Triple-Double

For just the ninth time in Tennessee Tech history, a Golden Eagle recorded a triple-double as junior guard Tacarra Hayes finished with 15 points, 12 assists and 10 rebounds against Morehead State (1/7). The accomplishment came just three games after recording her first career double-double against Bluefield. Hayes' triple-double was the first since Taunya Lovelace accomplished the feat in 1994.

Calling On Kat

Sophomore guard Katherine Barker made the first start of her collegiate career and played a career-high 33 minutes against Morehead State (1/7/10). The guard was especially effective defensively where she held the Eagles' top scorer Chynna Boze-man to a career-low three points on the night. So far this season, Barker has seen action in eight games.

Hop In Her Step

Sophomore forward Tiara Hopper needed one game last season to notch her first career double-double. She only needed two games this season to record her third as she posted 18 points and 16 rebounds in the Golden Eagles 81-65 win over Lipscomb.

Gettin' Ahead of the Game

Freshman forward Molly Heady is the only freshman that has played in every game this season, averaging 24.3 minutes per game. In her Golden Eagle debut, she posted seven points and six rebounds against Alabama A&M. Recently against Murray State (1/15), she recorded her first career double-double with 10 points and 12 rebounds.

At the Point

Freshman guard Briana Jordan has played in 29 contests for the Golden Eagles and is second on the team in helpers with 72. Against Belmont (11/21), Jordan was one rebound shy of her first double-double as she netted 17 points and hauled in nine rebounds.

Big Time Performance

Freshman guard Keisha Moore has played in 27 games this season. She delivered her best performance to date on the road against Kentucky (12/7) when she chipped in with 12 points and four assists.

Promise Put On Hold

Freshman guard Diamond Henderson showed her scoring prowess in Tech's exhibition against Bryan College. Henderson put up a game-high 22 points, while shooting 10-of-12 from the field. Due to a knee injury she will miss the remainder of the season.

Chippin In Against an Old Rival

Freshman center Candace Parson posted seven points and six rebounds in 23 minutes against Middle Tennessee (12/1). In her previous game, she added eight points and two rebounds against Tennessee Wesleyan (11/27).

An Exclusive Club

With her 29 points against ECU (2/3), Taccarra Hayes has become the 26th player in Tech history to reach 1,000 points. The last Golden Eagle to reach 1,000 points was Blair Bowens in the 2008-09 season. Currently sitting at 1,188 points, Hayes is 15 points behind Roschelle Vaughn for 18th on the all-time scoring list.

2009-present ..... Head Coach
Tennessee Tech

Some people say that the first step in any endeavor is usually the hardest one to take. In the case of Tennessee Tech women's basketball coach Sytia Messer, however, the first step showed a glimpse of what could be accomplished is her ensuing years as head coach of the Golden Eagle program.

A native of Waldo, Ark., Messer's main goal when she was named TTU head coach was to bring additional OVC Championships to Tech, something long-time followers of the women's basketball team have become accustomed to.

With three starters returning from last season, including Tacarra Hayes who was named first-team all-OVC last season, it's clear that another OVC crown is within their sights in Messer's second year at the helm of the women's basketball program.

The very idea that the Golden Eagles are one of the front-runners to win the conference this season is a testament to Messer's coaching skill and recruiting. Her team will not boast any seniors this season and will rely on the youngsters that she has brought into the program.

And why shouldn't Tech have high expectations in its youngster as Messer can boast not only the top recruiting class in the OVC, but also the highest-ranked recruiting class in the program's history.

Messer's expertise in recruiting can be traced back to her days as a member of the Georgia Tech coaching staff where she rose to the rank of associate head coach. During her five seasons at Georgia Tech, Messer was the primary architect of five of Georgia Tech's top recruiting classes. During the 2007-08 season Messer helped recruit the highest-ranked player to ever sign with the program, only to top that accolade a year later as her recruiting class was ranked as high as sixth in the nation.

With her excellent recruiting skills, Messer also coaches with a level of intensity that will bring out the best in every player who dons a Tennessee Tech uniform.

Messer's intensity is not isolated on the court, however, as she expects the same kind of effort out of her players in the classroom and the community. During Messer's first season, her players had a combined 3.2 GPA in the fall semester, and then followed up with a 3.3 GPA in the spring semester en route to 15 AD Honor Roll selections and five OVC Commissioner Honor Roll selections. The Golden Eagles have also been visible in the community, as they have participated in a number of events including Habitat for Humanity and the Fall Fun Fest.

Messer's desire for success can be traced back to her decorated playing career at Arkansas where she played four seasons for the Razorbacks. As a Razorback Messer led the team to a 22-11 record and an NCAA Final Four appearance in 1998 where she was named the Most Valuable Player for the West Regional. Messer and the Razorbacks followed up with a WNIT Championship in 1999.

Over the course of her four seasons at Arkansas, Messer tallied 1,379 points to rank seventh on the all-time scorers list. Messer's prowess was not limited to scoring however, as she ranked 10th in career rebounding with 603, sixth in free throws made with 329 and fourth in career three pointers with 112.

Messer's players are seeing the same success as she enjoyed during her playing days on the court. Not only did the Golden Eagles make the OVC Tournament in Messer's inaugural season, they also exceeded preseason expectations as they were picked to finish eighth in the OVC and finished fourth.

Last season's success was not limited to team accomplishments as several of Messer's players were awarded for their individual performances.

Guard Tacarra Hayes was named all-OVC first team as she led the team in a number of categories including points with 506 (16.9 ppg), which ranked second in the OVC last season. Hayes was also named the OVC Player of the Week twice.

Guard Kellie Cook also raked in the awards as she was named to the OVC all-newcomer team and earned an OVC Freshman of the Week award. Forward Tiara Hopper also earned an OVC Freshman of the Week award.

Messer and her squad have taken the first all-important step on their trail back to the top. This winter, they continue their march back to an OVC Championship...and beyond.
