2018 SEC INDOOR TRACK AND FIELD CHAMPIONSHIPS

FEBRUARY 24-25, 2018
COLLEGE STATION, TEXAS
GILLIAM INDOOR STADIUM

2018 SEC Indoor Track and Field | SEC Championship

» Alabama

The Alabama men's track & field team moved up to No. 8, while the Crimson Tide women moved to No. 17 in the latest U.S. Track & Field Cross Country Coaches Association (USTFCCCA) regular-season indoor rankings released Monday. Alabama was off from competition last weekend and will travel to College Station, Texas this week for the 2018 Southeastern Conference Indoor Track & Field Championships, Feb. 24-25, at Texas A&M University.

» Arkansas

Men: Iowa Central transfer Jah-Nhai Perinchief was the first Razorback to post an improved mark, clearing an indoor PR of 2.22m/7-3 1/4 in the high jump to win the event. His jump moved him up to No. 9 on the NCAA leader boards and tied him for No. 8 on Arkansas' all-time bests list. Perinchief went back to work a couple hours later in the triple jump, marking an indoor PR of 16.00m/52-6 to debut on the NCAA triple jump list at No. 13. Junior Rhayko Schwartz shined on the track, winning the 400-meter dash off an indoor PR of 46.08. With that time Schwartz joins teammate Obi Igbokwe inside the NCAA 400-meter top-10 list, tied for 10th. Taking a break from his signature quarter-mile, Igbokwe raced to a second-place finish in the 200, clocking an indoor PR of 20.69. Senior Kenzo Cotton finished right behind Igbokwe, placing third in the event in a season best of 20.72. Igbokwe and Cotton now rank sixth and seventh, respectively, in the NCAA. In addition to Perinchief and Schwartz, Arkansas had five more event winners on the night, three of whom produced program top-10 all-time best performances including: Larry Donald (60-meter hurdles, 7.81, No. 5), Kris Hari (60 meters, 6.71, No. 4) and Sam Kempka (Shot Put, 58-0 1/4, No.6). Arkansas distance medley relay team of Cameron Griffith, John Winn, Ethan Moehn and Jack Bruce placed fifth in the event at the UCS Invitational, running a season best of 9:39.42. That performance ranks the Hogs 12th in the NCAA and at No. 2 among Southeastern Conference teams. Women: Several strong performances highlighted the No. 1 Arkansas women's track and field team's indoor regular-season finale, the Arkansas Qualifier, on Friday at the Randal Tyson Track Center. Janeek Brown turned in the night's top performance with a win in the 60-meter hurdles. The freshman from Kingston, Jamaica, set a personal record of 8.15 in the finals to move into a tie for 15th nationally. Jada Baylark finished third in the 200-meter dash with a time of 23.43. At the Alex Wilson Invitational on Saturday, the Razorback DMR squad of Nikki Hiltz, Morgan Burks-Magee, Carina Viljoen and Taylor Werner posted the ninth-best time in the nation while finishing sixth with a time of 11:02.31.

» Auburn

Sophomore Akeem Bloomfield broke his own school record in the men's 400m dash at the Tiger Paw Invitational on Feb. 9. Bloomfield crossed in 45.02, the second fastest time in the nation this year, the sixth-fastest time in NCAA history and eighth best ever in the world all-time list. A native of Kingston, Jamaica, Bloomfield, who finished second in the race to Southern California's Michael Norman (45.00), broke the Jamaican National record in the process. Senior Jonielle Smith ran a 7.18 in the prelims of the women's 60m dash, posting the fastest time by an Auburn athlete in the event in 11 years in the 60m dash. Auburn all-time great Kerron Stewart is the only Tiger to post faster times in the last 20 years than Smith's 7.18, clocking a 7.14 and 7.15 in 2007. Teammate Natalliah White also dropped a fast time in the event with a PR of 7.19, making her the fourth fastest in school history in the 60m. Freshman thrower Tori McKinley finished seventh in the women's shot put with a personal-best throw of 50-11.50, making the rookie the third best performer in school history behind Valentina Muzaric and Rachel Dincoff. Junior sprinter Jenae Ambrose won the women's 200m dash in a personal best time of 23.35 against a very competitive field during Day 2 of the Tyson Invitational. Ambrose edged out teammate Natalliah Whyte, who claimed silver in 23.40. Auburn recorded 24 personal bests during the weekend. Auburn's next meet will be the Southeastern Conference Championships, February 24-25, in College Station, Texas.

