Investors' Conference Call

Quarter ended March 2022

Indian Hospitality Industry

Key Highlights

- Domestic air traffic increased by ~38% during Mar 2022; compared to the previous month, owing to high travel sentiment in the country
- Nationwide hotel occupancy crossed the 60% mark for the first time since the onset of the pandemic during Quarter 4 of FY22
- The return of big ticket conferences & events such as the IPL drove Mumbai's occupancy to pre-pandemic levels for the month. The city, along with Pune, saw the greatest increase in occupancy in Mar 2022 compared to the previous year
- Improving corporate travel demand is also assisting occupancy improvements in the other business destinations, as well as helping average rates to rise significantly across markets.
