analyst.

He was promoted to an on-field role for the Tigers prior to the 2016 season as the team's linebackers coach. He earned the co-defensive coordinator title in 2019 and then added recruiting coordinator duties in 2020.

Williams earned his bachelor's degree in criminology and criminal justice from Auburn in 2005 and later received a master's degree in adult education from Auburn in 2011.

A native of Columbia, S.C., Williams and his wife Jeanine, also an Auburn graduate, have three daughters: Tru, Reign and Brave.

MARCUS WOODSON

Co-Defensive Coordinator

Marcus Woodson enters his third year as the Razorbacks' co-defensive coordinator.

Under Woodson's guidance, the Razorbacks' defense opened up the 2024 campaign by registering the first shutout for Arkansas since 2018 courtesy of a 70-0 thumping of UAPB. During the victory, Arkansas limited UAPB to just 123 passing yards on 23 attempts. Woodson's unit also had big performances in road wins at Auburn (Sept. 21) and Mississippi State (Oct. 26). During a 24-14 win over the Tigers, the Hogs' secondary intercepted a season-high four passes while tying a season-high with six pass breakups. Arkansas picked off a pair of passes and registered four pass breakups in a 58-25 victory over the Bulldogs in Starkville. The Razorbacks' 32-point margin of victory was the largest in an SEC game since 2012.

The Arkansas defense underwent a massive improvement in Woodson's first season helped by the development of the Hogs' secondary. Woodson teamed up with secondary coach Deron Wilson to help post the best Arkansas pass defense since 2011 allowing 202.8 yards per game – ranking 31st in FBS for an improvement of 99 spots nationally compared to the 2022 season. The defense as a whole recorded the fewest yards allowed per game in a decade, giving up 357.2 yards per game. Woodson's secondary also contributed to the Hogs' national-leading five defensive touchdowns with Jaylon Braxton and Alfahiym Walcott both finding the end zone.

Braxton's development during his freshman season was impressive, earning six starts in his nine games played and leading the team with eight pass breakups before being named Freshman All-SEC by the league's coaches. Dwight McGlothern and Walcott each picked off three passes to lead the team with safety Jayden Johnson finishing third on the team with 62 tackles. Woodson's work with Hudson Clark showed his versatility and creativity with Clark moving all over the secondary playing every position in the back end. Clark contributed 51 tackles and a career-best 4.5 tackles for loss on his way to being named a First-Team Academic All-American.

Woodson joined the Arkansas staff after spending three seasons at Florida State as the Seminoles' defensive backs coach and defensive passing game coordinator. His secondary helped lead the Noles to a 10-win campaign in 2022 capped by a Cheez-It Bowl victory. Florida State's secondary was one of the nation's best, helping the FSU defense rank fourth in the FBS allowing 165.4 yards per game to lead the Atlantic Coast Conference.

Woodson helped mold safety Jammie Robinson into a two-time, first-team All-ACC performer. In 2022, Robinson led Florida State in tackles with 99, including five tackles for loss. He led the Noles in tackles in 2021 with 84 to go along with an ACC-best four interceptions.

Robinson joined Woodson's group of defensive backs to be selected in the NFL Draft as a fifth round selection by Carolina in 2023. Woodson had seven DBs picked over four NFL Drafts, including 2020 first-round selection Noah Igbinoghene. Igbinoghene was the 30th overall pick by the Miami Dolphins after Woodson coached him through a transition from wide receiver to defensive back upon his arrival at Auburn in 2018.

Florida State had eight different defenders grab at least one interception and forced 20 total takeaways in 2021. FSU picked off at least one pass in eight straight games to end the season, the longest active streak in America entering the 2022 season and tied for the longest streak in the country at any point during the 2021 season.

During the 2020 season, Florida State's defensive backfield was responsible for 10 takeaways and added four forced fumbles. Woodson helped continue the development of first-team All-ACC selection Asante Samuel Jr. into one of the nation's premiere defensive backs. Samuel finished the season leading all active ACC defenders with 29 career pass breakups before being selected in the second-round of the NFL Draft pick by the Los Angeles Chargers. In records dating back to 2000, he was only the second FBS defender to grab three interceptions and have two fumble recoveries in his team's first four games of a season. Samuel also became the first FSU defender since 2016 with at least one takeaway in four straight games and only the third Seminole since 2000 with three interceptions and two fumble recoveries in a season.

Prior to Florida State, Woodson helped Auburn win 17 games in two seasons (2018-19) while working alongside Arkansas' new defensive coordinator Travis Williams. In 2019 with Woods as the defensive backs coach and Williams serving as co-defensive coordinator, the Tigers won nine games and advanced to the Outback Bowl behind a defense that ranked eighth nationally in third-down defense and red zone defense, allowing conversions on just 29.9% of third-down attempts and 71.8% of red zone trips. Safety Jeremiah Dinson earned second-team All-SEC honors after posting averaging 7.3 tackles per game to go along with a pair of interceptions

The Tigers returned three interceptions for touchdowns in 2018, the ninth-highest total in the nation, and ranked 14th in the country in scoring defense by allowing 19.2 points per game. Auburn's nine rushing touchdowns allowed were the second-lowest total in the SEC and tied for the fifth-lowest total in the FBS. The defense's 38 sacks were good for 16th nationally with the team's 96 tackles for loss coming in at No. 20. The Tigers' defense capped the season with a 63-14 victory over Purdue, the fewest points allowed in a Music City Bowl since 2009.

Woodson headed to The Plains after two seasons at Memphis coaching the Tigers' defensive backs. Memphis won 18 games over the two seasons, forcing a combined 60 takeaways, the second-highest total in the nation during that span. The Tigers picked off 32 passes in Woodson's two seasons and were one of only six teams in the country to record at least 16 interceptions in both 2016 and 2017.

In 2017, Woodson coached T.J. Carter to Freshman All-America honors from ESPN and USA Today. Carter also was the American Athletic Conference Rookie of the Year after breaking Memphis' freshman record with five interceptions. In only his second collegiate game, Carter ended a fourth-quarter UCLA drive in the red zone with an interception of Josh Rosen to help secure Memphis' 48-45 victory.

Prior to joining the Memphis staff, Woodson coached defensive backs at Fresno State for two seasons (2014-15). He helped lead the Bulldogs to the 2014 Mountain West Conference Championship Game and a berth in the Hawai'i Bowl. Safety Derron Smith earned first-team All-Mountain West Conference accolades before being drafted by the Cincinnati Bengals in the sixth round of the 2015 NFL Draft. The 2015 Bulldogs' 11 fumble recoveries to rank second in the conference and 20th nationally.

From 2009-13, Woodson coached defensive backs and was the recruiting coordinator at Charleston Southern, tutoring five all-conference defensive backs. He also added defensive passing game coordinator duties for the 2012 and 2013 seasons. Charleston Southern finished the 2013 season with a school-record 10 wins and were ranked No. 22 in the final FCS poll.

Woodson began his coaching career at Millsaps College in Jackson, Miss., where he was the defensive backs coach (2005-08). The Majors won three consecutive SCAC championships, including an 11-1 record and No. 12 final ranking in 2008. Woodson coached four all-conference defensive backs while at Millsaps.

Woodson played safety at Ole Miss, starting for two seasons before his playing career was cut short by an injury prior to his senior season. The Rebels advanced to four bowl games, including the Cotton Bowl, the Music City Bowl and two trips to the Independence Bowl during his career. He went to Ole Miss after helping lead Moss Point High School to two Mississippi state titles.

A native of Moss Point, Miss., Woodson earned his bachelor's degree in political science with an emphasis in criminal justice from Ole Miss in 2003 and was selected for the Senior Leadership Unity Council.

Woodson and his wife, Chastity, who holds a bachelor's degree from Loyola University New Orleans and a master's degree from Howard University, have two sons, Carter and Bryce.

DEKE ADAMS

Defensive Line

Deke Adams has been a steady force for the Razorbacks' defensive line as he enters his fourth season on The Hill.

In 2024, Arkansas was among the top half of the SEC in rushing defense while ranking in the top 40 nationally. The Razorbacks also ranked in the top 40 nationally in third-down conversion percentage defense with a mark of .359. Adams tutored defensive lineman Landon Jackson, who led the Razorbacks with 6.5 sacks while tying for the team-lead in tackles for loss with (9.5) while totaling a career-high 49 tackles to go along with nine quarterback hurries, three pass breakups, a fumble recovery and a forced fumble on his way to earning Second-Team All-SEC honors. Jackson became the highest drafted Arkansas defensive lineman since 2007 when he was selected by Buffalo in the third round.

Under Adams' tutelage, Landon Jackson blossomed into one of the nation's best pass rushers in 2023. Jackson entered his junior season with 3.5 career tackles for loss and three sacks before earning First-Team All-SEC recognition from the league's coaches and second-team honors from the Associated Press after leading Arkansas in tackles for loss (13.5) and sacks (6.5) while racking up 44 total tackles. Jackson's 13.5 tackles for loss ranked sixth in the SEC and his 6.5 sacks were good for 12th. Cam Ball's emergence provided a spark up front with the sophomore starting six of his 11 games played. Ball made 32 tackles with 1.5 tackles for loss. Transfer Trajan Jeffcoat made an immediate impact as a team captain with 8.5 tackles for loss and four sacks.

The defensive line helped the Hogs give up only 357.2 yards per game, the lowest average per game since 2014 when the Arkansas defense surrendered only 323.4 yards per game. The difference was nearly a full yard per play improvement in 2023 compared to the 2022 season – 5.67 ypp in 2023 compared to 6.46 ypp in 2022.

Adams' first defensive line at Arkansas helped the defense break the school record for sacks with 42 in 2022. The Razorbacks' defensive line provided 22 of the team's 42 sacks led by Jordan Domineck's 7.5 sacks in his lone year with the program. The depth of the defensive line proved to be a plus with seven different linemen contributing at least one sack. The development of upperclassmen Zach Williams (4.5 sacks), Eric Gregory (2.0 sacks) and Jashaud Stewart (2.0 sacks) combined with Adams' work with transfers like Domineck, Landon Jackson (3.0 sacks) and Terry Hampton (2.0 sacks) with the emergence of Cam Ball, transformed the defensive line in just one year. Williams set career-bests in tackles, tackles for loss and sacks while Jackson flashed dominance from the defensive end spot.

Adams joined the Hogs with a wealth of coaching experience having coached at numerous levels over 20+ years after starring at linebacker at Southern Miss as a player in the 1990s. The Mississippi native heads to The Hill after spending the 2021 season at Florida International. In his lone season with the Panthers, Adams turned sophomore defensive tackle into an All-Conference USA Honorable Mention performer with 53 tackles, including three sacks and six tackles for loss.

Adams is no stranger to the SEC having coached at Ole Miss (2020), Mississippi State (2019) and South Carolina (2013-15). At South Carolina under Head Coach Steve Spurrier, he helped the Gamecocks to a pair of bowl wins while coaching 2014 NFL No. 1 pick Jadeveon Clowney. Adams' front also featured defensive tackle Kelcy Quarles, who earned first-team All-SEC and All-America honors along with Clowney. Quarles and Clowney became the first South Carolina duo since 1984 to earn All-America status in the same season.

Adams has helped develop six NFL draft selections, including a pair of first round picks. During his first stop at North Carolina, he coached All-American defensive tackle Sylvester Williams in 2012. Williams was selected 28th overall by the Denver Broncos in the 2013 NFL Draft. The Tar Heels ranked third in the ACC that season with 97 tackles for loss with Adams' group responsible for 40 of them. Williams and Kareem Martin were one of the ACC's most dominant defensive line duos, combining for 29 TFLs. Martin ranked third in the conference with 15.5 and Williams finished sixth with 13.5.

Before his first stop at North Carolina, Adams spent three seasons (2009-11) at his alma mater Southern Miss as defensive line coach for Head Coach Larry Fedora. Among the players he developed were first-team All-Conference USA defensive end Cordarro Law and second-round 2013 NFL Draft pick Jamie Collins. During his first season back in Hattiesburg, he coached a young group that helped the Golden Eagles finish the season ranked 18th nationally in sacks and 24th in tackles for loss after finishing 93rd and 68th, respectively, in those two categories the previous season.

In 2011, Adams' helped the Golden Eagles to the Conference USA championship and a 12-win season capped by a Hawaii Bowl victory over Nevada. His front four allow led the effort to allow only 112.6 rushing yards per game and rank 22nd nationally.

Prior to Southern Miss, he coached linebackers at Louisiana-Monroe while also serving as the coordinator of player development. He spent the 2006 and 2007 seasons at FCS level North Carolina A&T. Adams was elevated to interim defensive coordinator during his first season at North Carolina A&T after two games before earning the job on a permanent basis headed into the 2007 season. He coached the Aggies' defensive line in 2006 and took over the linebackers in 2007 in addition to his coordinator duties the following season.

Adams also knows his way around the Natural State having spent four years at Ouachita Baptist (2002-05) coordinating the defense and coaching the defensive line in his last season.
He coached in the junior college ranks at Pearl River (Miss.) Community College from 1998-2002, serving as the linebackers coach during his first three seasons before being named co-defensive coordinator and secondary coach in addition to his role as recruiting coordinator in 2001.

Adams began his coaching career in 1997 as the defensive line coach at FCS level Jacksonville (Ala.) State.

A three-year letterman at Southern Miss, Adams played a key role as part of the Golden Eagles' "Nasty Bunch" defense as a linebacker. He wrapped up his collegiate career in 1994 with 76 tackles, five tackles for loss, one sack and one interception.
In the classroom, he was a four-year member of the Dean's List. He earned his bachelor's degree in psychology and sports administration in 1995 before picking up a master's degree in 1996 from Southern Miss.