» Florida

Florida finished sixth overall in the men's distance medley relay at the UCS Invitational Friday night, and the quartet's time puts the Gators on the bubble for NCAA Indoor Championships qualifying. The team of junior Sam Ahrenholz (2:58.21 – 1,200 meters), junior Kyren Hollis (48.65 – 400 meters), sophomore Justin Pacifico (1:50.19 – 800 meters), and redshirt sophomore Jack Guyton (4:02.44 – Mile) combined for a time of 9:39.49—which converts down to 9:31.72 after the flat-track conversion. The team's non-converted time ranks ninth on the school's All-Time Indoor Top 10. The converted time, which will be used for NCAA Indoor Championships qualifying, currently ranks seventh on the national descending order list. Only the top 12 times following conference championship meets will qualify for NCAA Indoors.

» Georgia

Men: The Georgia men sent a large contingent to Clemson, S.C., for the Tiger Paw Invitational and a couple runners to the Iowa State Classic to complete the indoor regular season. Junior Denzel Comenentia let go of four shot put attempts that would have been school records (all over 67 feet) to win the Tiger Paw, topping off with a mark of 67 feet, 3/4 inches on his third try. His winning mark surpassed Ashinia Miller's school record effort of 66-7.75 thrown in 2015. Comenentia improved his lead in the SEC, holding off South Carolina senior Josh Awotunde (66-10.50) at the meet, and bettered his No. 2 spot on the national list. Comenentia returned to have his second effort in the weight throw this season over 72 feet, going 72-1 for fourth place. He remains fifth on the national list and second in the SEC in the weight. Junior Kendal Williams clocked a season-best 60-meter dash time of 6.61, which ranks seventh nationally, to win while senior teammate Cejhae Greene had personal record of 6.62, which is ninth nationally, in the event's prelims. After notching the second-best 60m hurdle time in school history of 7.76 (ninth nationally) in the qualifying round, junior Michael Nicholls went sixth place in the final with a 7.78. Senior Henry Dwyer shot to seventh on the school's all-time mile list with his fourth consecutive personal best thanks to a 4:05.98, which gave him fourth place. The Bulldog high jumpers – sophomore Darius Carbin and Keenon Laine – each reached 7-2.50 to take third and fourth, respectively. Also of note, freshman heptathlete Johannes Erm clocked a 48.49 in the 400m while he trains for the postseason. At the ISU Classic, junior Austin Sprague ran the fourth-best time in school history of 14:13.94 for 19th place in the 5000m. Fellow junior Jeramey Hampton was 14th in the 800m with a season-best finish of 1:49.73. The Bulldogs return to work at the SEC Indoor Championships in College Station, Texas, on Feb. 24-25. Women: The fourth-ranked Lady Bulldogs joined the men in Clemson and Ames, Iowa, and left with a number of outstanding performances as the postseason nears. At the ISU Classic, sophomore Jessica Drop made her collegiate indoor debut in the 5000 meters and won with a school record time of 15:43.28, edging Syracuse senior Paige Stoner (15:44.04). This topped Jolly Earle's school record of 16:11.22 set in 1990 by 28 seconds. Drop's time ranks seventh nationally (third best time in the nation last weekend) and is second in the SEC. She has now set the UGA 3000m and 5000m records and moved to No. 4 on the Lady Bulldogs' all-time top-10 list in the mile this season. Closer to Athens, freshman Lynnna Irby crossed the 60m finish line with the third-best time in school history at 7.31 for fifth place during her debut in the event. Senior Mady Fagan reached 6 feet, 3/4 inches for the second time in 2018 to be the second collegiate finisher (third overall) in the high jump, which ranks fifth nationally. The Lady Bulldogs stayed stellar in the long jump as junior Kate Hall had the second-best performance of her UGA career to win with a mark of 21-8.75. She remains the country's leader at 21-9.50 and her latest mark also would have led the nation. The NCAA's triple jump leader and two-time defending champion, senior Keturah Orji, was third in the long jump with a season-best mark of 21-2.50. Freshman Tara Davis improved her personal best to 8.19 in the 60m hurdles, which is third on the school's list, to take ninth.

