LADY BULLDOGS TRAVEL TO THE PLAINS

The No. 20-ranked Georgia Lady Bulldogs travel to The Plains on Sunday for a matinée matchup against Auburn that will be televised by the SEC Network.

Thursday night, the Lady Bulldogs opened up a double-digit lead late in the first half and cruised to a 69-48 win over Missouri in Athens. Georgia improved to 14-2 overall, 10-0 at home and 2-1 in the SEC with the victory.

Shacobia Barbee leads the Lady Bulldogs in scoring at 12.4 ppg, while Tiaria Griffin is contributing 11.9 ppg. Krista Donald is Georgia's top rebounder at 7.4 rpg.

Griffin has posted game-high scoring totals in each of Georgia's first three SEC outings -13 points at Mississippi State and 16 versus both Alabama and Missouri. She is averaging 15.0 ppg while shooting 57.1 percent from the field and 50.0 percent from 3-point range in league play.

All told, eight different Lady Bulldogs - Barbee, Mariorie Butler, Donald, Mackenzie Engram, Erika Ford, Griffin, Merritt Hempe and Pachis Roberts – have combined to score in double figures 43 times for the Lady Bulldogs.

Auburn slipped to 9-7 overall and 0-3 in SEC action with a 78-57 setback at No. 10 Kentucky on Thursday night.

Tra'cee Tanner is the Tigers' leading scorer at 12.8 ppg, while Brandy Montgomery is chipping in 10.6 ppg. Katie Frerking is collecting a team-high 5.9 rpg. Hasina Muhammad is leading Auburn offensively in league play at an SEC-high 17.0 ppg.

SERIES HISTORY VERSUS AUBURN

Georgia owns a 25-17 lead in the all-time series with Auburn; however, the Tigers possess a 10-8 advantage in games contested on The Plains.

On Feb. 23 last season in Auburn, the Tigers surged ahead in the final moments en route to a 67-59 victory over Georgia in a game featuring double-digit ties and lead changes.

Shacobia Barbee recorded her fourth double-double of the season with 19 points and 13 rebounds to lead Georgia.

A back-and-forth first half featured five ties and five lead changes.

Georgia grabbed its first lead at 18-17 on a Krista Donald layup with 5:44 left in the half and pushed the margin to 20-17 on a Barbee stickback 43 seconds later.

Brandy Montgomery, who scored Auburn's final 14 points of the first half, then hit a trio of 3-pointers in a span of 2:09 and also scored on a layup at the 1:59 mark to put the Tigers up 28-24.

The second stanza also featured five ties and five more changes.

Georgia enjoyed its largest lead at 44-39 with 9:54 left, but Auburn answered with a 10-0 run over the next 2:07 to flip the margin

Peyton Davis answered on Auburn's next possession and the Tigers outscored Georgia 18-9 the rest of the way.

LAST TIME OUT

Fueled by a 16-point night from Tiaria Griffin, No. 20 Georgia defeated Missouri 69-48 on Thursday night at Stegeman Coliseum.

Griffin's output represented her third straight game-high scoring tally. Shacobia Barbee added 12 points, and Krista Donald grabbed a team-best nine rebounds.

Georgia led 21-18 when Barbee hit a jumper to ignite a Georgia run. Marjorie Butler capitalized on a Missouri turnover, hitting consecutive shots, one from behind the arc, and Barbee added another basket to put the Lady Bulldogs up 30-18 at halftime.

Georgia continued its surge in the second stanza, outscoring the Tigers 14-4 in the opening minutes of the half to double-up Missouri, 44-22. Spanning both periods, the Lady Bulldogs kept the Tigers without a made field goal for more than eight minutes.

The Tigers rallied and narrowed the deficit from 23 points to 14, but Griffin put Georgia back in control on a 3-pointer that was followed by a jumper from Mackenzie Engram.

Georgia capitalized on turnovers, converting 22 Missouri miscues into 29 points. The Tigers managed only six points on 11 Lady Bulldog turnovers.

QUOTING COACH LANDERS...

ON FACING AUBURN...

"Auburn wants to press you full court. Their offense is their defense. They create turnovers. They create easy baskets. We've got to be spot-on in our execution of our press offenses."

ONTHURSDAY'S WIN OVER MISSOURI...

