GEORGIA TIGERS

Georgia ranks second to only Alabama as the state where the most Auburn women's basketball players have come from with 32 all-time. Two players who spent at least part of their lives in Georgia are on the roster this year.

Senior Pascale West (LaGrange) is the lone Georgia native on the team. A native of Andalusia, Ala., Blanche Alverson led Buford (Ga.) High School to a Georgia state championship and was named the Class AA Player of the Year as a senior.

GEORGIA ON MY MIND

The trip to Athens for Thursday's game will be a homecoming for some on the Auburn staff. Head coach Terri Williams-Flournoy spent six seasons as an assistant coach at Georgia from 1996-2002, helping the Bulldogs to NCAA Tournament appearances every season, including three trips to the Elite Eight and one to the Final Four. The team also won two SEC titles and an SEC Tournament Championship during her time.

Sherill Baker, Auburn's Director of Basketball Servies, played at Georgia from 2002-06, going to the NCAA Tournament each of her four seasons with two Sweet 16s and an Elite Eight appearance. During her career at Georgia she started 122 of 131 games played and tallied 1,665 points (12.7 ppg), and she sits at No. 10 on Georgia's all-time scoring list. She also holds the single-season and career Georgia records for steals with 149 and 426, respectively.

Lastly, Auburn Director of Basketball Operations Danielle Bell spent the last two seasons at Georgia as a graduate assistant. The Bulldogs went to the NCAA Tournament both of her years there and advanced to the Sweet 16 in 2011 after winning the Auburn Regional.

LAST TIME OUT FOR AUBURN

The Auburn women's basketball team stayed neck and neck with No. 15/13 South Carolina the majority of the game, but was never able to overcome the Gamecocks, as Auburn fell, 59-51, Feb. 3 in Columbia, S.C. Auburn got within two points late in the game, but South Carolina got 13 of its final 17 points from the free throw line to pull away.

Kentucky quickly extended its lead back to 13 to start the second half, but a 17-2 Georgia run gave the Bulldogs their first lead, 49-47, with 13:19 left in the game. Quoting Coach Flo

On coaching at Georgia...

"I was there for six years at Georgia with Andy Landers and they were really good years. We were very good, very successful. It was easy to recruit there with the tradition of Georgia and it was a good time."

On Georgia ...

"They are definitely a team with a great inside-out presence. Jasmine Hassell is a really good post player and I think she is very strong inside. Then you just look at so many guards that they have. If you take Jasmine James out of the picture, just look at everybody else that they have, they just have a lot of really good guards."

On Coach Landers playing a true freshman...

"It is funny because one thing that I learned from him is put the best kids on the floor. It does not really matter what year they are. If a freshman comes in and is showing that she is ready to play and she can play, put them on the floor. You have seen that this year with Tiaria Griffin, Shacobia Barbee and Merritt Hempe getting a lot of playing time."

On both team's presses...

"I think Georgia sort of has an advantage in that they have more players. Their pressure is just a little bit different from ours where in the half court they will be more pressure man defense. With us, we will try to extend ours out into more of a three-quarter or full-court."

On positioning for the SEC Tournament...

"We are right now over into the second half of the season, so this is the time when you have to make some sort of a run to position yourself for the SEC Tournament. There have just been so many crazy games and upsets. At any given night, you just never know who's going to win."

FORCING 25

Since 1987, Auburn has forced 25 or more turnovers in a game 100 times, including seven times this season. In those 100 games, the Tigers have a 96-4 record.

The seven 25-turnover games this season equal the amout from the last two seasons combined.

CLIMBING THE RANKINGS

Blanche Alverson is climbing her way up the Auburn scoring and rebounding lists. She is currently 25th all-time at Auburn in scoring with 1,061 points. She is also 23rd all-time on The Plains in career rebounding with 521.

TURN IT OVER

A pillar of Coach Terri Williams-Flournoy's style of play is a high-pressure defense that extends most of the floor. The Tigers have foreced 20 or more turnovers in 16 of their 22 games this season. Auburn has forced 25 or more in seven games with a season-high 28 against Hofstra. In all, Auburn has scored 471 points off turnovers in its 21 games, averaging 21.4 points off turnovers per game.