Adams is married to the former Alexis Hall, a member of the 1,000-point club and four-year letterwinner for the Southern Miss women's basketball team. The couple has two boys, Jaylen and Jordyn – who was a first round MLB Draft pick by the Los Angeles Angels of Anaheim in 2018.

RONNIE FOUCH

Wide Receivers

In his first season, Fouch helped transform Andrew Armstrong into one of the best receivers in the Southeastern Conference. Armstrong led the SEC in receptions (78), receiving yards (1,140) and receiving yards per game (103.6) as the only player in the league to average more than 100 receiving yards per game. He earned First-Team All-SEC honors from the Associated Press for one of the best seasons by a wide receiver in school history. His 78 receptions,1,140 receiving yards and five 100-yard games all rank second all-time at Arkansas. Isaac TeSlaa accounted for 545 yards and three scores in his final season at Arkansas, capping his career as a Hog with 107 yards in the win over Texas Tech in the AutoZone Liberty Bowl. Armstrong and TeSlaa both earned invites to the NFL Combine with TeSlaa also garnering an invitation to the Reese's Senior Bowl. TeSlaa became the first Arkansas wide receiver since 2022 to hear his name called during the draft when the Detroit Lions picked him with the 70th overall selection in the third round. Armstrong quickly signed a deal with the Miami Dolphins following the draft.

The Arkansas offense finished 10th in the nation in yards per game averaging 459.5 yards per game and 11th nationally in yards per play with 6.58 yards per play, both good for fourth-best in a single season in program history. Arkansas eclipsed 600 total yards of offense in a school record three games with 687 yards vs. UAPB, 648 at Oklahoma State and 673 at Mississippi State. The Razorbacks' passing game also posted one of the better seasons in program history with 3,571 yards with an average of 274.7 yards per game – both ranking fifth in a single season at Arkansas. The Hogs' 255 completions rank fourth in the school record books.

Prior to Arkansas, Fouch was the co-offensive coordinator, running backs coach and recruiting coordinator at Missouri State.

The 2023 Bears were led in rushing for the second straight season by Kansas State transfer Jacardia Wright, who ran for a team-best 696 yards on 147 carries to go along with six touchdowns. Wright was one of seven Bears named All-Missouri Valley Conference, earning second-team honors after finishing fifth in the league in rushing yards per game (69.6 ypg) and fifth in all-purpose yards per game (96.7 ypg). Alongside offensive coordinator Nick Petrino, Fouch helped lead one of the best offenses in the Football Championship Subdivision with the Bears ranking in the top 10 nationally in multiple categories. Along with Wright, the offense featured First-Team All-America wide receiver Raylen Sharpe and Freshman All-America wide receiver Jmariyae Robinson and offensive lineman Cash Hudson.

Arkansas marks the third stop in Fouch's career that he has worked with offensive coordinator Bobby Petrino. Fouch worked under Petrino at Louisville for three seasons as an offensive quality control analyst and was part of Petrino's staff at Missouri State, serving as the Bears co-special teams coordinator and running backs coach.

In 2022, Fouch quickly molded Wright into one of the best running backs in the MVC. Wright earned All-Newcomer Team status in the league after rushing for 711 yards and nine touchdowns on 156 carries. He was the Bears' first player to go over 700 yards rushing since 2014 and finished in the top 10 of seven different categories in the Valley. Fouch also served as the Bears' special teams coordinator with his special teams unit led by All-America punter Grant Burkett and All-MVFC selections in kicker Jose Pizano, long snapper Caden Bolz and returner Montrae Braswell.

After sharing the league title during the 2020-21 season, the Bears earned a FCS Playoff berth for the first time in over 30 years thanks to a vastly improved running game in Fouch's first season in Springfield, Mo. Freshman Celdon Manning earned All-MVFC honorable mention honors and was selected for the league's All-Newcomer Team after helping the Bears to 111.6 yards per game on the ground – an improvement of nearly 40 yards per game from the previous season.

In between Louisville and Missouri State, Fouch spent the spring of 2019 coaching the quarterbacks for the Salt Lake Stallions in the Alliance of American Football. With the Stallions, Fouch coached former Arkansas QB Austin Allen, who served as the team's backup that season. Fouch returned to the college ranks in the fall of 2019 as the tight ends coach at Florida Tech. The Panthers' offense finished fourth in the Gulf South Conference, averaging 395.2 yards per game.

In three seasons at Louisville, Fouch worked with the Cardinals' quarterbacks and special teams while assisting in recruiting. During his time working with the Cardinals' QBs, he helped develop Lamar Jackson into the 2016 Heisman Trophy winner and a first-round pick in the NFL Draft in 2018. Fouch got his start in coaching at Georgia State, where he spent two seasons as a graduate assistant for the Panthers.

Fouch played quarterback at Washington for three seasons, starting eight games in 2008, before transferring to Indiana State. With the Sycamores, he started 22 games over two seasons (2010-11) throwing for 4,316 yards and 38 touchdowns.

He married his wife, the former Jenifer Abreu, in 2023. The couple has one son, Kainoa.

ERIC MATEOS

Offensive Line

Eric Mateos leads the Razorbacks' offensive line and enters his second season as the Arkansas offensive line coach in 2025.

The Hogs' offensive overhaul in 2024 was impressive as the offense improved in nearly every statistic compared to 2023. Mateos' contribution to that overhaul was evident up front led by San Jose State transfer and left tackle Fernando Carmona, who earned All-SEC third team from the league's coaches. Carmona started all 13 games for Arkansas, earning SEC Offensive Lineman of the Week twice during the season to make him the first Hog O-lineman to earn the honor twice in a season since Ricky Stromberg in 2022.

Mateos' recruiting work yielded three transfer starters, in addition to Carmona, Addison Nichols and Keyshawn Blackstock both started multiple games. Mateos also developed E'Marion Harris into a valuable piece of the line with the redshirt sophomore starting the first six games at left guard before starting the final seven games at right tackle. Redshirt sophomore Brooks Edmonson and true freshman Kobe Branham also benefitted from working with Mateos with both earning starting assignments in the AutoZone Liberty Bowl victory over Texas Tech that saw the Arkansas offense rack up 559 total yards, including a program bowl record 341 passing yards.

For the season, the Razorbacks' offense finished 10th in the nation in yards per game averaging 459.5 yards per game and 11th nationally in yards per play with 6.58 yards per play, both good for fourth-best in a single season in program history. Arkansas eclipsed 600 total yards of offense in a school record three games with 687 yards vs. UAPB, 648 at Oklahoma State and 673 at Mississippi State. Mateos' offensive line paved the way for 34 rushing touchdowns – second-most in school history – while averaging 184.8 yards per game. Running back Ja'Quinden Jackson received a Second-Team All-SEC nod from the Associated Press after rushing for 15 scores and a team-high 790 yards.

Mateos returned to Fayetteville after coaching the offensive line at Baylor for three seasons. Mateos served as now Head Coach Sam Pittman's graduate assistant for the Hogs from 2013-15 while Pittman was the team's offensive line coach.

At Baylor, Mateos was named to Dave Campbell Texas Football's 40 under 40 list, honoring the top 40 assistant coaches in the state of Texas under the age of 40. Since 2014, Mateos has coached 13 NFL players including eight draft picks. BYU's Brady Christensen is the most recent after being selected in the third round of the 2021 NFL Draft by the Carolina Panthers.

Mateos' 2022 veteran offensive line protected for one of the best offenses in Baylor history with the team's 34 rushing touchdowns ranking seventh in school history and the team's total offense of 5,380 yards ranking 10th. Baylor averaged 182.4 yards per game rushing to go along with 231.5 yards per game passing. Mateos' line also protected QB Blake Shapen, allowing him to be sacked only 22 times in 13 games. Center Jacob Gall and left tackle Connor Galvin each earned honorable mention All-America honors from Phil Steele with Gall picking up Best Offensive Lineman in Texas from Dave Campbell's Texas Football. Guard Grant Miller earned first-team All-Big 12 from Pro Football Network and second-team honors from the Associated Press and Phil Steele.

In 2021, Mateos' first offensive line paved the way for the best rushing attack in the Big 12 and 10th-best in the FBS running for 219.3 yards per game. The line also protected the QB at an elite level, giving up just 1.29 sacks per game to rank second in the league. The men up front were also a semifinalist for the Joe Moore Award, given annually to the nation's best offensive line.

Galvin was named the Big 12's Offensive Lineman of the Year and first-team All-Big 12 as well as first-team All-America by The Athletic and third-team All-America by the Associated Press. Gall was also named second-team All-America by the FWAA, second-team All-Big 12 (AP) and All-Big 12 Honorable Mention Team (Coaches). Xavier Newman-Johnson was the third member of the offensive line unit to be recognized as an All-Big 12 Honorable Mention performer.

Prior to his time at Baylor, Mateos spent two seasons (2019-20) at BYU. His second line for the Cougars was impressive in 2020 as the Cougs finished 11-1, led by an offense that finished the season in the Top 15 in 10 different statistical categories, including third in points per game (43.5), seventh in total offense (522.2 ypg) and eighth in passing yards (332.1 ypg). Christensen anchored an offensive line that allowed just 12 sacks in 12 games and paved the way for 34 rushing TDs, fourth-most in the nation. BYU scored 40+ points in nine of 12 games that season, including a 49-23 win over UCF in the Boca Raton Bowl.

Christensen received 10 All-America honors overall finishing the 2020 season as the highest-graded offensive tackle in the country by Pro Football Focus with a 96.0 rating, earning grades above 95.0 as both a pass-blocker and run-blocker. He allowed just three pressures across 372 regular-season pass-blocking snaps.

In 2019, the Cougars finished 7-6 with a Hawaii Bowl berth. Under Mateos' guidance, Christensen and center James Empey earned All-Independent honors from Phil Steele. During the team's final five regular-season games BYU boasted the nation's No. 8 offense (520.6 ypg), No. 13 passing offense (323.0 ypg) and No. 34 rushing offense (197.6 ypg). The Cougars capped the season with 505 yards of total offense in the Hawai'i Bowl, including 274 through the air and 231 on the ground. The offensive line finished the season ranked No. 12 overall as a unit by Pro Football Focus.

Mateos spent two seasons (2017-18) as the offensive line coach at Texas State where he had an All-Sun Belt performer in each of his two years. Prior to his stint with the Bobcats, Mateos served as the tight ends at LSU in 2016 after starting the season as an offensive line graduate assistant under Baylor offensive coordinator Jeff Grimes. Mateos was tabbed to lead the tight ends coach by Ed Orgeron midway through the 2016 season and helped lead the Tigers to a victory over Louisville in the Citrus Bowl.

He began his coaching career as an assistant offensive line coach at Southwest Baptist in 2011 before serving a one-year stint in 2012 as the offensive line coach and recruiting coordinator at Hutchinson Community College.

A two-year starter at Southwest Baptist, Mateos was the starting center and team captain during the 2009 and 2010 seasons. He earned his bachelor's degree in public relations at Southwest Baptist in 2011 and a master's degree from Arkansas in 2015.

Mateos is married to the former Gillian Chavez and the couple have two daughters, Isabel and Camila.

NICK PERRY

Secondary

Nick Perry joins Arkansas as the Razorbacks' secondary coach.

Perry spent the 2024 season with the Seattle Seahawks as a defensive assistant. Prior to his time in Seattle, Perry worked three seasons for the Atlanta Falcons as the team's assistant wide receivers coach in 2023 and two years as an assistant defensive backs coach (2021-22).

In Seattle, Perry's work with the secondary helped the Seahawks produce one of the better pass defenses in the NFL ranking ninth in the league in yards per attempt (6.9) and 12th in both passing yards allowed (3,930) and interceptions (13). Safety Julian Love led the team with 109 tackles while second-year cornerback Devon Witherspoon continued to develop, making 98 stops to go with one sack and nine pass breakups on his way to being named to the Pro Bowl. Love also picked off three passes to match safety Coby Bryant and cornerback Riq Woolen for the team lead.

Under Perry's tutelage in 2022, Atlanta safeties Richie Grant (122) and Jaylinn Hawkins (82) both set single-season career highs for total tackles. Grant added seven pass breakups to go with three tackles for loss, two interceptions, one forced fumble, one fumble recovery and one blocked punt. Hawkins ended the year with six pass breakups, two interceptions, one forced fumble, one fumble recovery and a touchdown. Rookie cornerback Dee Alford finished his first season with 25 total tackles, one interception and seven pass breakups.

Perry's work with Falcons' cornerback A.J. Terrell helped him earn second-team All-Pro from the Associated Press in 2021. Terrell limited opponents to 29 receptions for a paltry 200 yards on 66 targets. When targeted, Terrell held opposing passers to a 47.5 passer rating according to Pro Football Focus, marking the lowest passer rating by a cornerback that played at least 50 percent of coverage snaps that season.

In his lone season as an assistant wide receivers coach with the Falcons in 2023, Perry helped continue the growth of second-year receiver Drake London, who led the team in receiving yards with 905 yards. London caught 69 passes and improved his yards and yards per game (56.6) from his rookie season.

Perry began his coaching career back at his alma mater, Alabama, as a graduate assistant in 2017 before being promoted to an analyst role. As a member of the coaching staff, the Crimson Tide made three College Football Playoff appearances winning the national championship in 2017 and 2020. He worked with numerous future pros with the Tide including Trevon Diggs, Patrick Surtain II and Minkah Fitzpatrick.

The Prattville, Ala. native helped the Tide to back-to-back national championships in 2011-12 as a key member of the team's secondary. He later spent time with the Baltimore Ravens and Philadelphia Eagles before beginning his coaching career.

He and his wife, Ari, have one daughter, Mila Navy.

KOLBY SMITH

Running Backs

Former NFL running back and NFL assistant coach Kolby Smith is in his second year on The Hill as the Razorbacks' running backs coach.

