CLINT MYERS » HEAD COACH

With the reputation of taking a program and turning it into a perennial power, head coach Clint Myers has taken Auburn softball to unprecedented heights in just three years.

Myers has guided the Tigers to back-to-back Women's College World Series appearances in the past two campaigns, when the previously best finish came with a showing at a regional final in 2006.

Since his appointment following the 2013 season, Auburn has broken 21 records, including 16 on offense, and led the nation in a plethora of categories.

Myers has coached nine All-Americans, with three coming in each of his seasons on The Plains. Before his arrival, the Tigers had five players who were tabbed All-Americans in the previous 17 campaigns.

In comparison with rivals in the conference, Myers has coached nine All-SEC performers, even setting a program record with four in 2015. Between 1997-2013, Auburn had never placed multiple players on the all-conference team lists. Since then, the Tigers have had three, four and two representatives in successive years under Myers.

As impressive as Myers' teams have been on the field, the program has taken a giant leap forward off of it.

Under Myers, Auburn has placed three on Academic All-America and Academic All-District lists, something that had never been done previously. In 2016, the Tigers had 24 honorees on the Academic All-SEC list. Kasey Cooper also became the first player in softball history to be named the SEC Scholar-Athlete of the Year and the NCAA Elite 90 winner.

A 1976 graduate of Arizona State, Myers was a member of the Sun Devil baseball team from 1970-73 and played on the College World Series runner-up squads in 1972 and 1973. He was later selected by the St. Louis Cardinals in the third round of the 1973 Major League Draft.

Myers and his wife, Katie, have two sons, Casey and Corey. They also have three grandchildren; grandsons, Cole and Christian, and granddaughter, Carlee.

NATIONAL SCALE

» Senior Kasey Cooper and freshman Alyssa Rivera have already made an impact in 2017 on the Auburn softball program. The duo was selected to be on the USA Women's National Team for contests beginning in June. Cooper, who became the first Tiger ever to don the stars and stripes, returns to the senior squad for her second stint, while Rivera was tabbed to the junior team.

THREE NAMED TO POTY WATCH LIST

» Kaylee Carlson, Kasey Cooper and Makayla Martin were tabbed to the USA Softball Collegiate Player of the Year Watch List.

» Auburn tied for the most representatives on the list, joining Arizona, Florida, Florida State and Oklahoma who each had three players chosen.

COOPER PICKED PRESEASON ALL-SEC

» Auburn softball's Kasey Cooper was picked to the Preseason All-SEC Team, the league office announced Wednesday with the unveiling of its 10th annual list for the upcoming 2017 season.

» Cooper, the lone representative from the reigning conference tournament champions, earned the nod as a preseason all-conference choice for the third consecutive time in her career.

» The 2016 SEC Player of the Year was one of six seniors to be selected to the team that also included six juniors and three sophomores.

TIGERS TO APPEAR ON NATIONAL TV

» Fresh off the deepest postseason run in program history, the Auburn softball team is slated to appear on national television 13 times during the 2017 schedule.

» The Tigers are set to have six games featured on ESPN2, five on the SEC Network and one on ESPNU through the upcoming campaign.

» Included in the major television package will be 22 Auburn home games streamed online via SEC Network+, the online-only branch of the SEC Network.