2018 SEC Indoor Track and Field | SEC Championship

» Kentucky

On Feb. 13, Kentucky track and field Olympians Jasmine Camacho-Quinn and Sydney McLaughlin picked up Southeastern Conference Runner of the Week and Freshman of the Week respectively on Tuesday. McLaughlin earned the honor for the second weekend in a row, while Camacho-Quinn picked up SEC Runner of the Week for the first time this year. Camacho-Quinn, a two-time NCAA Champion, has earned the honor in past seasons. Camacho-Quinn, now a junior, ran an NCAA leading 60-meter hurdles time 7.95, her first time under 8 seconds, at the Tiger Paw Invitational in Clemson, South Carolina. She was second overall, the top collegian, as only professional Kendra Harrison finished ahead of Camacho-Quinn running the American record 7.72.

» LSU

After their performances at the LSU Twilight, freshman JuVaughn Blake and sophomore Brittley Humphrey were respectively crowned men's freshman and women's runner of the week by the SEC office today. In just his second collegiate long jump competition, Blake notched a personal-best distance of 25' 7.5" (7.81m) and earned the event title. Blake was an inch shy of eclipsing his previous best by an entire foot, and his efforts tie him for the 12th-best mark in the nation according to TFRS. Sophomore Brittley Humphrey also won her first event title of the season in the women's 60-meter hurdles. Humphrey's time of 8.18 seconds was .02 shy of her lifetime-best, and she has qualified for the finals in all six opportunities this season. She swept the event as well with the top preliminary time of all competitors. Blake and Humphrey will aim to use this momentum to propel them to the top of the leaderboards this weekend at the SEC Championships, running February 24 through February 25. Gilliam Stadium will host the conference's best athletes in College Station, Texas.

» Ole Miss

Ole Miss split squad again two weekends ago, with distance runners competing at the distance-heavy Iowa State Classic and the remainder of the Rebel squad going to Vanderbilt for the Music City Challenge. Janeah Stewart reset her own NCAA lead in the weight throw, finishing as the top collegian behind world record holder (and Ole Miss volunteer coach) Gwen Berry at a one-foot PR of 24.12m (79-01.75). Brian Williams broke his own school record in the shot put by half a foot, finishing runner-up at 19.24m (63-01.50). Jolie Carbo ran a half-second PR in the 400-meter for the third-straight meet, finishing runner-up at 53.30 seconds. Dempsey McGuigan finished fifth at 20.72m (68-00.00), which a week earlier would have registered as a new career-best before his school-record 21.11m (69-03.25) at SIU's Don DeNoon Invite. Shannon Ray finished runner-up in the 60-meter dash finals at a PR 7.42 seconds, the eighth-fastest in Ole Miss history. Lanae Newsome leapt career-best 12.59m (41-03.75) to finish fourth overall. Senior Sean Tobin ran three-second PR of 7:55.08 in the 3K at the distance-heavy Iowa State Classic, finishing eighth overall in the invite section. Freshman Waleed Suliman won the mile at the Iowa State Classic, nearing the sub-4 barrier at a four-second PR of 4:00.90.