Following a four-year career in the NFL as a running back, Smith began his coaching career as a graduate assistant for the Razorbacks in 2012 before joining Bobby Petrino's staff at Western Kentucky as the Hilltoppers' running backs coach in 2013. He followed Petrino to Louisville the following year, where he coached the Cardinals' running backs for five seasons. Smith's relationship with Petrino dates back to Smith's college days as a running back at Louisville for Petrino (2003-06) during Petrino's first stint leading the Cardinals.

The Razorbacks produced one of the best offenses in the nation and in school history in Smith's first season in 2024. The Hogs ranked 10th nationally in total offense with 459.5 yards per game – fourth-best in a single season in school history. The team came up one rushing touchdown shy of matching the school record for rushing touchdowns with 34 scores, led by running back Ja'Quinden Jackson's 15 TDs. Jackson's 15 scores on the ground were the most by an Arkansas running back since Alex Collins set the school record with 20 in 2015. Jackson also led the team in rushing with 790 yards, including three consecutive 100-yard games to start the season, despite playing in only 10 games in his lone season at Arkansas on his way to earning All-SEC second-team honors from the Associated Press. The Hogs' 184.8 rushing yards per game ranked third in the Southeastern Conference and was helped by the team rushing for over 200 yards in six games with the squad's season-best 359 yards coming in the win at Mississippi State. In the win vs. the Bulldogs, true freshman Braylen Russell burst onto the scene with 175 yards on 16 carries in his first career start. Smith also developed transfer running back Rodney Hill, who ran for a season-high 81 yards on eight carries in the win over Texas Tech in the AutoZone Liberty Bowl.

Smith served four seasons (2020-23) on the staff of the Miami Dolphins working with the team's running backs, first as a quality control coach (2020-21) before being promoted to an offensive assistant role prior to the 2022 season. This past season, Smith helped the Dolphins' offense to record heights setting a franchise record with 6,899 total yards while ranking second in the league in both points per game (29.2) and passing yards per game (276.4) and sixth in rushing yards per game (135.8). Running back Raheem Mostert topped 1,000 yards for the first time in his career and led all NFL running backs with 18 rushing touchdowns. In 2022, Smith worked with an offense that finished in the top 10 (sixth, 364.5 yards per game) for the first time since 1995. Miami averaged 6.1 yards per play, which ranked second in the NFL.

Before his jump to the professional ranks, Smith spent seven seasons as a college assistant at Rutgers (2019), Louisville (2014-18) and Western Kentucky (2013).

In one season at Rutgers, Smith helped sophomore running back Isiah Pacheco improve in nearly every category. Pacheco set career-highs in carries (169), rushing yards (729) and rushing touchdowns (7), which led the Knights.

At Louisville, he helped the Cardinals to four bowls, while setting school records in rushing yards in back-to-back years in 2017 (3,186) and 2016 (3,148). In 2017, the Cardinals ranked 15th nationally in rushing (245.1 ypg) and totaled over 250 rushing yards in seven games. Smith's three running backs combined to rush for 1,225 yards and 14 touchdowns. The 2016 campaign saw the Cardinals total 37 scores on the ground, highlighted by the 903 yards and six touchdowns by Brandon Radcliff, who was second on the team with four 100-yard games.

During the 2015 campaign, Smith helped the Cardinals post their best rushing games in the second part of the season, running for over 200 yards in four of the final five games. That included a season-best 314 yards in a 38-24 victory over Kentucky. For the year, the Cardinals averaged 171.0 yards on the ground and totaled 23 touchdowns.

With a stable of running backs in 2014, Smith's unit ran for 28 touchdowns and averaged 142.7 yards per game in leading the Cardinals to a 9-4 record and a berth in the Belk Bowl. The team's backs recorded six 100-yard rushing games, including Brandon Radcliff, who tallied a team-best three 100-yard rushing games.

In his lone season with the Hilltoppers, Smith tutored Antonio Andrews, the nation's top all-purpose player, to a career season on the ground. Andrews reset the school rushing mark with 1,730 yards in 2013. WKU running backs combined for 30 of the team's 31 rushing touchdowns, led by Andrews' career-best 16. He also set a school record for the most 100-yard rushing games in a career (21), in a season (11) and consecutively (11). He generated 125 all-purpose yards in 25 consecutive games, a streak unmatched to within 10 games by any other player in the country. Smith's running backs also accounted for 724 receiving yards and a pair of touchdowns through the air.

As a player at Louisville, Smith helped the Cardinals to a 12-1 record as the primary back in 2006. Sharing the backfield that year with Michael Bush, Smith stepped in after an injury to Bush to average more than five yards per carry, scoring seven touchdowns on a team that defeated Wake Forest in the Orange Bowl, the program's first BCS victory.

For his career, Smith rushed for over 1,800 yards and scoring 18 rushing TDs while averaging nearly 6.0 yards per carry. He also caught 56 passes for over 500 yards and two touchdowns.

Smith was selected in the fifth round of the 2007 NFL Draft by the Kansas City Chiefs. He immediately made an impact in his rookie season, rushing for over 400 yards on 112 carries. Smith played in all 16 games in 2007, scoring a pair of touchdowns and earning AFC Offensive Player of the Week honors after rushing for 150 yards on 31 carries against the Raiders. He finished his NFL career in 2010, spending brief periods with the Denver Broncos and the Jacksonville Jaguars.

MORGAN TURNER

Tight Ends

Veteran tight ends coach Morgan Turner enters his third season leading the Arkansas tight end room.

Before arriving at Arkansas, Turner spent 13 seasons at Stanford, including 10 seasons as the program's tight ends coach. During his tenure in Palo Alto, Turner built Stanford into a national brand among tight ends by producing numerous NFL tight ends such as Dalton Schultz, Austin Hooper, Coby Fleener, Levine Toilolo, Zach Ertz, Kaden Smith and most recently Colby Parkinson.

Turner's tight ends in 2024 featured a variety of skillsets and body types led by Luke Hasz, Andreas Paaske and Ty Washington, who combined for seven of the team's 16 touchdown receptions. Hasz's four touchdown catches led the team with his 324 yards fourth-best on the squad. He and Paaske each caught two touchdown passes in the win at Mississippi State. The two-score game was the first of Paaske's career and his first two touchdowns as a Razorback after transferring from Eastern Michigan. Paaske's steady development throughout the season was evident as the Denmark native saw his playing time increase as a key piece of the team's run blocking.

Turner displayed his ability to build depth in his tight end room during his first season with the Razorbacks with four different tight ends drawing at least three starting assignments. Turner quickly got true freshman Luke Hasz up to speed to start the first five games of the season before a season-ending injury cut his freshman campaign short. Hasz was impressive in his first five collegiate games, catching 16 passes for 253 yards and three touchdowns. His most impressive performance came on the road at LSU in a night game that saw him haul in six passes for 116 yards and a pair of touchdowns. Ty Washington was the next man up, earning three straight starts before an injury ended his season at Florida. Washington caught 11 passes for 170 yards and two touchdowns, all in a four-game span. He jumped on the scene with a seven-catch, 90-yard effort that included a pair of touchdowns at Ole Miss. Nathan Bax and Francis Sherman each started three games during their final college seasons.

The latest in Turner's long line of productive tight ends is junior Benjamin Yurosek, who caught 49 passes for 445 yards and a touchdown in 2022 to earn second-team All-Pac-12 honors. Yurosek's 49 receptions were second-most on the Cardinal roster and second-most among all tight ends in the Pac-12. Yurosek's sophomore campaign in 2021 was even better, leading the Cardinal with 658 receiving yards to earn honorable mention All-Pac-12. He averaged 15.3 yards per reception, recorded three games of 90+ yards receiving and hauled in 13 receptions of 20+ yards – all three ranked among the top three tight ends in the Power 5.

Parkinson is the latest of Turner's tight ends to make an impact in the NFL as a fourth-round selection by Seattle in 2020. He was a semifinalist for the Mackey Award – given annually to the nation's top tight end – and earned second-team All-Pac-12 recognition in 2019 after catching 48 passes for 589 yards and a score.

Schultz was a fourth-round pick by the Dallas Cowboys in 2018 after earning All-Pac-12 First Team leading a talented group of tight ends for Stanford in 2017. The unit snagged 12 of the team's 23 touchdown passes that season. Hooper is Turner's most recent All-American, having earned the distinction in 2015 after being named a finalist for the Mackey Award and first-team All-Pac-12 for catching 34 passes for 438 yards and six TDs. The Atlanta Falcons picked him in the third round of the 2016 draft.

In 2012, Turner assisted Ertz in becoming a unanimous All-American, Mackey Award finalist, first-team All-Pac-12 and a second-round pick by the Philadelphia Eagles. Ertz led all FBS tight ends in 2012 in receiving yards (898) and catches (69) to go along with six touchdowns. Along with Toilolo, Stanford tight ends led the nation that season in productivity catching a combined 93 passes for 1,291 yards and 10 touchdowns.

Turner has also displayed the ability to land elite recruits while also developing tight ends. He recruited Parkinson and Schultz, who were four-star tight ends coming out of high school and molded them into top NFL draft picks. He developed three-star recruits Hooper and Yurosek into All-Pac-12 performers for the Cardinal with Hooper eventually becoming a third-round NFL selection.

Before taking over the tight ends, Turner spent two seasons at Stanford as an offensive assistant and one as a sports performance intern. Prior to Stanford, he coached quarterbacks at Indiana State for one season (2009) after getting his start in coaching at Central (Ill.) High School in 2008 as the team's quarterbacks coach and scout team coordinator.

Turner graduated from Illinois in 2009, earning a bachelor's degree in finance. The Champaign, Ill. native served as a student coach for the Illini football team in 2004 and is the son of longtime NFL and collegiate head coach Ron Turner.

BEN SOWDERS

Director of Strength & Conditioning

Ben Sowders is in his third season leading the Razorbacks' strength and conditioning program as the Director of Strength & Conditioning.

In 2024, he earned the highest honor a strength and conditioning coach can receive when he was named a Master Strength & Conditioning Coach by the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association. The title of Master Strength & Conditioning Coach represents professionalism, knowledge, experience, expertise and longevity in the field. To earn the distinguished status, a strength and conditioning coach must be an active member of the CSCCA, be a strength and conditioning certified coach and a full-time collegiate and/or professional strength and conditioning coach for a minimum of 12 years.

Sowders' work with Landon Jackson helped transform the talented defensive lineman into a third-round pick by the Buffalo Bills in the NFL Draft. Jackson saw big gains in the weight room and showed off those skills at the NFL Combine, where he ran 4.68 in the 40-yard dash along with a 40.5-inch vertical jump and a broad jump of 10 feet, 9 inches. Jackson's performance, however, was not the most impressive by a Razorback with wide receiver Isaac TeSlaa recording one of the best combine workouts in the history of the event. TeSlaa's Athleticism Score of 96 led all wide receivers at the 2025 combine. He ran a 4.43 in the 40-yard dash with a vertical jump of 39.5 inches and a broad jump of 10 feet, 9 inches. TeSlaa's combine performance helped him move up draft boards to become the first Arkansas wide receiver to be picked since 2022 when the Detroit Lions selected him with the 70th overall pick.

The first Arkansas team under Sowders' watch saw gains in the weight room, including offensive lineman Beaux Limmer who squatted 745 pounds prior to the start of the 2023 season. Limmer was later selected in the NFL Draft by the Los Angeles Rams along with kicker Cam Little, who was picked by Jacksonville. Little's improved strength helped him become the youngest kicker to ever be selected in the NFL Draft.

Sowders came to Arkansas after spending the 2022 season at Louisville as the Director of Strength & Conditioning for the Cardinals. This past season the Cardinals went 7-5 and earned a spot in the Fenway Bowl.

Sowders worked with Pittman at Georgia during the 2018-19 seasons – Sowders' first of four seasons with the Bulldogs. As the Assistant Director of Strength & Conditioning, he worked with 20 student-athletes that went onto play in the NFL while also helping the Dawgs to the 2022 National Championship and three trips to the SEC Championship Game.

Prior to his time at Georgia, the Bowling Green, Ky. native spent one season at McNeese State as the Director of Strength & Conditioning. The Cowboys posted a 9-2 record in his lone season in Lake Charles, La. Sowders spent two seasons at Georgia Tech (2015-16) after two seasons at Gardner-Webb, where he was responsible for the training of the Bulldogs' 21 Division I programs.

His first full-time collegiate position was at Southern Miss, where he led the strength and conditioning efforts for the Golden Eagles' men's and women's basketball, volleyball and softball programs while assisting with football. Prior to his time in Hattiesburg, Miss., He fulfilled a six-month internship at Alabama, where he worked with the Crimson Tide's football, volleyball, tennis and rowing teams.

Sowders earned his start in strength and conditioning as a Facility Coordinator and Head Strength & Speed coach at D1 Sports Training in Nashville, Tenn. While at D1 Sports, he worked with numerous NFL players, including Steve Smith, Jerome Bettis, Donovan McNabb and Kyle Vanden Bosch.

He earned his bachelor's degree in exercise science from Western Kentucky in December 2008 after playing for the Hilltoppers as a linebacker. Sowders began his career as a walk-on before earning a scholarship and becoming a two-year starter. As a senior in 2008, he recorded 47 tackles with 2.5 tackles for loss for the Hilltoppers and added 29 tackles and 3.0 tackles for loss as a junior in 2007.

He received his master's degree in recreation and sport administration in August of 2010 from WKU. He is a member of the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association (CSCCa), a Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist (CSCS) and certified by USA Weightlifting.

Sowders is married to the former Shelbee Rodgers and the couple has one daughter, Gibson.