Auburn has tallied 10 or more steals in 15 games this season, including a season-high 22 against Samford. The 22 steals were the most in a game in more than four years for the Tigers.

JET POWERED

Najat Ouardad is making her own waves this season. The 5-1 senior tallied 11 assists vs. Samford, but topped the feat against Ole Miss with 14 assists. Her 14 assits are the most in the SEC this season and are tied for second in the nation this year. They are the most for an Auburn player since 1988 and are tied for fifth all-time at AU in single-game steals. The 11 assists are tied for 19th all-time at Auburn.

She also now has 226 career assists, a mark that ranks 10th among active SEC players and tied for 17th all-time at Auburn.

IT'S RAINING 3s

Blanche Alverson is climbing her way up the Auburn career 3-point list. She is currently second with 185. Alverson is 34 3-pointers behind Auburn record holder, and former teammate, Alli Smalley (219).

OFF THE BENCH

Auburn has had great bench support this season with at least one player coming off the bench to score in double figures in 12 of the 22 games. The Tigers' bench so far has scored 379 points on the season, averaging 17.2 per game.

O-BOARDS

Auburn has missed 771 shots this season with 328 (42.5 percent) resulting in offensive rebounds. That has led to 339 second-chance points on the season, averaging 15.4 per game.

KEEPING SCORE

Against LSU, Auburn forced 25 turnovers while the Lady Tigers

made 22 field goals. It marked the 13th time this season that an Auburn opponent has committed more turnovers than made field agals.

On the season, Auburn opponents have hit 460 field goals compared to 472 turnovers. The Tigers have committed just 369 turnovers for a ± 103 margin on the season.

HOME SWEET HOME

Auburn has made itself at home this season, winning nine of its 11 games at Auburn Arena. The Tigers had a 16-13 record in Auburn Arena entering the season, but have improved to 25-15 since.

QUEEN BLANCHE

Senior Blanche Alverson, no stranger to awards on the court, added another piece of hardware to her collection on Nov. 3 as she was named Auburn's Miss Homecoming. After a week of campaigning, she found out the result of the vote at halftime of Auburn's Homecoming Football Game against New Mexico State. She is the first Tiger student-athlete to earn the honor.

COMEBACK KIDS

At Tulane on Nov. 28, Auburn came from 16 points down at halftime to pull off the 70-65 win. It is the biggest comeback for the Tigers since coming back from 18 points down at Vanderbilt on Feb. 19, 2009, closing the gap to just a point in the final minute of the game only to lose 73-70. It was the first time for the Tigers to come back from a double-digit deficit since overcoming a 10-point deficit at Liberty on Dec. 7, 2008 to take away a 64-53 win.

King was an All-State basketball selection while playing prep ball at Nerinx Hall in St. Louis, Mo.

SISTER ACT

For just the third time ever, Auburn's roster featured a sister combination as Tyrese and Tra'cee Tanner step on the court. Tyrese is a junior on the squad this year while Tra'cee is a freshman.

Other sister combinations to play together at Auburn include Sherell (2004-09) and Reneisha (2006-10) Hobbs, and Ruthie (1985-89) and Mae Ola (1984-88) Bolton.

Sheraton Raleigh Wolfpack Invitational First Round

RALEIGH, N.C. - The Terri Williams-Flournoy Era got off to a good start Nov. 9 as the Auburn women's basketball team beat Maine, 71-41, in the first round of the Sheraton Raleiah Wolfaack Invitational.

Williams-Flournoy became just the second Auburn head coach to earn a win in their first game on the Tiger sideline. Susan "The Nun" Nunnelly is the only other coach to do so, winning the season opener over Tuskeaee at the start of the 1973-74 season.

Sophomore Hasina Muhammad led three Tigers in double figures, tying her career high with 20 points. It also marked the second game in a row for her to score 20 with the other being in the SEC Tournament game against Florida last season. Junior Tyrese Tanner neared a double-double with 15 points and a career-high nine rebounds while Najat Ouardad scored a career-high 11 points with six assists and a pair of steals.

