ABOUT THE BRUINS

Belmont is coming off its fourth consecutive Ohio Valley Conference regular season championship in the 2019-20 season. The Bruins posted a 22-9 (16-2, OVC) overall record, good for their fifth straight year with 20-plus victories. With a 13-0 record at the Curb Event Center, Belmont was undefeated at home for the first time since the 2015-16 season. Overall, the Bruins are 38-4 at the Curb under head coach Bart Brooks.

Belmont boasts a 93-6 record in conference competitions in its last 99 games and has lost just one home game to an OVC opponent since 2015. Since 2015, the Bruins hold four OVC regular season championships, four OVC Tournament trophies and four NCAA Tournament appearances.

SERIES HISTORY

The Bruins and the Tigers will meet for just the third time ever Sunday, as Auburn leads the all-time series by a 2-0 margin. The two programs first met in the 2002-03 season, as Belmont last faced the Tigers on Nov. 15, 2011. The Bruins fell, 80-53, despite a double-double of 13 points and 11 rebounds from 1,000-point scorer Haley Nelson.

SCOUTING THE TIGERS

Auburn is led by head coach Terri Williams-Flournoy, who is currently coaching her ninth season with the Tigers. Williams-Flournoy and Auburn are off to a 5-2 start with losses to Houston on the road (Dec. 5) and Stephen F. Austin at home (Wednesday).

The Tigers lost four starters from last year's squad, but return senior forward Unique Thompson, who currently averages a monster double-double of 18.6 points and 14.1 rebounds per game. Sophomore forward Jala Jordan is the only other Tiger to average double-figure points (10.4), as sophomore guard Honesty Scott-Grayson just misses the cut with 9.4 points per contest.

SEASON HIGHS IN HUNTSVILLE

The Bruins set season highs in three different statistical categories against Alabama A&M on Friday: points in the paint (38), points off turnovers (33) and turnovers forced (29).

LEADING THE NATION

Freshman guard Tuti Jones averages the most steals per game in the nation (5.5) through the first four games of her collegiate career. In total, Jones has grabbed 22 steals (sixth in the country), as she notably logged seven steals against Tennessee State on Dec. 10.

DYNAMIC DUO

The freshman guard tandem of Tuti Jones (12.0 ppg) and Destinee Wells (10.8 ppg) currently lead Belmont in scoring, as each of them has logged double-figure points in the last two games. Wells (21p) and Jones (17p) both recorded season-highs in points against Marquette last Sunday, as they combined for 10 steals and 10 rebounds.

SUFFOCATING DEFENSE

With 29 forced turnovers against Alabama A&M on the road Friday, Belmont has forced 25-plus turnovers from its last three opponents. The Bruins average 20.6 forced turnovers per game this year, good for 43rd in the country and second in the OVC.

FRESHMEN PITCHING IN

The Bruins received 32 points from their freshmen class in their last outing, which marked the fourth game in a row that freshmen have combined for 30-plus points. Overall, Belmont's freshmen have averaged 33.8 points per game this season.

SELFLESS BASKETBALL

Belmont raked in 17 assists versus the Lady Bulldogs, which marks the third time in the last four games that the Bruins have logged 15-plus assists. They have finished just one game this year with single-digit assists.

FAMILIAR FOES

The Bruins have played six SEC programs in the last four seasons with Bart Brooks at the helm. Belmont memorably routed Vanderbilt on the road in Brooks' first year, 111-74. The point total was the most by the Bruins in a game since the 1994-95 season.

RACKIN' UP STEALS

Belmont has racked up 10-plus steals in each of its last three contests, as they have posted 11 steals per game so far this season. The Bruins' steal average is a significant jump from the 2019-20 season, where they averaged just 5.3 steals per game.

COACH PROFILE

BART BROOKS

COACHING HISTORY

HEAD COACH Fourth Season
 ASST. COACH DePaul (2006-17).
 Barry University (FL) (2004-06).

PERSONAL

WIFE Charlene Brooks.
 CHILDREN Trey & Tyler.
 HOMETOWN Buffalo, Wy.
 ALMA MATER Wyoming (2004).

Bart Brooks is entering his fourth season as head coach of Belmont women's basketball team in 2020-21. He was introduced as the fifth head coach of the program on April 25, 2017.