"It was an excellent team effort. That's what it was going to take because when you run people off as many screens as they do and the motion that they do defensively, you have to have five people ready to help each other and ready to jump switch. And I thought we were really good. I thought the press had its effect early in the game. It got us out of the gate. It got us some turnovers, got us some layups and got us out and going. Anytime we do that, it kick starts our confidence a bit and we usually follow that kind of play when we can turn people over with some made shots in the half court."

ON INTRODUCING NEWCOMERS TO PLAYING IN THE SEC...

"You hope that the pre-conference schedule has prepared them some, but I think it's probably more along the lines of throwing a kid into a swimming pool and telling them to swim. There's nothing quite like it."

LANDERS COACHES 1250TH GAME

Sunday's contest against Auburn will represent the 1250th on the sidelines for Georgia's Andy Landers in his 40 seasons as a collegiate head coach.

Landers compiled an 82-21 record (103 games) in four seasons as head coach at Roane State Community College in Harriman, Tenn., from 1975-79.

Landers is now 857-289 (1,146 games) in his 36th season as the University of Georgia's first – and still only – full-time women's basketball head coach.

All told, he is 939-310 in 1,249 contests.

GRIFFIN SIZZLING IN EARLY SEC ACTION

Tiaria Griffin is off to a strong start in SEC play, posting game-high scoring tallies of 13 points at Mississippi State and 16 points against both Alabama and Missouri.

Griffin has done so in an efficient fashion. She connected on 5-of-9 shots from the floor and 3-of-5 3-point attempts in Starkville. Griffin was 7-of-11 from the field and 2-of-5 from behind the arc versus the Crimson Tide. On Thursday, she made 4-of-8 field goal attempts, including 3-of-6 on 3-pointers.

Griffin is shooting 57.1 percent from the field and 50.0 percent from 3-point range.

That's also a solid sign from a year ago when Griffin was the Lady Bulldogs' leading scorer in non-conference play at 14.2 ppg but then averaged just 6.2 ppg in SEC action.

Griffin now leads Georgia in both double-digit scoring efforts (12) and games leading the Lady Bulldogs offensively (eight). In the SEC, she ranks No. 17 in scoring and No. 3 in both 3-pointers per game (2.1) and 3-point percentage (.386).

FAMILIAR FACES ON THE OTHER BENCH

Williams-Flournoy was an assistant coach on Andy Landers' staff for six seasons from 1996-2002. During that span, UGA made six consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances including reaching the 1999 Final Four. Georgia also won the 1997 and 2000 SEC Championships and the 2001 SEC Tournament.

Baker – dubbed the "Queen ofThieves" while playing for Georgia – started 122 of 131 games played from 2002-06 and tallied 1,665 points, which is No. 10 all-time at UGA.

The Stone Mountain, Ga., native scored many of those points in the same fashion... on steals and layups. Baker holds the Georgia and SEC single-season and career records for takeaways with 149 (in 2005-06) and 426, respectively.

Baker served as UGA's "Legend" at last season's SEC Tournament at the Arena at Gwinnett Center, which is located about 10 miles from Greater Atlanta School where Baker won 2002 Miss Georgia Basketball honors before joining the Lady Bulldogs.

In addition, Vicky Coleman, administrative assistant in the Auburn women's basketball office, served in the same role for the Lady Bulldogs for nine seasons from 1991-92 through 1999-2000.

LADY BULLDOGS' STARTING STREAK

UGA's 12-0 mark to open 2014-15 tied the 2013 "Elite Eight" and 1995 Final Four teams for the fifth-best start in program history.

LANDERS JOINS ELITE LIST

Georgia's 74-51 win at Tennessee Tech on Nov. 29 represented Andy Landers' 850th victory at UGA. Landers became just the seventh college basketball coach – men's or women's – with 850 victories at one Division I school.

The milestone was more memorable since it occurred Landers' alma mater. He earned bachelor's and master's degrees from Tennessee Tech in 1973 and 1974, respectively. Landers and his wife, Pam, also a Tech graduate, were honored as distinguished alumni prior to tipoff. After the

That game was then autographed by the current Lady Bulldog Basketball family and again presented to Landers prior to Georgia's home game against Coppin State on Dec. 2. Seniors Krista Donald and Erika Ford and Greg McGarity, UGA's J. Reid Parker Director of Athletics, (pictured above) gave Landers the autographed basketball. Interestingly, McGarity was at Landers' very first win at UGA against Piedmont on Nov. 10, 1979, serving as the team's sports information director.