AURMON SATCHELL

Senior Associate Director of Strength & Conditioning

Satchell spent one year at Louisville as an associate strength coach working with Ben Sowders, who was the Director of Strength & Conditioning for the Cardinals. Prior to Louisville, Satchell was at the University of New Mexico, where he served as the director of athletic performance beginning in 2016. While at UNM, he oversaw all aspects of the athletic performance department for the Lobos, and supervising six assistant performance coaches.

Satchell previously worked on the football strength and conditioning staffs at South Carolina (2012-16 and 2009-11) and Indiana (2011-12). He also spent two years working at Minnesota. Outside the weight room, Satchell spent time volunteering at the Lowry Family Center mentoring at risk youth.

A 2007 graduate of the University of Texas, Satchell was a four-year member of the Longhorn football team as a linebacker.

ONE OF OUR FAVORITE TRADITIONS

ARKANSAS FIGHT

Hit that line! Hit that line! Keep on going,
Take that ball right down the field!
Give a cheer. Rah! Rah! Never fear. Rah! Rah!
Arkansas will never yield!
On your toes, Razorbacks, to the finish,
Carry on with all your might!
For it's A-A-A-R-K-A-N-S-A-S for Arkansas!
Fight! Fight! Fi-i-i-ight!

Without question, the proudest moment in the history of Arkansas Razorback football is the 1964 national championship. Head coach Frank Broyles led his 1964 team to an undefeated 10-0 regular season record and a 10-7 Cotton Bowl victory over Nebraska.

The 1964 national championship was historic not so much for who won but for when the title was awarded.

In 1964, seven different entities named a mythical national champion. The two most notable polls to fans at the time – The Associated Press and the United Press International – did not wait until after the bowl games to award their champion. Because of that, Alabama was named the national champ by the AP, UPI and Litkenhous groups. However, the Crimson Tide went on to lose 21-17 to Texas in the Orange Bowl and finish 10-1 on the year.

Arkansas remained the only undefeated team in the country at 11-0 with its victory over Nebraska. Two groups who waited until after the bowl games to name their champion – The Football Writers Association of America and the Helms Athletic Foundation – named Broyles' Razorbacks as national champs. Notre Dame and Michigan also were honored by lesser known polls. Both the AP (1965) and UPI (1974) eventually changed their procedure, choosing to wait until after the bowls to announce their final polls.

1964 GAME-BY-GAME

ARKANSAS 14, OKLAHOMA STATE 10 — SEPT. 19, 1964 • LITTLE ROCK, ARK.
- The Hogs earned 235 yards rushing including touchdown runs by Jim Lindsey and Bobby Burnett.
- Arkansas staged a 64-yard game-winning drive in the third quarter to secure the victory.

ARKANSAS 31, TULSA 22 — SEPT. 26, 1964 • FAYETTEVILLE, ARK.
- Arkansas scored 31 straight points after trailing 14-0 midway through the first quarter.
- Arkansas All-American linebacker Ronnie Caveness returned an interception for a touchdown and recovered a fumble in the win.

ARKANSAS 29, TCU 6 — OCT. 3, 1964 • FORT WORTH, TEXAS
- The Razorbacks intercepted TCU six times in the victory including two thefts by defensive halfback Bill Gray.
- Arkansas quarterback Fred Marshall threw for 157 yards and scored a rushing touchdown.

ARKANSAS 17, BAYLOR 6 — OCT. 10, 1964 • LITTLE ROCK, ARK.
- Arkansas racked up 342 yards of total offense.
- The Hogs collected six Baylor turnovers including three interceptions and three fumble recoveries.

ARKANSAS 14, TEXAS 13 — OCT. 17, 1964 • AUSTIN, TEXAS
- Ken Hatfield's 81-yard punt return for a touchdown set the tone for the Arkansas victory.
- Arkansas linebacker Ronnie Caveness tallied 25 tackles against the Longhorns.

- Arkansas blanked the Shockers in the first of its school-record-tying five straight shutouts.
- Quarterback Fred Marshall ran for a score and passed to Jim Lindsey for another in the win.

ARKANSAS 17, TEXAS A&M 0 — OCT. 31, 1964 • COLLEGE STATION, TEXAS
- The Arkansas defense limited Texas A&M to seven yards rushing in the final 30 minutes of the game.
- Arkansas offensive halfback Jack Brasuell scored twice on the ground in the win over the Aggies.

ARKANSAS 21, RICE 0 — NOV. 7, 1964 • FAYETTEVILLE, ARK.
- Rice snapped the ball in Arkansas territory on only one play the entire game.
- Harry Jones returned an Owls' errant pass for a 35-yard touchdown.

ARKANSAS 44, SMU 0 — NOV. 14, 1964 • FAYETTEVILLE, ARK.
- Arkansas racked up 340 yards in total offense.
- Ken Hatfield essentially cemented his national punt return crown by returning a punt 78 yards for a touchdown against the Ponies.

ARKANSAS 17, TEXAS TECH 0 — NOV. 21, 1964 • LUBBOCK, TEXAS
- The Razorbacks tied a school record with their fifth straight shutout.
- Bobby Roper blocked two Texas Tech field goal attempts and recovered a fumble in the regular-season finale against the Red Raiders.

ARKANSAS 10, NEBRASKA 7 — JAN. 1, 1965 • COTTON BOWL • DALLAS, TEXAS
- The Hogs' victory coupled with a loss by Alabama in the Orange Bowl established Arkansas as the only undefeated team in the nation. Both the Football Writers Association of America and the Helms Athletic Foundation voted Arkansas the 1964 national champion.
- Arkansas trailed 7-3 before mounting an 80-yard scoring drive in the fourth quarter to secure the win and the national crown.

- Earned the first Burlsworth Trophy in school history. Award is named for Razorback legend Brandon Burlsworth and is given annually to the nation's best player that started his career as a walk-on.
- Led a trio of linebackers who all surpassed the 100-tackle mark in 2021.
- In 2021, helped lead Arkansas to four trophies in a single season for the first time in school history, capturing the Southwest Classic, Golden Boot, Battle Line Rivalry and Outback Bowl trophies.
- Became the 16th Razorback in history to be named a Walter Camp Football Foundation All-American (second team) in 2020 along with a second-team All-American by AFCA and third-team by Phil Steele.
- Named a first-team All-SEC linebacker by both the AP and league coaches in 2020.
- Posted back-to-back 100-tackle seasons, including 111 in nine games during the pandemic-shortened season of 2020.
- His 12.3 tackles per game in 2020 led the nation.

The first player in program history to win SEC Defensive Player of the Week multiple times in a season, QUINTON CAVER earned the honors three times in 2000. His final weekly honor in 2000 came after a 14-3 win over No. 24 LSU at War Memorial Stadium where he snatched a 33-yard interception return for a touchdown.

RETIRED NUMBERS

The ultimate honor is to have your jersey number retired, and in the 122 years the Razorbacks have been on the football field, only two players have had the honor bestowed upon them. Clyde Scott (No. 12) and Brandon Burlsworth (No. 77) wore numbers no future Razorback will.

12 CLYDE "SMACKOVER" SCOTT

Halfback | 1946-49
Smackover, Arkansas | Smackover High School

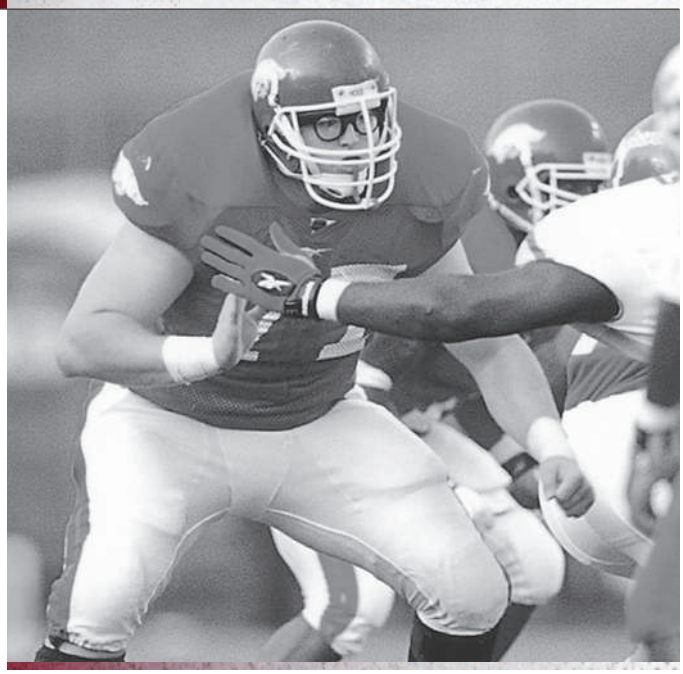

Following a glamorous career in the 1940s, the athletic department decided to retire No. 12. Nicknamed "Smackover" for his hometown, Clyde Scott made a name for himself in 1948, winning the silver medal in the hurdles at the Olympic Games in August and then reporting to football practice, where he would earn All-America honors during his senior year.

Scott rushed for 1,463 yards during his career for a school record at the time. In 1948 he had an impressive 7.0 yards-per-carry average, gaining 670 yards on 95 attempts. Scott was the first Razorback athlete to win an Olympic medal as most of Arkansas' track success didn't come until 1978 with the arrival of John McDonnell.

When Arkansas was recruiting Steve Little, coach Frank Broyles asked Scott if Little could wear his retired No. 12. Scott graciously agreed and Little went on to an All-American career. Scott passed away in Little Rock, Arkansas, on Jan. 30, 2018, at the age of 93.

77 BRANDON BURLSWORTH

Guard | 1994-98
Harrison, Arkansas | Harrison High School

The athletics department did not see fit to retire another football jersey until after the 1998 campaign, when the No. 77 worn by Razorback All-American offensive guard Brandon Burlsworth was retired.

One of the most inspiring stories in Razorback history, Burlsworth joined the Razorbacks in 1994 as a walk-on. Following a redshirt year, he earned a scholarship with his work ethic in the weight room. After serving as a backup guard for the 1995 SEC Western Division champions, he earned a starting position in the spring of '96 and never yielded it. He went on to start 34 consecutive games, concluding with the Florida Citrus Bowl on Jan. 1, 1999.

Burlsworth was an All-SEC offensive guard in 1997. In 1998 he not only earned all-conference honors, but was named a first-team All-American by The Football News. He was the leader of an offensive line that helped the Razorback offense score more points than it had since 1970 and produce more yards than it had since the 1989 season.

In the classroom, Burlsworth was equally astounding. He earned his bachelor's degree in marketing management in 1997 and immediately went to work on his master's in business administration. In December 1998, Burlsworth completed his master's requirements to become the first Razorback football player to complete a master's degree before playing in his final game.

Burlsworth was drafted in the third round by the Indianapolis Colts, but tragically died in an automobile accident less than two weeks later. The entire state of Arkansas was stunned and head coach Houston Nutt recommended that Burlsworth's jersey be retired. Athletics director Frank Broyles quickly agreed.

HUGO BEZDEK

5 seasons | 1908-12
29-13-1

The first full-time, paid coach in Arkansas football history, Hugo Bezdek guided the Cardinals to a 5-4 campaign in his first season. In 1909 he led UA to what is widely regarded as the program's breakthrough season – a 7-0-0 campaign during which Arkansas outscored its foes 186-18. Upon the team's return from a win over LSU in Memphis, Tenn., that season, Bezdek told students his team had played "like a wild band of razorback hogs." The students liked the nickname and officially adopted it prior to the 1910 season.

After beginning his tenure 5-0 en route to a 7-2-0 debut season, E.T. Pickering's second and final season at the helm of the UA program is best known for a contest against Ole Miss that is still disputed more than a century later. Arkansas claims a 1-0 forfeit victory due to the Rebels' use of an ineligible player Ole Miss denies the allegation and claims a 13-7 win on the field. The dispute led to the suspension of the series until 1924.

~ Arkansas victory by forfeit

The beginning of T.T. McConnell's tenure as head coach at Arkansas coincided with the inaugural season of Southwest Conference football. After a 4-2-1 debut in 1915 and four-consecutive wins to open the 1916 season, McConnell's tenure culminated with consecutive losses to LSU, Texas, Oklahoma and Mississippi State.

Only a loss at Texas in the season finale prevented Norman Paine from an undefeated record in his first season, which began with five consecutive wins. His 1917 win over LSU was Arkansas' only victory against the Tigers in six games from 1915 to 1921. After playing the Sooners to a scoreless tie in 1917, Paine's 1918 team suffered the worst defeat in school history – a 103-0 loss at Oklahoma.

G.W. McLaren's Razorback teams yielded just 19 points in the six Southwest Conference games during his two-year tenure. His inaugural Arkansas team in 1920 shut out SWC foes SMU, Phillips and Rice en route to a 2-0-1 league mark. Because the SWC did not count ties toward winning percentage until 1925, the 1920 team is credited with a 1.000 league winning percentage but was not credited with a share of the league title won by Texas with a 5-0 conference mark.

FRED THOMSEN

56-61-10

Still the second-longest tenured head coach in Arkansas football history, Fred Thomsen was an offensive innovator who made the passing game an integral part of the UA attack. He led the Hogs to what would have been their first Southwest Conference title in 1933 only to vacate the championship for using an ineligible player. All-SWC performances by Jack Robbins and Jim Benton helped the Hogs to the SWC crown in 1936 and a tie for 18th in the final Associated Press poll in its first year of existence.

GEORGE COLE

1 season | 1942
3-7

The first of just two Arkansas graduates to serve as head football coach at his alma mater, George Cole went on to serve as athletic director at the school from 1970 to 1972. An All-Southwest Conference quarterback and a shortstop on the UA baseball team during his collegiate career, Cole began his administrative career as a line coach for the Razorbacks in 1936 and served as assistant athletic director under John Barnhill. Arkansas' baseball facility, Baum Stadium at George Cole Field, bears his name.

