Our business model and royalties

Puremix sells Pro memberships and Video on demand

For Pro memberships, customers get access to all the content on the site (videos, plugins, mixing contest, equipment giveaways, private live events and Q&As). The average subscription price is $24.99 per month. Royalties are calculated every month as an exact to the minute pro-rata of what the customers have been watching on the site.

For Video on demand, customers pay a one time fee and they can watch the video an unlimited amount of time on the site. Prices for single videos vary from $15 to $49 and label and publisher royalties are calculated as a percentage of gross sales. Typical royalty rates start at 5% of gross for every third party involved.
