QUOTING AUBURN HEAD COACH KIM EVANS

On preparing for Regionals...

"Finally, the team gets to relax. We've been going light with finals going on. A lot of them still have some moving to do, some things to shore up, but we are ready to get some work in and get ready for Regionals. We also have graduation, so there's a lot going on. They are ready, and we just have to put together a good equation and get them there and play a great golf course."

On Haley Wilson and Patricia Sanz graduating...

"They are both getting their degrees, and what's exciting is that they get to walk the line and their families are going to be here. Patti is from Madrid, and Haley is from Phenix City area, but it's important to them and the team, and that's what they came to school for was for their degree. Between the two of them, they walk out with three SEC Championships, and we're not done yet."

On the Scarlet Course...

"It is a true championship course. I think we've played two NCAA Championships on it and a regional. It has hosted so many great championships, so we're looking forward to getting there and seeing what it brings. The roughs are up, greens are fast, so we're excited."

On the Regional field...

"It is a great field. I think seven SEC teams are there. It's going to be action-packed there. A lot of people are better at the end, and a lot of teams are better at the end. A lot of teams will play better to that style of course, so we'll see some teams that maybe we hadn't seen play as well play really good, so we have to be ready."

QUOTING SENIOR PATRICIA SANZ

On preparing for Regionals...

"We know it's going to be a really hard golf course like the one we played for SECs. We know there are going to be a lot of bunkers. So we've been working on the bunkers, on our physical strength like we did last time, and then also psychologically to be stronger and practice as hard as we can. We are done with finals now, so we don't have anything else to do except golfing."

On the pressure of Regionals...

"You cannot focus on it being a regional. We just need to try to win like we always do because if you only try to barely make the eighth spot, you can miss it. So if you just play to win, you might finish second."