2 seasons | 1944-45
8-12-1

While guiding the Razorback football program through the final years of the World War II era, Glen Rose recorded back-to-back wins over Ole Miss and directed the Hogs in their most recent game against an in-state opponent – a 41-0 win over Arkansas-Monticello (then known as Arkansas A&M) in the 1944 season finale.

JOHN BARNHILL

22-17-3

Widely credited with uniting the state of Arkansas behind the Razorback program, John Barnhill led UA to a share of the Southwest Conference title and its first Cotton Bowl berth in the first of his four seasons before retiring from coaching to focus on his duties as athletic director. His coaching tenure included the debut of War Memorial Stadium in Little Rock, Ark., the Hogs' second and third bowl appearances and the recruitment of 1948 All-American and Olympic silver medal winner Clyde Scott.

OTIS DOUGLAS

3 seasons | 1950-52
9-21

Despite personnel that included future NFL stars Fred Williams, Dave "Hawg" Hanner, Pat Summerall, Lamar McHan, Floyd Sagely and Lewis Carpenter, the Razorbacks managed just nine wins during Douglas' three-year tenure. The highlight of his stay was a 16-14 win over Texas in 1951 – the Razorbacks' first win over the Longhorns in Fayetteville.

BOWDEN WYATT

11-10

After an inauspicious 3-7-0 mark in his initial campaign, Bowden Wyatt led the "25 Little Pigs" to Arkansas' second Southwest Conference title in 1954. That season also saw the Hogs earn their first win at Texas in 17 years, followed the next week by a 6-0 upset of Ole Miss on a 66-yard touchdown pass from Bob Benson to Preston Carpenter known to Razorback fans as the "Powder River Play." Wyatt left after the 1954 season to coach Tennessee, his alma mater.

FRANK BROYLES

144-58-5

Frank Broyles' arrival at Arkansas prior to the 1958 season marked the beginning of a relationship between Broyles and the institution. He served as athletic director from 1973-2007. With 144 wins in 19 seasons, Broyles ranks as the winningest and longest-tenured head football coach in UA history. His 1964 team went 11-0 to earn the school's only national championship and No. 1 final ranking by the Football Writers Association of America. He led the Razorbacks to 10 bowl appearances, including nine New Year's Day Bowls.

LOU HOLTZ

60-21-2

One of just three head coaches to lead Arkansas to six consecutive bowl appearances, Lou Holtz's first Razorback team in 1977 recorded one of Arkansas' two 11-win seasons and posted one of the biggest upsets in school history with a 31-6 win over No. 2 Oklahoma in the 1978 Orange Bowl.

HOUSTON NUTT

75-49

Houston Nutt was the third Arkansas head coach to take the Razorbacks to a bowl game in each of his first six seasons. He led the Hogs to three SEC Western Division crowns, eight bowl games, two bowl victories, three final national rankings and four nine-win seasons. Nutt's 8-0 start in 1998 marked the best debut ever for a UA head coach and helped UA reach its first New Year's Day game since 1990. In 2001 and 2006, Nutt was voted SEC Coach of the Year by the Associated Press and league coaches.

BOBBY PETRINO

34-17

Bobby Petrino was introduced as the head coach of the Razorbacks on Dec. 11, 2007. In just his third season, he led Arkansas to the first BCS game in school history against Ohio State in the Allstate Sugar Bowl. In his final season, he took the Razorbacks to a school-record-tying 11 wins and the first top-five AP finish since 1977.

BRET BIELEMA

29-34

Named the 32nd head coach in program history in December of 2012, Bielema came to Arkansas after having spent seven years as head coach at Wisconsin. He led Arkansas to three straight bowl appearances, highlighted by wins over Texas at the 2014 Texas Bowl and Kansas State at the 2016 Liberty Bowl. In 2014, Arkansas became the first unranked team in college football history to post back-to-back shutouts over ranked opponents in blanking No. 20 LSU and No. 8 Ole Miss.

CHAD MORRIS

4-18

Chad Morris was named the 33rd head football in University of Arkansas history on Dec. 6, 2017. Under Morris' fast-paced, no-huddle spread attack from 2010-14, Clemson shattered 127 offensive records (89 individual 38 team). During his three seasons at SMU (2015-17), Morris turned a 1-11 program before he took over to the program's first bowl bid since 2012 in 2017.

SAM PITTMAN

5 seasons | 2020-present
30-31

On Dec. 9, 2019, Sam Pittman was introduced as the 34th head coach in program history. Pittman has restored the pride in the program quickly, leading the Razorbacks back to a bowl game in 2021 and winning the most games in a decade. His second team also made history, winning four trophies for the first time in school history, claiming the Southwest Classic, Golden Boot, Battle Line Rivalry and Outback Bowl.

INTERVIEWS

Interviews with our coaches and student-athletes are encouraged, but we require all interview arrangements be made via the Arkansas Communications Office. University of Arkansas football student-athletes are generally available for interviews during a game week. All student-athlete and assistant coach interview requests must be made at least one day in advance to allow time to facilitate the notification process. Telephone interviews can be arranged, but student-athletes' telephone numbers will not be provided and student-athletes are instructed to direct all interview requests to the Arkansas Communications Office. Student housing, the training room, the weight room and locker rooms are off-limits to members of the media.

DAILY PRACTICE

Please consult with the Arkansas Communications Office for practice information regarding times, days and accessibility. Prior to or following select practice sessions, select members of the football program will be available for group interviews with the media. All media members, including video and still photographers, from accredited media outlets wishing to shoot practices are asked to consult with the Arkansas Communications Office for current guidelines prior to arrival at the practice field.

WEEKLY PRESS CONFERENCE OPPORTUNITIES

Please consult the Arkansas Communications Office for the schedule of weekly press opportunities for Coach Pittman and student-athletes.

GAME CREDENTIAL REQUEST

All requests for media and/or photo credentials must be online at SportsSystems.com/Arkansas. Requests should be made at least 10 days in advance.

Credentials must be requested and will be granted on a game-by-game basis only. No multi-game or full season credentials will be issued.

Please see media credentialing guidelines online at SportsSystems.com/Arkansas. Space limitations prevent accommodation of weekly media representatives.

Only fully accredited personnel directly involved in the coverage of the game will be admitted. Credentials are non-transferable. The Arkansas Communications Office reserves the right to revoke any credential: (1) used by an individual other than the one for whom it was granted; (2) any individual who refuses to comply with press box and/or photographic area guidelines; (3) any individual who is not an accredited member of the media; (4) any individual under the age of 16.

Credentials will not be mailed. They may be picked up beginning three hours prior to kickoff at the media will call station at the base of the elevator at both Donald W. Reynolds Razorback Stadium in Fayetteville and War Memorial Stadium in Little Rock. Photo identification is required when picking up credentials.

GAMEDAY PARKING

Limited parking is available in Fayetteville and Little Rock for media members. Those media members needing parking should make the request at least two weeks in advance to allow time for mailing.

LIVE STATS

Live in-game stats will be provided for the media at RazorbackStats.com.

WIRELESS INTERNET

The Arkansas press box does have wireless access. Information for accessing the network is available in the press box.

RAZORBACK SPORTS PROPERTIES

The University of Arkansas Athletic Department and Learfield are in their 16th year of a powerful partnership that created Arkansas Sports Properties. As the multimedia rights-holder, Arkansas Sports Properties (ASP) is responsible for the corporate marketing and advertising for all 19 sports.

Along with corporate branding through the Razorbacks, ASP also creates new programming and publications for Razorback fans. This statewide radio network covers all of Arkansas.

The official radio and television shows of Razorback football continue to grow in attendance and viewership. The radio show is held weekly at the Catfish Hole and airs live on the Razorback Sports Network as well as Hogs+. The official television show is aired statewide on Sunday nights and streams on Hogs+ throughout the week during football season.

CHUCK BARRETT
PLAY-BY-PLAY

Barrett is entering his 33rd season broadcasting Arkansas sports and his 19th season as the football play-by-play announcer. The 2025 season marks his 31st year on the football broadcast crew, including spending 14 years as the executive producer. Prior to taking over play-by-play responsibilities for the 2007 season, his duties included hosting the pregame show, halftime and scoreboard shows as well as the football version of the Razorback Report. He was the long time voice of Arkansas baseball, serving as the play-by-play man from 1992 to 2014. Barrett now serves as the Voice of the Razorbacks for football and men's basketball, having picked up men's basketball play-by-play duties prior to the 2010-11 season. He has been recognized by the National Sportswriters and Sportscasters Hall of Fame as the Arkansas Sportscaster of the Year three times (2007, 2008, 2009) and was inducted into the Arkansas Sportscasters and Sports Writers Hall of Fame in June of 2023.

QUINN GROVEY
ANALYST

Grovey is entering his 28th overall season on the network, including his ninth as the analyst. The former Hog quarterback previously served as co-host of the pregame and postgame shows and the network's sideline reporter. A three-year starter for the Razorbacks, Grovey led Arkansas to Southwest Conference titles in 1988 and 1989, and was named to the program's 1980s All-Century team.

GENO BELL, CHUCK BARRETT, QUINN GROVEY.

GENO BELL
CO-HOST & SIDELINE

Bell enters his ninth season on the broadcast team as a sideline reporter, taking over the role from Grovey. Bell was a four-year letterwinner on the defensive line for the Razorbacks from 1993-95. He totaled 185 tackles (including 28 for loss), 11 sacks, four pass breakups and three fumble recoveries. Following his collegiate career, Bell played in the NFL with the New York Jets and the Cleveland Browns. He returned to Arkansas after his playing career and is the Vice President of the Consolidation Division at the worldwide headquarters of Walmart in Bentonville.

RICK SCHAEFFER
CO-HOST

Schaeffer is entering his 32nd year with Razorback football. He was the analyst for 10 seasons and is now a co-host for the pregame, halftime and postgame shows. Schaeffer worked in the Arkansas Sports Information Department for 24 years, 21 of those serving as director. Schaeffer is the co-host of Drive Time Sports on 103.7 The Buzz.

PHIL ELSON
CO-HOST

Phil Elson enters his fifth season as a co-host for the pregame, halftime and postgame shows. He also serves as the play-by-play announcer for the Arkansas baseball program. Elson has 20-plus years of professional baseball broadcasting experience, including 14 seasons as the Director of Broadcasting and Media Relations for the Arkansas Travelers, the former Double-A affiliate of the Los Angeles Angels.

VICE CHANCELLOR AND DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS HUNTER YURACHEK

Guided by the program's mission of building Champions and Razorbacks for Life, vice chancellor and director of athletics Hunter Yurachek has helped lead the University of Arkansas' Department of Intercollegiate Athletics to unprecedented success on and off the field.

Since being introduced as the vice chancellor and director of athletics on Dec. 4, 2017, Yurachek has worked tirelessly to foster athletics success in all 19 sports, restore the tradition of a storied program and enhance the student-athlete experience for 465 student-athletes. Thanks to the dedicated efforts of Razorback student-athletes, coaches, administrators, Razorback Foundation members and fans, results are being realized on and off the field.

Now in his eighth full year at the University of Arkansas, Yurachek has firmly positioned the Razorbacks as one of the nation's elite intercollegiate athletics programs having finished in the Top 20 of the Learfield Directors' Cup each of the last five years. His leadership has helped build one of the nation's best all-sports programs while attracting premier coaches, including Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame Men's Basketball Coach John Calipari, to Fayetteville.

Arkansas has more than made its mark in the most competitive conference in the nation, winning 39 Southeastern Conference Championships in the past seven years, including 31 conference titles in the past five years alone. Both marks lead all SEC programs and the Razorbacks' 39 titles are more than seven other league programs combined in that same timeframe.

The Razorbacks made it five years in a row in the Top 20 of the Learfield Directors' Cup in 2024-25, finishing 11th overall and fifth among SEC schools to extend the program's record streak to five straight years. In addition to the most recent Top 20 finish, Arkansas finished No. 18 in 2023-24, No. 13 in 2022-23, No. 7 in 2021-22 and No. 8 in 2020-21.

Six Arkansas teams made deep runs in the NCAA postseason with men's basketball reaching the Sweet 16 for the fourth time in five years in Coach Calipari's first season. Powered by individual NCAA champion Maria Jose Marin, the women's golf program advanced to match play for the first time in program history. Baseball and softball hosted NCAA Regional and Super Regional rounds with Dave Van Horn leading the baseball team back to the College World Series for the eighth time in his legendary tenure before finishing ranked No. 3 in the season's final poll. The soccer program once again hosted in the NCAA postseason, making a return trip to the Sweet 16 for the third time in four years. Gymnastics advanced to a NCAA Regional final before coming up just short of a return trip to NCAA Championships.

The Hogs claimed three SEC titles with the men's cross country team securing their fourth SEC crown in five years. The men's and women's track programs delivered SEC titles with the men claiming their fifth-consecutive outdoor trophy and the women winning the program's 13th straight SEC Indoor Track & Field championship.

An incredible nine Arkansas student-athletes were named the player of the year in their respective sports during the year, including baseball's Golden Spikes Award winner Wehiwa Aloy, softball's National Player of the Year Bri Ellis and women's track's National Indoor Track Athlete of the Year Isabella Whittaker.

Arkansas student-athletes are also excelling in the classroom. In 2024-25, Arkansas student-athletes recorded the highest GPA on record with a 3.32 and marked the department's 32nd consecutive semester with at least a 3.0 GPA. Of the 19 programs, 18 posted a 3.0 cumulative GPA or better. A total of 102 Razorback student-athletes earned their degrees with the program once again achieving a 100% Razorback Graduation Rate, which is based on student-athletes who complete their athletics eligibility and earn their degree.

The Razorbacks tallied two NCAA championships in 2023-24, recorded nine Top 10 national finishes and won five Southeastern Conference championships in the 2023-24 athletics season.

Arkansas finished in the Top 10 at every men's and women's cross country and track and field NCAA championship contested in 2023-24 and recorded a program best Elite Eight finish in volleyball.

