- ✓ There has been an ever-increasing rise in freight rates and this curve is on upward trend. The situation has not changed and since past few months, the increase has been substantial
- ✓ Shortage of containers due to more demand and less supply
- ✓ Countries-imposed restrictions with Quarantine period whereby vessels were delayed in berthing
- ✓ Due to congestion vessel berthing was delayed like 7 to 10 days which in turn increased the cost of vessel operators
- ✓ Rise in fuel prices
- ✓ After the Suez Canal incident, freight rates on many Asia-Europe and Asia-US routes have risen steadily. One reason for this is new surcharges by shipping lines