The seven coaches to reach the 850-win plateau at one Division I school – with win totals of the active coaches through games of Jan. 10 – are listed above to the right.

The only better beginnings were: 16-0 by the 2010 "Sweet 16" team; 14-0 by the 1999 Final Four squad; and 13-0 by the 2008 and 1990 NCAA second-round Lady Bulldogs.

UGA AMONG LAST UNBEATENS

The Lady Bulldogs were one of just six remaining undefeated Division I teams when UGA lost at Seton Hall on Dec. 28.

The only remaining unbeatens were Akron, Mississippi State, Princeton, South Carolina and Texas.

FIRST TO DOUBLE-DIGIT "Ws"

On Dec. 7, the Lady Bulldogs became the first of the nation's 688 Division I basketball teams – 345 men's and 343 women's – to reach 10 victories this season when then No. 19 Georgia upset No. 16 Michigan State at Stegeman Coliseum.

21ST DOUBLE-DIGIT "W" STRING

UGA's longest string of success is 20 games , AN EFFICIENT TRIO - from a New Year's Eve 1985 win over No. 4 Long Beach State to the 1986 "Sweet 16."

SHACOBIA BARBEE: PLAYMAKER

Shacobia Barbee's scoring often gets the headlines, but that's just part of the story. Barbee has inflicted her influence on both ends of the floor all season.

Perhaps Barbee's best outing came at arch rival Georgia Tech on Nov. 23 when she was stellar from the opening tip to the final horn.

Barbee hit back-to-back 3-pointers that ignited an 11-2 run to put UGA up 13-6. After Tech pulled ahead 25-22 late in the half, Barbee scored five points in the final 56 seconds of the period to put Georgia up at the break.

Throughout the game, Barbee worked the sideline in UGA's press break and turned long passes into strong drives to the basket. She also made several key defensive plays, none bigger than a steal from Kaela Davis with a minute remaining and Georgia up four.

"Cobi really has a nice understanding of basketball," Andy Landers said. "She understands how to play it and where the opportunities are, whether that's defensive opportunities or offensive opportunities. Early, it was good for our basketball team when she hit those threes. She also sensed at the back of the press offense that there were some opportunities...that on the outside lane on the break, they hadn't quite gotten back. She was a playmaker, defensively and offensively."

Georgia's trio of leading scorers at Mercer on Dec. 4 was extremely efficient with its scoring chances. Shacobia Barbee, Mackenzie Engram and Tiaria Griffin all scored 12 points.

Barbee hit 6-of-9 field goals, Engram made 6-of-8 FG attempts and Tiaria Griffin connected on 4-of-4 FGs, including 2-of-2 3-pointers.

They combined to sink 16-of-21 their shots from the floor, a sizzling 76.2 percent.

ENGRAM VS. COPPIN STATE

Mackenzie Engram accounted for more than half of Georgia's made field goals and 3-pointers en route to her career-high 20 points against Coppin State on Dec. 2.

Engram was 7-of-13 from the field, a solid 53.8 percent, while the rest of the Lady Bulldog roster was just 6-of-37, a paltry 16.2 percent. While Engram was good on both of her 3-point attempts, Georgia was 1-of-10 from behind the arc otherwise.

LADY BULLDOGS RETURN TO POLLS

The Lady Bulldogs were not ranked in the preseason editions of the Associated Press or USA Today/ESPN coaches polls, which was an extreme rarity.

Georgia was not in the AP preseason poll for just the second time since 1981-82 and was left out of the coaches poll for the first time since it was initiated in 1985-86. The last time Georgia was not ranked in the AP poll was the 2008-09 season.

The Lady Bulldogs' absence from the rankings was brief.

Georgia entered the AP poll on Nov. 17 after opening the year with wins over Morgan State and TCU. UGA joined the USA Today/ ESPN coaches poll the next week following road victories at Ohio State and Georgia Tech.

Georgia has now appeared in 517 weekly editions of the AP rankings, the second-most of any program in the nation. The Lady Bulldogs are second in weeks ranked despite not being featured in the first seven years of the AP poll's existence.

Georgia first appeared in an Associated Press poll in the preseason edition prior to the 1981-82 season. Since then, UGA has been included in 517 of the 604 (85.6 percent) of the weekly AP polls. During that same span, the Lady Bulldogs have appeared in the top-10 44.4 percent of the time (268 weeks).