Another component to the game was the Tigers' defense, forcing 26 Maine turnovers. Blanche Alverson led Auburn with three steals, along with eight points and six rebounds. Ouardad and Muhammad added two steals each. The Tigers were able to capitalize off the turnovers, scoring 28 points on the other end.

NEW ORLEANS, La. - Blanche Alverson and Hasina Muhammad scored 21 points each, leading the Auburn women's basketball team in a comeback 70-65 win at Tulane Wednesday night. The Tigers were down by 16 at halftime, but rallied back to hand the Green Wave their first loss of the season.

Auburn took a quick 7-2 lead to start the game, but Tulane rallied to score 13 straight points to take a lead it would not give up for most of the game. The Green Wave kept on rolling through the period to take a 16-point, 39-23 lead at halftime.

For everything that Auburn did wrong in the first half, the Tigers did right in the second. After shooting 30 percent in the opening period, Auburn came back to shoot 50 percent in the second to finish the game at 40.9 percent.

Auburn also limited Tulane to 23.1 percent shooting in the second half after surrendering 55.6 percent in the first. The Tigers also forced just three Green Wave turnovers in the first half, but came back to force 10 in the second, scoring 17 points off turnovers.

Alverson, Muhammad and Tra'Cee Tanner led the charge in the second half, hitting timely shots and clutch free throws. Alverson scored 11 of her 21 in the second half while Muhammad scored 16 of hers. Tra'Cee Tanner came off the bench to score a career-high 14 points with six rehounds.

AUBURN - The Auburn women's basketball team picked up a win after an 11-day layoff, as it defeated Hofstra, 68-58, Dec. 9 in Auburn.

Auburn had four players score in double figures, led by Peyton Davis and Tyrese Tanner, each with 13. Hasina Muhammad added 12, and Blanche Alverson tallied 11. It was the fourth time this season that the Tigers had four or more players in double figures. Najat Ouardad tied her career high with eight assists while also scoring eight points.

In addition to leading Auburn in scoring, Davis also earned her first career double-double as she grabbed a career-high 12 rebounds in the effort. It was the first double-double for the Tigers since Blanche Alverson's in last year's season-opener against Mercer.

The Tigers got off to a sluggish start in the opening minutes of the first half, but picked up the intensity to start a 13-0 run with 9:01 remaining. Alverson and Tyrese Tanner combined for 11 of the 13 points during the run. Auburn allowed just five points in the final nine minutes of the half and held Hofstra to just one field goal from Andreana Thomas with 1:42 to play. The Tigers held a 16-point lead at halftime with the score 39-23.

AU led by as many as 20 in the second half, but let the gap close to four late in the game. The Tigers were able to hold off the Pride in the final two minutes for the 68-58 win.

WASHINGTON, D.C. - Auburn junior Hasina Muhammad notched her first career double-double, tying her career high with 21 points along with 10 rebounds and nine steals, leading the Tigers to a 69-59 win at George Washington on Dec. 12. The win was also a special one for Auburn head coach Terri Williams-Flournoy as it was the 150th of her career

The win was not an easy one as the Tigers had to fight off several Colonial runs. Auburn took a 13-point lead at halftime and extended it to 16 points early in the second half, but George Washington mounted the first of its comebacks for 16-straight points to tie the game up with 12:58 left in the game.

After the Colonials tied the game up, the Tigers went on a 10-2 run to pull back away at 51-43 with 9.04 to go. Auburn took a nine-point lead with 5.57 to play, but GW mounted another comeback, a 10-2 run of its own, to cut the lead to just one with 4.48 to play.

Auburn responded by scoring the next six points, a 3-point play from Muhammad and a trey from Blanche Alverson, to take a 64-57 lead. The Tigers would let the Colonials no closer than five the rest of the way, pulling away for the 69-59 win.

Alverson followed Muhammad with 14 points while Najat Ouardad added 10 points, nine rebounds and seven assists.

