LAST TIME OUT: Gamecock Women Ground Owls, 77-56

Jacksonville State used a 15-1 scoring run over the final four minutes to race past Kennesaw State 77-56 in women's hoops action at Pete Matthews Coliseum on Tuesday night.

In its first game back from the Christmas break, JSU improved to 4-8 on the season, while KSU fell to 3-7 overall.

JSU matched its season-high for points in a contest as it put 77 points on the scoreboard in the season debut against Stillman. Junior Brittany Wiley led a trio of Gamecocks who reached double figures in the scoring column. Wiley posted a game-high 18 points, connecting on 7-of-13 from the field. Senior Danielle Beneby nearly turned in a double-double with 13 points and matching her career high with eight assists. Junior Destiny Lane added 12 points off the bench in the win.

After taking a slim 33-30 lead into halftime, Jax State pushed the lead out to double digits at 46-36 with 14:11 left in the game. After the Owls trimmed the lead down to five points on a pair of occasions, the Red and White responded to push the lead back out to double figures by the 9:07 mark after a pair of free throws by Wiley. The Gamecocks withstood another run by KSU as Sametria Gideon completed a three-point play to slice the lead down to six points at 62-56 with 4:24 left in the affair.

Wiley and Lane sparked the final JSU scoring run to secure the win as both contributed on both ends of the floor – forcing the Owls into miscues and scoring at the other end. Lane scored seven of her final point total in the final four minutes along with being credited with five steals. JSU took advantage of 23 KSU turnovers and turned them into 28 points on the other end.

JSU had its best offensive night of the season as it hit a season-best 28 shots and connected on 45 percent of its shots, including a 55 percent effort in the final half. The Gamecocks out-scored KSU 44-26 in the final 20 minutes. Jax State also tallied a season-best 17 assists and carded 16 steals.

Brittany Manning and Zenobia Pitts pitched in nine points each in the starting line up along with eight points from Danielle Vaughn and Candice Carmine.

NEW LOOK WOMEN'S HOOPS STAFF AT JSU

When Annette Watts took on the job of rebuilding the women's program at JSU, she knew she needed to bring a dynamic staff to help in the process. She has brought in someone with knowledge of the Ohio Valley Conference along with many recruiting connections throughout the region. Dee Bell serves as her recruiting coordinator and knows what it takes to compete in the OVC with his experience at Tennessee Tech. He has been in the head coaches roll at Martin Methodist College (2007-09) and Reinhardt College (2005- 2007). Watts brought in Matt Couvillion after gaining knowledge under two prominent head coaches in the NCAA in Van Chancellor at LSU and Niya Butts' at Arizona. Rounding out her staff, Watts turned to Shaneka Bates, who brings a local flavor to the staff. Bates is a native of Heflin, Ala. and prepped at Cleburne County High School before becoming an All-Gulf South Conference performer at West Georgia from 2007-09.

JSU'S WILEY TABBED PRESEASON ALL-OHIO VALLEY CONFERENCE

For the second-straight year, junior guard Brittany Wiley has earned a spot on the Ohio Valley Conference's Preseason All-OVC Team, announced at the league's Basketball Media Day in Nashville, Tenn. in late October. The squad was selected by the league's coaches and sports information directors.

Wiley, a native of Carrollton, Ga., paced the Gamecock offense a season ago with a 10.1 scoring average. The 5-11 versatile player also pulled down 5.6 rebounds per contest along with dishing out 2.3 assists per game. Wiley was a member of the 2009-10 Preseason squad after garnering a spot on the 2008-09 OVC All-Newcomer Team.

GAMECOCKS PICKED NINTH IN OVC PRESEASON POLL

The Gamecocks were picked to finish ninth in the Ohio Valley Conference in the annual preseason poll conducted by the coaches and sports information directors in the league. Eastern Illinois was voted the league favorite, followed by Morehead State and Austin Peat to round out the top three teams in the league.

JACKSONVILLE STATE

WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

CHALLENGING SEASON IN 2010-11

Annette Watts has put together a challenging 2010-11 schedule for her first Gamecock squad. This year's schedule features 12 homes games, highlighted by non-conference match ups against former OVC member Samford (Nov. 23) and Kennesaw State (Dec. 28). The non-conference portion of the schedule also features road tests at Atlantic Coast Conference foes Florida State (Dec. 12) and Georgia Tech (Jan. 2). Both FSU and GT reached the NCAA Tournament a season ago. Jax State will close out 2010 with a visit to Auburn, Ala. on Dec. 30 to face the Tigers in their new 9,600-seat Auburn Arena. JSU will spend the weekend after Thanksgiving in the Sunshine State with contests against Bethune-Cookman (Nov. 27) and Stetson (Nov. 29). Jax State begins OVC play on Dec. 4 versus Tennessee Tech.

WATTS NEARING WIN NO. 150

First year Jax State Head Coach Annette Watts enters her 10th season coaching intercollegiate basketball with 146 wins under her belt during her nine seasons at Davidson College. She needs just three wins to reach the 150-career wins plateau. Her first win collegiate win came almost nine years to the date as her Davidson squad topped Army 72-56 on Nov. 16, 2001. Watts' 100th career win happened exactly six years later on the same date in 2007. DC knocked off UNC Greensboro 69-56.

JAX STATE VS. SOUTHEASTERN CONFERENCE

Thursday's duel with Auburn will be the 17th game all-time against an opponent from the Southeastern Conference. Jax State has faced just three SEC squads in its women's basketball history - Alabama (0-5), Auburn (1-9) and Mississippi State (0-2). The Gamecocks are 1-16 combined versus those teams with the lone win coming against the Tigers during the 2005 season - a 71-66 win in Jacksonville.