The WBCA initiated a coaches poll with the 1985-86 campaign. Since then, Georgia

LANDERS, UGA APPROACH MILESTONES

In addition to Andy Landers' 850th win at the University of Georgia (secured at Tennessee Tech on Nov. 29), he and Lady Bulldog Basketball are within reach of additional significant milestone victory marks during the 2014-15 season.

The Lady Bulldogs are now six wins shy of their 900th all-time victory. Georgia became the 10th Division I women's basketball program to reach 850 all-time victories against Alabama on Jan. 31, 2013.

Landers began the campaign with 925 "Ws" in his 39 seasons as a collegiate head coach and enters the Auburn game 11 victories away from his 950th career win. That tally includes 82 victories secured in four seasons at Roane State College from 1975-79.

HOMECOMINGS FOR BARBEE & BUTLER

Shacobia Barbee and Mariorie Butler had strong cheering sections for Georgia's Nov. 29 A MEANINGFUL EVENING FOR ENGRAM win at Tennessee Tech.

Barbee was the Class AAA honoree as both a junior and a senior at Riverdale High. Butler won the Division II-Class A honor as a junior at The Webb School but then missed almost all of her senior year due to a knee injury.

Both Barbee and Butler enjoyed solid outings in Cookeville. Barbee notched team-high tallies of 14 points, six rebounds and four assists. Butler scored eight points, equaled Barbee's four assists and collected a gamehigh four steals.

HITTING THE MAGIC NUMBER

The Lady Bulldogs' 93-52 victory over Georgia Southern on Nov. 25 added another notch to one of the greatest statistical indicators in any sport.

Georgia improved to 432-6 when scoring 80 or more points during Andy Landers' 36 seasons as the University of Georgia's first and still only - full-time women's basketball head coach.

Engram posted both her first double-digit scoring output (12 points all in the second half) and double-figure rebounding tally (10 boards) en route to her first career double-double.

The performance was even more memorable considering Engram had approximately 20 family members and friends in the crowd in Columbus, including her mother, Michelle Zelina, who is an OSU alum.

GEORGIA SIGNS THREE

Amber Skidgel signed her papers on the initial day of the period, followed by Shanea Armbrister on Nov. 13 and Caliya Robinson on Nov. 14.

Skidgel is a 6-0, guard, from Bethlehem, Ga., who helped Archer High to a runner-up showing in the 6A State Tournament last season when she averaged 12.2 ppg and 3.8 rpg and made 74 3-pointer while shooting 43.0 percent from behind the arc.

Armbrister is a 6-2, guard-forward, from Darton Junior College in Albany, Ga., who was a third-team All-American last season after averaging 18.9 ppg and 8.4 rpg. Nationally, she ranked No. 23 in scoring and No. 9 in free throw percentage (84.4).

Robinson, a 6-3, forward from McEachern High, has been rated as one of the nation's No. 19 prospect by Fullcourt.com, as well as No. 33 by ESPN Hoopgurlz and No. 44 by Prospect Nation, Last season, she averaged 13.0 ppg, 11.2 rpg, 6.6 bpg, 3.8 apg and 3.3 spg while helping McEachern to the Georgia 6A state title.

For the first time ever, the Lady Bulldogs embarked on an overseas exhibition tour prior to the 2014-15 season. Georgia traveled to Italy from August 3-13 for 10 days of touring and three exhibition contests. NCAA rules allow teams preparing for such trips to conduct 10 summer practices. The Lady Bulldogs took full advantage of that opportunity.

When Georgia hit the floor for its first official practice on Sunday, Oct. 5, the players - including the Lady Bulldogs' four freshmen - had the added benefit of those summer practice sessions and games under their belts.

"What we did this summer can have terrific carryover and should give us some momentum, some positive momentum as we start practice," Andy Landers said. "I think our players feel good about what we were able to do in practices and on the trip. I think that there's a positive vibe from those experiences, so we'll pick up from there and continue to build and feel like as we do that, that we're a little bit ahead and less pressed to get things done."

Georgia dispatched its three Italian exhibition opponents by an average of 34.0 points per game.

HARRIS ELECTED TO WBB HALL OF FAME

Janet Harris, the Lady Bulldogs' only fourtime All-American, will be inducted into the Women's Basketball Hall of Fame in 2015.

Harris was the nation's top-rated prospect when she signed with a relatively unknown UGA program. She arrived in 1981, the first year of NCAA women's athletics, and became the first women's player in NCAA history to score 2,500 points and collect 1,250 rebounds.