AUBURN - The Auburn women's basketball team utilized a 17-0 run early in the game to scrap its way to a 53-40 win over the University of Tennessee at Chattanooga Dec. 19 at Auburn Arena. UT-Chattanooga entered the game with a pair of wins already this season over SEC teams, downing Tennessee in the season-opener and winning at Alahama.

It proved to be a low-scoring game by both teams, as Auburn and UTC each posted season-lows in scoring. The Lady Mocs' 40 points were also the fewest allowed by the Auburn defense this season.

Hasina Muhammad led the Tigers with 19 points, followed by Blanche Alverson with 11. Alverson tallied her first double-double on the season, adding 10 rebounds in the effort. She is also now 30th all-time in career rebounding at Auburn with 461.

Auburn created a spark in the opening half with a 17-0 run, holding UTC scoreless for more than seven minutes. The Tigers limited the Lady Mocs to a season-low 15 points at halftime, as Auburn took a 28-15 lead into the locker room. UTC shot just 20.7 percent from the floor in the first half, the lowest of any Auburn opponent this season.

Both sides tallied 25 points apiece in the second half and traded field goals, but UTC could not come within seven points the rest of the way. Auburn held on to its lead for the 53-40 victory.

AUBURN - The Auburn women's basketball game picked up its seventh-straight win and 10th of the season with an 85-49 victory over Jacksonville Dec. 22 at Auburn Arena. The seven-game winning streak is the longest for the Tigers since winning the first 20 games of the 2008-09 season.

Tra'cee Tanner led the Tigers in scoring and notched her first double-double with 21 points and 12 rebounds. Tra'cee Tanner shot 83 percent from the floor with a career-high 10 field goals made. She and her sister, Tyrese, combined for their best game of the season with 37 points and 15 rebounds. Tyrese Tanner tied her season high in field goals made, shooting 7-for-15 from the floor, to score 16.

In addition to the Tanner duo, Blanche Alverson and Hasina Muhammad posted double figures for the second-consecutive game, as Alverson finished with 16 and Muhammad with 10.

The Tigers employed a 12-1 run to jump out to an early 14-4 lead over Jacksonville. After a 3-pointer from Maggie Wilson cut Auburn's lead back to seven, the Tigers held the Dolphins without a field goal for more than four minutes of play. Auburn increased its lead to as many as 24 points with 5:04 remaining in the half and took a comfortable 43-22 lead into the locker room.

AU led by as many as 39 in the second half for the 85-49 win.

AUBURN - The Auburn women's basketball team fought until the final seconds ticked off to pick up its first Southeastern Conference win in the SEC opener, as the Tigers downed No. 23 Arkansas, 50-47, Thursday

The win was a first for Auburn in more ways than one. It marked Williams-Flournoy's first career SEC victory as a head coach, and it was also the Tigers' first win over a ranked opponent since beating No. 22 Georgia on Feb. 24, 2011. Arkansas entered the game ranked No. 23 in the AP poll.

Tyrese Tanner led Auburn in scoring with 15 points, while Hasina Muhammad added 13. Peyton Davis had a career night on the boards, grabbing 17 rebounds and besting her previous career high by six. Davis is tied for 27th all-time in single-game rebounds and is the most rebounds for an Auburn player since DeWanna Bonner tallied 19 against St. Joseph's on Dec. 29, 2007.

The team's traded the lead before Auburn pulled away for a fivepoint lead early in the first half. Arkansas came back, though, taking a 20-19 advantage at halftime.

It was back and forth to open the second half, but a 15-4 Tiger run gave Auburn a lead it would not give up. The Hogs cut it to one late, but Auburn was able to hold on for the 50-47 victory.

COLUMBIA, Mo. - The Auburn women's basketball team dropped its first SEC contest of the season in an 82-76 shootout at Missouri Jan. 6 in Columbia. Auburn forced Missouri into 22 turnovers and scored 25 points off those turnovers, but an SEC-record 18 Missouri 3-pointers made the difference in the game.

Hasina Muhammad led Auburn with a career-high 24 points and remains the only player in the SEC to have scored in double figures in each game this season.

