AROUND THE HORN

FIRST PITCH

- The reigning Horizon League champion UIC baseball team opens the 2020 season this weekend with a four-game series at No. 8 Auburn.
- UIC was picked to finish atop the Horizon League this upcoming season, as the league office announced the preseason poll Wednesday (Feb. 12). The Flames received three of the six first-place votes (33 total points), just beating out second-place Wright State (three first-place votes, 32 total points).
- The Flames made their sixth NCAA regional appearance last year after winning the conference title. UIC entered as the No. 2 seed and defeated third-seeded Milwaukee, 6-5, in the championship game. The Flames received the league's automatic postseason berth and competed in the Louisville regional.
- Senior Jacob Key was the preseason selection for Horizon League Pitcher of the Year by D1Baseball, Baseball America and Perfect Game USA while newcomer Nick Lopez was the pick for Freshman of the Year by all three outlets.

KEY TO SUCCESS

- Rising senior Jacob Key became the third different UIC hurler to be named the Horizon League Pitcher of the Year in as many seasons on May 21, 2019.
- The right-hander boasted a 3.12 ERA during the regular season, 11th-best in the conference and tops among all throwers with at least four starts.
- Key tossed a league-best 105.2 innings and ranked third with 90 strikeouts. Opponents hit .246 against the then-junior in 16 starts.
- The Murfreesboro, Tenn., native tied for the League lead with 64 Ks in conference play, including 23 that went down looking.
- He won the Horizon League Pitcher of the Week Award twice (March 12 and May 6).
- Key made nine quality starts and six have come against conference foes.
- Key was named to the Google Cloud Academic All-District Team for the second consecutive year while also being named the spring Horizon League co-Scholar Athlete of the Season.

HORIZON LEAGUE WEEKLY AWARD WINNERS

DATE	WINNER	AWARD	OF NOTE

FAMILY TREE

- UIC’s current roster features brothers Alex Dee and Sean Dee. Alex is a redshirt senior and Sean is a redshirt sophomore. The duo, who hail from Onalaska, Wis., are the nephews of UIC head coach Mike Dee.
- The pair combined to play in 110 games last spring with 71 starts. Alex made a team-high 37 starts at first base, plus two as the designated hitter. All 32 of Sean’s starts have been at second base.
- The Dee brothers are one of two sets of brothers on the team, joined by the Lopez brothers. Both newcomers, Nick Lopez is a freshman (JSerra Catholic) while older brother Cristian Lopez is a junior who spent his first two seasons at Cypress College in California. The Lopez’s are originally from Santa Ana, California.

FEELING A DRAFT

- In the last three years, UIC has had 11 players selected in the Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft. That is the most over a three-year span in both program and Horizon League history. A record six Flames were selected in 2017, followed by four more in 2018 and one in 2019.
- Last year, Scott Ota was selected in the 10th round of the MLB First-Year Player Draft by the New York Mets. The outfielder spent the 2019 season with the Kingsport Mets (Rookie Advanced), hitting .273 with seven home runs, 14 doubles, five triples and driving in 26 runs over the course of 51 games.
- Of those 11 players, six had collegiate eligibility remaining, including 2017 Horizon League Player of the Year Rob Calabrese and 2018 Horizon League Relief Pitcher of the Year Charlie Cerny.
- A total of 42 players have entered the professional baseball ranks in 21 seasons under head coach Mike Dee. Of that group, 40 have contributed to at least one conference championship.
- Two of those 42 players- Curtis Granderson and Nate Orf- have reached the highest level and played in Major League Baseball games.
- Granderson retired from baseball following the 2019 season after having worn a Major League uniform since 2004, playing in more than 1,950 games, including 64 in the postseason. He is a three-time All-Star with more than 330 career home runs, more than 900 RBI and more than 150 stolen bases.
- Orf made his MLB debut with Milwaukee Brewers on July 2, 2018. His first career hit was a solo home run on July 4 against the Minnesota Twins. He has played 15 MLB games and is currently with the Class AAA San Antonio Missions.

PICKING UP WHERE THEY LEFT OFF

- A number of Flames will look to carry streaks from the end of the 2019 season into the start of the 2020 year when UIC opens up at Auburn.
- Thomas Smart will enter the season riding a five-game hitting streak and a nine-game on-base streak dating back to the end of last year. Smart started in 45 of UIC’s 52 games, seeing starting action at left field (23 starts), third base (13), first base (8) and DH (1). Smart also appeared all over the batting lineup, hitting in seven of the nine spots in the lineup throughout the year.
- Chris Papapietro has the second-longest active on-base streak of the returning Flames, having reached base in each of the final five games of the 2019 season.
- Josh Figueroa will look to extend his success at the plate after having 15 multiple hit games and six multiple RBI games last year, tops among returning players. Figueroa started in 47 of UIC’s 52 games a year ago, the most starts among any returning player, with 46 of the 47 starts coming behind the plate.

RECORD WATCH

- Senior Jacob Key’s is already in the UIC record book and will push to move his name up the list in a number of categories throughout the season.
- The starting pitcher entered the 2020 season tied for ninth in career wins (17), tied for sixth in career strikeouts and tied for eighth in career starts (38).
- Key finished the 2019 season tied for seventh in single-season strikeouts (90), tied for second in single-season starts (16) and sixth in single-season innings pitched (105.2).

FACING THE BEST

- UIC is no stranger to facing the top teams in the country, having played at least one ranked opponent in three of the last four years.
- UIC last defeated a ranked opponent in 2017 when the Flames took 2-of-3 from then-No. 7 Vanderbilt on the road. The Flames won the opener, 5-3, in 10 innings before taking Sunday’s rubber match, 5-2, in 11 innings.