"Janet Harris was our first great player and she made it cool for other great players to come to Georgia," Andy Landers said. "She was the first great power player under the NCAA and one of the greatest of all time."

Among NCAA career leaders, Harris still ranks No. 34 in points (2,641) and No. 18 in rebounds (1,398). She also remains No. 2 in SEC history and No. 5 in NCAA annals with 78 career double-doubles.

2 of Roberts' double-figure games at Syracuse in 2012-13

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- ◊ Transferred to UGA from Syracuse during the 2013 summer and, per NCAA regulations, practiced but did not play last year.
- ♦ Averaged 3.6 points, 1.8 rebounds and 0.8 steals per game during her freshman season.
- ♦ Helped Syracuse to a 24-8 record, an NCAA Tournament bid and a final Associated Press ranking of No. 22 in 2012-13.
- ♦ Recorded her two double-digit outputs (11 points) in back-to-back games against Georgia Tech and Virginia.
- Coached by Phyllis Arthur at McEachern High where she scored 1,591 career points and helped the Indians to a combined 104-20 record in her four seasons.
- ♦ Selected as the consensus 2012 Miss Georgia Basketball.
- ♦ As a senior in 2012, led McEachern's Indians to a perfect 33-0 record, the Class 5A Georgia State Championship and a No. 2 national ranking in the POWERADE FAB 50.

2014-15 SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

- ♦ Came within a point of her third career double-digit scoring output against Georgia Southern, largely due to connecting on 5-of-6 trips to the free throw line.
- ♦ Posted career highs for rebounds (5) and minutes played (22) versus Georgia Southern.
- ♦ Made a huge impact against Michigan State, scoring six points, grabbing a rebound and dishing out an assist in just four minutes of action. The buckets Roberts made and assisted pushed Georgia's lead from nine points to 19.
- ♦ Tied her career-high with 11 points at Seton Hall, equaling the mark she set twice as a freshman at Syracuse in 2012-13.
- ♦ Notched her first collegiate start against Missouri.

GUARD

♦ A two-time Class 3A All-State selection, earning second-team honors from both the Atlanta Journal-Constitution and the Georgia Sports Writers Association as a junior and a senior.

- ♦ Completed her prep career with 1,694 points 840 at St. Pius X and 854 at Mill Creek.
- ♦ Helped lead the St. Pius X Golden Lions to consecutive 30-3 finishes and Georgia 3A state titles.
- ♦ Helped Mill Creek reach the semifinals of the Georgia 5A State Tournament as a freshman and the quarterfinals as a sophomore.

2014-15 SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

- ♦ Scored six points, collected four steals and dished out a pair of assists in her first extended action of the season against Georgia Southern.
- Chipped in nicely in her first SEC action against Alabama, knocking down a pair of jumpers. Andy Landers was pleased Carter was able "...to remember that when certain things happen you have the ability to do this. There's no question in my mind that she went out there, recognized what the defense was doing and took advantage with the one-dribble pull up."

PERSONAL

- ♦ Born March 8, 1996, Jasmine is the daughter of Joel and Pat Carter and is undecided on a major.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

SENIOR

- Had what was unequivocally a successful arthroscopic procedure during the summer of 2013 to address issues with the posterior cruciate ligament (PCL) in her left knee that hindered her practice and playing time during her first two seasons at UGA.
- ♦ After averaging 12.3 minutes per game during her freshman and sophomore years, logged 30.0 mpg as a junior.

FORWARD

- ♦ Displayed what was to come throughout her junior season with a 10-point, 16-rebound effort against Ohio State in the third game of the year. That tally held up as the most boards by any Lady Bulldog during 2013-14.
- ♦ A very consistent scorer against league competition in 2014, with 10 double-digit outputs in 18 combined games of regular-season and SEC Tournament play.
- Missed the first dozen games of 2012-13 while focusing on academics. Returned to see action in 21 of the remaining 23 contests.
- Named Feb. 6, 2011 SEC Freshman of the Week, largely due to game-highs of 18 points and nine boards at Alabama.
- Coached by Victor Gilstrap at Lake High where she scored 2,456 points and hauled down 1,470 rebounds and was tabbed as the 2011 Mississippi Gatorade Player of the Year.