GAMECOCK THIEVES

In the last four games, JSU has turned in double digit steal totals and has tallied 47 (11.8 per game) steals over the course of the four-game stretch. The Gamecocks finished with 11 steals against Georgia State and posted 14 versus Southeast Missouri. Against Kennesaw State, Jax State registered a season-best 16 steals - which ranks fifth in the school's NCAA Division I single game record book. On the season, JSU is averaging 9.1 swipes per game.

JSU VS. TEAMS FROM ALABAMA

Jacksonville State will be playing its 263rd game against a team from the state of Alabama. Entering the Auburn contest, JSU sports a 149-114 overall record against schools within the state lines. The Gamecocks opened the season with back-to-back wins over in-state schools Stillman (77-62) and Troy (66-58). JSU dropped a 66-52 decision to Samford at home on Nov. 23.

OFFENSE HEATING UP

As a cold spell hovers across the region outside, the Gamecock offense has started to heat up over the last four games. After struggling to knock down shots in the first eight games, JSU is connecting on 40 percent from the field and averaging 63.8 points per game. Over the four-game span, Jax State is averaging 5.5 three-pointers per game and 61 percent from the free throw line.

JSU CONTINUES ROAD TRIP

Following JSU's trip to Auburn, it returns to the road three more times before returning home just twice in the month of January. Jax State will open 2011 in Atlanta, Ga. on Sunday, Jan. 2 against Atlantic Coast Conference member Georgia Tech. The following weekend, the Gamecocks return to Ohio Valley Conference action in the Bluegrass State. The trek to Eastern Kentucky and Morehead State will be the first OVC road test for the Red and White. JSU's previous three OVC match ups have been contested at home. Jax State will face Murray State on Jan. 13 and welcome Tennessee-Martin to campus on Jan. 15 for its only pair of games in the month of January.

OVC STANDINGS (as of 12/28/10)

	OVC	OVERALL
Tennessee Tech	3-0	8-2
Eastern Illinois	3-1	6-6

Did You Know...

- Watts served as an assistant coach under Hall of Fame coach Kay Yow at North Carolina State and helped lead the 1997-98 Wolfpack squad to the Final Four.
- While at Davidson, 26 of her players were named to the Southern Conference Academic Honor Roll.

Annette Watts, with more than 20 years of coaching experience at both the high school and collegiate level, became the program's 11th coach when she came onboard in May of 2010.

Watts spent the last nine years as the head coach at Davidson, where she was the winningest head coach in the program's history, and led the Wildcats to five-straight winning seasons. She enters her first season in charge of the Gamecocks with an overall mark of 144-121. After nine seasons in the Southern Conference, she compiled 102 wins. Last season, the Wildcats posted a 14-15 overall mark and 12-8 within the league to finish fourth in the final standings.

Watts has served on a staff that has made the Women's NCAA Division I Final Four, as well as coached a high school team to the state quarterfinals, and also led Davidson to its first-ever postseason appearance with a trip to the 2006-07 WNIT.

The East Tennessee-native was named the 2005 Southern Conference Coach of the Year by the league's media, the first Davidson coach to earn SoCon Coach of the Year honors, after leading the Wildcats to a school-record 18 wins. Davidson also had a school-record 14 conference victories and earned the second seed in the SoCon Tournament, the highest seed ever for Davidson in its 13 trips to the league tourney that season.

In her first four years at the helm of the Wildcats program, Davidson's record improved every season. After Davidson finished 9-19 in the 2000-01 season, Watts was brought in to turn the program around. As witnessed by her career record, the win totals increased from 10 in Watts' first year to 18 by her fourth season.

Watts' players have excelled off the court as well as she coached 26 players at Davidson that were named to the conference academic honor roll. While at the North Carolina-based school, Watts mentored eight All-SoCon players and seven players reached the 1,000-point career scoring mark in the Watts system. She had four newcomers during her time at DC that were named to the league's All-Freshman Team and one player named the top freshman of the year.

Prior to arriving at Davidson, Watts spent two seasons as head coach at Jackson County Comprehensive High School in Jefferson, Ga. She guided that team to the 2001 state quarterfinals and compiled an overall record of 38-20 in two years as head coach of the Lady Panthers. Her success on the court at Jackson County earned her Coach of the Year honors from the Jackson Herald News.

Before her stint at Jackson, Watts spent two seasons as an assistant under Hall of Fame coach Kay Yow at N.C. State. While with the Wolfpack, she was responsible for scouting opposing teams and recruiting, as well as on-floor coaching. Watts helped lead the 1997-98 Wolfpack squad to its first Final Four appearance. During her two-year tenure in Raleigh, the Wolfpack went 42-19 and advanced to the NCAA Tournament both years.

As a collegiate athlete, Coach Watts spent four seasons at East Tennessee State University where she played guard for the Lady Bucs. She received a bachelor of science degree from ETSU in 1981. Watts continued her post-graduate work at East Tennessee State, earning a master's degree in secondary math education in 1985.

After departing ETSU, Watts taught and coached basketball at Greeneville (Tenn.) High School for eight years. Active in the Greeneville community, she headed up the Lady Devil (YMCA) Basketball Camp for seven years.

Watts then moved south from Greeneville and served as head women's coach and full-time teacher at Robert Wood Johnson Comprehensive High School in Gainesville, Ga., where she compiled a career mark of 125-51. She was named Gainesville Times Coach of the Year three times (1992, '95 and '96) and also served as director of the Lady Knight Basketball Camp from 1990-95.

In addition to her wealth of coaching experience, Watts was also selected to a three-year term as a member of the NCAA Regional Advisory Committee for Division I women's basketball. She has also represented the SoCon as a member of the WBCA conference captains for three years. Watts is also a member of the National Association of Collegiate Women's Athletic Administrators.
