ASFA 2018 ANNUAL MEETING APRIL 25-28, 2018 HILTON CHICAGO, ILLINOIS.

The Corporate Opportunities outlined in this Prospectus provide a unique way to show your support of ASFA and to increase your visibility to delegates from all over the world. Market directly to your target demographic and build valuable professional relationships with experts in apheresis, blood banking, transfusion medicine, and cellular therapy.

Please review this Prospectus and contact the ASFA Head Office (E. asfa@apheresis.org; T. 604.484.2851) with your questions or requests. We will be contacting you soon to explore these opportunities further.

We look forward to seeing you in Chicago!

CONFERENCE OVERVIEW

ASFA, officially formed in 1981, has been the proud host to 38 highly successful scientific conferences. Last year's Annual Meeting in Fort Lauderdale had over 550 participants, including registered delegates, exhibitors and other corporate representatives. The meeting is the only one of its kind that offers a focus on apheresis medicine in both the donor and patient settings. It is a key educational and networking event for physicians, scientists, and allied health professionals in the field of apheresis medicine.

Delegates of the ASFA 2018 Annual Meeting will be divided between MD and/or PhD clinicians and scientists (38%) and allied health professionals (40%) who practice donor or therapeutic apheresis medicine. Other attendees will include regulatory professionals, corporate management, and marketing personnel (22%).

The supporter must make arrangements directly with the conference secretariat in relation to food and beverage for the symposium. Also, any other associated fees must be handled directly between supporter and the conference secretariat.

FOCUS GROUP: $15,000

Take advantage of this valuable opportunity to have a direct, detailed and cost-effective conversation with motivated conference delegates.

Your focus group will consist of 8–12 high-level apheresis professionals. A focus group of this size provides the optimal opportunity for all participants to share their views and expertise, with adequate discussion.

The participant selection process will be in accordance with your target audience requirements (e.g. qualifications, specialty, expertise, state/country). Please note that invitations must be sent by the supporting company.

Industry Satellite Symposia Proposal Procedure

Industry Satellite Symposia proposals submitted by supporters will only be considered if they include the following details:

1. A one-paragraph description and title of the session
2. Two to four learning goals/objectives
3. Speaker name(s), talk title(s) and short speaker bio(s)

Industry Satellite Symposia supporters who are also conference supporters will be given priority in time allocations. Following this, Industry Satellite Symposia will be assigned on a “first come, first served” basis.

Industry Satellite Symposia Guidelines

Industry Satellite Symposia held in conjunction with the ASFA 2018 Annual Meeting are not part of the official meeting agenda and will be designated as Industry Satellite Symposia in the meeting agenda. Companies hosting Symposia agree:

1. that ASFA retains the right to approve Industry Satellite Symposia content, faculty, venue and other details.
2. all promotional material must be approved by ASFA prior to distribution.
3. that no audio or video taping without consent of ASFA may be used; all approved audio and/or video taping must be disclosed to the audience in the program.
4. the Industry Satellite Symposia fee does not include any costs for registration, additional audio-visual, or any administrative services provided.

EDUCATIONAL GRANT OPPORTUNITIES

Per the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME), educational grant support must be used for meeting expenses.

Meeting expenses that can be supported through an educational grant include:

- Social Events
- Food and Beverage
- Abstract Awards
- Wi-Fi
- ASFA 2018 Mobile App
- Speaker Expenses
- Lanyards
- Delegate Bags
- Printing

With an educational grant, the supporter receives acknowledgment of the support in the program, and on signage on slides. These acknowledgments cannot include a logo, product name, or tag line. Furthermore, company information is not permitted on lanyards, registration bags and other such materials.

All Educational Grant Opportunities must have a signed Letter of Agreement (LOA) on file with ASFA's CME provider, the American College of Surgeons, by April 20, 2018.

Please contact John Barclay, ASFA's Executive Director, at john.barclay@malachite-mgmt.com or 604-630-5531 for more information regarding Educational Grant Opportunities.

Following this, booths will be assigned on a “first come, first served” basis. Receipt of the application form by Conference Management shall not confer any claim to subsequent approval.

ELIGIBILITY TO EXHIBIT

Conference Management in its sole discretion will determine eligibility of any applicant to exhibit at the ASFA 2018 Annual Meeting and the suitability for display of each product or service that the applicant or exhibitor intends to display at the Meeting. The decision of Conference Management will be final and binding on the applicant or exhibitor as the case may be. For the information of applicants, Conference Management will have regard to the following factors in determining whether or not to accept applications from applicants:

- Technical and scientific documentation may be required for products or services not regulated by US agencies.
- Conference Management may decline exhibit space, discontinue any promotion, wholly or in part, that in its opinion, is not in keeping with the character and purposes of the Meeting.

DELEGATE COMMUNICATION AND MEETING GUIDELINES

Conference delegates expect that all communication from sponsors is sanctioned by ASFA Head Office. Meetings with conference delegates during the conference program and activities are not permitted. Companies found in violation of the sponsor and symposia guidelines will risk penalty from ASFA.
