JIMMY DYKES

HEAD COACH

The most successful basketball programs all have a few key elements in common.

PASSION

They are passionate about the game. The coaches are passionate about their team, the players are passionate about the opportunity to represent their university and the fans are passionate about supporting the program.

EXCITEMENT

All successful programs are filled with excitement. They are exciting to watch and to be a part of.

COMMITMENT

It takes a lot of people to make a program successful and they all have to be committed to the effort. It starts with the coaches and staff and extends to the players but the best programs in the country take it further. Everyone who impacts the program, from professors, athletic trainers, academic coordinators, administrators and fans, all have to be willing to work toward the same goal of excellence in all areas.

PERFORMANCE

Finally, successful teams have to perform at a high level every day. Whether in the classroom, in the community or on the court, doing things the right way is vital to the program's success.

TOUGH START TO SEC SCHEDULE

Arkansas faces one of the toughest starts to the SEC schedule for the second consecutive season. Last year, the Razorbacks opened SEC play with three of its first four opponents ranked in the AP Top 15. They were one of just two programs in the Power 5 Conferences to do that.

This year, Arkansas again faces a tough start opening the season at No. 2/2 South Carolina, vs. No. 13/10 Texas A&M, at No. 7/6 Mississippi State and vs. No. 13/15 Tennessee (AP/Coaches). The Razorbacks also faced No. 5 Texas, No. 7 Oregon State and have Kentucky, Missouri and Georgia who have been ranked or are receiving votes this year.

MORE ABOUT THE SCHEDULE

Arkansas opens SEC play facing five consecutive opponents who started conference play ranked in the AP Top-25 (Dec. 28). The Razorbacks are the only team in the SEC to open with five teams who were ranked as of Dec. 28, and they faced six ranked teams in the month of January. Arkansas also faced two other league teams who were getting votes in the poll. Several other SEC teams play at least five ranked teams in January but Arkansas is the only one to start that way.

In addition to being the only team in the SEC to start with that schedule, Arkansas is the only team in the power five conferences to begin with such a tough league start. Several members of the ACC have three or four ranked conference opponents on their January schedules but none start like the Razorbacks. No one in the Big 12 faces more than two ranked conference opponents in January. No one in the Big Ten has more than three. The Pac-12 has several teams who face five ranked conference opponents in the month of January but, again, no one who starts with five consecutive ranked conference teams.

SOLID NON-CONFERENCE TILT AS WELL

- » Arkansas' non-conference schedule featured 13 teams
- » Two top-7 teams on neutral courts (#7 Oregon State [Puerto Rico] and #5 Texas [OKC])
- » Three teams (OSU, Missouri State, SDSU) are picked to win their conferences
- » Three others picked in the top four (Lafayette, ORU, Texas)
- » Five teams who were in the postseason last year (SDSU, Tulsa, Missouri State, Rutgers, Texas)
- » Six games at neutral or away sites

LONE WOLFF

Melissa Wolff is the only senior on the 2015-16 team. Named team captain, Wolff's leadership on and off the court will be heavily relied upon with eight newcomers to the Razorback family this year. Wolff led the team in rebounding last year with 7.8 per game and had six double doubles last year, including two in the NCAA Tournament.

As a senior, Wolff was a nominee for the WBCA, the NABC and Allstate Insurance Company's 2016 Allstate WBCA and NABC Good Works Teams®. In its fourth year, the Allstate WBCA and NABC Good Works Teams® recognize players at all levels of college basketball who have made outstanding contributions in the areas of volunteerism and civic involvement. From establishing nonprofits that provide youth with the necessary tools to become leaders of tomorrow, to raising awareness around pertinent issues that could save lives, these student-athletes exhibit impeccable leadership skills both on and off the court.

WOLFF A SENIOR OF SIGNIFICANCE

Razorback Melissa Wolff was recognized recently as a Senior of Significance by the College of Education and Health Professions and the University of Arkansas. The Alumni Association has been recognizing the outstanding graduate for more than 50 years. Expansion of the awards program took place in 2014 when the committee selected 71 outstanding Seniors of Significance in honor of the University of Arkansas founding year of 1871. Razorback student-athletes represented nearly 13 percent of the entire Seniors of Significance class this year. Hundreds of students were nominated by the faculty and staff on campus. Completed applications were then reviewed by more than 100 alumni and university employees to select the top 71. The Seniors of Significance honored represent the top 2% from the Class of 2016.

A WOLFF IN THE COMMUNITY

Senior Melissa Wolff was named to the Southeastern Conference Community Service Team for Women's Basketball the league office announced. This marks the 18th year for the SEC Community Service Team for women's basketball as well as for men's basketball. All league-sponsored sports have had a Community Service Team since 2004, with at-large teams for men's and women's sports being chosen from 1999-2003. The SEC began this concept with a football Community Service Team in 1994. One of the team's leaders on the court, Wolff has also taken a leadership role in the community participating in numerous events during her career.