In February 2024, Yurachek was appointed to the prestigious College Football Playoff Committee, where he will serve for the next three seasons. He has also previously served as a member of the NCAA Football Oversight Committee and the Football Competition Committee. Yurachek has also served on the SEC Executive Committee, which approves the annual operating budget and oversees all financial and fiscal affairs of the conference.

Yurachek was selected as a 2021-22 Football Bowl Subdivision Cushman & Wakefield Athletics Director of the Year by his peers. He was also a finalist for the Sports Business Journal 2022 Athletics Director of the Year.

Yurachek's leadership is also making a difference within Arkansas, the SEC and throughout intercollegiate athletics. In 2020, Arkansas Governor Asa Hutchinson named Yurachek to the Governor's Economic Recovery Task Force, to help guide state reopening in the wake of COVID-19. Yurachek was honored as the Arkansas Press Association Headliner of the Year in 2021 and was named the inaugural Celebrate Arkansas Influencer of the Year in 2022.

In 2022-23, the Razorbacks recorded a third-consecutive Top 15 finish with a No. 13 finish. Arkansas finished first among programs with 19 or fewer sports. The Razorbacks captured two NCAA Championships (MITK, WITK), earned 13 Top 25 finishes and six Top 10 national finishes. Seventeen of 19 programs were ranked in the top 25, with eight breaking into the top 10. The Hogs won a bowl game for the second-straight year, advanced to the NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament's Sweet Sixteen for the third-consecutive year and won the program's first match in the NCAA Volleyball Tournament in 18 years. Arkansas won five SEC Championships (BA, MITK, WITK, MOTK, WOTK).

Academically, Razorback student-athletes combined for a 3.20 cumulative GPA and 166 student-athletes earned academic personal bests. A total of 72 Razorback student-athletes graduated and another 12 earned graduate certificates.

In the 2021-22 academic year, Arkansas recorded the most successful year in the program's history, finishing seventh in the Learfield Directors' Cup. The Razorbacks finished first among programs with 19 or fewer sports, second among SEC schools and earned only its second Top 10 Directors' Cup finish. Arkansas earned a total of nine Top 10 NCAA finishes and 12 Top 20 NCAA finishes. The Razorbacks won eight Southeastern Conference championships (men's and women's cross country, soccer, men's and women's indoor track and field, men's outdoor track and field, softball regular season, softball tournament) and won a New Year's Day bowl game in football for the first time since 2000. In addition, the Razorbacks advanced to the College World Series, the Elite Eight in men's basketball and women's soccer, and the NCAA Golf Championships in both men's and women's golf.

In the classroom, Razorback student-athletes earned a then program-record 3.27 GPA and a total of 97 Razorback student-athletes earned their degrees and added their names to Senior Walk in the 2021-22 academic year.

In 2020-21, Razorback Athletics earned a then program-best eighth place finish in the 2020-21 Learfield Directors' Cup. Arkansas' previous best finish, prior to 2020-21, was 14th in the competition that tracks the nation's most successful intercollegiate athletics programs.

The Razorbacks won another NCAA title (Women's Indoor Track & Field), earned eight Top 10 NCAA finishes and a remarkable 10 Southeastern Conference regular season and tournament championships, including SEC triple crown sweeps in both men's and women's cross country & track and field, a second-straight soccer regular season crown, the program's first softball regular season title and a baseball regular season and tournament championship. Arkansas' championship total led the league and doubled the next closest SEC program.

Meanwhile, Razorback student-athletes combined for a 3.25 GPA and 104 student-athletes graduated from the University of Arkansas. A multi-million-dollar renovation of the Randal Tyson Track Center was completed, while brand new facilities, including the $27 million J.B. and Johnelle Hunt Family Baseball Development Center and the $15 million Frank O'Mara Track and Field High Performance Center were constructed.

Even in an abbreviated 2019-20 competition schedule, Razorback Athletics built an impressive resume, including winning its first NCAA championship in women's cross country and its first SEC title in soccer. In addition, the Razorbacks earned SEC championships in women's cross country and men's and women's indoor track and field. Razorback student-athletes followed suit in the classroom, earning a 3.24 cumulative GPA with 107 student-athletes adding their names to Senior Walk as University of Arkansas graduates.

Razorback Athletics was also at the forefront of several key initiatives in 2019-20. In October, Nolan Richardson Court was dedicated at Bud Walton Arena. The Eddie Sutton Men's Basketball Practice gymnasium was created at the Basketball Performance Center.

In 2018-19, Arkansas finished No. 23 in the Learfield IMG College Directors' Cup, including finishing first among programs with 19 or fewer teams. Arkansas captured two NCAA team championships (women's indoor and outdoor track & field), four SEC team championships (women's cross country, women's indoor and outdoor track & field, men's golf) and four SEC team runner-up finishes (soccer, men's cross country, men's indoor track & field and women's basketball).

In addition, the Razorback Baseball team won a share of the SEC Western Division title and advanced to its second straight College World Series. A total of 14 programs were nationally ranked during 2018-19, including five in the top 10. Arkansas had four NCAA individual and 22 SEC individual champions.

Razorback student-athletes continued to achieve at a high level in the classroom, posting a cumulative GPA of 3.24. The program graduated 98% of student-athletes who exhausted their athletic eligibility.

In 2018-19, Arkansas hosted its first NCAA Men's and Women's Golf Championships at Blessings Golf Club. In addition, Arkansas was home to the 2019 SEC Indoor and Outdoor Track & Field Championships as well as both an NCAA Baseball Regional and Super Regional at Baum-Walker Stadium.

Yurachek launched several initiatives to further engage Arkansas and Razorback fans around the world. In August 2018, as part of the One Razorback campaign, the inaugural One Hog Call event was held in Fayetteville, Little Rock and around the globe. Razorback fans from more than 16 countries and 40 states participated in a simultaneous Hog Call.

Yurachek's first full year in Fayetteville saw tremendous success. Arkansas tied a program record with a No. 16 finish in the 2017-18 Learfield Sports Directors Cup, and first in the nation among schools with 19 or fewer sports.

In 2017-18, Arkansas captured four SEC championships (men's and women's cross country, women's indoor track, women's golf), including the school's first SEC crown in women's golf. The Razorbacks earned three Top 5 national finishes including national championship runner-up finishes at the 2018 NCAA Women's Indoor Track and Field Championships and the 2018 College World Series. Four Arkansas student-athletes earned individual national championships.

In the 2018 spring semester, Razorback student-athletes earned a record-tying 3.25 GPA and 282 student-athletes secured a spot on the department honor roll. Nearly 125 Razorback student-athletes added their name to Senior Walk as graduates of the University of Arkansas.

Yurachek came to Arkansas from the University of Houston where he served as the vice president for athletics. Prior to Houston, Yurachek served as Director of Athletics at Coastal Carolina University, where Coastal won 29 Big South Conference championships. Yurachek was named Under Armor FCS Athletic Director of the Year in 2014. He has also worked at the University of Akron, the University of Virginia, Western Carolina University, Vanderbilt University and Wake Forest University.

In Yurachek's first two years at Houston, the Cougars' sport programs eclipsed 225 points in the Learfield Directors' Cup in back-to-back years for the first time in department history, securing Top 3 finishes in The American Athletic Conference both years. Houston's programs combined for a league-leading five American Conference team championships and 22 American Conference individual titles.

The success was not limited to the field of play, however, as UH student-athletes placed 96 and 109 student-athletes on the Dean's List in the fall and spring semesters, respectively. Houston student-athletes combined for the highest spring GPA (2.95), highest cumulative GPA following a spring semester (2.93) and the highest average hours passed in a spring semester (14.1) in department history.

The 2016-17 year also saw the continuation of an aggressive facilities plan as construction began on the $60 million renovation of the Fertitta Center, the football indoor practice facility and a baseball player development center and clubhouse with more than $85 million of projects all privately funded.

In his first year in the role, Houston recorded its highest finish in the Learfield Directors' Cup since 1999-2000 and its second-highest finish in school history with 296.5 points to finish 73rd nationally. The 2015-16 academic year saw the Houston Football program capture The American Athletic Conference Championship and a Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl win over Florida State, the Houston Men's Track & Field program win The American Indoor and Outdoor Championships and the Houston Women's Golf program claim an American Championship in only its second year with a full team. In addition, the Men's Basketball program returned to the NCAA postseason for the 29th time in program history and the Men's Golf program advanced to the NCAA Championships for the third straight year.

All of the athletic achievements occurred while UH student-athletes recorded the second-best fall GPA, 2.91, and second-best spring GPA, 2.87, in athletic department history while placing a record 88 student-athletes on the University's Dean's Honor List in the spring.

Yurachek led the Houston Athletics fundraising charge with a record amount $5.2 million in private donations to the Athletics general scholarship fund in the 2014-15 fiscal year. Focused on improving the student-athlete experience, Yurachek also led a department that unveiled the completed Guy V. Lewis Development Center for the Houston Men's and Women's Basketball programs, Carolyn and Ron Yokubaitis Field at Carl Lewis International Track & Field Complex, one of the nation's largest collegiate baseball video boards, a renovated Houston Football locker room and a short game facility for the Houston Men's and Women's Golf programs.

Named by Chancellor Dr. Renu Khator as Chair for a campus-wide steering committee established to oversee the grand opening events for the $128 million TDECU Stadium, Yurachek assisted in the cultivation, solicitation and securing of a 10-year, $15 million-naming rights agreement for TDECU Stadium with the per year value ranking in the top ten nationally for collegiate venue naming rights agreements.

Yurachek was instrumental in the national search and hiring of football and men and women's basketball head coaches (Tom Herman, Kelvin Sampson, Ronald Hughey) while overseeing the development and implementation of a $500,000 remodeling project to the men and women's basketball locker rooms.

He served as liaison with an architectural design firm on the plans for the $25-million Guy V. Lewis Development Center as well as overseeing the development and implementation of a $500,000 facility enhancement to the Athletics/Alumni Center, including the addition of Cougar Cafe, a student-athlete nutrition center.

Yurachek came to Houston after serving four years as Director of Athletics at Coastal Carolina University where he oversaw a department featuring 18 men's and women's NCAA Division I sport programs. A testament of his vision, Yurachek was named the 2014 Under Armour FCS Athletic Director of the Year in May of 2014.

Under Yurachek's leadership, the Chanticleers won a total of 29 Big South Championships (both regular season and tournament championships), made 30 NCAA appearances and finished a program-best 79th in the 2012-13 Learfield Director's Cup.

During Yurachek's time of leadership, Coastal hosted an NCAA Baseball Regional; NCAA Baseball Super Regional; NCAA Division I Football championship contests in 2010 and '13; and NCAA Men's Soccer Championship matches in 2011, '12 and '13, as well as winning a competitive bid to host the VisitMyrtleBeach.com Men's and Women's Big South Basketball Championships in 2013, 2014 and 2015, sponsored by the Myrtle Beach Area Chamber of Commerce.

Coastal Carolina student-athletes posted a 3.028 grade point average (GPA) for the fall 2013 semester and saw its overall GPA rise from 3.053 to 3.108. Of the 434 student-athletes, 253 - or 58.3 percent - posted a GPA between 4.0 and 3.0, including 28 who earned President's List (4.0 GPA for the semester) and an additional 117 who earned Dean's List recognition.

In addition, during Yurachek's tenure Coastal Carolina student-athletes earned:

- 363 All-Big South honors
- 31 All-Big South Player of the Year honors along with 13 Big South Freshman of the Year honors
- 28 All-America honors
- 11 Big South Scholar-Athlete of the Year honors in their respective sports
- 5 Academic All-America honors
- 4 national postgraduate scholarships
- 3 Big South Conference Christenberry Awards for Academic Excellence

With all the success, the Coastal Carolina department operated within a balanced budget during Yurachek's tenure, thanks to his zero-budget initiative and the unprecedented revenues generated since his arrival with his restructuring of the external relations department. In his first year, the department revenue was at $560,000, including $316,000 in ticket sales and sponsorships at $250,000. After the 2012-13 year, revenue came in at $1.4 million, thanks to $549,000 in ticket sales and $600,000 in sponsorships.

Since 2010, the Department of Athletics added women's lacrosse; launched Champions for Life, a life skills enhancement program for student-athletes; signed a five-year $1.1 million contract with an athletic apparel provider; established the Letterwinners Association; successfully completed NCAA Cycle 3 Recertification; and has been featured on the front page of the sports section of USA Today with the headline reading "Coastal Carolina Piles up Sports Success."

Also, during Yurachek's tenure, several major projects that supported intercollegiate athletics totaling more than $250 million were included in the University's ongoing capital improvements across the campus.

Prior to his appointment at Coastal Carolina University, Yurachek was executive senior associate athletics director at the University of Akron. He led and managed the Zips' external relations unit, which included marketing and promotions, media relations, ticket operations, development (Z-Fund), video operations and merchandising. In addition, he was the sport administrator for men's basketball, men's golf and women's golf and worked closely with the football program.

Yurachek has also held various athletics administration leadership positions at the University of Virginia, Western Carolina University, Vanderbilt University and Wake Forest University.

He earned his bachelor's degree in business management at Guilford College in 1990, where he was a four-year letter winner in basketball. He earned his master's degree in sports administration from the University of Richmond in 1994.

Born in Richmond, Va., and raised in Charlotte, N.C., Yurachek, and his wife Jennifer have three sons: Ryan, Jake and Brooks. Ryan, a former Marshall University football student-athlete, is the tight ends coach at Appalachian State. He and his wife Morgan reside in Boone, N.C. with their son Trace. Jake is a University of Arkansas graduate and former Razorback football student-athlete and now works within intercollegiate athletics at SMU. Brooks is a redshirt sophomore linebacker at Appalachian State.