» Mississippi State

Logan Boss won the high jump while breaking her own school record at the Crimson Elite Meet (2/2) with a leap of 1.92m (6-3.5). The mark leads the NCAA by .03m, is tied for 10th in the world and is second by an American athlete this year. In SEC history, only two women have ever cleared a higher bar than Boss. Georgia's Mady Fagan and Leontia Kallenou each jumped 1.93m (6-4.0) in their careers. Boss has yet to finish lower than third place this season. The 2017 first-team All-American also won the high jump at the Vanderbilt Invitational (1/20) with a leap of 1.80m. Arop Paces Bulldog Men in the 800m. Marco Arop was named the SEC Freshman of the Week (1/23) after winning his first collegiate 800m at the Vanderbilt Invitational (1/20) with what was then the second-fastest time in school history. Arop then improved his time, winning in Boston (2/3) with a mark of 1:47.62 to rank second in the country at the time and take SEC Runner of the Week honors (2/6). The time also broke the MSU freshman record. MSU's men hold the number two, three and eight spots in the 800m in the SEC. Trailing Arop, Dejon Devroe is third in the conference and 12th in the nation at 1:48.31. His time ranks third in school history. Daniel Nixon sits eighth in the SEC and fifth in school history with a time of 1:49.78. Prior to enrolling at MSU, Arop ran at the U20 Pan-American Games in July. He finished second to Puerto Rico's Ryan Sanchez, but eclipsed the meet record with a personal-best 1:47.08. The previous record holder was Joaquim Cruz who won gold in the event at the 1984 Los Angeles Olympic Games.

» Missouri

Mizzou Track & Field redshirt freshman Ja'Mari Ward (Cahokia, Ill.) was named the Southeastern Conference Field Athlete of the Week, announced by the league office Tuesday. Ward, who won was named the 2017 SEC Outdoor Field Athlete of the Year, set the indoor long jump school record at the Missouri Collegiate Challenge (Feb. 16). Ward finished first in the long jump at last week's home meet, as the Tiger freshman recorded a jump of 7.97m (26-1.75) to set the school record, which surpassed Yussuf Alli's 1984 mark of 7.91m (25-11.75). The mark puts Ward in position to qualify for the NCAA Indoor Track & Field Championships, as it currently matches the fourth-best jump in the NCAA this season (top-16 marks qualify). Ward's mark is also tied for the best mark in the SEC this season, as Florida's Grant Holloway recorded an identical mark at the Razorback Invitational on Jan. 26.

» South Carolina

South Carolina sent a paired-down squad to the UCS Invitational in Winston-Salem, N.C., but those that competed did a fine job improving their stock before the start of post-season action. Yann Randrianasolo won the men's long jump, and his mark of 25-2 3/4 ranks fifth in Gamecock indoor history and 26th in the nation this season. On the women's side, Milan Parks earned the victory in the 60mH with a season-best time of 8.48. Two Gamecock pole-vaulters put forth their finest efforts in Winston-Salem; Armand Woodley finished second on the men's side; his vault of 16-10 3/4 is ninth in Carolina history and 50th nationally this season. On the women's side, Hailey Sweatman hit 13-5 1/4, the fourth-best Gamecock women's mark in history and the 35th-best effort nationally this season. Additional Gamecock to finish on the podium included Arinze Chance (400m), Funlayo Oluwole (60mH) and America Pennamon (60m). Carolina is set to compete at the SEC Indoor Championships this weekend in College Station, Texas.

» Tennessee

Tennessee competed on both the East Coast and the West Coast two weeks ago, which was the Big Orange's final week of competition before this month's SEC Championships. At Clemson's Tiger Paw Invite, Nathan Strother broke Gary Kikaya's 15-year-old Tennessee record in the 400 meters, clocking a career-best 45.56 that currently ranks fourth in the nation. Freshman thrower Jordan West broke Matthew Hoty's 2012 freshman record in the shot put, tossing a career-best 19.09 meters (62-7.75). Junior thrower Stamatia Scarvelis won the women's weight throw with a distance of 21.33 meters (69-11.75) and she remains the only woman who ranks in the top five nationally in both the shot put (third, 17.77 meters) and weight throw (fifth, 22.27 meters). Junior Kwantreyll McConico became the seventh Vol to crack 21 seconds in the indoor 200 meters, posting a time of 20.99 to finish fifth at the Tiger Paw Invite. Tennessee's relay squads posted season-best times. The UT men's 4x400 of Mustaqem Williams, McConico, Ari Cogdell and Strother clocked a 3:06.93 that ranks 11th in the nation. The UT women's 4x400 quartet of Brooklynn Broadwater, Shania Collins, Lenyssa Dyer and Felecia Majors posted a time of 3:32.90, which ranks ninth nationally.