2014-15 SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

- ♦ Solid contributor in successive key early-season wins overTCU, Ohio State and Georgia Tech. Averaged 12.0 ppg and 9.3 rpg in those contest with double-doubles against the Horned Frogs and Yellow Jackets.
- ♦ Came within a rebound of her third double-double of the season versus Michigan State.
- ♦ Has led the Lady Bulldogs in rebounding seven times, headlined by a season-high 13 boards at Seton Hall.
- ♦ Posted season-high steals tallies in consecutive SEC outings against Alabama and Missouri.
- ♦ Paces Georgia and ranks No. 9 in the SEC in rebounding at 7.4 rpg.

PERSONAL

- ♦ Born Jan. 10, 1993, Krista is the daughter of Angelia Donald and is majoring in Criminal Justice.
- ♦ Recipient of the Andy Landers Scholarship for 2012-13, 2013-14 and 2014-15.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- ♦ In 2013-14, led UGA offensively a team-best 11 times and accounted for UGA's three highest single-game outputs 27 vs. Mississippi State and 23 against both Florida (in Gainesville) and S.C. State. FYI, Shacobia Barbee scored 23 points at Alabama.
- ♦ Scored 16 second-half points against LSU, including 10 in the final 3:58. Hit four jumpshots during the final 3:58 after the Lady Tigers had trimmed UGA's lead to a single possession.
- Averaged 15.6 ppg in Georgia's last eight regular-season outings and reached double figures in two of three post-season outings.
- ♦ In 2012-13, played in 34 games, including a guartet of starts.
- ♦ Was a huge spark off the bench in the first two games. Scored five of her eight points against Rutgers in a second-half span of just 1:18 and then poured in a season-high 14 points against Furman.
- ♦ In 2011-12, named SEC All-Freshman by league coaches.
- Exploded for team- and career-bests of 18 points and seven boards against Northeastern in her first career start.
- ♦ Named Jan. 2, 2012 SEC Freshman of the Week after averaging 9.5 ppg and 6.0 rpg versus Furman and Arkansas.
- Coached by Eric Herrick at Chattahoochee where she was named All-State as a sophomore and junior but missed most of her senior year due to a stress fracture in her leg.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- ♦ Coached by Susan Milam as a junior and senior and by Sheryl Fowler in her first two years at Hillgrove.
- ♦ A four-year starter and helped the Lady Hawks to a combined 93-24 record from 2010-14.
- ♦ Rated as the nation's No. 38 overall prospect by Prospect Nation, as well as No. 41 by Blue Star, No. 71 by ESPN Hoopgurlz and No. 72 by the Girls Basketball Report.
- ♦ Tabbed first-team Class 6A All-State by the Atlanta Journal-Constitution as both a junior and a senior. Named first- and second-team 6A All-State by the GSWA as a junior and a senior, respectively.
- As a sophomore, helped Hillgrove to a 26-5 record and a runner-up finish in the 5A State Tournament.
- ♦ As a freshman, started for the Lady Hawks, who reached the "Elite Eight" of the Georgia 5A State Tourney.

2014-15 SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

- ◊ Took care of a trio of career firsts at Ohio State, reaching double digits in points and rebounds en route to her initial double-double in a Georgia uniform.
- ♦ The outing in Columbus was even more memorable considering she had approximately 20 family members and friends in attendance, including her mother. Michelle Zelina. who is an OSU alum.
- ♦ Scored all 12 of her points at Ohio State in the second half.
- ♦ Posted eight first-half points at Georgia Tech, including a perfect 6-of-6 on FT attempts.
- ♦ Paced UGA for the first time with a career-high 20 points against Coppin State.
- Against Coppin State: 1) made more FGs (7) than the rest of the UGA roster combined (6); 2) accounted for two of UGA's three 3-pointers in the contest; 3) outscored CSU three-guarters of the way through the game. Scored her 18th point with 10:20 remaining that put the Lady Bulldogs up 34-16. The Eagles finally surged ahead of Engram (23-20) with 7:15 left.
- ♦ Scored 11 points all in the second half and grabbed a game-high nine rebounds at Mississippi State in the SEC opener.
- ♦ Blocked four shots against Mississipi State, the Lady Bulldogs' single-game high for the season.

PERSONAL

- ♦ Born November 29, 1995, Mackenzie is the daughter of Michelle Zelina and Derrick Engram and is intending to major in Mass Media Arts.
- ♦ Her older brother, Evan Engram, is an All-SEC tight end on the Ole Miss football team.