DONALD W. REYNOLDS RAZORBACK STADIUM

Donald W. Reynolds Razorback Stadium (DWRRS) will serve as the home of Razorback Football for the 88th season during the 2025 campaign. Since opening in 1938, the Razorbacks have played 328 games at the current site, winning over 63-percent of their contests.

Located on the western side of campus, DWRRS was formerly known as Razorback Stadium before being renamed in 2001 in honor of the late Donald W. Reynolds. The playing field is named in honor of former athletics director and the winningest, longest-tenured head football coach in University of Arkansas history, Frank Broyles.

Upon undergoing many modifications, DWRRS gives the University of Arkansas one of the finest football facilities in the nation. A $160 million stadium renovation and north end addition was completed prior to the 2018 season. All existing suites and club areas were renovated, and additional elevators were constructed in the northwest and northeast corners of the stadium. As part of the same project, a south video board was added in time for the 2017 season. The north end addition is home to the new Broyles Athletics Center as well as suites, loge boxes, club seats and club areas. The addition also provided new concessions and restrooms as well as a stadium-wide concourse that allows the flow of fans throughout the stadium. A new football team locker room, press conference room, other team areas and various displays celebrating Razorback history and traditions were also part of the north end addition.

Prior to the 2001 season, the stadium underwent a dramatic advancement – a $110 million project, which included a $20 million gift from the Donald W. Reynolds Foundation, increased the seating capacity from 51,000 to 72,000.

The renovation included reconstructed concourses with a brick facade that completely enclosed the concrete and steel below the stands. In addition, the concourses were widened, and concession areas and restrooms were replaced.

Known as "Championship Alley," the east concourse displays all 13 conference championships, the 1964 national title and every football letterman. The south end zone concourse, "All-American Alley," is dedicated to the 64 Razorback All-Americans. The west concourse, "Bowl Alley," commemorates each of the program's 46 bowl teams.

Another noticeable addition was the enclosure of the south end zone, which features chair back seating and the addition of approximately 7,300 total seats as well as a food court with vendor space.

Along with an expanded press box, which includes Orville Henry Press Row, 68 luxury suites/skyboxes were added, bringing the total to 134.

The 3,800 square foot Wilson Matthews A Club was added on the east side next to a 6,500-seat upper deck that is complemented by enclosed premium club seating. The stadium's capacity includes 8,950 club seats, inside and out.

One of the first expansion projects occurred in 1950 and included the construction of a new press box and 5,200 more seats on the west side. Another 5,200-seat addition to the east side was completed in 1957.

Earlier building efforts in 1965 and 1969 raised capacity to 42,678 – a figure held steady for more than a decade.

Prior to 2001, the last previous expansion occurred before the 1985 season and added additional seats and skyboxes, bringing the facility to 50,000 seats.

Astroturf was added in 1969. The playing surface then returned to natural grass in 1995 prior to its transition to synthetic turf in 2009. The surface reverted to a natural grass beginning with the 2019 season.

Making its debut on Sept. 24, 1938, as Arkansas defeated Oklahoma A&M, 27-7, the stadium was dedicated later that year on Oct. 8 when the Razorbacks hosted Baylor.

Constructed as a Works Progress Administration project with an original capacity of 13,500, the facility was first enlarged upon the arrival of John Barnhill as athletic director in 1947 when an additional 2,500 seats were added to the north end of the east and west grandstands.

Prior to 1938, the Razorbacks played in a 300-seat stadium built in 1901 on land atop "The Hill," now occupied by Mullins Library and the Fine Arts Center.

FRANK BROYLES

For more than five decades, Frank Broyles helped shape intercollegiate athletics as a legendary coach, nationally respected administrator and a tireless goodwill ambassador for his university and state.

In July 2014, Broyles stepped away from his day-to-day duties with the Razorback Foundation after a combined 55 years of service with the Department of Intercollegiate Athletics and Razorback Foundation. Broyles served as Athletics Director Emeritus.

In his 19-year stint as Arkansas' head coach, the Razorbacks posted a record of 144-58-5, captured seven SWC championships, one national championship and earned 10 bowl berths. Broyles was a six-time SWC Coach of the Year and became the mentor to dozens of assistant coaches preparing them for successful head coaching careers in both college and pro football. His impact on the coaching profession is best measured in the development of more than 40 head coaches. Former Broyles' assistant coaches have combined to win five Super Bowls, five national championships, more than 40 conference titles and more than 2,000 games. His legacy is celebrated annually with the presentation of the Broyles Award to the nation's top assistant football coach.

Broyles assumed the role of athletics director in July 1973 and remained in that position long after retiring from coaching in 1976. While universally recognized for his coaching prowess, it was his keen administrative and business skills that allowed Broyles to charter a steady course of success for the Razorbacks. Broyles laid the groundwork for transforming the athletic program into an all sport program that produced 41 national championships, 57 SWC and 48 SEC championships, 22 bowl appearances and a bevy of other team and individual accomplishments under his tenure.

On Nov. 3, 2007, Frank Broyles Field, the on-campus football playing field for the Arkansas Razorbacks within Donald W. Reynolds Razorback Stadium, was named for the longtime head football coach and athletics director. The field was dedicated at halftime of the Arkansas-South Carolina game in an on-field ceremony that included Broyles once again leading former Razorback football lettermen through the "A" and a surprise visit from broadcasting legend and Broyles' former ABC Sports broadcasting partner Keith Jackson. The dedication culminated a memorable weekend that also included a reunion of former football lettermen spanning Coach Broyles' 19-year career as the Razorbacks' head football coach.

On Nov. 23, 2013, a bronze statue was dedicated in Broyles honor in front of the Broyles Athletic Center. The statue, sculpted by Dr. Gary Renegar, stands seven and a half feet and weighs more than 700 pounds.

WAR MEMORIAL STADIUM

The Razorbacks' home venue in Central Arkansas for 77 years, War Memorial Stadium/AT&T Field will host Arkansas football games through 2025. Arkansas is slated to face Arkansas State this season in Little Rock.

Three-year Arkansas letterman and Medal of Honor recipient Maurice "Footsie" Britt was the featured speaker during dedication ceremonies for War Memorial Stadium on Sept. 18, 1948. On that day, a crowd of 24,950 (a record football attendance in Arkansas at that time) watched the Razorbacks defeat Abilene Christian, 40-6.

During its existence, the facility has expanded from its original capacity of 31,000 to its current figure of 54,120.

A complete lighting system and Astroturf surface were added for the 1970 season with a new artificial surface to follow in 1974. Ten years later, another new layer of artificial turf was installed before a return to natural grass was made in 1994. AstroPlay was installed for the 2002 season. War Memorial Stadium installed a new turf manufactured by Field Turf during the summer of 2010 and the field was named AT&T Field. In addition, a new $7.5 million press box that includes 500 club seats was constructed for the 2010 football season. The War Memorial Stadium Commission, along with the University of Arkansas Athletic Department, has renovated the Razorback Letterman's Club and Recruit Room.

In 1974, the press box was honored as the best in the nation by the Football Writers Association of America, a recognition for the facility and the services provided. The press floor is now named for longtime sportswriter and an authority on Razorback history, Orville Henry.

FRED W. SMITH FOOTBALL CENTER

The 80,000 square-foot Fred W. Smith Football Center opened in 2013 and includes a spacious locker room, team meeting rooms, training room, equipment room, a student-athlete lounge and study area, coaches' offices, a recruiting reception area and football displays celebrating the tradition of Razorback Football. In the fall of 2012 as part of the football center project, two new practice fields and a parking deck were completed south of the Walker Family Training Center providing the football team with spectacular new practice venues and university faculty and students with approximately 225 covered parking spaces.

Fred W. Smith, former chairman of the Donald W. Reynolds Foundation and longtime benefactor of the University of Arkansas and Razorback Athletics, passed away at age 84 on April 29, 2018, in Santa Monica, Calif. Through his work with the Donald W. Reynolds Foundation, Mr. Smith was instrumental in the university's securement of several multi-million-dollar gifts, including the Donald W. Reynolds Razorback Stadium expansion, the Jerry and Gene Jones Family Student-Athlete Success Center and the Student-Athlete Development program, within Razorback Athletics.

In 2011, under Mr. Smith's leadership, the Donald W. Reynolds Foundation issued a $10 million challenge grant to help generate funding for a new football operations building for the University of Arkansas. In 2013, the $40 million Fred W. Smith Football Center was dedicated providing Razorback Football with a new home.

JONES FAMILY STUDENT-ATHLETE SUCCESS CENTER

The Jerry and Gene Jones Family Student-Athlete Success Center helps address the academic, nutritional, personal and professional development of more than 460 student-athletes in an approximately 55,000 square foot facility, creating an integrated academic support program focused on graduation of all student-athletes at the University of Arkansas.

- 31 Tutor Rooms (11 large rooms for 6-8 people and 20 small rooms for 2-4 people).
- 5,000 square feet of open study/lounge space.
- 2,300 square feet of Computer Lab Space (2 computer labs – large and small).
- 1,500 square feet of Group Lab Space.
- 25 Offices for staff and academic counselors.
- 1,500 square feet in the Multi-Purpose Room with capacity of 90 or more.
- 150 Seat Auditorium (Designed for hosting the Razorback Leadership Academy, seminars, guest speakers, large group presentations and other Athletic Academic programming with full A/V capabilities).
- Designated area for Educational Enrichment Services.
- Designated area for Student-Athlete Development.
- Wellness area with offices for staff psychologist and nutritionist.
- Dining Hall with full-service kitchen and seating for approximately 250 people.

FORWARD
HIGHER
The University of Arkansas is a welcoming campus of students, faculty and staff who are determined to build a better world. For more than 150 years, tradition and innovation have merged here, creating life-changing opportunities for student success and a sense of belonging. As one of the nation's top public research universities, the U of A has been dedicated to Arkansas since 1871. Building on record momentum in enrollment, graduation rates, research activity and economic impact, the university is reaching higher with ambitious goals to increase student success, expand support for students across the state, and grow the positive impact of its research.

My Path to Senior Walk

› With more than 30,000 students on the U of A campus, everyone has a story to tell, and everyone has a different path to earning their name into Senior Walk.

Breanna Kilgore
El Dorado, AR

Breanna Kilgore is an Honors College senior majoring in biomedical engineering and chose to attend the U of A because it felt like home. As a freshman, Breanna found her connection in the Engineering Career Awareness Program as well as the Honors Path Program. Those programs surrounded her with other first-generation students and helped her build the community she has now. She also earned opportunities to conduct research at Johns Hopkins and learn a new language in Geneva, Switzerland. "I aspire to become an engineer in the realm of global health," she says. "The skills I have gained here at the U of A have prepared me for the future."

Jonah Windel
Deer, AR

Jonah is a full-time engineering student, who is also working on a German minor and recently became a new father. Though he was a little intimidated by the size of the U of A, he knew the engineering school would help him reach his goal of working in the automotive field as a career. Despite its large size, Jonah says the campus felt very much like a small town, which helped him feel right at home.

Elyana Martinez
Russellville, AR

Elyana Martinez has always been determined to make the world a better place. As a freshman in the Honors College majoring in biomedical engineering, Martinez has taken advantage of several opportunities on campus to get involved and give back. She's active with the Volunteer Action Center, serving as a mentor with Dream B.I.G., which empowers girls in grades 6-12 who live in the Arkansas Delta. Giving to others has also given her a community, where she says she has found a connection with others who share her values.

If you or someone you know has a story to share about everyday student successes at the U of A, please nominate them for a #MyPathToSeniorWalk spotlight to be shared on social media.

CHANCELLOR CHARLES F. ROBINSON

Charles F. Robinson, the seventh chancellor of the University of Arkansas, is committed to advancing the university's land-grant mission to provide opportunity and transform lives through education, research and service.

Dr. Robinson was appointed chancellor in November 2022, after serving as interim chancellor since August 2021. The U of A has set several institutional records under his leadership, including those for graduation rate, retention rate, scholarship funding and enrollment. In addition, the university conducted a record $221.5 million in research in fiscal year 2023, while investing $136 million more of its own resources into applied research facilities since 2021. Under Robinson's leadership, the university contributes over $3 billion annually to the state's economy, underscoring its role as a driver of economic growth and innovation.

Chancellor Robinson prioritizes supporting student success, augmenting the institution's research enterprise and enhancing the university's status as an employer of choice. He initiated and is guiding the $200 million Land of Opportunity Scholarship campaign, a transformative initiative aimed at bridging financial gaps for Arkansas students with the greatest financial need. Robinson has minimized, or at times frozen, tuition increases for in-state students while adding several million dollars in scholarship support for Arkansans and raising employee pay. He is also overseeing the development of world-class research facilities such as the Institute for Integrative and Innovative Research (I^3R), the Multi-User Silicon Carbide Research and Fabrication Facility (MUSiC), and the Anthony Timberlands Center for Design and Materials Innovation – helping ensure the university remains a leader in applied research that solves real-world problems, improves lives and strengthens the economy.

Robinson became chancellor after serving the U of A in several capacities over the course of more than two decades. He joined the university as an assistant professor of history in 1999 and was promoted to full professor in 2011. He was then promoted to positions of increasing responsibility, including vice chancellor for Student Affairs and provost and executive vice chancellor for Academic and Student Affairs.

Before becoming chancellor, Robinson led initiatives such as Advance Arkansas – a $10 million scholarship effort for first-generation, low-income Arkansans – and the College Access Initiative, a need-based college readiness outreach program serving students and under-resourced schools statewide. Under his leadership, the university constructed Adohi Hall, which is the only residence hall in the United States to use sustainable cross-laminated timber. Robinson also oversaw an expansion of Pat Walker Health Center and led strategic planning for the university's 71,000 square foot Student Success Center.