Tyrese Tanner added 20 points in her second 20-point game of the season. Blanche Alverson added 17, while Tra'Cee Tanner tallied 13. Najat Ouardad posted 10 assists for her second 10-assist game of the Auburn opened the game on a 9-3 run, but couldn't find an answer for the homestanding Tigers on the perimeter. Muhammad kept Auburn in the game early, scoring 16 first-half points. Missouri ended the half on a 9-2 run, lending credit to three-straight treys.

Morgan Eye would dominate the game the rest of the way as Mizzou pulled away from Auburn in the second half, eventually leading by as many as 15. Auburn came back to cut the lead to as few as four points under one minute to play, but it wouldn't be enough as Missouri held on for the win.

Najat Ouardad picked up a career-high 14 assists in the effort and is only the fourth player in Auburn women's basketball history to ever record 14 or more assists in a single game.

Alverson knocked down two 3s to open the game while Tyrese Tanner and Muhammad each added jumpers to give Auburn a 10-3 lead at the first media timeout. The Tigers extended their lead to as many as 24 points, but Ole Miss countered with an 8-2 run to cut the lead to 18 at 45-27 at the half.

It was more of the same in the final 20 minutes, as Auburn kept a 20-point or greater lead the majority of the half. The Tigers held the Rebels to less than 30 percent shooting during the second half, while UM finished the game shooting just 19-of-59 (.322) from the floor.

COLLEGE STATION, Texas - Auburn struggled from the field while Texas A&M took advantage of the boards Jan. 13 as the No. 20/21 Aggies pulled out of the 78-56 win over the Tigers.

Hasina Muhammad once again led Auburn in scoring with 18 points and remains the only player in the SEC to have scored in double figures in each game this season. Muhammad also led the Tigers in rebounding with eight. Tyrese Tanner was Auburn's only other doubledigit scorer, adding 15 points on 7-of-14 from the floor while point guard Najat Ouardad dished out seven assists.

It was a quick start for the Aggies in the opening half as Texas A&M took a commanding lead early and didn't look back. A 7-0 run left Auburn down 16-4 with just more than 13 minutes to play until halftime, and despite the Tigers' attempts to chip away at the lead, the Aggies kept Auburn at arms-length and maintained a double-digit for the majority of the half. Auburn trailed by 20 at 43-23 going in the locker room.

Texas A&M came back out with the same intensity it brought in the opening 20, and Auburn never found its rhythm offensively as its opponent steadily pulled away. The Aggies led by as many as 30 points midway through in the second half en route to the 22-point win, going 27-of-56 (.482) from the floor.

AUBURN - The Auburn women's basketball team led the majority of the game, but it wouldn't be enough to hold off No. 9 Tennessee, as the Tigers dropped a heartbreaker, 75-66, Jan. 17 at Auburn Arena.

Auburn's starting five each scored in double figures for the first time this season and accounted for all but five of the Tigers' 66 points, as Hasina Muhammad and Blanche Alverson led with 15 points apiece.

Najat Ouardad added 11 points with eight assists, five rebounds and four steals, while Tyrese Tanner and Peyton Davis tallied 10 points apiece.

Tennessee hit the first basket of the game to take a 2-0 lead, but Auburn responded with an 11-0 run in the opening minutes of the game. AU would lead the remainder of the half, only letting the Lady Vols within three points of the lead.

LEXINGTON, Ky. - Kentucky pounced early and Auburn was never able to recover Jan. 20 as the Tigers dropped a 97-53 decision to the fifth-ranked Wildcats at Memorial Coliseum in Lexington, Ky.

Hasina Muhammad led Auburn with 13 points while Peyton Davis added 11 with five rebounds. Cabriana Capers came off the bench for eight points and a team-high six rebounds.

The first half would be the difference maker in the game, as Auburn couldn't overcome an early Kentucky run and shot just 6-of-22 (.273) from the floor.

The Tigers took a 30-point deficit into the locker room at halftime, as the Wildcats led 51-21. After trailing just 7-6 in the opening minutes, Auburn allowed an 10-0 run in less than two minutes, as Kentucky jumped out to an 11-point lead at 17-6 with 13:15 remaining in the half. The Tigers never came within eight of the Wildcats, and Kentucky ran off to a 30-point lead at the half.