In his three seasons at the helm, Brooks tallied a 79-20 record along with back-to-back OVC Championships and NCAA Tournament appearances in his first two years. Last season, Brooks and the Bruins notched a 22-9 (16-2 OVC) record en route to their fourth-straight regular season OVC Championship. Overall, Brooks carries a 50-4 record in conference play through three seasons at Belmont.

Ellie Harmeyer joined a long list of all-time greats under the tutelage of Brooks, as she finished the 2019-20 season as the only player in the nation (male or female) to average over 19 points and 12 rebounds per game. Harmeyer also led the country in five different statistical categories in her unprecedented senior season: Double-doubles, defensive rebounds per game, total rebounds, free throws made, and free throws attempted. She also set all-time program single-season records in total rebounds, free throws made, and free throws attempted. Harmeyer became only one of two players in Belmont women's basketball history to eclipse 1,500 points and 1,000 rebounds in a career, joining all-time great Chrissie Herring.

Harmeyer joined former Bruins Darby Maggard and Jenny Roy as one of the most accomplished players in program history under Brooks. Maggard finished as the program's fourth all-time leader in points (2,031), as Roy rounded out her career as the fifth player coached by Brooks to enter the 1,000-point club.

Brooks helped lead Belmont to its finest season in the program's NCAA history in 2017-18, and in so doing, orchestrated one of the greatest head coaching debuts in the history of college basketball. His 31 wins are tied for the second-most ever by a true first-year head coach in NCAA history.

In 2017-18, the Bruins went 31-4 – highlighted by non-conference victories over Vanderbilt, Gonzaga and Florida Gulf Coast – to earn national Top 25 rankings from the Associated Press and USA Today Coaches' polls and secure a third consecutive NCAA Tournament appearance. In fact, Belmont's 111-74 victory at Vanderbilt represented the most points ever scored against the Commodore women's basketball program.

Remarkably, Belmont ranked top 50 nationally in 21 statistical categories - including third in 3-point field goals made and seventh in scoring margin - and ranked first in the OVC in 19 statistical categories.

Brooks' decorated triumvirate of seniors following his first season - Sally McCabe, Kylee Smith and Sierra Jones - graduated as the winningest class in program history. McCabe, the OVC's career blocked shot leader, received the OVC Steve Hamilton Sportsmanship Award and NCAA Woman of the Year nomination for her contributions on and off the court, while Smith was named CoSIDA Academic All-America and Tennessee Sports Writers Association (TSWA) Women's Basketball Player of the Year.

For his part, Brooks was named WBCA Spalding Maggie Dixon Rookie Coach of the Year, TSWA Women's Basketball Coach of the Year and OVC Coach of the Year.

Brooks came to Belmont after spending the previous 11 seasons on staff at DePaul University under legendary head coach Doug Bruno. The Blue Demons made the NCAA Tournament every season of Brooks' stint, standing as one of only six NCAA Division I women's basketball programs to make 15 consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances (Connecticut, Notre Dame, Oklahoma, Stanford, Tennessee).

During Brooks' tenure, DePaul posted a combined 266-109 (.709) record, claiming six Big East Conference championships and advancing to three Sweet 16s (2011, 2014, 2016). In 2017, DePaul went 27-8, finishing No. 16 in the RPI and advancing to the NCAA Round of 32 before falling to National Runner-Up, Mississippi State.

All told, Brooks coached 33 All-Big East student-athletes, including each of the past three Big East Conference Player of the Year recipients (Brittany Hrynko, 2015; Chanise Jenkins, 2016; Brooke Schulte, 2017).

Annually among the nation's highest scoring teams – DePaul ranked No. 10 in scoring offense in Brooks' final season – the Blue Demons made 200 or more 3-point field goals in 16 of their last 18 campaigns. Brooks, respected in the coaching industry for his detailed scouting reports, was an integral part in DePaul ranking in the Top 25 nationally in 10 statistical categories in 2017, including fifth in 3-point field goals made, fifth in assists per game, sixth in assist-to-turnover ratio, and 12th in rebounds.

Brooks coached six WNBA draft choices – Jenna Rubino, Allie Quigley, Felicia Chester, Keisha Hampton, Brittany Hrynko, and Jessica January – the latter selected in the 2017 WNBA Draft. January was also named CoSIDA Academic All-America First Team, the first DePaul student-athlete so honored.