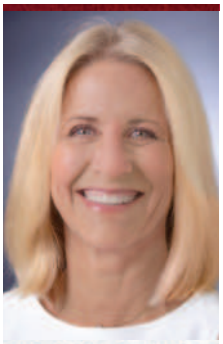

An accomplished historian, Robinson's research and teaching focus on southern history. He has earned many awards for his teaching, including the Fulbright College Master Teacher Award, Arkansas Student Alumni Board Teacher of the Year, and induction into the university's Teaching Academy.

Robinson holds a bachelor's degree in history from the University of Houston, a master's degree in history from Rice University and a doctorate in history from the University of Houston.

Known as an engaged and approachable leader on campus, Robinson is also heavily involved with multiple regional, state and national organizations including recent or current roles on the Arkansas Research Alliance Board of Directors, AETN Foundation Board, Northwest Arkansas Council Advisory Committee, ARVEST Bank Board of Directors, National Merit Scholarship Corporation Board of Directors, Center for First-Generation Student Success Advisory Board and the Association of Public & Land-Grant Universities Council of Presidents.

BOARD OF TRUSTEES, SYSTEM PRESIDENT & FACULTY ATHLETICS REPRESENTATIVE

The Board of Trustees of the University of Arkansas serves as the institution's governing body. The board is comprised of 10 trustees representing each of the state's four congressional districts, and two at-large appointees. The president is the chief executive officer of the University of Arkansas System and reports to the Board of Trustees. Each campus has a chancellor as its chief executive officer, reporting directly to the president.

DR. PAUL ADAMS
FACULTY ATHLETICS REPRESENTATIVE

Dr. Paul Adams, professor of biochemistry in the Department of Chemistry and Biochemistry and faculty member in the U of A's interdisciplinary cellular and molecular biology program, earned a B.S. in biochemistry from Louisiana State University and a Ph.D. in biophysical chemistry from Case Western Reserve University.

Adams' research and scholarly activities have garnered federal funding from the National Institutes of Health, the National Science Foundation, as well as from state agencies such as the Arkansas Biosciences Institute, the Arkansas Science and Technology Authority and the Winthrop P. Rockefeller Foundation at the University of Arkansas for Medical Sciences.

He has directed the research projects of over 70 honors, undergraduate, graduate and postdoctoral students in his laboratory at the university and has mentored many other students since arriving to the U of A.

Honors and awards Adams has recently received include: the William and Wilma Haines Distinguished Lecturer in Biochemistry, Wabash College, Crawfordsville, IN (2017); the Distinguished Faculty Award from The Honors College (2017); Top 10 Most Outstanding Faculty Member, U of A Student Government and Student Alumni Associations (2018); Faculty Researcher National Role Model, National Minority Access Inc. (2019); Lifetime Achievement Award, Northwest Arkansas Martin Luther King Jr. Council (2020).

Adams' most recent accomplishment came in the form of an election to the Executive Board of Directors of the National Organization for the Professional Advancement of Black Chemists and Chemical Engineers in the summer of 2020.

Since 2017, Adams has served as principal investigator of an NSF grant that funded the U of A's Honors College Path Program, which recruits talented high school students from underrepresented populations to help them thrive and succeed at the university.

In December 2019, Adams was selected as a member of the first cohort of the UARK Leaders Program, a program offered through the Office of the Provost, the Office of Human Resources and Walton College of Business Executive Education. This new leadership development program was launched to support the professional growth of influential and up-and coming university leaders while enhancing collaboration and innovation on campus.

GREG SANKEY, COMMISSIONER, SEC

Greg Sankey became the eighth Commissioner of the Southeastern Conference on June 1, 2015, and has successfully built upon the SEC's recognized success, strong foundations and rich traditions.

Sankey has effectively introduced change and innovation for the conference while respecting the institutional traditions that make the SEC unique. With an understanding of the highly competitive environment of college sports, he has fostered the collaborative culture of the SEC that sets the conference apart and supports its continuing success.

Sankey brings a big picture approach to his position through continuing focus on a vision that positions the SEC to leverage its athletics success and reputation for a greater overall cultural and economic impact on the region, the nation and the world.

Sankey has built upon the foundation set in his first major address as the conference leader in 2015 when he stated, "Educating scholars and supporting champions provides the platform for developing leaders who will influence the world." His relentless focus on providing resources for student-athlete success continues to make the Southeastern Conference a leader in college athletics.

LEADERSHIP IN A CHALLENGING ENVIRONMENT

When the NCAA sought to navigate a changing landscape for college athletics, it called on Sankey to co-chair its Division I Transformation Committee, a body of college sports leaders tasked with addressing the most significant challenges in college athletics, to support student-athletes more effectively, and even reimagine the future of college sports.

And it was not the first time Sankey stepped forward at a crucial time for college sports. Sankey's leadership through the COVID-19 pandemic served the SEC well as the league prepared for a return to action in the fall of 2020. Sankey fostered a culture of collaboration among the leaders of the Conference in order to allow the SEC's 14 schools to move together through difficult and unprecedented decisions.

While the pandemic had a devastating effect on the finances of college athletics programs across the country, Sankey kept focus on the long-term financial vitality of the SEC. In 2020, Sankey and his team finalized a milestone 10-year agreement with the Walt Disney Company that grants ABC and ESPN exclusive broadcast rights to premier SEC football and basketball events beginning in 2024-25 and continuing through 2033-34.

Less than a year after the blockbuster agreement with Disney, the SEC made news again as Sankey ushered the University of Oklahoma and University of Texas through membership discussions and announced the two leading universities will join as members with the SEC's nationally prominent institutions.

ADVOCATING FOR STUDENT-ATHLETE OPPORTUNITY

Throughout his career, Sankey has established himself as an advocate for the student-athlete, creating a framework to provide young people in the Conference with challenging leadership opportunities and expanded resources to succeed at the highest levels of academic and competitive success. Student-athlete focused initiatives introduced under Sankey's leadership include:

- Creation of a leadership position in the SEC office for Student-Athlete Engagement, a role focused on offering student-athletes the opportunity to participate in Conference leadership.
- Introduction of Student-Athlete Leadership Councils for Football, Men's Basketball and Women's Basketball which provide student-athletes with enhanced opportunities to engage with campus leaders and Conference office staff.
- Introduction of a Student-Athlete Career Tour which provides groups of student-athletes with opportunities to engage in career exploration with high level corporations and businesses in major metropolitan areas.
- Expansion of the student-athlete role at the annual SEC Spring Meetings when student-athlete leaders participate in a robust agenda of interaction with administrators and coaches to provide their perspectives to Conference leaders.

ADVANCING THE CONFERENCE

Sankey has been intentional and diligent in addressing issues critical to college athletics, with an emphasis on integrity, ethics, sportsmanship and diversity including:

- Development of updated Conference policies governing conduct expectations for student-athletes, including the adoption of a serious misconduct policy governing transfers that has served as a model for similar policies adopted by other conferences. The policy was later expanded to include all incoming prospective student-athletes.
- Creation of the SEC Council on Racial Equity and Social Justice, a league-wide body consisting of a diverse group of student-athletes, administrators, coaches and SEC staff. The Council identifies resources, outlines strategies and assists with implementation of efforts that promote racial equity and social justice, fosters diversity and helps overcome racism and pursues non-discrimination in intercollegiate athletics.
- Crafting a new SEC bylaw aimed at encouraging, facilitating and assisting member institutions in attracting and hiring individuals in historically underrepresented groups in leadership positions of their athletics programs.

Another priority under Sankey's leadership is growing exposure for the Conference and effectively publicizing success stories of the SEC. Strategies pursued to achieve this objective include:

- Ongoing collaboration with the SEC Network to create unique exposure opportunities for Conference universities, teams and student-athletes, including behind-the-scenes programming, expanding live championship coverage for Olympic Sports and other unique programming.
- Engagement with a national marketing agency to develop and maintain a comprehensive branding campaign. The theme - "It Just Means More" - communicates the history, legacy and overall positive impact the SEC has on its region, the nation and the world.
- Introduction of the SEC Graduate Patch, a logo placed on the uniforms in every sport to provide recognition of SEC student-athletes who have earned their undergraduate degree and are continuing their participation in intercollegiate athletics.

A CAREER IN COLLEGE ATHLETICS

On March 12, 2015, the Presidents and Chancellors of the SEC announced Greg Sankey would succeed Mike Slive as Commissioner of the SEC.

Sankey, 59, first joined the SEC staff in 2002 as Associate Commissioner for Governance, Enforcement and Compliance and later added supervision of the league's championships staff to his responsibilities. He was elevated to Executive Associate Commissioner and Chief Operating Officer for the league office in 2012, becoming responsible for the day-to-day operation of the SEC Office.

Before moving to the SEC, Sankey served as Commissioner of the Southland Conference for nearly seven years. He joined the Southland Conference staff in 1992 where he served as both assistant and associate commissioner before he was named its commissioner in 1996 at the age of 31.

Prior to his term at the Southland Conference, he was Director of Compliance and Academic Services at Northwestern State University in Natchitoches, LA, as well as coach of the Demons' golf team. Before his tenure at Northwestern State, he was the Director of Intramural Sports at Utica College in upstate New York.

A native of Auburn, NY, Sankey earned his master's degree from Syracuse University and his undergraduate degree from the State University of New York College at Cortland. Sankey and his wife, Cathy, reside in Birmingham, AL, and have two adult daughters, Hannah (and her husband, Rod) and Moriah.

SEC FOOTBALL CHAMPIONSHIP

The Southeastern Conference's top two teams will meet in Atlanta's Mercedes-Benz Stadium to battle for the league championship and the right to represent the conference in the College Football Playoff. The 31st-annual title game is set for December 6 and will be televised nationally by ABC.

The game was born as a result of 1992 conference expansion, which saw Arkansas and South Carolina become the first members added in SEC history. Under NCAA regulations, a conference with 12 members may play an additional football game to determine its champion, provided the regular season is played in divisions.

The participants of the game are determined each year during the eight-game regular-season conference schedule as the teams with the best overall SEC winning percentage.

The 2017 SEC Championship Game was the highest rated game in the nation for the entire regular season. No. 7 Georgia's 28-7 win over No. 2 Auburn drew an average overnight rating of 8.4 and 18 share, the best for CBS since 2013, when the Iron Bowl drew an 8.6/18 rating and share.

The 2009 SEC Championship Game earned an 11.8 rating and a 24 share, marking the highest-rated SEC Championship Game in history. The game matched the No. 1 Florida Gators (12-0) vs. the No. 2 Alabama Crimson Tide (12-0).

The SEC, along with AMB Sports & Entertainment (AMBSE) and the Georgia World Congress Center Authority (GWCCA), have an agreement to host the SEC Championship Game at Mercedes-Benz Stadium in Atlanta through 2031. The agreement allows the SEC the option of exercising an additional five-year extension that could keep the game in Atlanta through 2036.

The Georgia Dome hosted the SEC Championship Game for 23 years beginning in 1994, with capacity crowds in the last 21 consecutive years. By the end of the new agreement, including options, the Championship will have been played in Atlanta a total of 43 years.

ARKANSAS IN THE SEC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

2006: FLORIDA 38, ARKANSAS 28

Florida scored a touchdown with nine minutes left in the game and held on for the 38-28 victory over Arkansas. Down 17-7 at the half, Arkansas took a 21-17 third-quarter lead on a two-yard reception by Felix Jones and a 40-yard interception return by Antwain Robinson. Arkansas could have had a chance to build on the lead, but the Gators recovered a fumbled punt in the end zone to move back in front 24-21 with 3:47 left in the third period. Percy Harvin, who scored on a 37-yard pass from Chris Leak in the second quarter, scored on a 67-yard run early in the fourth to put Florida up 31-21. Jones scored his second touchdown on a 29-yard pass from Cedric Washington to cut the margin to three. Darren McFadden finished with 73 yards on 15 carries and Jones 57 on 13. Casey Dick was 10-of-22 passing for 148 yards with a touchdown and two interceptions. Harvin had 105 yards on six carries for Florida, which went on to win the national title at 13-1, while Leak was 16-of-30 for 189 yards with a touchdown and two interceptions.

2002: GEORGIA 30, ARKANSAS 3

Georgia scored on its first five possessions for a 23-0 halftime lead and posted a 30-3 victory. Georgia claimed the SEC title just 75 miles from its Athens campus. Musa Smith rushed for 106 yards and two touchdowns. David Greene threw for 237 yards and a score, earning the game's MVP award. Terrence Edwards had seven catches for 92 yards, becoming the SEC's career leader in receiving yards. Arkansas had won six in a row to earn its second trip to the league championship game. The Razorbacks had a punt blocked by Decory Bryant on their first possession and Thomas Davis scooped up the loose ball and ran to the Arkansas 2-yard line. On Georgia's next possession, Smith, who scored after the blocked punt, finished off the drive with a 17-yard scoring run. Georgia's next three possessions ended with field goals by Billy Bennett, who connected from 29, 42 and 39 yards to provide the halftime margin. Arkansas led the SEC in rushing offense with an average of 243 yards per game but managed just 65 against Georgia. Fred Talley, a 1,000-yard rusher, was held to 51 yards on 17 carries while Matt Jones managed only 12 yards on nine carries. Jones completed 9-of-17 passes for 60 yards.

1995: FLORIDA 34, ARKANSAS 3

A prime-time (ABC) television audience and a sell-out crowd (71,325) in the Georgia Dome saw Florida post a 34-3 victory. Florida out-gained Arkansas by only 97 yards, 396-299, but the Gators committed no turnovers while Arkansas lost the ball four times. Arkansas got on the scoreboard first when Todd Latourette kicked a 36-yard field goal with 7:26 left in the first quarter. The Razorbacks were dealt some bad news on that drive, however. Sophomore running back Madre Hill, who finished third in the conference in rushing, was lost for the game with a knee injury.