Auburn managed to get some offense going coming out of the locker room, but it would be too little too late. The Wildcats continued to hit on all cylinders, as all five of Kentucky's starters finished in double figures. A'dia Mathies led with 24 points, while Jennifer O'Neill added 17, DeNesha Stallworth tallied 16 Samarie Walker scored 15 and Bria Goss added 10.

Alabama	30	31	61

TUSCALOOSA, Ala. - The Auburn women's basketball team struggled to find its shot Jan. 23 as it fell to Alabama, 61-51, at Foster Auditorium in Tuscaloosa.

Hasina Muhammad led Auburn with 13 points while Peyton
Davis earned her second career double-double with 12 points and 11 rebounds. Najat Ouardad finished with nine rebounds and four assists.

The 3-point line would be the story of the game as the Tigers once again had trouble defending from beyond the arc. Alabama went 9-of-27 from 3-point range, including seven treys from the Crimson Tide's leading scorer, Shafontaye Myers, who finished with 23 points.

Auburn led the majority of the first half before Alabama went on a 20-6 run to take a 30-20 lead into the locker room. The Tigers couldn't recover from there and never regained the lead in the second half, only coming as close as 32-31 on a jumper from Muhammad with 13:09 to play.

The Crimson Tide led on the boards and in the turnover battle as Auburn was out-rebounded, 51-48, and committed 20 turnovers to Alabama's 18. Alabama also had 13 assists, while the Tigers finished with just five.

AUBURN - The Auburn women's basketball team dropped a heartbreaker, 59-55, to LSU Jan. 31 at Auburn Arena. Tyrese Tanner led Auburn with 17 points, while Hasina Muhammad added 11.

It was a back-and-forth game as the teams traded shots and the lead six times with 11 ties. Auburn led by as many as seven with 12:30 remaining in the first half, while LSU's biggest lead came at six points with seven seconds remaining in the aame.

Auburn forced LSU into 25 turnovers while tallying 16 steals, but was only able to create 18 points off turnovers. Auburn was outrebounded 36-32 and shot just 36.7 percent from the floor compared to LSU's 45.8 percent.

LSU took a 28-26 lead into the locker room at the half, but Auburn came out and tied it at 28 with the first basket of the second half. The home Tigers regained the lead at 38-36 with 12:41 remaining, but LSU grabbed it right back and Auburn couldn't overtake the visitors again, only coming as close as a 44-44 tie with just more than eight minutes to play.

Down 55-52 with 35 seconds to play, LSU went to the line for a one-and-one opportunity, but missed the front end and a rebound from Muhammad gave Auburn the final possession with a shot to tie. A turnover from Ouardad, however, sealed the win for LSU.

AP Rank: No. 15 South Carolina

COLUMBIA, S.C. - The Auburn women's basketball team stayed neck and neck with No. 15/13 South Carolina the majority of the game, but was never able to overcome the Gamecocks, as Auburn fell, 59-51, Feb. 3 in Columbia, S.C. Auburn got within two points late in the game, but South Carolina got 13 of its final 17 points from the free throw line to pull away.

Auburn's Tanner sisters led the Tigers in scoring, as Tyrese and Tra'cee each tallied 10 points apiece. In addition to freshman Tra'Cee Tanner's effort off the bench, freshman Chadarryl Clay added seven points and three rebounds in 17 minutes off the bench while Cabriana Capers led the Tigers in rebounding with seven.

South Carolina led by as many as eight points in the second half, but the Tigers fought back and cut the lead to two, 49-47, with 2:40 to go after a basket from Tra'cee Tanner.

That is as close as Auburn would get, though, as an 8-2 South Carolina run over the next two minutes put the lead out of reach for the 59-51 win.

South Carolina finished with three players in double figures, as Khadijah Sessions led with 19 points and Aleighsa Welch and Tiffany Mitchell each added 10. leasia Walker also added eight points, five assists and four steals in the effort.