» Texas A&M

Texas A&M hosted the Aggie Twilight to conclude the regular season portion of the indoor campaign. The Aggies will serve as host to the SEC Indoor Championships, Feb. 24-25, along with the NCAA Indoor Championships, March 9-10, at the Gilliam Indoor Track Stadium. It will be the fourth conference championship as well as the fourth national championship Texas A&M will host over the past 10 years in Gilliam. MEN – The Aggie distance medley relay posted the second fastest time in school history, running 9:32.99 at the Alex Wilson Invitational hosted by Notre Dame. The squad placed fourth in its section and ninth overall. In the Aggie Twilight Invitational, Garrett Cragin cleared 7-0 ¼ (2.14) to win the high jump with an indoor best, equaling the No. 7 performer on the Texas A&M all-time list. Austin Cook produced his fifth-best performance on the Aggie all-time list with a winning toss of 67-3 ¼ (20.50) in the weight throw. Freshman Kyree Johnson won the 400m with a career indoor best of 47.13 to finish ahead of teammate Bryce Deadmon, who clocked 47.29 as runner-up. Johnson is currently the fourth fastest freshman in the SEC and the top U.S. frosh in the conference. Audie Wyatt cleared 17-7 ¾ (5.38) to win the pole vault. Runner-up efforts included JaQwae Ellison (1:50.49) in the 800 and Tyler Guillory (7.98) in the 60m hurdles. WOMEN – Another school record fell in the distance medley relay as the same foursome that ran 11:12.06 in January improved by nearly nine full seconds with an 11:03.10 at Notre Dame's Alex Wilson Invitational. The quartet of Jazmine Fray (3:25.1), Glorilisha Carter (52.0), Brittany Parker (2:08.0) and Sammy Watson (4:38.0) finished seventh in the race. At the Aggie Twilight, Alison Ondrusek (65-2) and Celine Markert (50-4) registered wins in the weight throw and shot put, respectively. Valerie Bradley (4:56.17) and Ashton Hutcherson (4:58.53) finished 1-2 in the mile while Hannah Campbell led a crew of Aggies in the 800m with a winning time of 2:13.46. Taryn Milton claimed the women's 60m hurdles in 8.45 as Brenessa Thompson matched her season best of 7.38 to win the 60 and Diamond Spaulding won the 200m in 23.46 over teammate Amber Ivy (23.53). Karis Jochen won the 3,000m in 9:56.32 while Tyra Gittens cleared 5-7 ¾ to win the high jump.

» Vanderbilt

Six Commodores, including senior pole vaulter Sarah Bell, registered their top performances of the indoor season Saturday at the Music City Challenge held in the Vanderbilt Multipurpose Facility. Bell vaulted 13-3 (4.04 meters) on her second attempt. The clearance is Bell's top mark this winter and indicates the 2017 All-American is coming into the upcoming SEC Indoor Championships in solid form. Bell and her Commodore teammate Caleigh Lofstead, who also cleared 13-3, both had near-misses at 13-7.25 (4.15m). Freshman sprinter Sophia Falco and senior distance runner Megan Huebner provided the top Commodore performances on the track. Falco established a personal best and just missed the school record in the 60-meter dash. Falco's time of 7.65 is the second quickest ever by a Commodore, behind only a 7.64 achieved by Anna Carr-Hawkins in 2009. Huebner, who was among four Commodore student-athletes honored during Senior Day activities earlier in the day, took nine seconds off her 3,000-meter personal best. Huebner's sixth-place result in 9:41.57 just missed Vanderbilt's all-time top 10 performances at the distance. Two other 3,000-meter participants for the Commodores, Devon Grisbaum and Mailin Struck, also produced season best efforts of 9:56.03 and 9:58.98, respectively. Sprinter Jenn Ebodi, another Commodore recognized during Senior Day activities, matched a season best in the 400 meters with a clocking of 54.66. In other action on the track, Reagan Bustamante and Becca Schulte ran 2:10.56 and 2:10:85, respectively, in the 800. Schulte's effort also marked a season best. The Commodores are off next week preparing for the SEC Indoor Championships. The conference meet will be staged Feb. 24-25 at Texas A&M.
